1. Introduction

1.1 Confirmation Case No.2 of 2022 is arising out of judgment dated 18.02.2022 by Additional Sessions Judge (Special Designated Judge for Speedy Trial of Serial Bomb Blast Cases) in Sessions Case No.38/2009 and others. The trial was conducted for several sessions cases clubbed together. Each of the Sessions Case arose from several charge-sheets filed after due investigation in connection with several FIRs registered at various Police stations both at Ahmedabad and Surat. The details of each are given at the relevant place in the judgment. Suffice it to mention here that 20 FIRs were registered in Ahmedabad on account of Serial Blasts at various locations under the respective Police stations, whereas 15 FIRs were registered for planting bombs at various locations within Surat city under several jurisdiction of separate Police stations. The bombs/explosives planted in Surat had remained unexploded.

1.2 The series of lethal explosions that took place in quick succession in a span of few hours is an outcome of planning and execution which was over a period, connected through a series of Training camps and meetings. These serial Blasts and Planting were a part of conspiracy hatched, which in itself is a part of yet larger conspiracy hatched to set such serial Blasts in various parts of the Country almost simultaneously, to cripple the Nation in every possible manner.

1.3 The Court may take note of the fact that indeed in a proximate period, the Nation witnessed similar type of serial Blasts, be it in Jaipur, Bangalore, Mumbai or Kolkata. Therefore, the incident of serial Blasts in Ahmedabad and planting of explosives is a result of conspiracy which in turn is a part of larger conspiracy.

1.4 It is the case of the State that the accused persons believed that the Muslims had suffered loss of lives and damage to properties as an aftermath of the Riots in Gujarat, following the incident of Sabarmati Train Burning known as Godhra Riots. Moreover, due to demolition of Babri Masjid and such other incidents, the accused had intention to take revenge and therefore, got together under the aegis of the banned organization SIMI.

1.5 The accused organized and got together at Vagamon in Kerala, in December, 2007, where the group of accused were imparted with physical and weapon training and, through lectures/debates, indoctrinated with the idea of 'Jihad', not only to take revenge, but also to establish Islamic Rule in India and for that purpose, to resort to terrorist attacks on the general public, including mass killings.

1.6 The Terror camp at Vagamon was registered as R.C.

No.4/2010 NIA/DLI and was tried by the Special NIA Court at Ernakulam vide S.C. No.2/2011/NIA (Exh.9421), which resulted in conviction of several accused, who are also accused herein. Some of the accused tried herein have also been acquitted by Special NIA Court.

1.7 The second in sequence is the 'terror camp' in the forest of Pavagadh in Halol in Gujarat in January, 2008. Here also, there was physical and weapon training and also training in bomb-making. In this camp also, there were religious speeches inciting sentiments (Takrir) to get revenge for the losses suffered by Muslims and also to establish Islamic rule. To achieve this objective, it was decided to spread Anarchy by attacking public at large of Hindu community to achieve objective of Jihad.

1.8 Therefore, the accused persons belonging to different State and cities of M.P., U.P., Maharashtra, Karnataka, Gujarat had gathered at same time to attend these camps. They traveled together through public and private modes of transport and preparation was made to stay at selected and isolated spots both at Vagamon and Pavagadh for their designed activities.

1.9 Once having conspired and decided to achieve this common object to cause large-scale deaths and injuries to the Hindu community, and of damaging Government, public and private properties thereby terrorizing the citizens, the accused, at this stage of execution, identified Ahmedabad, Baroda and Surat to be the places to cause serial blasts.

1.10 Accordingly, series of meetings were conducted with different work being assigned to different accused i.e. (a) to identify rented premises for the meetings, (b) to procure articles like metals, nuts, ball-bearings, nails, bags, cycles, vehicles like car to be used for planting and causing explosion, (c) to identify crowded places by recce to plant such bombs, (d) to procure articles for assembling bombs like alarm clocks, circuits, wire, wooden planks etc. (e) to assemble the bomb, (f) to transfer the bombs in a camouflaged manner for planting, and (g) to actually plant the bombs. Therefore, the accused persons worked in unison, responsible for their own task.

1.11 To enhance the impact, the accused selected the place of explosions at two Government Hospitals as places for explosions and planted bombs with high explosives, including LPG cylinders, in a car stolen from Mumbai. In order to cover up their tracks/lead and mislead the investigation, the accused changed the registered number of the vehicle. The explosion at the hospital was timed and the vehicle was parked near the Trauma centre to cause maximum damage. The timing of the explosion at Government Hospital almost coincided with the time of arrival of injured persons from other blasts being brought to the Hospital in ambulances and, in fact, the explosion took place as planned, thereby affecting treatment facilities available to the injured of the other blasts which had occurred in other parts of the city.

1.12 Even in Puna Hospital, two cars packed with bomb and explosives were parked near the Hospital; one opposite to Puna General Hospital and the other at Baroda Prestige below Doctor House, where the bomb did not explode and four live bombs were recovered from these two places, making the intention of the accused very clear.

1.13 From the investigation papers, the Court has found that the Surat Bombs did not explode due to faulty mechanism, due to which from the battery source, sufficient current did not carry to ignite the detonator, leading to recovery of bombs in un-exploded condition from various hidden locations within Surat between 27-07-2008 to 09-08-2008. The resultant effect is gruesome murder of 56 citizens completely innocent and clueless about such an attack and 240 citizens seriously injured carrying the fear and scar for rest of the life, along with damage to public, Government and private property and thereby throwing the City and the State completely out of gear for several weeks, if not months together, creating a permanent fear in the heart of the citizens only made to suffer on religious grounds. It is with great restraint that the Court has to but-observe, it is not a mere coincidence that the deceased persons belonged to Hindu religion.

1.14 In the present trial, therefore, 547 number of Sessions cases were jointly tried, wherein 78 accused persons (along with 2 deceased accused) were charged, out of whom 28 accused persons and one approver was acquitted after being tendered pardoned, whereas 49 accused persons were convicted, of whom 38 were awarded capital punishment and 11 were sentenced to imprisonment for life.

1.15 Hearing on confirmation was commenced by learned Additional Advocate General with the assistance of learned Special Counsel; Shri Amit Patel with the reading of charge framed vide Exh-32 and also vide Exh-122. The Court has dealt with separately the issue of framing of two charges vide Exh-32 and Exh-122 respectively considering the orders passed under applications made by both the prosecution and the defence for consolidating the trial in connection with all the FIRs registered at Ahmedabad and Surat under Sessions Case No.38 of 2009, 547 Sessions Cases were consolidated.

1.16 It is submitted that first charge was vide Exh-32 pertaining to Ahmedabad blast, whereas second charge was Exh-122 pertaining to both the FIRs of Ahmedabad and Surat. 64 accused were charged vide Exh-122, whereas 34 accused were absconding and subsequent charges were framed as and when absconding accused came to be arrested during subsequent period. Accordingly, Exh-799 is the charge framed against Accused Nos.65, 66, 67 and 68.

Exh-956 is the charge framed against Accused Nos.69 and 70.

Exh-1300 is the charge framed against Accused No.71.

Exh-1847 is the charge framed against Accused No.72.

Exh-1935 is the charge framed against Accused No.73, 74.

Exh-6944 is the charge framed against Accused No.75.

Exh-7245 is the charge framed against Accused Nos.76, 77 and 78.

However, learned Additional Advocate General has focused on the charge bearing Exh-122, which according to the prosecution is complete charge.

1.17 Attention is drawn of this Court to the order passed by Hon'ble Supreme Court in the petition preferred after first charge came to be framed on 11-01-2010 for the purpose of transferring of the trial from Gujarat against 62 accused, which initially were the proceedings before Special Designated Court, was stayed, but stay subsequently came to be vacated and in this connection, reference was made to the decision of Hon'ble Apex Court in case of Jahid Shaikh & Ors. v/s. State of Gujarat & Anr. reported in 2011 (7) SCC 762.

1.18 At the stage, when first charge was framed on 11-01-2010 against 62 accused persons, the petition came to be filed before the Apex Court for transfer of the trial out of Gujarat and initially, by order dated 15.02.2010, proceedings were stayed. Later on in the judgment reported in 2011 (7) SCC 762, the petition filed by the Defence before the Hon'ble Apex Court came to be rejected making clear for the Special Designated Court to proceed ahead with the trial. In Para-42, Hon'ble Apex Court has held that the allegations made on the basis of which the transfer was sought outside State of Gujarat were more speculative then real. However, an option was kept open that in future, during the course of the trial, in case an apprehension raised by the defence, would prove to be real during the course of the trial, then they would be entitled to move afresh application before Hon'ble Apex Court with a relief to transfer the trial. However, there does not appear to be anything on record to indicate that subsequently any grievance was raised with regard to the conduct of trial or apprehension voiced by the defence on the basis of which transfer of trial was sought at any stage later on.

The entire day to day proceedings are recorded in the 'order sheet'.

1A. Confirmation Cases: Statutory Provisions, Procedure, Scope of High Court

1.27 Death penalty as a form of punishment has been a subject of constant discussion. Although many countries have abolished death penalty as a sentence, it continues to be a statutorily valid form of punishment in India. The 35th report of the Law Commission in the year 1967 dealt with the question on whether death penalty should be retained as a punishment which was answered in the affirmative. The 187th Law Commission Report in the year 2003, addressed the procedural flaws in imposing the death penalty however, it was not abolished. The 262nd Law Commission Report in the year 2016 advocated for abolishment of death penalty for all offences except terrorism related offences. However, such recommendations have not been adopted by the Legislature. Moreover, the Criminal Law (Amendment) Act, 2018 had introduced death penalty as a punishment for certain offenses such as, rape of a female under the age of 12 years.

1.28 It is to be noted that "Safeguards guaranteeing protection of the rights of those facing the death penalty" were approved by Economic and Social Council resolution 1984/50 of 25 May 1984. Among the many safeguards provided, one such safeguard was that "In countries which have not abolished the death penalty, capital punishment may be imposed only for the most serious crimes, it being understood that their scope should not go beyond intentional crimes with lethal or other extremely grave consequences." However, the application of death penalty in India is governed by the 'rarest of the rare' doctrine as laid down in the case of Bachan Singh v. State of Punjab [1982 (3) SCC 24]. Various legislations such as, The Indian Penal Code, 1860 (Bharatiya Nyay Sanhita, 2023), Unlawful Activities Prevention Act, 1967, Arms Act, 1959, etc are substantive laws which lay down death penalty as a form of punishment. However, the power to impose the death penalty is laid down by the Code of Criminal Procedure, 1973 (Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, 2023). Section 28 of the CrPC (Section 22 BNSS) provides that the High Court may pass any sentence authorised by law and that the Sessions Judge and Additional Sessions Judge may pass any sentence authorised by law which is subject to confirmation by the High Court. Hence, it appears that a restriction on the power of the Court of Session has been put by way of confirmation by the High Court. Additionally, another limitation has been put by Section 354 of CrPC (Section 393 of BNSS), wherein in the judgment by which such death penalty is imposed, special reasons for awarding such a sentence are to be mentioned.

Procedure of Confirmation by High Court:

1.29 The submission for confirmation by the High Court of the death sentence passed by the Court of Session is provided for under Chapter XXVIII of IPC (Chapter XXX of BNSS) particularly, Section 366 to Section 371 CrPC (Section 407 to Section 412 BNSS).

1.30 Under Section 366 CrPC (Section 407 BNSS) a sentence of death penalty passed by the Court of Session shall be submitted to the High Court and cannot be executed unless it is confirmed by it. The submission to the High Court for confirmation of the sentence is mandatory even in cases where the accused has not preferred an appeal against the judgment. Further, this section provides that such a person who has been sentenced to death penalty shall commit the convicted person to jail custody under a warrant.

1.31 Upon looking at this section, it thus appears that a judgment of a trial court cannot be executed unless confirmed by a higher forum which ensures safeguards against any arbitrary sentence that might have been passed.

1.32 Further, upon looking at Section 407 of BNSS it appears that the word 'shall be submitted to High Court' has been replaced with 'shall forthwith be submitted to High Court' which ensures that there is no inordinate delay in such cases as such a sentence often results in mental agony to the convicted person.

1.33 Further, Section 367 CrPC (Section 408 BNSS) empowers the High Court to make a further inquiry or to take such additional evidence which is bearing upon the guilt or innocence of the convicted person or can direct to make such an inquiry or take additional evidence.

This ensures that any facts or evidence which might have been left out inadvertently or any such facts or evidence which have newly come to light can be considered in order to arrive at a just decision.

1.34 Further, Section 368 CrPC (Section 409 BNSS) provides for the power of the High Court in cases which have been submitted to it under Section 366 CrPC (Section 407 BNSS), namely:

i) It may confirm the sentence, or

ii) It may pass any other sentence which is warranted by law, or

iii) It may annul the conviction and convict the accused of any offence of which the Court of Session might have convicted him, or

iv) It may order a new trial on the same or an amended charge, or

v) It may acquit the accused person.

1.35 Hence, it appears that the High Court is not bound by the view of the Sessions Court and is free to come upon a conclusion after reappraisal and reassessment of the entire facts and law so as to satisfy itself beyond reasonable doubt that a case has been made out against the accused persons so as to justify the infliction of a death penalty.

1.36 Further, upon looking at the proviso to Section 368 CrPC (Section 409 BNSS), it appears that no order of confirmation shall be made under this section until the period allowed for preferring an appeal has expired, or, if an appeal is presented within such period, until such appeal is disposed of. However, in the case of Emperor vs Narayan Ramchandra Jarag reported in (1948) 50 BOMLR 151 the Court has observed as under:

"The powers of the High Court in dealing with confirmation cases under this section are not affected by the provisions of S. 386 of the Code. The fact that an appeal has been referred by the accused cannot affect the exercise of those powers. It would make no difference even if the appeal preferred by the accused is technically heard before the final orders are passed in the confirmation case. Where both the confirmation case and the appeal arise from the same order of conviction, the uniform practice of the High Court has been to hear both the confirmation case and the appeal preferred by the accused together and to deal with the merits of the case on the basis that all material questions of fact and law can be agitated by the accused. This practice is fully justified by the provisions of the Criminal Procedural Code, 1973."

1.37 Further, Section 369 CrPC (Section 410 BNSS) provides that such confirmation or any new sentence passed by the High Court shall be made, passed and signed by at least 2 judges.

1.38 Thereafter, Section 371 CrPC (Section 412 BNSS) provides that such order of confirmation or any other order made by the High Court, the proper officer of the High Court shall without delay send a copy of order under the seal of the High Court and attested with his official signature to the Court of Session. Hence, upon reading this Section along with Section 413 of CrPC, it appears that the Court of Session is the executing court for effecting such orders passed by the High Court under Section 368 CrPC (Section 409 BNSS).

the bomb blasts occurred in Ahmedabad City. At that time, at about 11-15 am information was received that one device like radio is lying in unclaimed condition near the road opposite Nupur Hospital, City Light Road. Therefore, upon examining into the grass of the road divider, one crescent moon-shaped article like box fitted with cello tape from all the four sides with edges of the wire left outside of it. As the said article was a bomb, the complainant had immediately diffused the bomb and took away to a safe place in the open compound situated on the left side of Umara Police Station so that the safety of general public is not put at risk and the higher officers were informed in this regard. The bomb disposal squad was called on the site and two panchas were called at the site at Umara Police Station and in their presence, the Scientific Officer Shri N.D. The head of the bomb disposal team cut the cello tape and separated the battery and cut the packing material from its middle portion. The content of the said articles were described with detonating cap. Some nails have been fixed on the vulcanized sheet on the wooden structure. two holes in the wooden structure, from which two different wires of detonators are coming out. In the crescent shaped structure of the bomb, with the use of cello tape, 9 volt battery with wire cap has been affixed and near that, by using the cello tape, microchip I.C. with wire is fitted. Its wire was attached to the battery and detonator. These wires were diffused by the team members of BDS and after separating the battery and microchip, after cutting the cello tape and pulling it out for opening, there appeared to be fitting with galvanized tin sheet fixed with nails. Upon opening that bent tin sheet, in the internal portion thereof, there were pellets mixed with oil in plastic bag and below it, inside of the newspaper, in the plastic bag, there was light yellow-coloured jelly like sticky material, wherein two different detonators with wires were kept and their edges were brought out through the holes made in the wooden frame for attaching them with the battery and wire of microchip. Upon looking into the newspaper, it is Gujarat Samachar dated 25/05/2008 of Vadodara Edition. The said bomb was ANFO hand-made live bomb as stated by the scientific officer. Nature of injury: The medical evidence indicates that the deceased sustained catastrophic blast injuries characterized by traumatic mutilation and extensive tissue destruction. Notable injuries include the complete destruction of the right eye and eyeball, deep lacerations to the chest and elbow, and severe "traumatic mutilation" of the forearm and both legs. the presence of irregular margins, reddish-black discoloration (blackening), and exposed bone in the calf and elbow regions are consistent with a high-impact blast. Collectively, these punctured and lacerated wounds, ranging from muscle-deep to bone-deep, reflect a violent and fatal mechanical trauma across the entire body.

muscle and vascular damage. Most critically, an 8x6 cm irregular laceration was identified in the right popliteal region (back of the knee), which contained a metallic foreign body and resulted in severed blood vessels. Additionally, a 6x3 cm irregular lacerated wound was recorded on the posterior aspect of the left leg.

Nature of injury: The deceased sustained extensive traumatic injuries primarily concentrated on the posterior torso and lower back. Significant findings include a 7x7 cm irregular laceration on the right posterior chest, medial to the scapula, which was associated with an underlying rib fracture. The back and trunk exhibited multiple lacerated wounds with inverted margins, ranging in size from 0.5 cm to 2 cm, characterized by surrounding abrasions and thermal burns. Further injuries include a 5x3 cm vertical laceration adjacent to the lumbar spine and a 3x3 cm muscle-deep laceration on the left buttock, from which two irregular metallic fragments were recovered. additionally, a 2x2 cm laceration was noted inferior to the coccyx, alongside multiple scattered lacerations across the body varying in size from 1x1 cm to 5x5 cm.

corresponding inquest report at Exh.1193 pw. no.40 Dr. Manish Chimanlal Sutaria at Exh.656 performed the postmortem of the deceased namely; Jashvantbhai Ranchhodbhai Patel.

Nature of injury: The deceased sustained a constellation of severe injuries involving thermal, blunt force, and penetrating trauma. most notably, the individual suffered second-to-third-degree burns across the left upper limb and posterior thoracic region (back of the left chest). Evidence of high-energy impact is noted by a 10x8 cm open lacerated wound associated with a fracture of the ulna just below the elbow, alongside significant craniofacial trauma in the form of a 10x7 cm temporal abrasion of particular forensic significance are the multiple small lacerated wounds with inverted margins located on the lumbar region, and a 7x3 cm transverse lacerated wound on the left buttock. The latter involved deep tissue penetration, evidenced by the recovery of an irregular metallic foreign body from within the muscle, which has been preserved for forensic laboratory analysis. These injuries, characterized by fractured bone, deep burns, and embedded metallic fragments, collectively indicate a violent event involving both thermal energy and mechanical force.

Cause of death: Due to shock and hemorrhage due to sustain multiple injuries associated with burns and metalic foreion body found in wounded part of body.

and life-threatening injuries, characterized by extensive sharp-lacerated wounds (slw) and traumatic mutilation. Notably, the victim sustained a traumatic amputation of the left wrist with associated skin flaying, alongside a massive 22 x 11 cm laceration to the neck and chest that was deep enough to expose the vertebral Column. Further severe trauma is evidenced by a 25 x 20 cm abdominal wall laceration and deep, bone-exposing wounds to the face and chin. The sheer scale, depth, and distribution of these injuries ranging from the head to the abdomen indicate the application of significant force and reflect an assault of a particularly brutal and lethal nature.

Cause of death: Due to shock and multiple injuries.

4.25 In evaluating the cause and circumstances of death, the Court takes note of Column 17 of the post-mortem note Exh.689 and the corresponding inquest report at Exh.1226 pw. no.41 Dr. Harishkumar Trikamdas Khubvchandani at Exh.656 performed the postmortem of the deceased namely; Dr. Prerak R. Shah.

