ORDER Heard Advocate for plaintiff perused the plaint, IA No. 1 and documents filed with the suit. The plaintiff has filed the suit for permanent injunction. The plaintiff has filed I.A. No. 1 under Order 39 Rule 1& 2 of CPC seeking exparte temporary injunction order against defendants etc restraining them from telecasting, transmitting, publishing , distributing, sharing any material in any permanent, transient, audio format in any kind of media anything false malicious , defamatory, derogatory, news concerning to film &Ustaad Bhagat Singh& either prior or after its release. The defendant No.9 is shown as John Doe @ Ashok Kumar. In judgment of Hon'ble High Court of Karnataka in MFA 806/2022 in Meera Ajith Vs John Doe @ Ashok Kumar, wherein the court ruled that an injunction could be granted against unknown persons if there is a genuine threat to the plaintiff and a prima facie case is made out. The court emphasized that the right to anonymous actions (in this context, illegal interference) is not absolute and can be overridden by the need to protect a person's property rights. This case is a notable example in Indian law regarding the application of John Doe orders for property protection, not just intellectual property matters. On perusal of all the documents produced by the plaintiff , I found that there is a prima facie case in favor of the plaintiff , the balance of convenience lies in favor of plaintiff. If the T.I is not granted the very purpose of filing this suit will be defeated and it may amounts to multiplicity of proceedings. Therefore, without allowing the IA No. 1 as interim measure for the limited period T.I can be granted on certain conditions. Hence, Issue exparte temporary injunction order against defendants etc restraining them from telecasting, transmitting, publishing , distributing, sharing any material in any permanent, transient, audio format in any kind of media anything false malicious , defamatory, derogatory, news concerning to film &Ustaad Bhagat Singh& prior its theatrical release. This temporary injunction Order shall remain in force only till next date of hearing, the plaintiff shall comply Order 39 Rule 3 A of CPC immediately. The plaintiff shall furnish sufficient numbers of copies of plaint, documents and IA, plaintiff shall pay the adequate process fee for service of summons and T.I Order to the defendants. The plaintiff shall cooperate with the Court to dispose of the IA No. 1 within 30 days of appearance of any one of the defendants. This order cannot be used for any other purpose except for which it is granted. If the plaintiff fails to abide by conditions imposed above, the T.I granted shall stands vacated without any further notice. Office is directed not to issue	SUMMONS	27-04-2026
