MAIN CASE No: Writ Appeal No.161 of 2026

PROCEEDING SHEET

S. No.	DATE	ORDER	OFFICE NOTE
1.	11.02.2026	HCJ (AKrS,J) & GMM, J Mr. S.Sridhar, learned counsel appears for the appellant (writ petitioner). Mr. Mahesh Raje, learned Government Pleader for Home appears for the respondents. The issue in the present Writ Appeal is concerning the residence of the appellant in the city of Hyderabad in India, in the absence of a long term visa, which has led to domiciliary visits to his residence by the authorities of Special Branch Police dealing with the cases of Pakistani nationals (respondent No.3). Appellant claims to be born in India after his mother shifted to India, due to marital discord and torture by her Pakistani husband, with a Pakistani passport, which reflects the name of the appellant. His mother has been extending the long term visa thereafter from time to time and again applied for long term visa in July, 2025. According to the appellant, his mother was originally an Indian citizen and after divorce from her Pakistani husband, she remarried an Indian citizen. After remarriage, another son has been born all of whom are staying in India. Appellant has never applied for long term visit nor applied for any Indian Passport. In this background, his continuance in India, being illegal, has been pursued by the Special Branch Police dealing with the cases of Pakistani nationals. Appellant filed Writ Petition No.25501 of 2025, wherein he had sought for action against respondent No.3	Note: Transferred to (i/o) folder before corrections, if any. B/o lur for undertaking domiciliary visits and protection from the initiation of prosecution against him. Learned writ court declined to interfere in the Writ Petition. Hence, he filed the instant Writ Appeal. Learned counsel for the appellant submits that the appellant is born in India and since then, he stayed in India and has undertaken his studies. He has documents like Aadhar Card, Voter ID, Pan Card, Driving License and School Certificates in his favour, but not an Indian passport. Appellant wants to continue in India as an Indian citizen but has not applied for Indian passport or long term visa. In this factual background, learned counsel for the appellant seeks to implead the passport authorities as party respondent to the instant Writ Appeal. Permission is allowed. After impleading the passport authorities, a copy of the Writ Appeal along with annexures be served upon Mr. N.Bhujanga Rao, learned Deputy Solicitor General of India (DSGI) by 13.02.2026. Let the name of learned DSGI be reflected in the cause list. Let the matter appear on 24.02.2026. In the meantime, both the learned Government Pleader for Home and learned DSGI may seek instructions on this issue. HCJ (AKrS,J) GMM, J LUR