Nature of injury: The medical evidence details a series of extensive and severe injuries, primarily characterized as lacerated blast wounds and contused lacerations distributed across the victim's body. Notably, the right side of the thorax sustained a massive cavity-deep wound measuring 30*30 cm, which resulted in the exposure and laceration of internal organs and soft tissues. Additional deep-tissue blast injuries were recorded on the upper chest, the right arm (bone-deep), and the left leg. The victim also presented with a distinct horizontal "c-shaped" contused lacerated wound on the right abdomen and multiple smaller, scattered contusions across the anterior chest and lower limbs. The nature, depth, and scale of these wound ranging from subcutaneous to cavity-deep are collectively indicative of high-impact trauma consistent

Nature of injury

The medical evidence details three distinct antemortem injuries, characterized primarily as contused lacerated wounds. the most significant injury was a massive, bone-deep wound measuring 16*16 cm, spanning the right side of the face from the mandible to the forehead. The second injury, described as a blast wound measuring 7* 5cm, was located on the left side of the neck, extending to the muscle depth near the angle of the mandible. A third muscle-deep laceration, measuring 5*3 cm, was also noted. Collectively, these injuries particularly the extensive craniofacial trauma and the blast-pattern neck wound indicate the application of significant force and characterize the violent nature of the assault.

Cause of death: Death is due to shock and hemorrhage. Due to multiple sustained injuries over body.

4.27 In evaluating the cause and circumstances of death, the Court takes note of Column 17 of the post-mortem note Exh.690 and the corresponding inquest report at Exh.1186 pw. no.41 Dr. Harishkumar Trikamdas Khubvchandani at Exh.656 performed the postmortem of the deceased namely; Prakashbhai Narandas Jain.

injuries consistent with high-energy trauma, specifically characterized by multiple contused lacerated blast wounds. these include a massive 15 *10 cm cavity-deep wound on the left lower back, which resulted in the rupture of the left kidney and intestine, and a 10 *5 cm cavity-deep wound on the right lower back. Further significant trauma was noted in the left gluteal region 15 *10 cm and the left heel. Complementing these mechanical injuries were widespread second and third-degree burns affecting the face, upper limbs, and lower legs, accompanied by the singeing of hair on the head and neck. The nature, depth, and anatomical distribution of these injuries specifically the internal organ ruptures and the blast-pattern lacerations indicate a high-intensity force consistent with an explosive event, cumulatively sufficient to cause death in the ordinary course of nature.

Cause of death : Death is due to shock and hemorrhage. Due to multiple sustained injuries over body.

4.28 In evaluating the cause and circumstances of death, the Court takes note of Column 17 of the post-mortem note Exh.700 and the corresponding inquest report at Exh.1234 pw. no.42 Dr. Bhargava Becharbhai Zaveri at Exh.698 performed the postmortem of the deceased namely; Dushyant Motilal Vyas.

Nature of injury: The deceased presented with extensive second and third-degree burns covering approximately 35% of the total body surface area, specifically involving the forehead, frontal scalp, right upper and lower extremities, and the left thigh. The presence of both reddish and whitish patches, along with peeling skin, indicates deep-tissue thermal damage. In addition to the burns, the victim sustained multiple lacerated wounds (lws) and a significant incised wound. notably, the right lower thigh and leg exhibited multiple lacerations with bone exposure, while the left popliteal area (behind the knee) sustained a 4 *1.5 cm incised wound. This injury was particularly grave, resulting in the complete severing (cut) of the popliteal vessels. The combination of extensive high-degree burns and the traumatic disruption of major vascular structures suggests a violent mechanism of injury, resulting in significant blood loss and physiological shock.

Cause of death: Death is due to shock and hemorrhage. Due to multiple sustained injuries over body.

4.29 In evaluating the cause and circumstances of death, the Court takes note of Column 17 of the post-mortem note Exh.699 and the corresponding inquest report at Exh.1184 pw. no.42 Dr. Bhargava Becharbhai Zaveri at Exh.698 performed the postmortem of the deceased namely; Viralgiri Balvantgiri Goswami.

Nature of injury: The deceased sustained second-to-third-degree burns covering 90% of the body, sparing only the external genitalia and isolated patches of skin. the presence of both "reddish and whitish" discoloration, combined with the "easy peeling" of skin (sloughing), indicates deep partial-thickness to full-thickness tissue destruction.

This thermal injury is compounded by multiple compound (open) fractures involving all four limbs:

Lower extremities: a fractured left femur with a 7 cm deep muscle wound, and bilateral fractures of the tibia and fibula (t/f) accompanied by multiple lacerated wounds (lw) ranging from 2 cm to 4 cm in size.

The combination of 90% tbsa burns and bilateral major long-bone fractures represents an unsurvivable or "grave" injury profile, typically resulting in rapid hypovolemic and neurogenic shock, complicated by Nature of injury: The deceased sustained second-to-third-degree burns covering 40% of the body, critically involving the face, eyebrows, eyelashes, and scalp. the "full-thickness" (f.t.) nature of the scalp hair involvement and the facial distribution suggest intense, direct heat exposure.

Furthermore, the victim suffered a series of complex orthopedic and soft-tissue injuries:

Abdominal & pelvic trauma: a deep muscle-depth (md) lacerated wound (lw) to the lateral abdominal wall and a contused lacerated wound (clw) in the right inguinal (groin) region.

Severe lower limb devastation: the right leg shows catastrophic damage, including a bone-deep clw at the knee with a comminuted patellar fracture (multiple fragments) and exposed fractures of the tibia and fibula (t/f).

Crush injuries: significant crushing trauma to the fingers of the right hand and bilateral crushing of the medial malleoli (inner ankle bones), extending to the right foot where tendons were left exposed.

Cause of death: Death is due to shock and hemorrhage. Due to multiple sustained injuries over body.

Nature of injury

The medical evidence reveals a constellation of injuries concentrated primarily on the right side of the victim's body, consisting of thermal burns, abrasions, and deep infected wounds. notably, the victim sustained first and second-degree burns involving the right side of the forehead, cheek, ear, ankle, and foot, characterized by dark red discoloration and slough formation. these are accompanied by multiple healing abrasions with scabs across the right arm, forearm, chest, and upper abdomen, indicating a period of recovery since the initial trauma,of particular clinical concern are two contused lacerated wounds (clws) on the right thigh one reaching bone-depth and the other muscle-deep both exhibiting pus discharge, which signifies a secondary bacterial infection. The distribution of these injuries spanning from the head to the lower extremities suggests a significant traumatic event involving both thermal and blunt force impact, with the presence of slough and pus indicating a lack of immediate or adequate antiseptic intervention during the healing process.

This is accompanied by a secondary cavity-deep laceration above the right nipple. Further examination revealed multiple red contused lacerated wounds of varying depths, ranging from subcutaneous tissue exposure on the thigh and fingers to bone-deep injuries at the right elbow and mid-leg. These are complemented by extensive red abrasions on the right forearm, thigh, and foot, indicating significant surface trauma. The combination of organ-exposing abdominal wounds, deep focal lacerations to the bone, and widespread abrasions suggests the application of extreme mechanical force and constitutes a medical emergency of the highest gravity, likely indicative of a fatal or near-fatal event.

Nature of injury: The deceased sustained multiple punctured lacerated wounds across the head, chest, and abdomen, characterized by inward margins and dimensions ranging from 0.5 *0.5 cm to 1 *1 cm. These injuries, consistent with the impact of projectile pellets from a bomb blast, are further supported by the presence of multiple circular, reddish contusions on the scalp. The force of the blast resulted in several circular fractures and corresponding holes in the occipital and parietal bones of the skull. internal examination revealed a pale brain, indicating significant hemorrhaging or systemic shock. collectively, these findings point to high-velocity pellet impacts as the primary mechanism of trauma.

Nature of injury: The medical examination revealed a significant depressed wound over the occipital region of the skull, measuring 3 * 3 cm. This injury was characterized by the presence of purulent discharge (puss), indicating a localized infection at the site of trauma. Further evidence of head injury included a subgaleal hematoma (collection of blood) beneath the scalp skin measuring 5 *5 cm, and a 3 * 3 cm scalp wound, also discharging pus. additionally, a 4 cm surgical suture (stitch) was noted on the right ear, consistent with medical treatment for a laceration in that area. The combined presence of a depressed fracture site and significant internal bruising (hematoma) underscores the severity of the blunt force trauma sustained to the head.

wound measuring 1 cm × 1 cm, located on the left parietal region of the skull (approximately 11 cm above the left eyebrow and 3 cm from the midline). This external injury was associated with a significant underlying scalp hematoma (15 cm × 10 cm) and a specific "signature fracture" of the skull vault. Notably, a round metallic pellet ("chharra") was found embedded within the fracture site, indicating the use of a projectile weapon. Internal examination further revealed a secondary hematoma on the right frontal region, along with subarachnoid and subdural hemorrhages, confirming severe intracranial trauma. Additionally, a contused abrasion on the right upper thigh suggests blunt force impact or secondary trauma to the lower limb.

Cause of death: Shock and hemorrhage due to head injuries.

Nature of injury: The victim sustained an extensive array of punctured lacerated wounds (plw) distributed across the lower limbs, torso, and axillary regions. notably, the injuries include multiple small-scale lacerations with inverted margins (ranging from 0.2 * 0.5 cm) concentrated on the thighs and legs, as well as three significant lacerated wounds in the left axilla measuring up to 3 * 0.5 cm. The examination further reveals a high frequency of "through-and-through" punctured wounds, specifically localized to the bilateral thighs, right axilla, right scapular region, and the left gluteal and lower back areas. The presence of inverted margins and the penetrating nature of the "through-and-through" injuries are clinically indicative of a targeted assault involving a sharp, pointed weapon used with sufficient force to transfix multiple anatomical regions, including the chest wall, inguinal region, and deep muscular tissues of the extremities.

Cause of death: Shock and hemorrhage due to causing injuries to vital organs.

lacerated wounds distributed across the deceased's upper limbs, axilla (armpit), gluteal region, and chest wall. These wounds are characterized by inverted and contused margins, which are classic diagnostic indicators of firearm entry wounds. The "punched-out" appearance and the specific measurements (ranging from 0.2*0.2cm to 0.5*0.5 cm) suggest the impact of high-velocity projectiles. The presence of contusion collars (bruised margins) around these openings further confirms that the force was applied externally, consistent with multiple gunshots sustained from varying angles, including the lateral aspects of the limbs and the posterior chest wall.

greenish-white metallic pellet was recovered. The injury caused extensive intracranial trauma, including sub-dural, sub-arachnoid, and intra-ventricular hemorrhages, alongside generalized cerebral edema and congestion. These findings, coupled with the recovery of the metallic projectile from the deep brain structures, are consistent with a close-range penetrating gunshot wound to the head, resulting in catastrophic neurological damage.

External trauma: two surgical stitches on the left temporal scalp and healing abrasions on the right palm and upper back.

Nature of injury: The victim sustained multiple traumatic injuries, most notably a 1.0 cm circular puncture lacerated wound (plw) located 3.0 cm above the right eyebrow. This injury was particularly severe, involving a bone-deep fracture of the skull and a tract extending into the cranial cavity. The internal examination revealed significant intracranial injury, including hemorrhaging and the contusion and laceration of brain tissue across the right frontal and left parietal lobes. A round metallic foreign body was recovered from the impact site within the brain and secured for forensic analysis . Additionally, the victim presented with several other 1.0 cm circular plws distributed across the chest, right mid-axillary line, epigastrium, and subcostal areas, alongside abrasions to the upper lip and nose. The nature and distribution of these wounds, specifically the deep penetrating cranial injury caused by a metallic object, indicate a high-velocity impact consistent with a serious life-threatening assault.

Nature of injury: The victim sustained multiple injuries primarily concentrated on the right side of the body, characterized largely by puncture-lacerated wounds of varying depths. These injuries were located on the upper chest (15 cm above the right nipple), the superolateral aspect of the right arm, the lower third of the right leg, and the dorsum of the right hand, where the wound reached bone depth. additional puncture-lacerated wounds were noted in the pelvic and inguinal regions, specifically near the root of the penis and the right inguinal canal, penetrating to the subcutaneous and muscular layers. furthermore, a contused lacerated wound was recorded on the upper third of the right thigh. The depth of these wounds ranging from subcutaneous tissue to muscle and bone suggests the application of significant force with an object capable of both piercing and tearing the skin and underlying structures.

Nature of injury: The victim sustained multiple red, punctured, lacerated wounds across several anatomical regions, specifically the right upper abdomen (9 cm below the right nipple), the anterior medial aspect of the right leg, the postero-lateral aspect of the right thigh, and the antero-medial aspect of the left thigh. These wounds ranged in size from approximately 0.5*0.5 cm to 2 *1 cm and were uniformly muscle-deep in nature. Notably, upon internal examination of the wounds on the right leg and right thigh, greyish-white metallic pellets were recovered from the tissue. The nature, distribution, and presence of metallic foreign bodies within the lacerated punctures are consistent with injuries caused by a projectile-based weapon, such as a firearm.

The second was situated on the upper aspect of the left thigh, from which a greyish-white metallic pellet was surgically recovered. These specific characteristics the small, uniform dimensions of the entry points and the presence of a metallic projectile are highly indicative of a firearm injury. Surgical intervention

The presence of a 25 cm vertical midline incision on the abdomen, closed with black interrupted sutures and extending 12 cm above the umbilicus, indicates a significant therapeutic procedure. the depth and location suggest a midline laparotomy, likely performed as an emergency surgical response to treat internal injuries within the abdominal cavity.

Penetrating and superficial trauma

The victim sustained an open puncture wound (1.5 x 1 cm) on the left lower quadrant of the abdomen, located 16 cm from the midline and 4 cm below the umbilicus. the presence of "everted margins" and "cavity depth" strongly suggests this was a penetrating entry wound. additionally, a 2 x 1 cm contused lacerated wound was noted on the left cheek, involving the deep tissue layers, consistent with blunt force or impact trauma.

Ballistic injuries (pellet wounds) Multiple puncture-lacerated wounds with contused margins were identified across eight distinct locations,

6. Charges framed and Sections invoked

6.1 Framing of a charge is an exercise which is a painstaking beginning for the ultimate revelation of truth. It has two fold purposes. The twin purpose of framing of charge is to assimilate the scattered facts of the trial and frame the points on which the trial will progress, essentially to give the direction to a trial and the other purpose being, to provide clarity to the accused regarding what he has to face and provide a fair opportunity to prepare his own defence ensuring fair trial.

6.2 This is a document which is a concise statement of the time, date and place of the incident which is termed as an offence. It also contains the action attributed to the accused which amounts to an offence as defined and specific sections of the penal code with which the accused is charged and the consequential punishing section. to 213 of the Code of Criminal Procedure deals with the framing of the charge; the combined reading would list down following requirements for proper framing of charge.

i. A statement of the offence with which the accused is charged.

ii. A statement of the law and the section of the law against which the offence is said to have been committed.

iii. Particulars as to time and place of the alleged offence and the person against whom or the thing in respect of which it was committed.

iv. Particulars of the manner in which the alleged offence was committed.

6.3 From the record, it appears that the Court has framed charge vide Exh.32 against 62 accused of Ahmedabad cases and thereafter consolidation of Surat bomb plantation case vide exhibit-122 against 64 accused. Considering the provision of Section 220 of Cr.P.C. treating various incidents as a part of the same transaction, the charge was framed for several offences and the accused involved jointly.

6.4 However, the Court may refer to the procedure followed which led to framing of the joint charge, both incident-wise as well as accused-wise. In para-14 of the judgment, the procedure thus followed is reflected.

6.5 Upon registration of complaints in respect of total-22 twenty two incidents of bomb blasts that had occurred in Ahmedabad City and 2 (two) incident of bomb planting that occurred at Ramol Police Station and Kalol, District Gandhinagar and total 29 (twenty-nine) incidents of bomb plantation that had taken place at various place in Surat City, the investigating officers had conducted the investigations of these offences. incidents in the matter of Sessions Case No.418/2009.

6.15 In this connection, the Court may refer to the application made on the record both by the prosecution as well as by the defence. Exh.11 is an application made by learned Public Prosecutor under Section 220 of Cr.P.C. in connection with 19 sessions cases along with the main lead Sessions Case No.38 of 2009. The Special Judge passed an order below Exh.11 on 04.12.2009. The Court may reproduce the operative part of the same order as under:-

"In that view of the matter following order is passed:-

(1) The application is allowed.

(2) All the twenty cases registered as Sessions Case numbers 38/09, 95/09, 365/09, 341/09, 347/09, 300/09, 342/09, 82/09, 362/09, 364/09, 339/09, 348/09, 344/09, 61/09, 321/09, 319/09, 323/09, 334/09, 361/09, 346/09 are consolidated in one case i.e. Sessions Case No. 38/2009. It is directed that all the accused shall be charged with and tried at one trial for the alleged offences, in Sessions Case No. 38/2009.

(3) Though the papers of charge sheets submitted in all cases shall be treated as part of the Sessions Case No. 38/2009, the prosecution is directed to furnish fresh list of witnesses to be examined, and also fresh list of documents to be relied upon at the time of trial, giving references of charge sheets already submitted in the Court, along with the page numbers of the charge sheets referred.

(4) The prosecution is directed to furnish copies of the above mentioned two fresh lists to the accused, before the next date of hearing that may be fixed by the Court. It is clarified that if the fresh lists contain any additional documents, which are not part of the papers of the charge sheets furnished earlier, the prosecution shall also furnish the copies of such additional documents to the accused.

Copy of this order be kept in the 20 main cases."

6.16 The Court may observe that in the aforesaid order in para-2 the Special Judge has observed that despite being asked to make any submission, the accused side had not made any submission. Accordingly, the decision was taken to frame charge.

6.17 Yet another occasion arose when an application was made by the defence in the lead Sessions Case No.418 of 2009 of Surat incident again under Section 220 of the Cr.P.C. This application is given at Exh.113. (Exh.12 as per noting made in connection with Sessions Case No.38 of 2009). In this application, it was pleaded that all the sessions cases of 15 FIRs of Surat incidents be consolidated. Para-2 of the said application referred to an order passed by the Sessions Court, Surat below application of the prosecution to consolidate the trial of all the cases of the Surat incidents. The application Exh.113 prayed for consolidating Sessions Case No.419 of 2009 (Surat incidents) with Sessions Case No.38 of 2009 (Ahmedabad incidents).

6.18 The Court finds it useful to quote the paragraphs from application Exh.12 (sic. Exh.113) to record the stand of the defence as well. This application was signed by 52 accused persons.

D. That the accused of both the cases are same and common who had been charged for raising funds and staying at the different places of the state of Gujarat and made/obtained powerful explosives, bombs etc. as emerged from both the charge sheet papers, i.e. Annexure A & B. therefore obviously for these accused persons, to prove the said charges in both the cases, there is a common set of evidence, oral as well as documentary.

E. That like wise the accused persons shown in the charge sheet papers of Sessions Case No. 38/09 and present Sessions Case No. 418/09 for hacking the computers and making E-Mails etc. the same and common charges are there. And obviously to prove the charges against them the evidence in the nature of oral as well as documentary is same and common.

F. Therefore considering the main allegation against the accused with regards to conspiracy, the proximity of date & time places of bomb plantation and explosion are the acts so connected with each other as the series of acts to form the part of same transaction as a result of a part of one alleged conspiracy hatched by the accused persons in both the sessions cases.

That therefore bare reading of the Section 220 which enable the court to charge the accused of different offences registered at different places at one trial as appears from the records, the series of acts are so connected with each other as to form the same transaction.

This Hon'ble court observed the same while consolidating the different sessions case of Ahmedabad City and different cases of Surat City as one trial while passing the order up on the applications submitted by the Ld. Special Public Prosecutor."

6.19 The Special Judge passed an order below Exh.12 (also Exh.113) allowing such application of the defence by order dated 10.02.2010 and the operative part of the order reads as under:

that he had no personal knowledge of the cause of the damage. Further, he has deposed that he had stated in the statement recorded by the police that the damage was caused by a blast. Thereafter, upon being cross examined he has admitted that it is not possible to determine cause of breakage of any object by merely looking at it. He has also denied the suggestion that the police recorded the statement in their words and that they had only recorded his name, address and phone number.

