I.A. 3850/2025 (Application under Order XXXIX Rules 1 and 2 CPC)

23. The present suit has been filed seeking perpetual and mandatory injunction restraining the defendants from infringement of plaintiff’s trademarks, passing off, unfair practices, costs, damages, delivery up, etc.

24. It is submitted that Moonshine Technology Private Limited, i.e. the plaintiff herein, is the parent company of the Baazi Group of Companies, which is a leading and pioneering name in the Indian gaming industry. Established in the year 2014, the Baazi Group, which comprises of inter alia the plaintiff, Baazi Networks Private Limited, Baazi Gaming Network Private Limited (owns the brand, Baazi Mobile Gaming), Baazi Games Private Limited (subsequent proprietor of the brand, RummyBaazi), SBN Gaming Network Private Limited and Ross Technology Private Limited, has been offering quality gaming products and experiences to its customers, across under the branding and trademarks inter alia BAAZI, BAAZI GAMES, BAAZI MOBILE GAMING, POKERBAAZI, BALLEBAAZI, SPORTSBAAZI, RUMMYBAAZI, CARDBAAZI and the label marks viz.

25. It is submitted that the plaintiff is a leading business in online gaming and related technology domain and is widely recognized and well-known for its products and services under the brand and trademarks, BAAZI. Apart from being a well-known brand, BAAZI also forms an integral part of the plaintiff's trading identity, corporate name and domain names ("BAAZI House of Mark"). The plaintiff honestly and originally adopted and has been using the mark BAAZI as its trademark, brand, trading identity and part of its corporate and domain names since the year 2014. Even in a short span, the plaintiff has accrued immense goodwill, reputation and popularity amongst customers, members in trade and public at large.

26. It is submitted that the products and services, primarily online real money games and fantasy sports, which are offered by the plaintiff under the BAAZI brand and trademarks, are well recognized by the public and highly preferred by the customers. Owing to its long, uninterrupted and extensive presence, superior quality and standards of the products and services, the plaintiff and the BAAZI Group are renowned and respected worldwide. The plaintiff and its group companies are associated with established and renowned associations including the All India Gaming Federation, FICCI etc.

27. It is submitted that the plaintiff and its group companies are conducting their business under the BAAZI trademarks in a progressive manner, resulting in growing brand value and consumer base and therefore, any use of the BAAZI trademarks in relation to inter alia gaming services and related products has come to be exclusively associated with the plaintiff. The immense reputation and goodwill accrued by the plaintiff under its well-known brand BAAZI can be gauged from the fact that the plaintiff has over 3,50,000 monthly active users across its different verticals. Plaintiff's flagship brand, PokerBaazi alone has received immense engagement on social media with over 2 million subscribers on its YouTube channel, over 4 lakh followers/subscribers on Meta platforms (Facebook and Instagram). On account of extensive, long and continuous use, the arbitrary and distinctive BAAZI trademarks are easily distinguished and associated by consumers, members of trade and public at large with the plaintiff alone. It is further submitted that, the brand and trademarks BAAZI are synonymous to the plaintiff's products and services. The plaintiff has been using the BAAZI trademarks since their adoption, continuously and extensively in the course of trade.

28. It is submitted that being wary of the immense reputation, goodwill and popularity enjoyed by the plaintiff and its products and services under the brand BAAZI, the plaintiff takes proactive and stern steps to safeguard the said rights and interests. Apart from the common law rights accruing in favour of the plaintiff with respect to its brand BAAZI, the plaintiff is also the rightful and registered proprietor of its various BAAZI trademarks, in respect of various classes of business interest, in India.

29. It is further submitted that the plaintiff is wary of its proprietary and exclusive rights associated with its intellectual properties and hence, takes all possible and plausible measures to protect its rights, title and interest including inter alia instituting suit proceedings, issuing cease and desist and take down notices. Furthermore, pertinently, the plaintiff's goodwill and reputation in its well-known brand and registered house mark, BAAZI has also been recognized by this Court in the commercial suit being CS(Comm) 331/2021, wherein, the Court enjoined third parties from using plaintiff's brand and registered trademark BAAZI in relation to inter alia gaming services.

