UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

We have heard learned counsel appearing for the petitioner and the learned Solicitor General both on the delay as well as on merits.

We find no reason to interfere with the impugned order.

Learned counsel appearing for the petitioner insisted that there might be a breach of the undertaking given by the State which had been duly taken note of and recorded while disposing of the Writ Petition by the High Court.

This being a mere apprehension, the same cannot be a ground to challenge the impugned judgment before us.

If the petitioner has got any grievance with respect to any violation of the undertaking which has been taken note of by the High Court, his remedy lies elsewhere.

The Special Leave Petition is dismissed both on delay as well as on merits.

Pending application(s), if any, shall stand disposed of.