10.29 Upon perusing the testimony of this witness, it supports the case of the prosecution to the extent that the said vehicle was parked near the place of the explosion and that it sustained damage due to the said explosion which occurred on 26.07.2008. Therefore, the Court finds the deposition of this witness to be credible and consistent with the overall narrative of the prosecution regarding the occurrence of the explosion and the widespread damage caused by it.

10.30 Thereafter, the Court has perused the evidence of PW No.308-Dr. Bharatbhai Parsottambhai Baravaliya at Exh.1619 who is a veterinary doctor by profession and runs a clinic in the name of "Krushti Maternity Clinic" at Rakhiyal Village, Ahmedabad. He gave treatment to the animal including, medicine to prevent infection and an injection to prevent tetanus. This witness had issued a certificate in that regard which has been produced as Mark 97/996 and exhibited as Exh.1620. This witness has identified his handwriting and signature upon being shown the aforesaid document. Further, this witness has given an opinion that the said injuries sustained by the bullock are possible by an object striking it with force due to a blast or an explosion.

10.31 Upon perusing the testimony of this witness, it appears that the nature of injuries sustained by the bullock, removal of fragments from such wounds and the opinion given by the veterinary doctor corroborates the case of the prosecution regarding the explosion that took place and that the said injury was caused by such an explosion.

10.32 Thereafter, PW No.393-Pritesh Natwarbhai Patel at Exh.2286 is the panch witness who has deposed that he was residing in the Old P.G. 10.65 With regard to the very offense of Maninagar Police Station being C.R.No.I-203 of 2008, the Court has perused the evidence of PW No.119-Rakeshbhai Mukundbhai Odhviya at Exh.961, who is working in a private company as a technician and on 26.07.2008, after completing his duty hours was returning along with his friend and at Maninagar cross road, both of them went to have tea at the Kitley and at approximately 6:30 PM just besides the Kitley, where a cycle was parked, there was big blast and pellets (ball bearings) and metal particles flew, which caused injury to this witness on his chest and left leg. 10.81 The Court has perused Exh.1731, which is the panchnama of scene of offence, which was executed in the early hours of the date of incident reported at Maninagar Police Station. This panchnama was proved by examining PW No.334-Hiteshbhai Piraji Prajapati, Exh.1730. By this document, prosecution has sought to prove extensive damage to private and public properties as a result of the blast. The fact of blast is recorded on the basis of damaged cycle which was used for planting bomb and the damage caused to private vehicles, which were lying in the vicinity and also crater which was caused on the road on account of blast. This document is also recorded arrival of the FSL officer for spot inspection and advising for collecting material relevant for the investigation. The Court can co-relate this with the document Exh.2022, which is proved by examining PW No.352-Rajubhai Pundlikbhai Vani, one of the panch witnesses, Exh.2021.

10.82 In co-relation to the above, Exh.8128 is the preliminary report of the Investigation Van Unit of the Directorate of Forensic Science, Gujarat State, Gandhinagar, which was exhibited by examining PW No.1132-Jasubhai Karshanbhai Patel, Exh.8127. with regard to articles collected from the scene of offence and the actual scene of offence. Conjoint reading of Exh.1731, Exh.2022 and Exh.8128 firmly establishes the scene of offence and cause of damage and the fact of bomb explosion at the scene of offence.

10.83 Learned Additional Advocate General referred to Exh.5850 being final report of the Chemical Department of the FSL as well as Exh.5807, which is report of the Physics Department of the FSL emphasizing on the commonalities of the substance used and the construction of bomb with other serial blasts and also opinion on the spices of wires collected from the debris of bomb blast site by the In-way Van being capable to pass on electronic current.

10.84 In this regard, attention is drawn to Exh.5850 being final opinion of the FSL with regard articles collected in the bomb blast near Shivani Complex. The opinion with regard to Mark-E confirmed the capacity of those articles for being used to pass electric currents. However, the same document is unable to answer second part of Question No.4-Exh.5850 regarding the same being capable of being used as timer.

10.85 The Court has perused Exh.5920, which is the final report and opinion of FSL with regard to contents of the bomb which had remained unexploded. The contents of the unexploded bomb, which consisted of the articles like ammonium, potassium, sodium and nitrite the explosion took place behind the Maninagar AMTS Bus stand, in front of Roop Complex resulting in an injury to one person. In this regard, he has referred to Exh.1741; panchnama of scene of offence conducted in the early hours on 27.02.2008 wherein it appears that the explosion had occurred from a cloth bag which was placed on a cycle resulting in damage to the cycle and the AMTS bus. He has also referred to Exh.2018 which is the panchnama for seizure of the articles collected by the FSL Officer from the scene of offence.

10.103 The Court has perused Exh.1741; the panchnama of the scene of offence which commenced at 3:30 a.m. on 27.02.2008. This panchnama was proved by examining PW No.335-Montu Damodarbhai Sharma examined vide Exh.1740. By this document, the prosecution has sought to prove the scene of the offence, the planting of the bomb on a bicycle and the damage caused to the A.M.T.S. bus and the surrounding area as a result of the explosion.

10.104 The panchnama records that the bicycle was found lying in a damaged condition at the spot and that its front side and front tyre were completely damaged. Further, cloth pieces were found on the carrier portion of the cycle. Also, the AMTS bus sustained multiple perforations on its right side and pieces of shrapnel were found scattered. This document also records that the torn cloth bag, the damaged bicycle, samples of black residue from the cycle and the bus, samples of soil were separately seized and sealed in the presence of the panch witnesses.

10.105 The Court has perused Exh.2018; panchnama for seizure of articles collected by the FSL Officer relating to the bomb-blast at Maninagar AMTS Bus Stop. These articles consisted of pieces of wires and cloth which were seized for the purpose of investigation. The Court can co-relate this document with Exh.1741 being the panchnama of scene of offence and the conjoint reading of Exh.1741 and Exh.2018 establishes the seizure and sealing of articles from the scene of offence.

10.106 The Court has also perused Exh.8128 which is the preliminary FSL report of the Investigation Van unit of DFSL and it records the visit of the scientific officer to the three bomb blast sites under the Maninagar Police Station namely, Maninagar Cross Roads, Jawahar Cross Roads and AMTS Bus Stand and insofar as the AMTS Bus Stand is concerned, samples of pieces of wire and cloth fragments were collected and directed to be forwarded to DFSL, Gandhinagar for examination.

10.107 Thereafter, Court has considered Exh.5923 which is the final FSL report, prepared by PW No.849-Gauridat Dayanidhi Sharma, who was examined vide Exh.5908 and it appears that chemical traces were found in the collected samples which are similar to other sites. This shows similarity in composition of explosive material which shows uniformity in preparation of bombs.

10.108 The Court has perused the deposition of the complainant PW No.15-Jagdish Bheraji Mena at Exh.533 who has deposed that on 26.07.2008, he was working at Jai Ambe Tea Stall which is situated within Rup Complex near the Maninagar AMTS Bus Stand and that at around 6:45 p.m., an explosion had occurred near the AMTS bus stand. has confirmed the contents of the complaint and has identified his signature on it which came to be exhibited vide Exh.534. He has deposed that the said complaint was recorded at L.G. Hospital when he was taken for treatment as a result of the injuries sustained by him. Further, this witness has deposed that, on the next day i.e., on 27.07.2008 at around 3:30 a.m. he accompanied the police to the place of incident to show the place of incident in the presence of two panch witnesses. There appears to be no cross examination of this witness and therefore in the opinion of the Court, there is no doubt about the truthfulness of this witness insofar as the occurrence of the explosion and the injuries sustained are concerned.

10.110 Thereafter, the Court has also perused the deposition of PW No.504-Dilipsinh Gambhirsinh Vaghela at Exh.2938 who is the Police Inspector and has deposed that on 26.07.2008, he was present at L.G. Hospital as he had conducted the inquest panchnama of the deceased namely, Chiragbhai Chandravadanbhai Shah which was identified by Alpeshbhai Pravinbhai Shah. This witness has confirmed the contents and has identified the signatures on the inquest panchnama at Exh.1266. Thereafter, this witness has deposed that he recorded the complaint of PW No.15-Jagdish Bheraji Mena at L.G. Hospital which was written down as per the narration of the complainant and has affirmed the truthfulness of the contents of the complaint. This witness has confirmed the contents and has identified the signatures on the complaint at Exh.534. Thereafter, the said complaint was forwarded to the P.S.O. for undertaking further proceedings. 10.112 Therefore, in the opinion of the Court, the deposition of this witness appears to be credible and is also supported by the testimony of the complainant. Further, even in the cross examination there appears to be nothing so as to discredit the truthfulness of this witness.

10.113 The Court has perused the evidence of the witnesses who have deposed about the blast that took place near Maninagar Bus Stand and the damage caused as a result of it. The Court has perused the evidence of PW No.708-Riteshbhai Chandraprakash Jain at Exh.3472 who has deposed that he was running a shop in the Maninagar Old Vegetable Market Area in the name of 'Pinky Juice Centre' and that Maninagar Bus Stand is situated near his shop. to the incident. The report is inve. Van report. On the basis of the preliminary report, preliminary opinion was also given by the FSL Officer.

10.123 Learned Additional Advocate General took this Court to Exh.5803 which was exhibited through PW No.843-Naimeshbhai Manubhai Soni (Exh.5799). Exh.5803 is the FSL report of the car debri collected from the scene of offense at L.G. Hospital with a specific emphasis on the fact that the car debri contained gas cylinder also.

10.124 The Court has perused Exh.5814 which is the opinion of the FSL brought on record by PW No.843-Naimeshbhai Manubhai Soni which pertains to articles seized from the scene of offense at L.G.Hospital by executing the panchnama Exh.2036 and 2030. This opinion of the FSL is emphasized on fake vehicle registration number which was used for storing the bomb which exploded. From this remote, it is clearly coming out that the original registration number plate bore a registration number from Maharashtra which was superimposed with a number of Gujarat. Thereby, establishing the fact that to hide the correct identity of the vehicle, the number plate was tampered with.

10.125 The Court has considered Exh.5724 which is the FSL opinion for the purpose of chemical contained in the explosive device. This document was proved by the witness PW No.840-Janmohammad Fakirbhai Mansuri (Exh.5700) and it contained the analysis on various articles found from the scene of offence for analysis and it contained various articles like exploded gas cylinder, ball-bearing etc and the analysis report concludes that such articles demonstrated the traces of explosion and this articles also bore traces of explosive substance. It is also coming out that with regard to the articles identified as D, E and F, no traces of any explosive substance (Ammonia Nitrite and Hydrocarbon) were found. These articles identified as D, E and F are the body parts of the vehicle which are on the outside of the vehicle and therefore, obviously when the explosion took place from within, the traces of the chemical used in explosion were traces of which were not found on these parts. Exh.5721 is also an opinion of FSL expert on the articles which were found while drawing panchnama Exh.2036 which was also proved by PW No.840- Janmohammad Fakirbhai Mansuri and the opinion of this witness with regard to the status of ball-bearings which were found at the scene of offense to contain the traces of explosive material on it.

10.126 Learned Additional Advocate General drew attention to Exh.6040 which is also an opinion of FSL expert on the articles seized vide Exh.2036. It appears that Exh.6040 was exhibited through PW No.838-Surendrabhai Purshottambhai Patriwala (Exh.5685) which opined on the physical content of the bolt and ball-bearing, which was made of Iron (Fe), Calcium (Ca) and Manganese (Mn). Exh.5830 is also an opinion of FSL of the articles collected by drawing Exh.2036. Exh.5830 was exhibited through PW No.845-Ashokbhai Natwarlal Patel (Exh.5828) which is the analysis of the car debri specifically containing the engine part of the car which was flung due to explosion and on this part also, the FSL has opined to have found presence of explosive chemical. The exercise undertaken by the Investigating Officer in collecting the articles from the scene of offense were sent for analysis to the FSL and the FSL within its department have submitted independent reports with regard to its physical analysis and therefore, with regard to the articles collected from the scene of offense, there are more than one opinion connecting the articles to the incident of bomb-blast.

10.127 Reference was also made to Exh.5803 which is the independent FSL report pertaining to the car debris purportedly used for planting of bomb at L.G.Hospital as specific reference was made by learned AAG to the contents inside the car debris which also had remains of Gas cylinder after the blast. The FSL reports have been exhibited through PW No.843-Naimeshbhai Manubhai Soni, who was examined at Exh.5799.

10.128 The Court has perused Exh.5814; which is the final report of the FSL which is also proved by PW No.843-Naimeshbhai Manubhai Soni and this opinion is of the articles seized during the site visit of the FSL officer and the articles were collected under the panchnama vide Exh.2036 and Exh.2030. Exh.2030 is an independence panchnama pertaining to the damaged to the vehicles lying in the parking area of L.G.Hospital on account of the blast. Exh.5813 (sic.) 5814 is the observation and final opinion of the FSL with regard to the registration number plate of the vehicle found from the debris and related to four wheel vehicle used for planting of bomb.

10.129 Exh.5724 is referred to by learned Additional Advocate General which is the observation and final opinion of Chemical Department of the FSL pertaining to the articles collected during the visit by FSL Officer at the scene of offense. According to learned AAG, the opinion is demonstrating the usage of highly explosive chemicals and the traces of the same have been found on various parts of the vehicle used for planting of bomb. He has also referred to the observation made in the analysis report that traces of explosive material is not found on articles ‘D’, ‘E’ and ‘F’ and has explained that articles ‘D’, ‘E’ and ‘F’ are different parts of the vehicle in which blast took place being metal sheets and metallic parts of the body which were deformed, but did not contain the traces of the chemical explosive.

10.165 Learned Additional Advocate General thereafter, took up the case of bomb-blast in AMTS bus reported with Sarkhej Police Station, leaving two persons dead and nine injured. He referred to Exh.1901 which is the panchnama of scene of offense proved by examining PW No.348-Intekhab Alam Fazalulrehman Shaikh vide Exh.1900. Referring to the panchnama, he submitted that the bus affected by the blast was lying on the road, the sign of explosion was visible. From the side, where it was seen that the front portion of the bus behind the driver's seat on the side and on the top was blown away. He also focused on the presence of ball-bearing lying around and embedded into the other parts and submitted that the directions of travel of the ball bearing was from inside of the bust towards outside. He submitted that the blast took place on the floor of the bus on seat No.2 behind the driver and exactly above the CNG tank. It is submitted that as the blast had taken in the middle of the road and on account of the time when the blast took place i.e. evening, the vehicle was removed to safer and isolated place for completing the panchnama which was referred to as Exh.1902.

10.166 The Court has perused the panchnama at Exh.1901, which would indicate that originally the blast had taken place behind seat No.2 just above the CNG tanks which did not fortunately explode. The narration in the panchnama would indicate that around the right hand side of the bus, metal part was blown and the top ceiling of the bus also had blown and in the area around the explosion, ball-bearings were lying in scattered manner inside and outside the bus. The panchnama was drawn in two parts on account of the location of the place and fading in day light. The panchnama of the inside of the bus was carried out after removing the bus to an uncrowded area on the next day vide Exh.1902 prove by some witness, the second panchnama was exhibited. Exh.5615 is the inspection report carried out by the FSL officer, who was along with FSL investigation Van. Exh.5615 is proved by PW No.832-Kishor Arvindbhai Sharma (Exh.5612). The relevant part in the inspection report is item No.6, which is a cloth bag lying near seat No.2 which appears to be the cloth containing the bomb and the description made in the panchnama is with regard to the cloth bag bearing small holes which are exact holes of the ball-bearing upon the explosion. The combined reading of Exhs.1901, 1902 and Exh.5615 would indicate that the impact of the explosion is from inside to outside as the metal body of the bus shell is bending towards the outside.

10.167 The Court has perused Exh.5853 which is the observation and final opinion of the FSL on the articles seized under the panchnama from the scene of offense. This is an opinion given by the Chemical Department of the FSL. The article shows the presence and traces of the explosive material of Ammonium Nitrite, and mixure of Petroleum Hydrocarbon oil known as Ammonium Nitrite based and Nitrite Fuel Oil (NFO). The other articles which were seized like ball-bearing etc. were sent to the Physics Department of the FSL. He has referred to Exh.5808 which is the final opinion of the Physics Department of the FSL on various metallic articles which were recovered from the scene of offense and collected small metal articles like rivet, ball-bearing (Chhara), Visor and metal sheets and the opinion of the FSL is usage of these small articles as project-lines in the bomb-blast.

10.168 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter, drawn attention of this Court to the evidence of a witness, who is an informant of the offense registered at Sarkhej Police Station. He has referred to PW No.17-Mansangji Becharji Thakor at Exh.537. This witness is the driver of AMTS Bus, who had joined the duty in the afternoon hours and while was plying the bus, the conductor informed him about an abundant large purse on the back side of the driver seat. There was a blast between 3rd and 4th seat and immediately this witness halted bus. He has deposed that the injuries were sustained and extensive damage to the AMTS bus had taken place. He has submitted that the line of cross-examination on behalf of the defence was that the bus was passing through an area thicking populated by Muslims and therefore, from the cross-examination, the defence tried to carve out a case that the blast had also taken place in an area which is having Muslim population to defy the theory of attacking Hindu areas. However, it is the submission of learned Special Public Prosecutor that co-incidentally, the bomb exploded when the bus was travelling from Muslim area otherwise the bomb was planted when the bus had begun its journey from an area, where it was not a Muslim populated area.

10.169 The Court has perused the deposition of PW No.17-Mansangji Becharji Thakor at Exh.537, who is the informant of the offense of C.R.No.I-181 of 2008, which is exhibited 538 after identification of the signature of this witness in the margin and of the complaint and ascertaining the content. In his evidence-in-chief, he has deposed that on 26.07.2008, he was assigned duty. At approximately 1:30 PM, on route No.150 which was to begin from Sarangpur to Chinubhai Nagar, Odhav and accordingly, after reaching Chinubhai Nagar, in his second trip, he started from Sarkhej and reached Chinubhai Nagar and once again from Chinubhai Nagar, he started at 17:40 hours towards Sarkhej and bus was carrying around 30 to 40 passengers and while returning towards Sarkhej when he was crossing Juhapura, the conductor had informed him that in the place between seat Nos.3 and 4 behind him, one huge black bag in abandoned condition is lying and somebody appears to have forgotten it and therefore, this witness informed that such purse be given at the Sarkhej control point. At around 6:45, while he was taking the bus towards Sarkhej, there was a huge blast from the place where the purse was lying, he halted the bus and the passengers started to escape and certain passengers were injured. Some passengers were bleeding. He has therefore, went to Sarkhej Police Station and gave the information about the incident. The only cross-examination conducted was about the route of the bus and the population of which community on route. The witness having given the account of the incident, immediately, after the blast having taken place, his account is required to be believed in toto insofar as planting of bomb in the bus, blast, injuries and the route within which the bus was plying. Even from the brief cross-examination, there is no doubt about the trustfulness of this witness.

Ramol Police Station-C.R. No.I-321/08

10.170 Learned Additional Advocate General thereafter took this Court to the incident which is registered at Ramol Police Station vide C.R. No.I-321/08, where four deaths were reported and other six citizens were injured. This panchnama describes use of cycle for the purpose of planting bombs. It records remains of the bomb after explosion and also debris collected for the purpose of investigation.

10.194 The Court has also perused Exh.552, which is in connection with offence registered with Ramol Police Station being C.R. No.I-321/2008 for corresponding Station Diary No.24/2008, for which Report was given by Police Inspector of Ramol Police Station regarding offence on 26-07-2008 at 18.40 hours and recorded at 21.15 hours, wherein amongst other Sections, Section-307, etc. of IPC and Explosive Substances Act, 1908, sections of Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (UAPA) were also mentioned. documents, Physical Department has given its observations and opinion regarding physics aspect of making and contents of unexploded bomb. One of the relevant opinions given was regarding clock which was in operative condition and it was opined that such clock was capable of being utilized as timer in the entire device (bomb).