30. It is submitted that for better brand management and enforcement of its intellectual property rights, the group companies viz. Baazi Networks Private Limited and SBN Gaming Network Private Limited, had assigned their respective marks in the name of the plaintiff vide Trademark Assignment Agreement dated 28th November, 2018. Pursuant to the said assignments, the plaintiff is the absolute and rightful owner and subsequent proprietor of the BAAZI House of Marks and their respective labels and formative marks. Similarly, the brands BalleBaazi and SportsBaazi, which relate to the BAAZI Group's fantasy sports vertical, are under the aegis of group company namely, Ross Technology Private Limited.

31. It is submitted that the trademark, BAAZI is synonymous to the Baazi Group and is closely and solely associated with the products and services offered by Baazi Group. It is submitted that the plaintiff enjoys enviable goodwill and reputation in the said brand and hence any imitation, unauthorized and illegal use of the brand and trademarks BAAZI is bound to dilute, erode, tarnish or disparage the said goodwill and reputation.

32. It is submitted that the instant suit proceeding is necessitated on account of flagrant violation of the plaintiff's exclusive and proprietary rights in the well-known brand and registered mark, BAAZI, by unauthorised and unscrupulous domain registrants and rogue website owners. It is submitted that besides committing serious cyber-squatting, these unidentifiable registrants are also employing bait and switch method to redirect the user traffic to their infringing and rogue websites/domains and are offering illegal gambling and betting services. In the instant proceedings, along with the unidentifiable registrants and the DNR, the plaintiff has also impleaded the Union of India, through its ministries and departments being Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Ministry of Electronics and Information Technology and the Department of Telecommunication, as proforma defendants, to assist and supervise with compliance of the orders and directions of this Court against the impleaded Registrants and DNRs.

33. It is submitted that the plaintiff has identified multiple Registrant defendants being defendant nos. 1 to 5, who are infringing the plaintiff's registered trademarks and are offering and promoting online betting and gambling services in India through the infringing domains/websites.

34. It is submitted that the DNR defendants, being defendant nos. 6 to 8, have also registered the various infringing domain names as given in the plaint and are managing the said domain names.

35. It is submitted that plaintiff's review divulged that the registrant defendants, being defendant nos. 1–5, are hosting illegal gambling and casino websites through and under the infringing domain name/branding. The said registrant defendants are diverting the plaintiff's customers and internet users at large, towards their websites with malafide intent to indulge the said customers and users in illegal activities.

36. It is submitted that the aforesaid registrant defendants are unidentified entities that have infringed upon the plaintiff's registered trademarks by incorporating them into their domain names/websites. The registrant defendants have registered the infringing domains with mala fide intent to deceive users into believing that these infringing websites are either owned by or associated with the plaintiff. Moreover, the websites hosted from the infringing domains create a false sense of legitimacy by using the plaintiff's trademark, causing harm to the plaintiff's well-established brand. Furthermore, they redirect users to their own sites that offer illegal betting and gambling activities.

37. It is submitted that to the best of plaintiff's knowledge, the aforesaid registrant defendants have no physical presence in India but are providing illegal services, under the infringing branding. It is submitted that the said defendants are promoting and offering prohibited casino, gambling and betting services in India, including, within the jurisdiction of this Court and are reaping undue benefit. It is submitted that with the help of plaintiff's immense goodwill and advanced SEO techniques, the Registrant defendants are able to divert substantial internet traffic onto their websites, causing serious harm, loss and injury to the plaintiff as also the unwary internet users.

