ABOUT RATIO ET ORATIO

The Ratio et Oratio: National Level Legal Debate Competition, 2026 is a premier undergraduate competition organized by the VITSOL Debate Society, VIT School of Law, VIT Chennai. Designed to cultivate rigorous argumentation, reasoned dialogue, and ethical persuasion, the competition adopts the innovative debating Format, an evolution of classical Mace-style debating infused with structural clarity, analytical depth, and competitive fairness.

RATIO ET ORATIO.

Ratio, si non Oratio suppetit æquè:
terà par brutis iam fit asellus homo.

Red und Vernunfft dem Menschen nim̄,
Zum Esel spann, zeucht gleich mit ihm.

FORMAT OF RATIO ET ORATIO

The Ratio et Oratio Format is a unique hybrid design inspired by classical Mace debating. It consists of uninterrupted speeches, a silent reflection window, structured rebuttals, and a joint team synthesis. The aim is to promote clarity, reasoned persuasion, and collaborative closing analysis.

Each debate features two teams, each with two speakers. The sides are: Proposition (For the Motion) and Opposition (Against the Motion).

No interjections, Point of Information's (POIs), crossfires, or judge involvement occur during speaking time.

The debate proceeds in five phases:

1. Opening Constructives (10 mins)

- Proposition Speaker 1 presents the case framework and primary arguments. (5 mins)
- Opposition Speaker 1 responds with counter-framework and direct clash. (5 mins)

2. Analytical Development (10 mins)

- Proposition Speaker 2 extends the case, answers objections, and deepens analysis. (5 mins)
- Opposition Speaker 2 expands the counter-case and dismantles the Proposition's claims. (5 mins)

3. Silent Reflection Window (2 mins)

Both teams sit silently while judges take structured notes. No communication is allowed between team members during this interval. This encourages clarity and well-developed arguments earlier on.

4. The Rebuttal Arc (8 mins)

Each speaker gives a short rebuttal speech in reverse order of original speaking:

1. Opposition Speaker 2 (2 mins)
2. Proposition Speaker 2 (2 mins)
3. Opposition Speaker 1 (2 mins)
4. Proposition Speaker 1 (2 mins)

These are crisp and focused, creating four sequential layers of clash.

5. Synthesis Statements (3 mins)

Each team gives one combined 90-second synthesis statement, delivered jointly by both speakers standing together.

They cannot introduce new arguments but may present:

- strategic weighting,
- comparative analysis,
- the “why we win” narrative.

This final joint articulation is the signature element of the format.