10.199 Learned Additional Advocate General continued reading of relevant documents in the Ramol incident of unexploded bomb and referred to Exh.1839, which is panchnama of scene of offence, which also referred to seizure of the articles from the scene of offence, which was identified as bomb. This document gave description of the device and its constituent articles.

10.200 In the opinion of the Court, Exh.1839 is an important document, which is panchnama which was exhibited through PW No.344-Bhavesh Rameshmumar Mali (Exh.1838). This panchnama is executed at the scene where location of unexploded bomb was reported. The panchnama records in short the activity undertaken by the Bomb Disposal Squad and thereafter in great detail records particulars which formed the device which was identified as a timer bomb.

(7) One copy of Sandesh newspaper, dated 13th April 2008, Sunday, consisting of only pages number 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, 10, 11, and 12.

10.201 The Court has perused Exh.3357 pertaining to offence registered with Ramol Police Station being C.R. No.I-322/2008, for which Report was made by this witness to Police Station In-charge; Amaldar, in which reference was made to Police Station Diary Entry and Report under Section 157 of Cr.P.C. and forwarded investigation to City Crime Branch, Ahmedabad, wherein amongst offences under IPC, Explosive Substances Act, 1908, sections of Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (UAPA) were also stated.

10.202 The Court has also perused Exh.3356, which is compliant dated 27-07-2008 of Senior Police Inspector, Ramol Police Station being C.R. No.I-322/2008, where also amongst other provisions, offence under Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (UAPA) have also been mentioned.

sections of IPC, Explosive Substances Act, 1908 and sections of Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (UAPA) were already mentioned. Therefore, it has to be accepted that invoking of Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 (UAPA) was not after thought, but from beginning on the basis of material available, relevant sections were mentioned.

10.204 The Court has thereafter perused the evidence of the witnesses who have deposed regarding the bomb which was found inside a municipality dustbin near Hatkeshwar Bage Firdosh Police Line Sector-2.

10.205 The Court has perused the evidence of PW No.1001-Kiritbhai Aaljibhai Chauhan at Exh.6974, who was working as an operator in a company and has deposed that on 27.07.2008, as there was no stock in the factory, it was closed and therefore, he was at home. At that time, a person named Ladubhai who was working as a sanitation contractor was present and as he had to make a phone call to the police helpline number regarding the bomb, this witness handed over his phone to him. Ladubhai informed the police and shortly thereafter, the police arrived and he left the place. Also, the statement of this witness in relation to this incident has been recorded by the police. In the cross examination of this witness, he has deposed that there were around 100 people who were standing around the dustbin and that he is unaware as to for how long they had been standing there or for what purpose. discussions amongst the people of the crowd regarding a dangerous substance which was inside the dustbin due to which none of the people were going near the dustbin. The person named Ladubhai was in the crowd and this witness has affirmed that he gave his phone to him to make a call to the police and that Ladubhai had given his name and address to the police as an informant. He has also affirmed that he has not gone near the dustbin or put his face inside it to see and that the police arrived while he was standing in the crowd and thereafter, he had to leave within two to five minutes as he had other work.

10.206 The Court has thereafter perused the evidence of the informant, PW No.1003-Ladubhai Tulsibhai Parmar at Exh.6976 who was working under a contract in Bhaipura ward for collection of household waste. He has deposed that on 27.07.2008, while he was standing near the corner of his society, one person named Amitbai Jethwa who was working with him under a contract came and told him regarding a bomb like thing lying in the dustbin at Bage Firdosh Police Line due to which he too went there and he saw something resembling a long rectangular bomb of red colour. He has deposed that a crowd had gathered as other people came to know about it. He informed the police from the phone of one Kiritbhai regarding the said bomb and shortly thereafter, the police arrived and carried out the necessary proceedings and the statement of this witness has been recorded by the police two days after the incident. In the cross examination of this witness, he has affirmed that the garbage lying in the dustbin was that which was collected from the nearby houses and from the Police Line. bomb like object was lying there and has affirmed that he came to know that the said object was a bomb upon the information given by Amitbhai Jethwa.

Naroda Police Station: C.R. No.I-400/08

10.207 Learned Additional Advocate General has thereafter referred to the Naroda incident, wherein the explosion took place on a cycle near Kuldevi Tea Stall resulting in death of three persons and injury to 21 persons. In this regard, he referred to Exh.2056, being the panchnama of scene of offence, as well as the FSL reports placed on record.

10.208 The Court finds that Exh.2056 is the panchnama of scene of offence which took place on 27.07.2008 at Thakkarnagar Cross Roads which is under the jurisdiction of Naroda Police Station which came to be proved by examining PW No.356-Dineshbhai Chandulal Thakkar, vide Exh.2055. By this document, the prosecution has sought to prove the scene of offence, the planting of the bomb on the bicycle and the damage caused as a result of it. It appears that deliberately a young person was made to park the bicycle with the bag on its carrier (as seen by the complainant) and thereafter the said explosion has occurred. It is recorded that the rim, tyre, tube, of the front portion of the cycle sustained damage and that a black Activa scooter and a Hero Honda Splendor Plus motorcycle were lying damaged near the bicycle. Also, seven other bicycles were found lying scattered at the scene of offence. Further, it also records the arrival of an F.S.L. Officer who instructed the seizure of articles at the scene of offence.

10.209 The Court has also perused Exh.3460, which is the yadi for the FSL visit and it shows that immediately after the incident, FSL assistance was sought for inspection of the scene of offence. The FSL report records presence of a damaged bicycle, plastic bag fragments, wooden pieces with red tape, metal fragments, wire resembling part of detonator and blood stains at the spot. Samples of these articles were collected and directed to be forwarded for further examination.

10.210 The Court has considered Exh.5770, which is the FSL report of the Directorate of Forensic Science prepared by PW No.840-J.F. Mansuri, examined vide Exh.5700. By this document, the prosecution has sought to prove the chemical composition of the explosive substance and the nature of the device used. The report indicates presence of ammonium nitrate based explosive (ANFO), along with components of detonator and metallic pellets used as shrapnel, and opines that the device was an I.E.D. of time-delay type. It appears that the chemical composition is consistent with that used in other incidents and also explains the structure of the bomb device.

10.211 The Court can co-relate this document with Exh.5750, being the FSL opinion which also indicates presence of chemical traces used for preparing the bomb on the bicycle. Also, the report at Exh.5787 by the Physics Department of Directorate of Forensic Science, prepared by PW No.841-K.J. Golaniya examined vide Exh.5783 pertains to examination of the damaged bicycle and records presence of dent and heat marks on various parts thereof and opines that such damage could have been caused due to a bomb explosion.

10.212 Therefore, the conjoint reading of the aforesaid documents establishes the scene of offence, the use of a bicycle for planting the explosive device and the damage caused as a result of it. Further, even the scientific evidence proves presence of explosive substance and impact marks consistent with a bomb explosion.

10.213 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter, referred to the bomb-blast explosion incident reported at Naroda Police Station and in this connection has referred to PW No.275-Dr. Suresh Kantilal Jhaveri vid Exh.1411, who is a doctor, who had examined the injured witness and the certificate of injury was also proved by this witness however, the injured person has not been examined by the prosecution. However, for the very incident of Naroda, reference is made to PW No.214-Rameshbhai Khemabhai Solanki, who is examined at Exh.1145. This witness is a pedal Rickshaw driver, who sustained injuries and has also made reference to such injuries in his deposition. PW No.210-Vrajlal Jethabhai Patel is examined at Exh.1139. This witness has suffered injury and has received treatment, both privately as well as in the Civil Hospital. and medical certificate issued, the description of injury sustained on the legs and the opinion that such injury could be caused on account of the bomb-blast. It is found that pellet was inserted in the body and was required to be removed surgically and therefore, the opinion given by the doctor in his deposition is that a projectile with great force out of a bomb-blast can create such injury.

10.217 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter, submitted that many of the witnesses have given evidence of similar nature and therefore, has prayed for referring only to some of these witnesses. Accordingly, he has referred to PW No.203-Dayadas Mirchumal Virvani at Exh.1120, who is also a Pedal Rickshaw driver, who has regular picking stop near the site, where the bomb-blast took place and was waiting there for taking of the passengers when the bomb-blast took place. He was initially taken to Dhanvantari Hospital, from there to Kakadiya Hospital and finally to Civil Hospital, where he was examined by the treating doctor, who is examined vide Exh.1581 and has proved the certificate at Exh.1585.The treating doctor in his deposition has admitted the case history to indicate that the injuries could be sustained on account of the bomb-blast and the injury caused is deep and grievous, which can be caused by explosion of bomb.

10.218 Yet another, witness of similar nature i.e. to say a pedal Rickshaw driver being PW No.214-Rameshbhai Khemabhai Solanki, examined vide Exh.1145. This witness has deposed that on account of the bomb-blast, he himself has suffered injuries, along with him he has also named other person, who received injuries on account of the blast. This witness is considered even qua the other injured witnesses, could not be examined as witness for the reason of they having expired pending the trial. Reference is made to one witness Shankar.

10.220 The Court has perused the deposition of PW No.322-Dr. Bhairvi Balvant Pandey, who has examined the injuries of the injured witness-Bharatbhai Velabhai Pardhi, who was brought to the hospital for treatment and history was conveyed that the injuries on the head, left hand and right leg was sustained due to bomb-blast at Bapunagar and this witness has given details of the injuries sustained and exhibited the injury certificate at Exh.1667. This witness has also examined another injured witness namely Hemlataben Manilal Purabiya. There is no cross-examination to the witness, thereby, the injuries sustained and the history referred to by this witness is admitted by the defence.

10.221 The Court in regard to the offence which has been registered at Naroda Police Station vide C.R. No.I-400/2008 has perused the deposition of the complainant PW No.11-Shaileshbhai Nanubhai Patel at Exh.521 who has deposed that on the date of the incident he stopped by Kuldevi Tea Stall at around 6:30 p.m. to have tea and that the blast took place 5 to 7 minutes after he reached there and there were several people at the stall. This incident took place at 6:45 p.m. and this witness stayed at the location thereafter and he gave a complaint to the police after they arrived at the location at around 7:30 p.m. to 7:45 p.m. Mark No.97/372 is the handwritten complaint and he has confirmed the truthfulness of the complaint and has also identified his signature on it and is exhibited as Exh.522. 10.254 Upon perusal of the deposition of this witness, it indicates that at the relevant time i.e. around 6:30 PM in the evening, this witness was passing on his motorcycle from near 'Gokhle Pan Corner', where he experienced bomb-blast and on account of the projectile, his right side body was injured. Exh.1370, which is the medical certificate of this witness exhibited through treating doctor examined vide Exh.1362 indicates that this witness had suffered puncture wound on right side of his body and the opinion of the treating doctor is to the extent that the injury is possible on account of the bomb-blast.Considering the medical case papers, it appears that this witness was treated as indoor patient for four days and on behalf of the defence, there is no cross-examination.

10.255 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter, referred to PW No.58-Bhupendra Bansilal Thakor, examined at Exh.807, who was a passerby near the medical shop, where one of the three blats took place and was injured on his chest, stomach and limbs and he was admitted as indoor patient.

10.256 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter, referred to Exh.1392, which is the medical certificate, which is exhibited by examining the treating doctor as PW No.273-Dr. Mehul Manubhai Jagirdar, who is opined the injury is of grievous nature and the projectile like metallic ball-bearings were required to be removed surgically.

10.257 The Court has perused the deposition of PW No.58-Bhupendra Bansilal Thakor, who has deposed that he was an innocent passerby near the medical shop named M.Narandas & Co., where he experienced the bomb-blast and suffered injuries on his chest, stomach and also on his limbs. He has deposed that on account of the injuries thus sustained, he has suffered with permanent disability.

10.258 Perusal of the injury certificate would indicate that witness was required to be surgically operated for removal of metallic ball-bearings which were found from the small intestine and the injuries sustained were of grievous nature.

10.259 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has taken this Court to PW No.70-Ashokbhai Chimanlal Soni (Champaneriya), who in his deposition at Exh.856 has deposed that he had visited dentist at Sarangpur and thereafter, purchased medicines, visiting medical store namely M.Narandas, when he experienced two blasts successively. Thereafter, he was removed to a private hospital and then to Civil Hospital and then again for his final treatment to private hospital. To substantiate his argument and injury, a reference is made to Exh.1477/1478 which are medical case papers and the deposition of private doctor at Exh.1540, where history of bomb-blast was also given by the injured witness.

10.260 The Court has perused the evidence of PW No.70-Ashokbhai Chimanlal Soni (Champaneriya), as well as injury certificate and medical case papers at Exh.1477/1478 and Exh.1450 would indicate that the witness was at the very medical store, near which the first blast had taken place, out of three in quick succession. According to his version, he had gone to dentist for his treatment and thereafter, visiting the medical store for purchase of medicines and therefore, in due course, he was present at the scene of offense when incident of bomb-blast took place.

10.261 Perusal of the medical case papers and injury certificate, it is opined by the treating doctor that the injuries sustained by this are possible by the bomb-blast.

10.262 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter, referred to PW No.59-Devang Mahendrabhai Dudhiya, who is at Exh.808, who at the relevant time was visiting the market in that area for purchase of Datan. He suffered injury due to bomb-blast on account of projectile as well as burn injury. In this connection, the doctor was examined vide Exh.1590 and the certificate of injury was exhibited vide Exh.1591 which demonstrated the burn injuries on the limbs, which is caused by the bomb-blast.

10.263 The Court has perused evidence of PW No.59- Devang Mahendrabhai Dudhiya which is corroborated by the injury sustained by him, which is placed on record by way of Exh.1591 to show the nature of injury sustained on account of the serial bomb-blast.When this witness was visiting the market for his daily source and his presence at the scene of offense is quite natural. Similarly, another witness PW No.79-Ishwarlal Bechardas Bhavsar had also gone to the medical store for purchase of medicine, who was examined vide Exh.876 and because of the injury sustained, he was admitted in L.G.Hospital.

10.264 The Court has therefore, perused a purshis Exh.7118 which is a declaration by the defence counsel for admitting such injury certificate to be exhibited.

PW No.83 Exh.881-Jayendrakumar Natvarlal Patel

10.265 The Court has perused evidence of PW No.10-Kadarbhai Karimbhai Ajmeri vide Exh.518, who is a natural witness, and was doing business of cutlery on a make shift shop (handcart) and near his place of business, the blast has taken place because of which he has sustained injuries. The witness has deposed in due course and there is no challenge to the version and therefore, the question as is described by this witness has to be accepted.

10.266 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has submitted that several medical certificates of the witnesses were examined were admitted by the defence side and therefore, the prosecution had not examined the treating doctor for the purpose of exhibiting such medical certificates.

10.267 The Court has perused the deposition of the complainant PW No.2-Hitesh Ramchandra Rana at Exh.486 who has deposed that on 26.07.2008 at around 6:30 p.m. he had went to pick up his son from tuition. On his way back home after picking up his son, he heard a loud explosion while they were passing by the area near Raipur Chakla Police Station, near a medical shop named M. Narayandas which was next to a roadside cart. From the sound of the explosion, this witness felt that a gas cylinder had burst. However, upon seeing an old man lying nearby this witness realized that a bomb blast had occurred. Upon hearing the people shouting that a bomb blast had occurred, this witness ran to the opposite side of the road and meanwhile, another explosion occurred. The second explosion occurred at Gokhale Paan House which is situated opposite the police station and this witness and his son sustained injuries as a result of the said explosion. This witness sustained injuries on his right thigh and left knee whereas his son sustained injuries on his lower abdomen, private parts and on his thigh. The said injuries occurred due to the shrapnel from the blast and both, the witness and his son were bleeding as a result of the injury. A large crowd had gathered at the place of incident and several others had also got injured as a result of the blast. Thereafter, this witness and his son were taken to the hospital by their neighbor wherein he got to know that several other injured persons who were injured in the blasts had been brought to the hospital for treatment. Thereafter, he filed the complaint at the hospital and upon being shown the complaint at Mark 97/689, he has confirmed the contents of the complaint and has identified his signature on it which came to be exhibited vide Exh.487. This witness was thereafter questioned on 28.07.2008 by a police officer.

10.268 This witness has thereafter been cross examined regarding the time taken by the witness to reach the tuition from his home, the route taken by him on his way back and the location of certain places such as, Gokhale Paan House and the medical shop. This witness has thereafter been cross examined with regard to the complaint at Exh.487 wherein he has admitted that he has not read the complaint before signing it and that he omitted to inform in his statement before the police that he initially believed the explosion was due to a blast of gas cylinder. Thereafter, this witness has deposed that in his complaint he has stated about the occurrence of the explosion however, he has omitted to mention that the explosion took place near the cart which was placed near the medical shop. In this regard, the Special Public Prosecutor had clarified that the contradiction is limited to the phrase that 'explosion took place near the cart' and this was also admitted by the advocate on behalf of the accused. He has deposed that the complaint was recorded as per the narration of this witness and that he has not received a copy of the complaint.

10.269 In the cross examination this witness has further deposed that when the first explosion occurred, the public initially believed that it was due to bursting of a gas cylinder and gathered at the site however, upon realizing that it was a bomb blast there was panic amongst the people. Further, he has deposed that both, this witness and his son got injured due to the second explosion that took place when they were trying to run away and were thereafter taken to the hospital for treatment. He has also deposed that the complaint was recorded on the same day at around 11:30 p.m. This witness has also deposed that he observed a cycle and scooter that had got damaged as a result of the said explosion and that apart from this; he had not observed damage to any other vehicle.

10.270 Upon perusing the entire deposition of this witness, the evidence of this witness is found to be reliable insofar as his presence at the place of incident, the injuries sustained by him and his minor son and the sequence of events narrated by this witness are concerned. Further, although there are minor contradictions in the cross examination of this witness, they have been clarified and are not of a nature so as to affect the truthfulness of the evidence led by this witness.

10.271 The Court has thereafter perused the deposition of the police officer who recorded the complaint given by the aforesaid witness namely, PW No.702 Pradipbhai Gijubhai Patel at Exh.3444 who was working as a Second Police Inspector at Khadiya Police Station at the relevant time. He has deposed that on 26.07.2008, blasts had occurred at three different locations. This witness was patrolling the area near Chakleshwar Mahadev Khadia in a government vehicle and upon hearing about the bomb explosion at around 6:30 p.m., he went to the three places where the blasts had occurred that were located in the vicinity of each other namely, (i) near M. Narayandas Medical Store, Raipur Chakla; (ii) near Gokhale Paan House and (iii) near Milan Kirana Store, Sarangpur Chakla. Upon inspecting all the three locations, it was found that the bomb was planted on the bicycle and that several people had sustained injuries. The sites were cordoned off by the staff members and the injured persons were sent for treatment in private vehicles and 108 ambulances to V.S. Hospital and L.G. Hopsital along with their relatives.

10.272 Thereafter, this witness along with the staff members went to V.S. Hospital wherein he recorded the complaint of the injured person namely, PW No.2-Hitesh Ramchandra Rana and his signature was obtained. Further, based on this complaint an F.I.R. was registered and a report under Section 157 of the Code of Criminal Procedure was prepared and further investigation was taken over by this witness. The F.S.L. and B.D.S. teams were called to the site and superior officers were informed. Also, two panch witnesses were called for making panchnama of scene of offence and the first site i.e., near M. Narayandas Medical Store, the area where the explosion took place was identified by one Shailesh Dhanjibhai Chunara. At this site, a Hero Jet bicycle, partially burnt cloth and iron pieces (shrapnel) were found. The second site where the explosion took place was outside Gokhale Paan House and the site of explosion was identified by one Harshadbhai Navinchandra Pandya where, one black colored Hero bicycle, the frame number of which was duly noted in the presence of panch witnesses, copper strips, wooden strips, pieces of cloth and iron shrapnel were found. This witness thereafter went to the third site where explosion took place which was near Milan Kirana Store at Sarangpur Chakla which was identified by one Rajeshbhai Manharlal Kayasth wherein partly burnt cloth pieces, iron shrapnel and a silver colored Hero bicycle, the frame number of which was noted as per the panch witnesses were found. Also, a F.S.L. officer, Jagdish Sharma conducted inspection and under his directions muddamal, including cycles were seized from all the three places where explosion took place. The muddamal except for cycles were sealed with slips bearing signatures of the panch witnesses and the police. The panchnama commenced at around 12:15 a.m. and concluded at 3:30 a.m. The F.S.L. report, panchnama, inquest forms and injury certificates of the injured and deceased persons were kept for the purpose of investigation. The further investigation was handed over to the Crime Branch as per the instructions of the Police Commissioner received through the Police Control Room.