38. It is further submitted that in collusion with the DNR defendants, the registrant defendants are indulging in serious offence of cyber-squatting. By offering infringing domains for sale, resale or at a premium pricing, the said defendants are reaping undue profits, more so, by causing serious loss and harm to the plaintiff's business, brand and reputation. It is submitted that the sole purpose of registering infringing domains is to defraud unwary customers and internet users. Furthermore, defendant nos. 1 to 5 are offering online gambling and betting services under the infringing branding and domain name, associating the said illegal activities with the plaintiff. The dishonesty of the said defendants is writ large from the facts that the defendants have masked/not disclosed their crucial details in the domain name WHOIS as well as on their websites. It is submitted that the said and other such defendants would continue to defraud internet users and cause serious loss of revenue and reputation, largely irreparable, to the plaintiff, unless restrained urgently and immediately by this Court.

39. It is submitted that the defendant nos. 1 to 8 are causing serious loss of business and reputation to the plaintiff. On account of such infringing activities by the defendants, the plaintiff's immense brand value and image is bound to suffer irreparably, which in turn would also gravely impact the larger consumer interest. It is further submitted that online gaming is a highly regulated domain in India and any illegal or unfair act committed by the defendants under the plaintiff's branding, BAAZI, is bound to cause adverse impact on the plaintiff's business, goodwill, reputation and brand value. It is submitted that the unauthorized adoption and illegal use of the plaintiff's brand and trademarks by the said defendants is patently illegal, unfair and amounts to unfair business practices.

40. It is submitted that the DNR defendants have permitted the purchase of infringing domain names by Registrant defendants and other Registrants of the domain names as mentioned in the plaint. It is pertinent to note that besides selling the infringing domain names to the unscrupulous and unidentified registrants, the DNRs are offering privacy protection as part of their services, often bundled with the domain name purchase. It is submitted that the DNRs play crucial role in management of domain names and hence, exercise significant control on the creation, management and use of the domain names. It is, therefore, submitted that the plaintiff is seeking similar and common relief against each of the defendants including the DNR defendants and hence, has jointly impleaded in this proceeding. It is further submitted that despite the plaintiff's best efforts, the registrant defendants remain unidentified and hence, the DNR defendants are also necessary to ensure effective execution of the orders and directions of this Court. The plaintiff has further craved leave to amend the plaint and memo of parties with additional contact details of the Registrant defendants, upon disclosure of the WHOIS details by the DNR defendants during the course of the proceedings.

41. It is submitted that the defendant nos. 1 to 8 are riding upon the plaintiff's immense goodwill and reputation associated with the well-known brand and registered house mark, BAAZI, more so, to target Indian gaming population. Further, the defendants, though having no establishment in India, are offering gambling and betting services under the infringing branding, which is bound to cause serious loss of revenue and reputation to the plaintiff. Furthermore, the defendants are offering online casino, gambling and betting services in India, in utter defiance of Indian laws. It is apparent that the Registrant defendants are trying to springboard their gambling and betting platforms in India by blatantly misusing the plaintiff's well-known brand and registered trademark, BAAZI. On account of the plaintiff's enormous goodwill, outreach and reputation, it is inevitable that the Indian as well as international players and internet users would be confused as to the source of such illegal gambling and betting platform.

42. It is submitted that the intention of the defendant nos. 1 to 8 is to leverage the reputation of the plaintiff's well-known brand and registered marks, for making unlawful gains. It is submitted that the Registrant defendants' illegal gambling activities are not only harming the plaintiff's business, goodwill and reputation but are also causing serious crime against the numerous unwary customers and the public at large. In light of the above, it is evident that the defendants' registration of the infringing domain names is dishonest and has been obtained with the ulterior motive to usurp the immense goodwill and reputation associated with the plaintiff's brand and registered trademark BAAZI and to play a serious fraud on the public at large.

43. It is submitted that on account of this illegal adoption and unauthorized use of the plaintiff's well-known brand and registered house mark, BAAZI, the defendant nos. 1 to 8 are causing actual public confusion in India, and globally. The misuse of plaintiff's registered marks by the defendants is gravely diluting the distinctiveness, brand image and value of the plaintiff's brand. It is submitted that the plaintiff has created the said distinctiveness and reputation in the brand, BAAZI, by humungous efforts and through significant investments.

