RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW, PUNJAB

ABOUT THE UNIVERSITY

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, to fulfil the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization. Recently the University has earned the coveted status of being one of the top-ranking law teaching institutions in the Country. Over 1000 students acquire state of art legal education in a well- furnished and fully developed residential campus which boasts of all necessary infrastructural and manpower facilities for the all-around growth of the students. RGNUL is currently emphasizing research, training, and consultancy in various areas of contemporary interest. It is envisaged to be a research-intensive university in the times to come. It has as many as 19 centers focusing on various areas of social-legal inquiries which includes the Centre for Business Law and Taxation (CBLT). RGNUL publishes 05 journals covering a vast range of subjects of topical interest.

ABOUT CBLT

The Centre for Business Laws and Taxation (CBLT) is one of the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab's flagship centre. The Centre aims to further its objective of bridging the gap between the theory and practice of corporate law. It is established to promote comparative research and discussion in the field of corporate law. It focuses on analyzing current policy approaches in various areas of corporate laws such as corporate governance, insolvency law, mergers and acquisitions, taxation, etc. It plans to streamline the process of learning through academic courses, programs, and publications. It also focuses on identifying the gaps existing between industry and academia by effective joint research. The Centre follows a multi-disciplinary approach to recognizing problems in the field of corporate laws and endeavors to engage in dialogue to facilitate changes in it. It is based on the objective of establishing a culture of discussion on corporate laws in the country by educating the next generation of lawyers and law students.

ABOUT THE COURSE

The landscape of corporate law has been changing and has even undergone a sea change during the last few decades. Varied issues in the corporate law domain including insolvency resolution of companies, private equity and venture capital, mergers and amalgamation deals, trends in capital markets etc have sprung up and corporate lawyers had to confront ever-changing corporate world regulations. To cope with such issues, the legal framework has also undergone amendments and enactment of new laws, rules, and regulations. Further, there is a wide gulf between law in theory and law in practice. Keeping this in mind, the certificate course series on business laws and practice has been structured with the objective of analysing the current legal issues in the field of corporate litigation by identifying the lacunas existing in corporate law so as to benefit law students and young professionals who understand the nuances of corporate practice. This year, the certificate course's eighth edition will cover various topics of contemporary importance such as White-Collar crimes, Intellectual Property Rights, Competition Law, Banking Law, Indirect Taxes and Project Finance and Energy Infra amongst others.

OBJECTIVES OF THE COURSE

- To acquaint learners with the practical aspects of various business laws;
- To prepare learners for careers in corporate legal departments, law firms, and regulatory agencies;