10.273 Exh.487 is the complaint recorded by this witness and he has confirmed that it was recorded as per the narration of the complainant and thereafter signed by both, the complainant and this witness. He has identified the signatures present on the back side of the first page of Exh.487 as well as at the end of the complaint. Exh.615 is the report sent to P.S.O. at Khadia Police Station bearing the signature of this witness which has been identified by him. He has also identified the endorsement made by the P.S.O. on the document while forwarding the investigation papers to him. The said report came to be registered as F.I.R. No.71/2008 at Khadia Police Station and was assigned to this witness for investigation. He has confirmed that Exh.1718 is the panchnama which has been prepared as per the narration of the panch witnesses regarding the items which were seized from the place of explosion and has also identified the signatures of the panch witnesses and him on the document. panch witnesses and him. The signature on the panch slip at Exh.1720 which has been cut out due to the seal has been identified by this witness. This witness has confirmed that all the panch slips are those which had been affixed to the muddamal sealed during the panchnama. Thereafter, upon being shown Mark No.3440/1, he has identified it as the office copy of the intimation letter sent to the F.S.L. officer and his signature on it which is exhibited as Exh.3445. Mark No.97/691 is the report issued for site inspection by the F.S.L. officer which has been identified by this witness. He has also identified the muddamal items which were seized during the panchnama which consisted of Items Nos.1 to 3 being the cycles and Item Nos. 4 to 10 being the other muddamal under Exh.2131 of Sessions Case No.82/09.

10.274 In the cross examination, this witness has admitted that at the time of the explosion he was at a distance of 200 metres from the place of explosion and that no intimation was received from the Police Control Room or from any other person. He has deposed that he reached the place within 3 to 4 minutes and that, all the three places where the explosion took place were at a distance of 2 to 7 minutes from each other. He has deposed that he remained at the place of explosion for two hours wherein he made arrangements for controlling the crowd and maintaining peace before he proceeded to the hospital. He got to know that a cognizable offence has been committed upon reaching the place of explosion and therefore, he intimated the P.S.O. through his personal phone. He has deposed that, he has not attempted to give a complaint himself as a complainant and that he has not recorded the complaint of any injured or deceased persons at the place of explosion. He has admitted that a complaint pertaining to a cognizable offence should be recorded immediately however, as priority was given to provide immediate medical injured, the complaint was recorded two hours after the occurrence of the incident. The complaint was recorded as per the deposition of this witness at 8:30 p.m. and was formally registered at the police station at 11 p.m. This witness has thereafter been cross examined regarding whether he personally went to get the complaint registered to which he has answered in the affirmative.

10.275 Further, in the cross examination of this witness he has deposed that he returned to the place of incident and conducted a panchnama of scene of offence in the presence of the panch witnesses and that, he met a person named Shaileshbhai Chunara whose statement was not recorded. He has denied the suggestion that in the absence of recording of such statement, it could not be ascertained whether he had witnessed the incident or the location where the explosion occurred. He has deposed that the panchnama commenced at 12:15 a.m. and that he informed the F.S.L. through the Police Control Room and not by written intimation. Further, he has deposed that the panchnama did not mention details regarding the time when such intimation was received and the time of arrival of F.S.L. team. He has admitted that the documents made at the place of offence were not in his handwriting and that he does not recollect the name of the police officer who had written it. However, he has deposed that the signatures on such documents were of him. Upon being asked he has replied that during the seizure, neither were the cycles wrapped in cloth or plastic nor were any marks or panch slips signed by the panch witnesses affixed on it. He has denied the suggestion that the cycles which were kept in the police station were not sent for F.S.L. examination. He also admits that he does not recall the condition in which the said cycles were kept at the police station.

10.276 Thereafter, he has deposed that the investigation of the case was handed over to the Crime Branch, Ahmedabad after completing the panchnama on 27.07.2008 at 3:30 a.m. He has deposed that before handing over the investigation, he had no information about the accused persons involved and that subsequent to handing over of the investigation, he did not carry out any further panchnama or record any statements. He has also denied suggestions that the complaint was not recorded as per the narration of the complainant and that; the panchnama at Exh.1718 was falsely prepared in the presence of panch witnesses and F.S.L.

10.277 Upon perusal of the evidence of this witness, it reflects a prompt action taken on part of the police officer upon hearing the explosion in reaching the place of explosion, undertaking necessary procedure for maintaining law and order, sending the injured to the hospital, recording of complaint and making of panchnama. Although there appears to be a delay in lodging complaint, the same has been justified as the priority was to send the injured persons to the hospital. There appears to be lapse in documenting the time of intimation received and arrival of F.S.L. officers, and the absence of affixing panch slips or marks while seizing the cycles and the storage thereafter. However, the deposition of the police officer is required to be accepted insofar as the occurrence of blasts, his arrival at the place of explosion, carrying out necessary procedure including recording of complaint, which is also supported by the evidence of the complainant and the making of panchnama of scene of offence and the seizure of muddamal which have been duly seized and affixed with panch slips.

10.278 The Court has perused the evidence of the witnesses who have deposed regarding the damage occurred and injuries sustained due to the blasts that have took place 1) behind M. Narayandas Medical

He has deposed that while he was on duty, two persons informed them about the bomb blast that had took place at Raipur Chakla upon which, he immediately reached there and brought five persons in the ambulance out of which, two persons had died and the remaining three persons were alive and were taken to V.S. Hospital for treatment. Thereafter, they came back to their location and subsequently went again to Raipur Chakla however, no person was found there. Upon getting to know regarding the blast that had took place near Sarangpur Chakla, he went there however, no person was found there either. Therefore, they returned to the location. The statement of this witness in this regard has been recorded by the police. In the cross examination of this witness on the behalf of an advocate representing one of the accused, he has affirmed that he came to know about the persons who had sustained injuries in the blast from the persons who were present at Raipur Chakla and has further affirmed that he had taken two deceased and three injured persons in the vehicle. He has not agreed with the suggestion put forth in the cross examination that the ambulance in such circumstances, is meant to carry only the injured persons and not the deceased.

10.280 The Court has thereafter perused the evidence of PW No.785-Jaliben Naranbhai Rabari at Exh.4088 who resides with her family at Sarangpur Chakla area and is engaged in animal husbandry. This witness has deposed regarding a blast that took place on 26.07.2008

She has affirmed that she was at her house from the date of the incident until the date when her statement was recorded. She has deposed that the injury to the cows took place at around 6 to 7 p.m.

10.281 The Court has thereafter perused the evidence of PW No.1002-Rajeshbhai Manharlal Kayasth at Exh.6975 who was carrying on a vegetable cart at Sarangpur Chakla and has deposed that on 26.07.2008, at about 6:30 p.m. an explosion occurred in front of Milan Kirana Stores which was closed at that time due to which, two cows had died and four to five people had sustained injuries. 10.282 The Court has thereafter perused the evidence of PW No.1015-Jatin Navinchandra Pandya at Exh.7005 who was carrying on a business in the name of "Gokhale Paan House" at Raipur Chakla and has deposed that on 26.07.2008, at about 6:30 p.m. an explosion occurred on the road close to the medical shop "M. Narandas and Company" and shortly thereafter, another blast occurred on the road in front of the shop of this witness due to which an employee named Ankit Modi who was working at the shop of this witness had sustained injuries from shrapnel of the blast. Thereafter, the ambulance arrived and the injured person namely, Ankit Modi was taken to V.S. Hospital wherein the doctor declared him dead. This witness remained at the hospital throughout the night and the post-mortem of this witness was carried out. Also, outside his shop, a two wheeled black colored Activa which was owned by this witness and used for the purpose of commuting was left outside the shop itself as he went to the hospital along with Ankit Modi. He has deposed that the blast took place on a bicycle and the statement of this witness was recorded by the police on 27.07.2008. In the cross examination of this witness, he has deposed that both the shops are situated adjacent to each other and that there is a footpath in front of both the shops wherein two wheelers are parked. 10.296 In view of the aforesaid evidence, in the opinion of the Court, the prosecution has established two blasts one at Diamond Pan corner at Sardar Patel Diamond Market and another at near Shriji Ice-cream Parlor in front of Tea Stall and injuries sustained on account of the blast. He felt quite afraid and was stunned and he experienced ringing in his ears, which lasted for some time however, he has denied the suggestion that he was unable to hear after the blast. On questions being asked relating to which ear he experienced ringing, he has deposed that he experienced ringing in his right ear and was unable to tell with surety whether it affected his left ear. He deposed that 4 to 5 people took him to the Hospital, which he reached within 5 minutes and was thereafter, given treatment. not on the same route. With regard to treatment in the cross examination, this witness has deposed that after treatment at Kakadiya Hospital, he had straightway gone to his home and after 10 to 15 days, he had gone to Civil Hospital for treatment. He has deposed that after 2 days of incident, once again, he had gone to Kakadiya Hospital, but with regard to his treatment at Civil Hospital, he has not produced any papers to the police and had retained those papers with himself. He has confirmed the suggestion that he had not given information with regard to treatment at Civil Hospital to the police. He has denied the suggestion that he himself has no information about the bomb blast, but on account of several blasts taken place around Ahmedabad City, on the instruction of Police, he has given this complaint. This witness has reiterated that he has witnessed other people also getting injured. He was contradicted with regard to fact of bag being of plastic, was not stated in his complaint and that he has not informed the Police that in the bomb blast, nails also flew out. officer PW No.705-Keshavlal Premjibhai Gajipara at Exh.3458 who recorded the complaint of the aforesaid witness in connection with offence registered at Bapunagar Police Station vide C.R. No.I-220/2008. He has deposed that he was working as Senior Police Inspector, Bapunagar Police Station at the relevant time and that around 6:15 to 6:30 p.m., he was informed that a blast had took place near Sardar Diamond Market and he therefore proceeded to Dhanvantri Hospital wherein he found injured persons who were brought for treatment. Upon reaching the location where the blast took place, it appeared that the blast occurred due to an explosive substance which was placed on a cycle. Thereafter, he proceeded to check other vehicles which were parked in the area and upon noticing a suspicious bag which was placed on a bicycle, a message was sent to the Control Room requesting for F.S.L. and Bomb Disposal Squad. Also, the crowd was cleared off from the nearby area. Shortly thereafter, an explosion occurred from the bag which was placed on the bicycle. He was thereafter informed by the P.S.O. of Bapunagar Police Station that the injured persons had been taken to Kakadiya Hospital upon which, he instructed staff to secure the location where the blast occurred and proceeded to Kakadiya Hospital to record the complaint given by the complainant which was thereafter forwarded to the P.S.O. for registration of offence. At the instance of a police constable named Dineshbhai, the location where the first explosion occurred was pointed out and a panchnama was made in that regard. Thereafter, upon arrival of the F.S.L. 20 to 25 metal pellets lying at a distance of 7 to 8 feet. Similarly, from the location where the second explosion occurred, similar white slippery substance on nearby vehicles, wires with detonators, pieces of wood, burnt military colored bag, pieces of shirt and newspaper and small round metal pellets were collected. Thereafter, as per the instructions received, the investigation was handed over to Crime Branch at around 3 a.m. to P.I. Patel. This witness has also deposed that both the bicycles were seized by them.

10.302 Exh.505 is the complaint which has been confirmed by this witness to be the one given by the complainant Rameshbhai Chhaganbhai Chandpara and that it was recorded as per his narration and that, it was signed by the complainant on the reverse side of the first page and at the end of the complaint. Further, it was countersigned by this witness and he has identified the signatures of both, the complainant and himself on the complaint. Exh.611 is the report which was prepared and forwarded to P.S.O. of Bapunagar Police Station for registration of the offence under Section 157 of the Code of Criminal Procedure based on which, F.I.R. No.220/08 was registered and this witness has confirmed the said report and has also identified his signature on it. Exh.1890 is the panchnama of scene of offence which this witness has confirmed to be made in the presence of two panch witnesses and which describes the muddamal articles which were seized from the location bearing the signature of both the panch witnesses and himself which has been identified by him. Exhs.1879 to 1889 and Exhs.1891 to 1897 are the panchnama slips which are related to the panchnama which is exhibited as Exh.1890 and which correspond to the muddamal articles which were seized bearing signatures of both the panch witnesses and him which has been identified by this witness. Thereafter, upon being shown the seized muddamal articles at Serial Nos.1 to 17 of the muddamal list exhibited at Exh.2065 in connection with Sessions Case No.341/09, this witness has confirmed it to be the same articles which were seized and listed in the panchnama.

10.303 Thereafter, in the cross examination of this witness he has admitted that he did not make any documentary record of the information received by him regarding the explosion. He has deposed that when he arrived at the location where the blast took place, no injured persons were found and has denied the suggestion that upon not finding any injured persons at the location, he went to the hospital to record the complaint. He has also deposed that at the location of the blast, the crowd was agitated and that he did not question the persons who were at the location as there was a possibility of another bomb being found in a vehicle and therefore, he prioritized to secure the area. He was thereafter questioned regarding the distance between the two places where the blast took place and the radius within which the metal pellets were found. He has denied the suggestion that the items were seized only within 8-10 feet radius and has admitted that the panchnama did not mention of the distance within which the muddamal articles were seized. He has deposed that although the second blast took place in his presence, no attempt was made to file a separate complaint and that he does not recall whether his statement in that regard was recorded in that regard. He has deposed that after the blast, he attempted to collect evidence including blood stains and samples of explosive material from the vehicles lying nearby at both the locations which were thereafter handed over to the P.I. of the Crime Branch. He has deposed that he does not recall the number of police officers on duty and that he orally instructed to secure the scene however, no documentary record has been made in that regard. Further, he has admitted that no identification marks were affixed on the bicycle which was seized and he has confirmed that he possessed the official seal of Bapunagar Police Station and that no procedure was required on his part in order to use or affix the seal.

10.304 The Court upon perusing the evidence of this witness finds it to be consistent and credible as the recording of the complaint appears to have been made in the regular course of his duty which is supported by the deposition of the complainant himself and also having promptly undertaken subsequent procedures. Further, in the cross examination, there appears to be some lapse such as, not affixing any identification mark on the bicycles, not filing a separate complaint with regard to the second blast although he was present at the time of the blast, etc. However, it is not of a nature so as to discredit the evidence of this witness.

10.305 The Court has perused the evidence of the witnesses who have deposed regarding the damage occurred and injuries sustained due to the blasts that have took place near Sardar Patel Diamond Market, Bapunagar.

10.306 The Court has perused the evidence of PW No.748-Mahendrakumar Babulal Rajput at Exh.3536 who was working as a security guard and was assigned on duty at the main gate of the Sardar Patel Diamond Market, Bapunagar at the relevant time. He has deposed that on 26.07.2008, at about 6:30 to 6:45 p.m. while he was on duty, a loud explosion occurred in the parking area of the Diamond Market and upon going there he saw that people were running helter and skelter and some people had sustained injuries and were bleeding. He has deposed that a bicycle was lying at the location and that the injured persons were taken to the hospital by vehicle. Thereafter, in the parking area which is opposite Prabhu Tea Stall another bag was found hanging on a bicycle and upon suspicion that the said bag also contained a bomb, all persons standing nearby were removed and thereafter, that bomb also exploded. However, as the people had already been moved away, no such injury had been caused. He has deposed that one Anilbhai Patel had died in the said incident. The statement of this witness has been recorded by the police on the next day. In the cross examination of this witness, he has deposed that the parking of the Diamond Market is situated outside and that as a part of his duty, he had to keep a check on the persons entering and leaving. He has deposed that the parking is situated four steps away from the gate and the vehicles of the people who come to Diamond Market are parked there however, he does not know as to which vehicles are parked by whom and that he cannot say as to on what the said explosion took place. He has also admitted that he cannot state as to what was the kind of bag and the colour of it. He has deposed that he had only heard the sound of the blast and that he does not know anything further.

10.307 The Court has thereafter perused the evidence of PW No.994-Ravishankar Shivshankar Trivedi at Exh.6937 who was carrying on business in the name of "Gayatri Diamond Weighing Centre" at Diamond Market in Bapunagar and has deposed that on 26.07.2008 at about 6:30 p.m. after finishing his market work, he had come back and had parked his Activa near Dhanvantri Hospital. He has deposed that shortly thereafter, a bomb blast occurred near Sardar Patel Diamond Market due to which people started running helter and skelter. He has deposed that one person namely, Bharatbhai who was working as a broker had informed him regarding a bomb which was on a bicycle upon which, he immediately moved away from there. Shortly thereafter, the bomb exploded due to which there was a panic amongst the people. He has deposed that in the explosion that occurred near Diamond Paan Centre, one person had died and about seven people had sustained injuries and that a statement of this witness in regard to the incident was recorded by the police on the next day. In the cross examination of this witness, he has admitted that he had not gone to the police station to get his statement recorded and that the police had not read over his statement to him.

Kalol Police Station C.R. No.I-220/2008

10.308 Learned Additional Advocate General has thereafter referred to the Kalol incident, wherein an unexploded device was found in an unclaimed box inside an A.M.T.S. bus, which was subsequently removed and placed outside near Arvind Mill, Khatraj. In this regard, reliance is placed on the deposition of the conductor of the A.M.T.S. bus i.e. PW No.678-Ajmalbhai Salubhai Padariya, panch witness, and the documents on record such as, panchnamas and FSL reports to submit that the said object was an explosive device which was detected and defused.

10.309 The Court has perused the evidence of PW No.678-Ajmalbhai Salubhai Padariya examined vide Exh.3336, who was working as the conductor of the A.M.T.S. bus, and has deposed that on 26.07.2008, while the bus was stationed at Arvind Mill, he noticed an unclaimed box wrapped in cloth beneath the rear seat of the bus. On suspicion, the same was brought to the notice of the driver and one of the passengers removed the said box and placed it at some distance from the bus. However, the witness has stated that he did not identify the person who removed the box nor did he ascertain who had brought the same into the bus. He has further admitted that he himself did not inform the police and that he left with the due to the request of the passengers. Therefore, although the presence of an unattended suspicious object was noticed, the witness did not remain present thereafter nor did he take steps to inform the police directly.

10.310 The Court has also perused the evidence of PW No.686-Prithvibhai Ramabhai Parmar, a member of the Anti-Sabotage Squad, examined vide Exh.3348, who has deposed that upon reaching near Arvind Mill, a suspicious box was found, which was initially examined through the dog squad and which indicated presence of suspicious substance. Thereafter, the box was examined using explosive detector and NLJD instrument, both of which confirmed presence of explosive substance. He has further deposed that thereafter the process for defusing the bomb was undertaken and upon opening the box, components such as detonator, battery, alarm clock and shrapnel fitted together were found, which were separated and the device was successfully defused. In cross-examination, the witness was questioned with regard to his service, absence of personal record of duty, functioning of the control room and procedural aspects of his deployment. However, nothing material has emerged so as to discredit his evidence with regard to the detection of the explosive device and the successful defusing operation carried out by the squad.

10.311 From Exh.2080, the panchnama of scene of offence proved through PW No.359-Mohanji Balaji Thakor examined vide Exh.2079, it appears that the suspicious box found near Arvind Mill, Khatraj was an explosive device which had already been defused by the Anti-Sabotage Squad prior to the panchnama. The panchnama records the separated components of the bomb, including detonators, batteries, alarm clock mechanism, wiring and shrapnel affixed with adhesive substance, along with packing materials used in its assembly. It appears that upon examination by the FSL officer at the spot, the device was confirmed to be an explosive, and all components were thereafter seized in sealed condition.

10.312 From Exh.1923, the panchnama of scene of offence was drawn in presence of PW No.349-Dineshji Arjanji Thakor vide Exh.1922, it appears that the AMTS bus was inspected in presence of the driver and conductor, and the conductor identified the precise location beneath the rear seat near the passenger door where the suspicious white cardboard box was first noticed which was thereafter removed by a passenger and placed outside the bus at a short distance. No incriminating article was found inside the bus. Therefore, the panchnama establishes the original location of the object within the bus and its subsequent removal to the place where it was found in the open.