44. It is submitted by the learned Senior Counsel for the plaintiff that the cause of action first arose in and around first week of January, 2025, when the plaintiff came across several domain names and websites offering gambling and betting services under the infringing branding and deceptive identity. It is submitted that the defendant nos. 1 to 8 are actively managing and using the infringing domain names, including by offering illegal gambling and betting services, causing continuous and flagrant violation of the plaintiff's exclusive rights in the registered house mark, BAAZI. It is submitted further that the plaintiff is suffering grave loss, harm and injury on a daily basis on account of the said defendants' infringing activities, which would significantly reduce upon grant of inter alia injunctive relief to the plaintiff by this Court.

45. Learned Senior Counsel appearing for the plaintiff has drawn the attention of this Court to various websites being operated by defendant nos. 1 to 5, thereby infringing the registered trademark of the plaintiff.

46. Attention of this Court is drawn to the webpage of defendant no. 6/GoDaddy, wherein, defendant no. 6 is offering for sale similar domain names as that of the plaintiff.

47. Learned Senior Counsel appearing for the plaintiff submits that defendant no. 6/GoDaddy is offering similar domain names as that of the registered domain names of the plaintiff and, he further points out that GoDaddy is the same Domain Name Registrant, who has registered the domain name of the plaintiff.

48. Attention of this Court has also been drawn to the order dated 2nd June, 2022 passed in CS(COMM)135/2022, Dabur India Limited versus Ashok Kumar and Ors., in particular to Paras 13 and 14, as follows:

“xxx xxx xxx

13. In CS(COMM) 135/2022, vide the order dated 3rd March, 2022, after a detailed hearing, it was noted that there were various domain names and websites, which were operating with the name DABUR such as www.daburdistributor.com, & <https://daburdistributorships.in>. Monies were being collected from vulnerable customers through the said websites, and therefore, the following order was passed:

“23. In order to curb any malpractice or any monetary harm to the public as also to the franchisees and distributors who may pay monies to the websites, and to protect the Plaintiff's rights in various intellectual properties, which are being violated on the websites of the Defendants, this Court directs as under:

XXX XXX XXX

14. As is evident from the aforementioned direction no.2, the DoT and MEITY were directed to block the said fraudulent websites. In addition, a direction was issued in the following terms:

“25. Further, this Court notices that the practice of hiding or masking the details of the Registrants who hold domain names is increasingly resorted to by persons who register such domains which impinge upon owners of trademarks and names. Such Registrants seek to enjoy domain name registrations and host websites, in a concealed or a hidden manner, without disclosure of their identity. The domain names are used to the exclusion of the whole world including the trademark owner. Whenever any person or entity registers a mark, name, company, firm etc., the identity of such person is openly available. However, in the case of domain names, this is not so. It appears that disabling of privacy protect feature may be essential to ensure that the identity of the persons registering domain names is clearly visible on the <https://www.whois.com> database, as also other such databases. Accordingly, the Defendant Nos. 2 and 3 to also disclose their stand in respect of privacy protect features, provided by domain name Registrars to their Registrants. Let the affidavit on behalf of the Defendant Nos.2 & 3 be filed one week before the next date.”

XXX XXX XXX”

49. By referring to the aforesaid order, learned Senior Counsel appearing for the plaintiff submits that this Court has taken into consideration that steps need to be taken to curb the malpractices and monetary harm to the public and also, to protect the rights of the plaintiff in its various intellectual properties.

50. Thus, he submits that in the present case also similar orders are required to be issued against the defendants.

51. Attention of this Court has also been drawn to the advisories issued by the Government of India from time to time, in particular, to the advisory dated 4th December, 2020, and to a recent advisory dated 21st March, 2024, issued by the Ministry of Information and Broadcasting, Government of India, relevant portions of which, are reproduced, as under:
