

UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Having heard learned counsel for the petitioner-State and having perused the material placed on record, we find no reason to consider interference in the impugned order dated 28.06.2022 as passed by the High Court of Bombay at Goa in Writ Petition Nos.238 of 2022 and 1365 of 2022, for the order being precisely in conformity with the requirements of Article 243-E of the Constitution of India and with the decision of this Court in the case of Suresh Mahajan vs. State of M.P. : 2022 SCC OnLine SC 589.

Further, it has been noticed that in compliance of the impugned order, notification for election has already been issued by the petitioner-State on 30.06.2022. That being the position, we find no reason to interfere in the process of elections.

However, in the interest of justice, we deem it appropriate to observe that in case of any difficulty, it would be open for the State Election Commission to approach the High Court for necessary directions.

Subject to the observations foregoing, these Special Leave Petitions stand dismissed.

Pending applications also stand disposed of.