10.313 From the Investigation Van Report of the Directorate of Forensic Science vide Exh.5567, it appears that the FSL Officer, upon examination of the scene, found presence of ammonium nitrate-based substance, two detonators, shrapnel, battery, wiring and alarm clock mechanism, constituting all essential components of an explosive device. The report further opines that the device was an Improvised Explosive Device (IED) using ANFO as explosive material, thereby confirming that the recovered articles were parts of a defused bomb.

10.314 The Court can relate this document with the FSL report vide Exh.5716, wherein it appears that the seized muddamal articles, including ammonium nitrate-based substance, detonators, shrapnel, alarm clock, battery and wiring system, were subjected to chemical analysis, which confirmed presence of ammonium nitrate and petroleum

He had seen the car with the doctor symbol in front of his shop and as there was a symbol of doctor and hospital is just across the road, initially he did not suspect anything. Krishnakant Modi at Exh.3310 who has deposed that he was working as a Technical Assistant in the Encroachment Department of Surat Municipal Corporation and that, on 26.07.2008 while he was removing banners at City Lights Circle along with another worker named Lallubhai (PW-668), he found a green colored packet resembling a radio device and assuming it to be of no use, instructed him to discard it. Thereafter, the said packet was left near the divider opposite Nupur Hospital. Subsequently, on the next day upon seeing similar looking packets that were discovered to be bombs being defused on television, this witness felt suspicious and informed one Jitendra Bhatt (PW-670) who subsequently informed the police who carried out the requisite procedure.

10.459 Further, in this regard, the Court has perused the evidence of PW-668 Lallubhai Thakorbhai Patel at Exh.3321 who has deposed that he was working as a beldaar at Surat Municipal Corporation and that, on 26.07.2008, he was employed for removal of unauthorized banners near City Lights Circle and upon noticing an object that appeared to be a FM Radio, he placed it in the Municipal vehicle. Circle which he mistakenly considered it to be a FM radio and accordingly instructed him to discard it near Nupur Hospital. Thereafter, upon seeing a similar parcel in the news which was connected to the bomb blast, he immediately informed this witness as he felt suspicious and as Kamlesh Modi (PW No.658) was away, he asked this witness to inform the police. Upon which, this witness immediately went to the police station and informed the authorities and guided them to the police station wherein the police opened the green colored polythene wrapped parcel which was confirmed to be a bomb and immediately undertook the necessary procedure for its disposal. This witness has also been cross examined wherein he has clarified that the information he gave to the police was based on what Kamlesh Modi (PW NO.658) told him. Apart from this, there appears to be no material cross of this witness.

10.461 Upon reading the evidence of these witnesses, it appears that the bomb was mistaken for a radio and was therefore, placed near the divider outside Nupur Hospital on 26.07.2008. However, upon realizing that it could be a bomb, the police was promptly informed and the bomb was recovered and thereafter defused. The line of events narrated by the witnesses in this regard appears to corroborate each other and is consistent. Further, there is nothing in the cross examination of these witnesses so as to discredit the truthfulness of these witnesses and therefore, their evidence regarding the location and recovery of the bomb is required to be accepted.

10.462 Drawing attention to evidence of PW No.499-Rameshbhai Somabhai Patel, vide Exh.2930, who is the informant and a police officer. In his deposition, he has deposed that he himself has defused the bomb and had called for the superior officer.

In this regard, the Court has also perused deposition of PW No.441-Narsinhbhai @ Narsang Karmanbhai Patel, Exh.2693 to establish the aforesaid fact. The Court has also perused deposition of PW No.1137-Jesingbhai Mohanbhai Patel, Exh.8156, who was member of the Bomb Disposal Squad and had carried out procedure to defuse the bomb. Shortly thereafter, the traffic police personnel and other officers arrived at the place and cordoned off the area and initiated the necessary procedures. No.II-363/2008 where one unexploded live bomb was found at Varachha L.H. Road, Old Shaktivijay Society in a small substation of Torrent Power Company.

10.488 Thereafter, in this regard, Learned Special Public Prosecutor has drawn our attention to the deposition of PW No.549-Bhavesh Lavjibhai Patel at Exh.3009 who was running a garage. He was informed by one of the two boys playing near the substation that there was something lying near the substation and upon looking, he found that a packed bomb was present inside a green colored plastic bag. a suspicious thing lying near the substation. He went and saw that a packed bomb was present in a green coloured plastic bag and immediately informed the police. The police arrived within 15-20 minutes and upon showing them the place, they commenced their procedure and carried away the bomb with them. In the cross examination, this witness was questioned regarding how he arrived upon the conclusion that the said substance was a bomb. Further, this witness has deposed in his cross examination regarding arrival of the police and that they conducted their procedure and left. There is no other specific cross of this witness.

10.490 Another witness, the evidence of which is perused by the Court is PW No.569-Nikunj Maganlal Kotadiya at Exh.3042 who used to run the garage shop along with the above mentioned witness PW No.549-Bhavesh Lavjibhai Patel who is his uncle. This witness has deposed similar facts. In his cross examination he has stated that the power house was 10-12 feet away from the garage and that a crowd had gathered near the spot. There is no other specific cross of this witness.

10.491 Another witness examined in this regard is PW No.570-Satish Chunilal Mistri at Exh.3043 who used to run a textile shop. He came to know about the bomb blasts that took place in various places in Ahmedabad on 26.07.2008 and that on 28.07.2008, a crowd had gathered near the transformer of Torrent Power Company and upon seeing that, he went to the location where he found a suspicious substance wrapped in a green colored plastic bag. 30.07.2008. However, in his cross examination he has denied the fact of making any voluntary statement and that neither is he aware about the bomb disposal squad or the F.S.L., nor of the bomb defusal procedure carried out by them. It is observed that the lack of knowledge of this witness about the authorities and the procedure carried out by them doesn't affect the primary substance of the information deposed by him in the examination in chief.

10.492 The other witness perused by the Court in this regard is PW No.605-Nileshbhai Laljibhai Patel at Exh.3241 who is the owner of a textile shop and has deposed similar facts. Further, in his cross examination he has stated that the police cordoned off the area and that he was observing the cordoned off area from the first floor, about 20 feet away. 10.495 Upon perusal of deposition of the aforesaid witnesses, it establishes the recovery of a live bomb near the Torrent Power Company on 28.07.2008. Further, their deposition regarding the intimation made to police and the subsequent defusal of the bomb appears to be credible and therefore, the deposition of the witnesses is considered to be reliable insofar as the recovery and defusing of the bomb is concerned.

10.496 The intention to terrorize public and cause terror amongst the general public can be inferred even from the proved sites of planting of the bomb i.e., near a mini substation or a hoarding in the middle of the busy public road or at or near the hospital which would be buzzing with activity immediately post the blast which is sufficient for the court to infer the intent of the accused. It also requires the court to infer that an exercise was undertaken for placing the bombs at places which are vulnerable and cause maximum damage in terms of life and property. It is not that the unexploded bombs were placed and found randomly.

He further deposed that another bomb was seen in the electric meter of an adjacent shop by a hawker who informed the police. The police and the bomb disposal squad arrived shortly thereafter and the bombs were defused and taken away. There is no other specific cross of this witness. Other witnesses who have given similar testimonies are that of PW No.563-Kailashbhai Higrajbhai Charan at Exh.3032, PW No.606-Milan Chandubhai Rupareliya at Exh.3242, PW No.651-Ramanbhai Gigabhai Patel at Exh.3298 and PW No.657-Mohanbhai Nadarmal Jain at Exh.3309 who are running shops in the nearby area.

10.501 Another witness perused by this Court is that of PW No.662-Mohanlal Khanaramji Mali at Exh.3315 who was engaged in the business of selling cutlery near 'Samarpan Kapad Kendra' which is located in Baroda Prestige Market. On 29.07.2008, upon hearing people shouting, he went to the place and saw a bomb wrapped in light yellow (popti) colored paper near the shutter of Omkar Fashion. Thereafter, the police made an announcement to report similar suspicious items. He noticed a suspicious item in an electric meter box nearby and informed the police, who came along with the bomb disposal squad and defused the bomb. Thereafter, the police and bomb squad came and carried out the necessary procedures to defuse the bomb. He was thereafter cross examined regarding the box and his presence at the place. There is no other specific cross of this witness. Another witness examined in this regard is PW No.642-Dharmesh Narsinhbhai Delvadiya at Exh.3287 who runs "Bansari Paan Centre" along with his brother and that, he got to know about the bomb upon hearing the shouts of "bomb bomb" by the people. Thereafter, the police arrived. There is no other specific cross of this witness.

10.503 Upon perusing the deposition of the aforesaid witnesses, it establishes the fact of recovery of unexploded bombs on 29.07.2008 from various places in the market. The aforesaid witnesses have deposed regarding them personally seeing the bombs or getting to know about the planting of bombs because of public commotion which was thereafter followed by giving information to the police and subsequent defusal of the bomb by the bomb squad. Further, there is nothing coming out in the cross examination of these witnesses so as to discredit their testimony and therefore, the Court finds the deposition of these witnesses reliable in proving the recovery of the unexploded bombs in Surat.

10.505 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter referred to another offence reported with the same police station being C.R. No. II - 365/08 where :

i) One unexploded live bomb was found at Varachha Over Bridge, Poll No. 98 from an hoarding iron angle, thereafter the bomb was defused. Further, Learned Special Public Prosecutor has also read out the evidence of PW No.564-Nareshbhai Parshuram Rajgor at Exh.3033 who has deposed that he saw one bomb each being recovered from the hoarding fixed on Pole No. 98 of the overbridge, from a banyan tree near the weighing machine of Anilbhai Choksi in Mohan ni Chawl and from the iron sheet opposite to the weighing machine of Anilbhai Choksi.

10.507 The Court has perused the evidence of PW No.553-Jayesh Laxmanbhai Bhattu at Exh.3017 who deposed in his testimony that on 29.07.2008, he was on his way to his office wherein he noticed a green colored box affixed to Hoarding No.98 on Sardar Bridge and thereafter, he informed the police who came along with the bomb disposal squad and defused the bomb. He was cross examined regarding the height at which the hoarding was, how the bomb was attached to the hoarding and how he noticed it. There is no other specific cross of this witness and therefore, his evidence can be considered reliable insofar as the recovery and defusal of bomb from Hoarding No.98 on Sardar Bridge is concerned.

10.508 Another witness examined in this regard is PW No.564-Nareshbhai Parshuram Rajgor at Exh.3033. deposed that all these bombs were defused and taken away. He has been cross examined regarding whether he could identify a bomb, whether he could see such the place from where the bomb was recovered from his workplace and regarding his presence at the place. Apart from this, there is no other specific cross of this witness. Upon perusal of the evidence of this witness it appears that it supports the deposition of PW No.553-Jayesh Laxmanbhai Bhattu insofar as the recovery of the bomb from Hoarding No.98 on Sardar Bridge is concerned. Further, the testimony of this witness also clearly establishes the fact of recovery of bombs from the banyan tree and the iron sheet located in the nearby area on 29.07.2008.

10.509 Another evidence perused by this Court is that of PW No.568-Paresh Batukbhai Thakkar at Exh.3041 who has deposed that he was working as a manager at “Pakwan Guest House” on Varachha Road. while he was working at the shop he saw multiple bombs being recovered from various locations in the vicinity of the shop namely, from a hoarding near the over bridge, from a banyan tree near his shop, from a hoarding opposite his shop, from near Alpha Restaurant and from the premises of Bhavna Ford showroom. He was thereafter cross examined regarding the place and the height at which the bomb was placed and his presence on the date of incident. Apart from this, there is no other specific cross. Upon looking at the deposition of the witness in its entirety, it is observed that although there is some discrepancy regarding the date of incident, there is an overall consistency in his deposition and can therefore be considered reliable.

10.511 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter referred to another offence reported with the same police station being C.R. No. II - 366/08 where:

Learned Special Public Prosecutor has read out the deposition of PW No.608-Bhavesh Ghanshyam Zalavadiya at Exh.3244 in this regard who has deposed that he came to know about the news of bombs being planted in Surat City and in the Varachha area and that, while he was on his way back home he found a suspicious object on the north side divider of Bhavani Circle and had therefore promptly informed the police. Further, he also found a similar substance on the nearby divider on the road towards Hiranagar and that both the bombs were defused.

The police arrived and carried out the necessary procedure to defuse the bombs. This witness has been cross examined regarding whether his police statement was recorded and apart from that, there is no specific cross of this witness. The deposition can be relied upon looking at the consistency of the material particulars and his conduct at the time of incident to promptly inform the police authorities.

10.513 Thereafter, the Court has perused the evidence of PW No.610-Raju Lakhabhai Makwana at Exh.3246 and the said witness has deposed that he runs a cutlery business in the name of "Soham Novelties Store" in Baroda Prestige Market and that, on 30.07.2008 while he was present at his shop, a crowd had begun to gather in a nearby shop and people were talking about a bomb which was on the first floor. Upon which, he went and saw a bomb near a pillar on the first floor and that, on the previous day, similar bombs were found from shops in that market. Further he has deposed that as someone informed the police, they arrived along with the bomb disposal squad and carried out the further procedure. He has deposed in his cross examination that the suspicious item was found on 30.07.2008 and that he had not gone to personally see the suspicious object but he got to know about it merely by word of mouth. Upon looking at the entire deposition of this witness, it appears that although there is a inconsistency in his version regarding whether he personally saw the suspicious object, it appears that a crowd had gathered and the said suspicious object was found on 30.07.2008 and therefore, the deposition of this witness cannot be discarded in its Jesingbhai Mohanbhai Patel, Exh.8156, who was member of the Bomb Disposal Squad and had carried out procedure to defuse the bomb. The Court has also perused the FSL report Exh.2735, which establishes the incriminating material seized being ammonium nitrate and fuel oil, which was used for explosion. The Court has thereafter perused Map Exh.7587 and FSL reports Exhs.5944 and 5651 to establish the location and to establish the incriminating material, wherein it appears that the contents of the explosive material were same as were used in Ahmedabad blasts.

10.516 Learned Special Public Prosecutor has thereafter referred to another offence reported with the same police station being C.R. No.II-367/08 wherein one unexploded live bomb was found from the first floor of Shri Kishan Complex, near Radhe Fashion in between the drainage pipe and wall and which is located at Varachha Baroda Prestige, Premgali.

10.517 In this regard, Learned Special Public Prosecutor has read out the evidence of PW No.560-Ranchod Jivabhai Makwana at Exh.3027 who found a bomb like object from the second floor of a building named “Kishan Complex” at the time when he went to inspect his nephew’s shop which is located nearby upon getting to know about the Ahmedabad bomb blast on 26.07.2008 and the recovery of bombs from various places in Surat the previous day. nephew's shop named "Soham Novelty Stores" which is located in Khodiyar Shopping Centre on 30.07.2008. There is a building named 'Kishan Complex' which is located nearby the shop of his nephew and upon inspecting the second floor of that building, he saw a bomb like object placed near the wall. He thereafter informed the police who arrived along with the bomb disposal squad and defused the bomb. Thereafter, upon perusing the cross examination of this witness it is coming out that this witness had not gone upstairs to inspect the object and saw it from below which was at a height of approximately five feet in the gap between the slab and the pillar. Apart from this, there is no material cross of this witness. In the opinion of the Court, the conduct of this witness in promptly informing the police and subsequent defusal by the bomb squad, sufficiently establishes the fact of the recovery of the bomb.

10.519 Another witness that has been examined in this regard is PW No.576-Bipin Dhirajlal Jobanputra who has deposed that he runs a shop named "Shreenath Novelty" at Khodiyar Shopping Centre, Baroda Prestige Market and that, on 30.07.2008 a crowd had gathered in front of his shop and that they were looking upwards. Upon looking in the same direction, he found a bomb like object which resembled the bombs that were discovered earlier from the same market on 29.07.2008. Further, he has deposed that Ranchod Makwana (PW No.560) informed the police and that they arrived along with the bomb disposal squad and defused the bomb. There is no substantial cross of this witness. The Court has also perused the deposition of PW No.611-Bhadresh Maganbhai Raycha at Exh.3247, PW No.633-Bharat Ramnikbhai Mathiya at Exh.3275 and PW No.644-Devendra Babubhai Lightwala at Exh.3289 who have given similar deposition regarding the recovery of bomb from "Kishan Complex" and who are carrying out some or the other business in the nearby area. There does not appear to be any material cross examination of these witnesses. Upon perusal of the evidence of the aforesaid witnesses, it clearly establishes the fact of recovery of a live bomb from 'Kishan Complex'. Further, the depositions of these witnesses appear to be consistent and corroborate each other and therefore, in the opinion of the Court the evidence of these witnesses can be considered to be reliable for proving the recovery and the defusal of the bomb.

Roy and Ms. Dwivedi and while making submissions on behalf of their respective Convicts they have also made submissions on the general issues raised and have interse adopted the arguments advanced by all the ld advocates. The Court, considering the commanality of the issue thus addressed generally is dealing with them as common submissions especially the issue based submissions and by consensus lead on general submissions was taken by Dr. Yug Chaudhry..

11.2. 11.4. By weak investigation, there is possibility of wrong persons being caught and convicted, which will act as Insurance Policy for the real accused persons, who would still be scot-free and would be inspired to once again indulge in such grave crime. It is submitted that the trial and conviction of wrong person as accused, acts as a greater protection and provides for permanent immunity to real perpetrators of crime and therefore, investigation and the Court should be slow in relying upon frail evidence.

11.5. Learned advocate has submitted that there are two species of evidence; one is strong evidence and another is weak species of evidence. According to him, various decisions rendered by the Hon'ble Apex Court as well as various High Courts specifically in serious cases of bomb blasts and Terror activities, have laid down that what would constitute evidence of strong species and weak species. According to him, evidence to strong species would be as under:

(1) Evidence of eyewitness having seen planter of the bombs;

(2) Accused seen around the site of bombing on CCTV or other electronic medium;

(3) Forensic evidence connecting the accused like finger prints on unexploded bomb or other bomb making materials;

(4) DNA of the accused found on the materials used for the bombs or site where the bombs are made;

(5) Call Detail Record to establish the connectivity amongst the accused of conspiracy;

(6) Seizure of huge quantity of arms, ammunition and explosives, which could be forensically connected to the offence;

(7) Money trail or source of finance;

(8) Residue of chemicals, Gun powers on the body or cloths or belongings of the accused;

(9) Prompt and detailed confessional statement, if any.

11.6. Learned Advocate has submitted that this strong evidence is directly connected to apprehension of real culprits. If investigation is strong enough to apprehend genuine accused persons, then aforesaid evidence would definitely be available to investigation. It is submitted that in the present case, lengthy investigation has not even unearthed foundational fact of what is source of finance for planing and gathering materials for the offence.

11.7. Learned Advocate has thereafter narrated species of weak nature of evidence and such evidence is weak as inherently it is vulnerable to manipulation.

(1) Extra judicial confession

(2) Evidence of accomplice / approver

(3) Discovery panchnama under Section 27 of Evidence Act

(4) Conduct of accused under Section 8 of Evidence Act

(5) Confessions of co-accused

11.8. According to learned Advocate aforesaid nature of evidences are required to be accepted with great caution and would definitely need corroboration.

11.9. Thereafter, learned Advocate has made submissions by cursorily undertaking comparative evidence in other serious cases; first of it being Terror attack of 26-11-2008 (Ajmal Kasab), where the evidence relied upon by the prosecution was seemingly of strong nature being CCTV footages displaying Terrorist in action.

11.10. Detailed 164 Statement, a statement which consisted of details, right from conceptualizing of the offence till execution, recovery of arms and ammunition in large quantity.

11.11. Other case being 1993 Serial Bomb Blasts in Bombay at various sites, killing 257 and injuring 1000, where infamous Terrorist like Dawood Ibrahim, Tiger Memon (having fled the Country) were involved. According to learned Advocate, nature of evidence in this case were of 77 confessions and 20 Recovery panchnamas under Section 27, wherein relevant terrorist materials were recovered. However, not a single point out panchnama for planting or conspiracy was put up before the Court as an evidence and therefore, out of 123 accused charged and tried, 100 accused were convicted and whose confirmation stood till the Apex Court.

11.12. According to learned Advocate, nature of evidence was of very high quality, even approver's evidence was promptly recorded within three months of their arrest, whereas in the present case, approver has made application to turn approver after 11 years.

11.13. According to learned Advocate aforesaid two terror cases should be treated as similar to the present case and therefore, quality of evidence should also be at par.

11.14. Learned Advocate has thereafter narrated instances of other Terror cases, where the Court has not believed evidence of Investigating Agency resulting into acquittal of all the accused. 2008 Train blasts in Mumbai causing 189 deaths and 700 injured led to arrest of 13 accused persons also members of SIMI. Of which, the Sessions Court convicted 12 accused persons and acquitted 1 accused person. However, the Bombay High Court acquitted all the accused. According to learned Advocate, acquittal has resulted as investigation was not credible and apparently, had gone on to manufacture evidence to suit the case of the prosecution and therefore, such investigation was not held to be trustworthy.

11.15. Another case popularly known as Malegaon blast of 2006, which was investigated by initially ATS and thereafter taken over by NIA, where 12 accused were charge-sheeted, but investigation of NIA led to doubts over investigation by ATS, which was found to have engineered panchnama, where panchanmas were found in a manner, where two panchas were shown to be present at two different places at the same time.

11.16. Investigation was also based on panchnamas, which were verbatim the same and would lead to believe that it was only cut, copy, paste panchnama. According to learned Advocate in the present case also, there are several panchnamas, which can be termed to be verbatim and also overlapping of panch witnesses shown at different places at different time.

11.17. Lastly, learned Advocate has referred to Akshardham case, which also is an example of weak investigation leading to acquittal of all the accused, thereby protecting the real culprits. Thereafter, referring to present case particularly of accused No.27-Mohd. Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan Mohammad Ishak Mansuri, who has made voluntary disclosure in Section 27 panchnama, the question is what prevented the Investigating Officer from recording voluntary confession under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., which would have inspired much more confidence, but that action was deliberately avoided by Investigating Officer, as they wanted to engineer evidence. It is submitted that though confession under Section 164 particularly of an accused is evidence, which is of highest quality. However, in the present case, same strong evidence has been weakened by improper procedure followed by investigation. It is submitted that such confessions were recorded after long custody, there is no mention of any Legal Aid being provided to the accused to explain consequences, before he was made to confess. The prosecution is required to explain surrounding circumstances, under which confession came to be recorded, not strictly complying with the guidelines meant for recording of confession under Section 164 and the fact that three different accused being investigated under three different crimes under different Investigating Officers, make an application on the same day for making confession.

11.18. Learned Advocate has thereafter referred to eight mistakes that the trial Court committed.

(1) Extreme reliance on inadmissible part of Discovery panchnama

(2) Discovery panchnama / panchnama relied upon, as if the same is substantive evidence

(3) Use of part of Section 27 panchnama, which is confessional in nature and relying upon it against the co-accused

(4) Reliance on voluntary disclosure in Section 27 panchnama at the behest of accused, who himself is acquitted

(5) Use of Section 161 statement as substantive piece of evidence

(6) Failure to put the facts and evidences under Section 313 to the accused and still using it against the accused

(7) Confession of acquitted accused use against co-accused

(8) Identification in Test Identification Parade is taken as substantive evidence

11.19. In the opinion of the Court, the comparison by learned Advocate with other terror related offences particularly for nature of evidence, may not be accepted, simply because of backdrop in which those offences have taken place, as compared to present case. With regard to 26-11-2008 Attack cases, CCTV Footages were definitely available, as attack was carried out at Railway Station, which necessarily was under CCTV coverage. As compared to planting of bomb being in a public place and in a manner camouflaged as if, it is a day-to-day activity. An accused person looking like a common man riding a bicycle with a bag hanging on the steering handle is the most common site, which will hardly attract any attention as compared to a person loaded with arms and therefore when parking of car or bicycle is an activity which will not draw anybody's attention, is the modus operandi of a well thought conspiracy and therefore expectedly, would not be covered under any CCTV footages.

11.20. Requirement of eyewitness witnessing a planter of the bomb for the same reason, cannot be expected as in the facts of the present case, modus adopted by accused persons as a part of their well thought conspiracy, is to mix within the crowd, unnoticed, plant the bomb and vanish without waiting for explosion to take place and therefore, the manner in which, the offence has been undertaken in other comparatives by learned Advocate, cannot be accepted as thumb rule or setting a benchmark of nature of evidence to be followed with identically in the present case, where modus of operation, nature of conspiracy and precaution taken by accused to avoid being noticed or being captured as an accused, has now been brought on record by the investigation.

11.21. The Court finds that in the present case, like other cases with which the comparison is drawn by learned Advocate, the prosecution has relied upon evidence like confessional statements, evidence of approver with corroborative evidences. With regard to argument that where several panchnamas purportedly under Section 27 are executed at the behest of the same accused, Investigating Officer ought to have considered recording of confessional statement under Section 164 before the Magistrate, which would have invoked more confidence, the Court is of the view that voluntary disclosure with regard to fact is an absolutely different concept than confession to the offence. Voluntary disclosure of the fact does not require confession or admission to any role played by the accused in committing offence, whereas for recording of confessional statement, willingness of accused to voluntarily confess and admit, his role in the offence is starting point and therefore, expecting Investigating Officer to presume that by voluntary disclosure of certain facts amongst confessing to the offence, is beyond the scope of the investigation.

11.22. With regard to submissions on tracing out of finances to fund the Terror activities, there is no comparison with the other aforementioned Terror attacks, the Court finds that the modus adopted in the present case apparently, is self-assisted model, where the local people have participated being led by main conspirators. If entire chronology from the meetings till execution is taken into consideration, entire plot was deliberately kept at low cost and self-financing model. Therefore, the present models cannot be compared with the Terror plot, wherein procurement of arms and ammunition, are a costly affair. Here, procurement was only of commonly available articles like time piece, hardware articles and chemicals, which are commonly available, though regulated.

11.23. Learned advocate Shri Chaudhary continued with his submission on 10.03.2026 by tendering the chronology of investigation conducted qua the convicted accused and submitted that he would by highlighting some of the dates in the chronology make his submissions and the issues that he seeks to raise. Learned advocate submitted that by submitting that the Investigating Officer PW No.1-Jogaji Nanjibhai Parmar, a Police Inspector of Shahibaug Police Station, who was examined vide Exh.439 has in para-52 of his cross-examination admitted that he had received a tip off that bomb-blasts are likely to happen. Therefore, if he had any input about the same, firstly, he did not act on it forthwith and that he has not mentioned this fact in the evidence in chief putting to doubt the initiation of investigation.

11.24. The Court is of the opinion that having perused Exh.439 in para-52, wherein the admission of a prior information from his resource was not an answer to any question put in cross-examination, but the witness on his volition had disclosed that there was an intelligence regarding some blasts in Ahmedabad. Therefore, not mentioning the same in evidence in chief, would not create any doubt as the witness on his own had disclosed though it may be at the stage of cross-examination.

11.25. Thereafter, learned advocate submitted that on 26.07.2008, the scene of offense panchnama of the bomb sites were conducted identifying 18 bombs sites where bicycle were used and two bomb sites were cars were placed and two in buses and one exploded in the dustbin. Therefore, on 26.07.2008 and 27.07.2008, the Investigating Officer was already aware the site of the bomb-blasts and the same was in public domain. Therefore, execution of the pointing out panchnama at the behest of the accused persons pursuant to their arrest and pointing out these very places, cannot be treated as discovery panchnama at all and therefore, Section 27 of Indian Evidence Act cannot be invoked.

11.26. Learned advocate submitted that on 27.07.2008, a notification of Commissioner of Police, directing the crime branch to takeover the investigation of all the blasts and therefore, from the beginning the Investigating Agency was conscious that the blasts caused in Ahmedabad is a part of larger conspiracy, still each FIR has been investigated separately and this is a method adopted by investigation for prolonged police remand of each of the accused indicating unfairness in the investigation. Learned advocate has referred to one of the remand reports and submitted that in such remand reports also, reference is made to the serial blasts and hence also the Investigating Officer was convinced about larger conspiracy. On the issue of larger conspiracy, learned advocate has also indicated date 02.08.2008, where four investigation teams were crated to investigate the bomb blast cases under the order of DCB Crime Branch (Exh.8641). According to learned advocate, the formation of four teams itself is enough for understanding that the blasts were part of larger conspiracy and therefore, a single offense. Each Investigating Officer of the four teams were working in co-ordination and adopted a systematic investigation and therefore, one Investigating Officer would not claim ignorance of the action undertaken by another Investigating Officer and therefore, successive panchnamas in the form of point out panchnama of the same spot cannot be treated to be leading to a new discovery unknown to Investigating Officer and therefore, such panchnamas are beyond Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act.

11.27. The Court is of the opinion that if the notification dated 27.07.2008 is to be considered, then the same is on the very next date of the incident and though the blast had taken place in the various areas of Ahmedabad City, it would be too premature to finally conclude that it was an outcome of a larger conspiracy. Each incident was correctly registered with the concerned police station with jurisdiction and initial investigation of drawing the site panchnama and doing other policing activity would obviously be handled by the local police station.

Therefore, merely because the investigation was ordered by the Crime Branch, it was not required for the Investigating Agency to club all the investigations. Moreover, it was quite uncertain that post 27.07.2008, whether any further blasts would take place. Referring to the statement of PW No.585-Vinodbhai Gordhanbhai Kapuriya, who was examined vide Exh.3119 recorded by DCB Surat, which pertains to parking of a red coloured Maruti Wagon R Car in front of Sonal Bhel House on 26.07.2008 and witness PW No.585-Vinodbhai Gordhanbhai Kapuriya having interacted with the driver of the car for not parking the car in front of his shop still PW No.585-Vinodbhai Gordhanbhai Kapuriya was not called for Test Identification Parade of accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha, who according to prosecution was responsible for planting the bomb laden Maruti Wagon R Car at Sonal Bhel House, instead, the point out panchnama Exh.2794 executed on 27.07.2008 is put forwarded as an evidence of involvement of accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha. This is a folly in the investigation. The Court finds that the evidence of PW No.585-Vinodbhai Gordhanbhai Kapuriya, who is a shop-keeper in front of whose shop Wagon R Car was attempted to be parked by accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha though had only interaction to the extent of not allowing him to park there and that there was no occasion, where accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha would have stepped out of the car and interacted with the witness. Moreover, when the car was being parked in natural course, a witness would not be in a conscious state that he is witnessing a crime in working and therefore is not expected to have paid much attention to the act of parking the car. Therefore, not calling PW No.585-Vinodbhai Gordhanbhai Kapuriya for Test Identification Parade would not damage the other evidence which is is available against the said accused by which is identity is established.

11.28. Moreover, the reference to the serial blast in the remand application would be in context of the series blasts in quick succession within the same area, but therefore, would not suggest that on the date of blast, it could be concluded that the blasts were outcome of larger conspiracy and therefore, a single offense ought to have been registered.

11.29. The Court is of the view that though four teams were constituted to investigate the bomb-blasts which took place in Ahmedabad, all the four investigation teams were assigned with independent offenses registered with different police stations. Moreover, from the investigation case papers, it does not appear that one accused who has been in police custody of each of the investigation team has made to undergo repetitive pointing out panchnama of the same place. The pointing out panchnamas of a same place is at the behest of different accused persons at different time and under different investigation officers and therefore, the argument that the point out panchnama did not lead to a discovery unknown to Investigating Officer, may not be accepted.

11.30. The Court also finds that the knowledge of the place connected with the offense was known to the accused person. This fact of knowledge can be brought on record only by way of a known procedure to the investigation and i.e. executing of a panchnama and therefore, the fact of knowledge of the accused about the place connected with an offense would obviously be discovery of fact. Section 3 of the Indian Evidence Act defines that to mean and include anything, state of things, or relation of things, capable of being perceived by the senses and also a mental condition of which any person is conscious.

11.31. Learned advocate submitted that on 16.08.2008, the first arrest in the offence took place and on the very date statement of one Riyazhussain Siddiqi was also recorded. His supplementary statement was recorded on 26.08.2008 and 164 statement was recorded on 01.09.2008. From the statement of this witness, it is coming out that this witness had also played an important role in the offense like procuring of cycles, undertaking reccee with other co-accused persons and also attending bomb making classes with co-accused. Despite this, the said Riyazhussain Siddiqui was treated as a witness and not as an accused. Therefore, from the beginning, if the investigation was not sure of its own witness, who later on was declared hostile upon being examined as PW No.1151-Riyazhussain Siddiqui, who was examined at Exh.8265, the entire investigation is therefore, put under serious doubt.

11.32. Learned advocate also submitted that the very statement under Section 161 which became the foundation for the arrest of other accused persons was later on deposed by this witness to have been given under duress as he was reportedly tortured. This also makes the entire case highly doubtful. One more aspect point out is that on 17.08.2008, the remand applications were made and despite such applications, no reference is made to the contents of the statement under Section 161 by Riyazhussain, which is also indicative of the fact that the investigation was not relying upon Riyazhussain as a witness. The documents were placed for Court's consideration were in fact the application by prosecution for production of the accused and permission to handcuff the witness at the stage of production. However, the remand application which is available to the Court for its perusal refers to the evidence available against the nine accused persons whose remand was sought.

11.33. Learned Advocate has thereafter argued that on 18-08-2008, in the remand application seeking further custody, already Investigating Officer has mentioned about the conspiracy to carry out serial blasts in Ahmedabad and that investigation had revealed that conspiracy is an outcome of the training in Terrorist camp at Kerala and Halol. Therefore, even when the first point out panchnama was executed at behest of accused No.1- Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh on 27-08-2008 (Exh.6480), Investigating Officer already knew about training camp at Halol and therefore, there is no new fact discovered from point out panchnama at Exh.6480. It is nine days later that Investigating Officer; PW-1163; Shri Mayur J. Chavda at Exh.8638 has recorded this panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act and thereafter, six more panchnamas have been recorded at behest of various accused. Therefore, anything that is recorded in the panchnamas, is required to be treated as barred under Section 25 and 26 of the Indian Evidence Act.

11.34. The Court is of the opinion that extension of remand, which was sought on 18-08-2008, was only on the basis of interrogation carried out at the nascent stage of investigation from the arrested accused, who had merely mentioned Halol to be one of the site of the Terror camp. However, from the Remand Report, there does not appear to be any mention of the exact place, where such camp at Halol was organized and hence to identify the place accurately in the entire Taluka of Halol, which also consists forest area and mountain range, apparently point out panchnama was necessary. Point out panchnama points out the place and the knowledge of the accused of such place and upon reaching such place, several articles connecting to the Terror camp, were also recovered.

11.35. In the opinion of the Court, therefore panchnama at Exh.6480 is required to be treated as panchnama under Section 27, particularly when the same has been established by examining proper panch witnesses supported by Investigating Officer's deposition as well.

11.36. With regard to the same date, learned Advocate has submitted that point out panchnama by accused No.15- Abubasar @ Mufti @ Abdul Rashid @ Abdulla Abubakar Shaikh, who pointed out house No.3 of Umravnagar, Vatva, Ahmedabad, where accused No.15- Abubasar @ Mufti @ Abdul Rashid @ Abdulla Abubakar Shaikh had resided with accused No.37- Kayamuddin @ Musa @ Ashfak @ Abdul Kadir @ Rizwan @ Samir Sarfuddin Kapadiya, prior to the bomb blast.

11.37. According to learned Advocate, this panchnama is not required to be believed, as owner of the house; Firoz Dilavar Shaikh, who is PW No.1106 and examined vide Exh.7929, was earlier witness to conspiracy in another Rioting case known as Gulbarg Rioting case and his evidence as a witness to the conspiracy was rejected by the then trial Court of Gulbarg case. It is submitted that in that case, this witness was treated to be got-up witness, yet in the present case also, he is cited as a witness, who does not have credibility. Therefore, when renting out of the house itself is in doubt, point out panchnama under Section 27 of this house, is of no consequence.

11.38. Though, learned Advocate has referred to witness; PW No.1106; Firoz Dilavar Shaikh to be witness in Gulbarg case, he has failed to refer to the judgment in that case and the finding given with regard to this witness. The Court would therefore not take cognizance of this argument. However, learned Advocate has submitted that this panchnama may not be treated as panchnama under Section 27 particularly after almost period of three months, accused No.37- Kayamuddin @ Musa @ Ashfak @ Abdul Kadir @ Rizwan @ Samir Sarfuddin Kapadiya has also pointed out very same offence at Exh.6083 during the investigation of Investigating Officer; Shri V. R. Toliya and therefore, there being no discovery, both the panchnamas are not required to be believed.

11.39. The Court is of the view that panchnama at Exh.6434 was executed, wherein there were seizure of articles and there are FSL Reports on the seizures made during this panchnama vide Exh.5935 and Exh.7954. Moreover, this panchnama has been proved by examining PW No.898; Bipinbhai Chhotalal Patel at Exh.6433 and is supported by evidence of Investigating Officer; PW No.1163-Shri Mayur J. Chavda at Exh.8638. The Court does not find any reason to disbelieve the execution of the panchnama.

11.40. Learned Advocate has once again submitted that all these points raised in the course of the argument are pointing out to the inaccuracy in the investigation and the investigation not being carried out in accordance with the law. Learned Advocate has submitted that on the same day, when the accused No.1- Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh's mobile repairing shop was raided, several articles including ball-bearings were seized from the shop, however, no explosive substance was detected in any of the samples collected there and that there is no opinion whether the ball-bearings are similar to those, which are found at the blast site or from the bodies of the victims.

11.41. Learned Advocate has submitted that on 19-08-2008, upon arrest of the accused No.7-Mohammad Usman @ Usman Mohammad Anis Agarbattiwala, panchnama at Exh.6370 is executed at his behest on the voluntary disclosure of several illegal items, which consisted of 1 Air gun, 1 Country made pistol, 2 cartridges, 1 pipe bomb, 1 knife, 19 CD/DVDs and bag containing balloons from his Uncle's residence at Vadodara. It is submitted that voluntary disclosure of this accused does not refer to any kind of conspiracy and therefore, theory of conspiracy is not supported even from the voluntary disclosure.

11.42. The Court is of the opinion that panchnama at Exh.6370 is proved by PW No.895- Prakash Manoharlal Tolani at Exh.6369 is supported by deposition of Investigating Officer; PW No.1163-Shri Mayur J. Chavda at Exh.8638 and the articles collected during the panchnama, were sent for FSL and the FSL report is on record vide Exh.5874 through FSL Officer; PW No.846-Hemantkumar Bhalchandra Bhatt at Exh.5838, wherein presence of Potassium nitrate, Nitrate radicals, free Sulphur, free Aluminum and Carbon in Pipe bomb are shown present. Moreover, fire arms are shown to be in working condition.

11.43. Learned Advocate has raised doubt in procurement of panch witness; PW No.895- Prakash Manoharlal Tolani of the panchnama at Exh.6370 by submitting that the panch was asked to become panch, while he was on his way to Swaminarayan Temple. The Court does not find anything objectionable in panch witness PW No.895-Prakash Manoharlal Tolani deposition for standing as a panch and the manner in which, he was summoned to become the panch. In fact, perusal of evidence of PW No.895-Prakash Manoharlal Tolani in this regard is consistent with evidence of Investigating Officer.

11.44. With regard to same date, learned Advocate has submitted that accused No.8-Yunus Mohammadbhai Mansuri house being Row House C-134 at Ajit Mill was searched, wherein several articles were seized under panchnama at Exh.5488. Learned Advocate has submitted that articles seized during the panchnama were sent for FSL and FSL Report at Exh.5957, shows that no explosive substance was found in the articles seized. Moreover, there is no opinion with regard to similarity of ball-bearings, which were found at blast site.

11.45. The Court is of the opinion that panchnama at Exh.5488 was proved by panch witness PW No.817-Chirag Govindbhai Varsada at Exh.5487. Perusal of the evidence of this witness; PW No.817-Chirag Govindbhai Varsada at Exh.5487, the Court does not find anything to disbelieve version of this witness, who has clearly deposed voluntariness of disclosure made by accused No.8-Yunus Mohammadbhai Mansuri and directions given by taking panch witnesses to the house, where the articles were seized. Articles seized and referred to in the panchnama consisted of books, plastic tapes, several pieces of large and small wires, bolts and ball-bearings. Mere fact that there was no opinion of FSL whether the ball-bearings were similar found at the blast is inconsequential.

11.46. Accused No.14- Mohammad Sajid @ Salim @ Sajjad @ Saad Gulam Khwaja Mansuri after three days of his arrest had given disclosure to point out the house, where he along with other accused and SIMI members had got together and discussed bomb blasts. Such disclosure though, does not give any detail regarding offence or any agreement to conspiracy. The house pointed out by this accused No.14-Mohammad Sajid @ Salim @ Sajjad @ Saad Gulam Khwaja Mansuri is one Akmal Apartment at Panigate, Vadodara, which belonged to accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh from where vide panchnama at Exh.6283, several articles were found and FSL report of these articles at Exh.5957 does not indicate about any explosive materials being recovered.

11.47. According to learned Advocate therefore, there being no discovery of any articles, which would connect to the offence, disclosure made in the panchnama under Section 27 at Exh.6283 is required to be treated as inadmissible.

11.48. In the opinion of the Court, voluntary disclosure as is reflected in the panchnama at Exh.6283 proved by panch witness; PW No.878-Yogeshbhai Bipinchandra Kayasth at Exh.6282 and supported by Investigating Officer; PW No.1163-Shri Mayur J. Chavda at Exh.8638 would indicate that the place where the meeting had taken place. The meeting in case of circumstantial evidence for conspiracy is an important circumstance and therefore, to that extent of voluntary disclosure of pointing out of house and the fact of meeting of co-accused will have to be treated as an admissible part of the evidence. Non-finding of any explosive, cannot take out the panchnama out of purview under Section 27, as it is not expected that in every meeting that takes place amongst the co-accused persons, they would carry all the materials that they proposed to use for causing explosion.

11.49. Vide Exh.6359, house of the accused No.14- Mohammad Sajid @ Salim @ Sajjad @ Saad Gulam Khwaja Mansuri at Lukman Society, Bharuch was also searched, which consisted of regular household articles and FSL Report at Exh.5957 did not disclose anything to connect with the offence.

11.50. Learned advocate submitted that accused No.14-Mohammad Sajid @ Salim @ Sajjad @ Saad Gulam Khwaja Mansuri was arrested and thereafter, his house in Lukman society at Bharuch was searched and the search led to seizure of household articles and the FSL report in this connection vide Exh.5957 did not show any presence of explosive substance. Panchnama Exh.6359 which was proved by panch witness being PW No.894-Hitesh Apabhai Patel, who was examined vide Exh.6358. Therefore, is a NIL panchnama and the prosecution has therefore, sought to base its case on several such NIL panchnamas. disclosure panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act and merely the panchnama appears to be the search and seizure panchnama upon visiting to the residential premises of one of the accused. Similarly, the argument is advanced in connection with panchnama Exh.6290, which is a panchnama executed for the search of the residence of accused No.7-Mohammad Usman @ Usman Mohammad Anis Agarbattiwala. Therefore, this panchnama which is executed only in one part is not even projected by the prosecution to be the disclosure panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act. However, the search led to seizure of various items like Pen drive, Hard Disc and Laptop for which FSL report Exh.5995 was placed on record. This also was not a disclosure panchnama, but only panchnama of search and seizure.

11.51. Learned advocate has submitted that on 22.08.2008, accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh gave a disclosure statement to show place, where articles used in training camp at Halol were kept and accordingly, panchnama Exh.6278 was executed, but in such panchnama no other articles which are incriminating in nature were found, but also first aid box with electricity bill was recovered. According to learned advocate, though the Investigating Officer executed a panchnama of the house of accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh, who had already disclosed about the training camp at Halol, the Investigating Officer did not proceed to Halol to conduct the panchnama. Panchnama Exh.6278 was proved by PW No.877-Pravin Ishwarbhai Rajput, who was examined vide Exh.6277 and in this panchnama, it is recorded that the accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh had disclosed about the articles utilized in the Halol terror camp which he would readily show and accordingly, panchnama was executed with the team being led by the accused in presence of panch to a residence in Taivada, Vadi at Vadodara.

11.52. Learned advocate has also questioned the investigation by submitting that PW No.880-Aiyubbhai Kasambhai Malek, who was examined vide Exh.6295, who was working in Lucky Repairing Works for bicycle and he identifies the bicycle at the police station which were recovered from the bomb site. According to learned advocate, this witness has given description of person, who came to buy the bicycle, but he was not called for Test Identification Parade nor did he identify any accused in the Court. Therefore, though a witness who was available to identify a accused was available, the prosecution has deliberately not got the test identification by him.

11.53. The Court is of the view that the witness in his deposition at Exh.6295 himself has deposed that the person whose cycle lock he had repaired, he will be able to identify however, upon seeing of the accused on T.V. Screen, he was not able to identify. So even from the deposition of this witness, it is clear that he was in any case was unable to identify the accused and that too after these many years and had the witness identified the accused on T.V. Screen, such identification would also appear to be unnatural in absence of Test Identification Parade and therefore, this witness cannot be treated to be a witness for identification of a accused however, for the purpose of prosecution, witness of for the purpose of identifying the bicycle which was recovered from the bomb site which the witness has correctly identified.

11.54. Learned advocate has again commented on the role of PW No.1151-Riyazhussain Mohammadhussain Siddiqi was declared hostile on whose statement accused No.63- Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha and accused No.64-Mohammad Zahir were arrested. However, the role of the arrested accused was much lesser if not at par with PW No.1151-

Riyazhussain Mohammadhussain Siddiqi and therefore, in fact he ought to have been treated as an accused, but the Investigating Officer was still undecided, whether to treat him as an accused or as a witness and therefore, finally PW No.1151-Riyazhussain Mohammadhussain Siddiqi had turned hostile.

11.55. Learned advocate submitted that though identification of a planter of bomb is the best evidence that could have been available, still even in the evidence of PW 880-Aiyubbhai Kasambhai Malek, who identifies the bicycle, the bomb planter is not identified.

11.56. In the opinion of the Court, PW No.880-Aiyubbhai Kasambhai Malek has identified bicycle and the lock of the bicycles by Exh.2894 panchnama and therefore, he is not a witness to the actual planting of the bomb.

11.57. Learned advocate has thereafter, referred to the panchnama Exh.6480, which is a disclosure panchnama at behest of accused No.1-Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh, but the said panchnama is almost after 11 days of the arrest of accused No.1-Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh and 09 days after the Investigating Officer came to know about the camp at Halol and therefore, according to learned advocate, there was no disclosure of a new fact to treat the panchnama as a disclosure panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act. Moreover, during the panchnama, no explosive was found to connect the camp with bomb explosion. Also, the very same place was later on pointed out by various panchnamas at least six times. He has referred to FSL report at Exh.5941 to state that no explosive substance has been found.

11.58. The Court is of the opinion that though the case diary or the remand application did mention Halol as a place, where terror camp had taken place, but the exact location within the Jungle of Halol in Pavagadh Mountain was disclosed only upon the point out executed at the behest of accused No.1- Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh which displayed the special knowledge of accused No.1-Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh as to the location of training camp near Helikal stepwell. Moreover, during this panchnama, various articles which connected to the training like pellets, balloons etc. were found from the area pointed out by accused No.1-Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh. Moreover, panch witness being PW No.904-Dipakkumar Jivanlal Dalvadi, who was examined vide Exh.6479 has completely supported the panchnama, wherein a reference is made about the Jihadi speeches delivered during this camp. Therefore, non-finding of any explosive will not be detrimental to the case of prosecution.

11.59. Learned advocate has thereafter, submitted that the date 27.08.2008 being the date of point out panchnama co-incided with the date on which the Investigating Officer came across the so called three eye witnesses, who were present when the Investigating Officer visited the site of alleged terror camp at Halol. The finding of three chance witnesses at a time is more than a coincidence and is not believable. He has drawn our attention to the narration made in those witnesses' version to submit that their presence also appears to be doubtful at the time of the camp.

11.60. Learned advocate has thereafter, referred to 27.08.2008 on which also accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha has given a disclosure statement vide panchnama Exh.2794, where he volunteered to disclose and point out the places where bombs were planted in Surat. The spots were already known to the police and therefore, such panchnama of pointing out such places is of no consequence to help the prosecution case. Moreover, during this panchnama, nothing has been discovered or recovered connecting with the bomb.

11.61. In the opinion of the Court, panchnama Exh.2794 was proved by PW No.451-Kalpesh Ishwarbhai Patel, who was examined vide Exh.2793 and supported by the Investigating Officer PW No.1136-Sujata Prakash Majmudar, who was examined vide Exh.8149, wherein the narration made by the accused during the execution of panchnama was recorded and he has volunteered to disclose the places, where the bombs were planted in Surat City at various places. The fact regarding the knowledge of the accused would obviously come on record only on the basis of a voluntary disclosure recorded in the form of panchnama and when the panch witness in his deposition has fully supported the execution of panchnama and no doubt is created in his deposition, then the Court has correctly believed that the fact of the special knowledge of the accused unknown to the Investigating Officer is the point of discovery under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act.

11.62. It is submitted that on 28.08.2008, accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha has given voluntary disclosure to point out the house being D-34 Riverview Society, which was the house taken on rent however, the owner of the house who was examined being PW No.1123-Liyakatali Gulamrasulhussain Shaikh, who was examined vide Exh.8078 did not identify any of the accused to be the tenant. Moreover, when the panchnama was carried out, the house was in a locked condition and needed to be broken open for the purpose of executing the panchnama. Therefore, such panchnama cannot be believed as the house was not in exclusive possession of the accused No.63- Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha nor the foundational fact of identity of any accused as a tenant is established, thereby leaving the chain incomplete. The Court is of the opinion that at the behest of accused No.63- Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha, a panchnama Exh.2757 was executed and panch witness being PW No.446-Sanjaybhai Gordhanbhai Patel, who was examined vide Exh.2756, which wholly supports the panchnama. The Court has perused the deposition of PW No.446-Sanjaybhai Gordhanbhai Patel, panch witness of Exh.2757 who has completely narrated the recoding of the panchnama and supported the case of the prosecution and has also referred to articles which were seized from the household which included ball-bearings and other articles containing presence of Ammonium Nitrite radicals and Petroleum Hydrocarbons, which is established by FSL report Exh.5776. The panchnama has therefore, led to discovery of the articles, which can be connected with the bombs planted in Surat.

11.63. Learned Advocate has thereafter argued that the mobile phones of the arrested accused were seized under various panchnamas. However, the prosecution has not produced the C.D.R. on the record. According to the learned Advocate, the C.D.R. could have been clinching evidence of the accused being in touch with other accused for the conspiracy and still the prosecution having failed to place on record, therefore invoking Section 114 (g) of the Indian Evidence Act to the extent that if evidence available is withheld, it should be presumed against the prosecution.

11.64. In this regard, the Court is of the view that the prosecutor is the master of the prosecution. It is his domain to place on record the evidence which supports the case of the prosecution unless the defence is able to place on the record that evidence, which supports the defence is available on the record yet not placed for Court's consideration. Therefore, merely by alleging that the Court has not placed on record the C.D.R., then the Court has to presume that the C.D.R. were extracted and that such C.D.R. was pointing to the innocence of the accused.

11.65. Learned advocate has thereafter pointed out towards the investigation which was undertaken in connection with accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha, who has pointed out a spot, where he had thrown his mobile phone and had also thrown a pipe bomb as nothing was seized under the panchnama of pointing out being Exh.2796. This panchnama cannot be treated against accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha in any manner. Similarly, evidence of PW No.859-Ahmednur Abdul Rahim Tambuwala, who was examined vide Exh.6018 which also refers to purchase of a car cover by accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha, but PW No.859 could not identify accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha in Court.

11.66. It is therefore, submitted that the prosecution has relied upon such aforementioned evidences which do not link the accused to the offense and what is recorded in panchanma cannot be treated as evidence against the accused especially disclosure of some incriminating fact.

11.67. Learned advocate has submitted that panchnama Exh.6540 is a point out panchnama at the behest of accused No.14-Mohammad Sajid @ Salim @ Sajjad @ Saad Gulam Khwaja Mansuri, who had pointed out the place, where he had met accused No.14-Abdul Subhan @ Toukir however, nothing incriminating and connecting to the offense is disclosed on the basis of this panchnama. PW No.1138-Gulamhussain Abdulrashid Pathan, who was examined vide Exh.8165 is the owner of house in Bharuch which was rented, according to witness, to one Rafik however, the said Rafik is not examined and the panchnama Exh.6540 refers to recovery of book on electronics devise and other articles including stains on the walls which were drawn by way of samples and sent for analysis. The FSL report Exh.5936 shows the presence of Ammonium Nitrite, fuel components of Petroleum Hydrocarbons oil, Ammonium Nitrite fuel oil, however, the prosecution has not established the fact of renting out of the house situated at Sherpura, Bharuch to accused No.43-Anik @ Khalid S/O Shafik Saiyed, accused No.44-Mohammad Akbar @ Said @Yakub @Vinod S/O Ismail Chaudhari and accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani as PW No.1138- Gulamhussain Abdulrashid Pathan has not identified these accused in Court.

11.68. As against this, the Court may observe the evidence of PW No.1138-Gulamhussain Abdulrashid Pathan, who in his deposition, has stated has referred to one Nazirbhai, who acted as a broker who had introduced the tenant. He refers to the deposit and rent decided of which the deposit was paid to this witness upon which he handed over the keys of the house to the tenant, who identified himself as Rafik Shaikh from Maharashtra and upon the witness demanding the ID proof, he made an excuse of not having at present, but would later on give it to the witness. This witness also refers to Wagon R car of silver colour being initial registration No.GJ-06 and also a red colour Wagon R car parked in front of his rented house two three days prior to the incident of blast. He refers to the phone call from the said Rafikbhai mentioning that the said Rafikbhai is going to Rajasthan form some work and post the blast also, Rafikbhai had called on his mobile phone to inform that his family is not allowing him to come to the rented premises to which this witness had deposed that he refused thereafter allow the tenant to come if he is without family.

11.69. This witness also deposed about Test Identification Parade conducted on 16.12.2008 in Gheekanta Court at Ahmedabad and has identified three persons. He had identified one Akbar, Faizul and third person who has taken his house on rent.

11.70. Therefore, in the opinion of the Court, this witness is to establish the circumstance of presence and connection of the accused persons with the house as well as two Wagon R cars.

11.71. On the similar lines, learned advocate has argued that PW No.1062-Abdulajim Adbudlhamid Sodagar, who was examined vide Exh.7219, who is employee of the Internet cafe deposed about accused No.2-Imran S/o Ibrahim Shaikh, accused No.7-Mohammad Usman Agarbattiwala, accused No.37-Kayamuddin Kapadiya; who learnt to use and also saw accused No.35-Rafiyuddin Kapadiya and accused No.37-Kayamuddin Kapadiya browsing through Internet is an evidence of no consequence as he has not identified these accused in the Court.

11.72. The Court finds that the aforesaid instances are pointed out to argue that the prosecution has proceeded completely irrelevant evidences, which do not connect the accused with the crime.

11.73. In this connection, the Court may peruse the deposition of PW No.1062-Abdulajim Adbudlhamid Sodagar at Exh.7219. This witness has deposed in support of the circumstance that to undertake the terror activity, the accused persons namely accused No.2-Imran S/o Ibrahim Shaikh and accused No.37-Kayamuddin Kapadiya had learnt computer from this witness also, when he was working as cybercafe employee. These accused No.37-Kayamuddin Kapadiya and another bearded accused whom he identified as accused No.1-Jahid Shaikh had visited for browsing and also learning a particular software 'Page-Maker'. This prosecution witness also identified the entry made in register maintained by Cafe and entry made about usage of a particular computer to learn software. Therefore, this witness has reliably established the usage of cybercafe and internet by accused No.1-Jahid Shaikh, accused No.37-Kayamuddin Kapadiya, accused No.7-Mohammad Usman Agarbattiwala. This prosecution witness has also deposed that the accused did not give their identify card before usage of cafe showing their reluctance to disclose their identity.

11.74. Learned advocate made reference to evidence of PW No.571-Ramanbhai Senghabhai Solanki, who was examined vide Exh.3051 to submit that the evidence of this witness does not on any way implicate accused No.15-Mufti Abubasar Shaikh with the offense and therefore, such evidence collected by Investigating Officer is no evidence in the eyes of law. The Court is of the opinion that evidence of PW No.571-Ramanbhai Senghabhai Solanki is not to be looked in isolation. The Court having perused Exh.3051, deposition of PW No.571-Ramanbhai Senghabhai Solanki with the panchnama Exh.3054 which is the Test Identification Parade of accused No.15-Mufti Abubasar Shaikh. This accused is identified by one Rafikh Hssain Abdad, who is running a food stall Hotel in the vicinity who used to serve food and pack tiffin. The panchnama also records the relevance of how said Rafik Hussain Abdad recognized the accused to which it is recorded that the accused used to come to his Hotel with others to have food for 10 consecutive days and sometime carried tiffin for others.

11.75. Both the evidences together go on to establish the presence of accused in Ahmedabad close to the vicinity of the house, where the co-accused have resided in Vatva who otherwise belongs to Azamgadh in Uttar Pradesh. This is one circumstance which the prosecution seeks to prove in the chain of circumstance. Therefore, not a futile exercise. The pointing out activity was carried out by the Magistrate in absence of any police personnel.

11.76. Learned advocate has thereafter, argued that panchnama Exh.6605 is executed of search of the house of accused No.16-Abbas Sameja, here also though panchnama refers to a mobile number of a SIMI operative of Pakistan, there is no investigation in this regard. Therefore, Investigating Officer is consistently not investigating in right direction.

11.77. In panchnama Exh.6605, reference is made to a small chit with a mobile number and Pakistan and SIMI written along with it. However, PW No.973-Bhupatsinh Gavabhai Mori, Investigation Officer, who was examined vide Exh.6806 and the perusal of his deposition does not indicate that the defence has put up any question in connection with Article 5, the chit of Exh.6605 without putting any question in this regard, it cannot be argued that there is no investigation of this number. This witness was only assigned the task of carrying out a panchnama within his local jurisdiction. The Court also does not find any question put over to the main Investigating Officer in this regard.

11.78. Learned advocate has thereafter, submitted that the point out panchnama Exh.7053 through accused No.16-Abbas Sameja, where he discloses the fact of training in Camp at Halol. Learned advocate commented on the manner in which the panch witnesses were picked while returning from Jagannath Temple and immediately proceeded as panch witness even to far of place at Halol. It is submitted that Exh.7053 cannot be treated as a disclosure panchnama of accused No.16- Abbas Sameja as previously also vide Exh.6443, 7252, 6528, 7798 and 7392, the Investigating Officer had drawn point out panchnamas of the very location in Halol. Moreover, there is no discovery or recovery of any article which would link the disclosure statement to the offense.

11.79. Learned advocate has thereafter submitted that on 05.10.2008, panchnama Exh.2851 is executed at the behest of accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha pointing out the coin box from where he had made phone calls. There is no recovery or discovery under this panchnama which would link independently to the offense. This panchnama is required to be treated as a NIL panchnama. Learned advocate has therefore, reiterated that the attempt of the investigation is to bring before the Court a very weak type of evidence in the form of NIL panchnama rather than investigating and finding out hither category of evidence like Call Detail Records of the mobiles which were seized during the investigation and instead NIL panchnama of coin boxes are placed for Court's consideration.

11.80. Learned advocate has thereafter submitted that the investigation had proceeded on the statement of some of the vital witnesses, who were referred to as secret witnesses, but during the course of trial, these witnesses have not been examined. Thereby, showing that the prosecution is withholding genuine witnesses or else these witnesses have been forced to become witnesses. He has referred to the evidence of PW 881-Adnan Mohammad Khalid Gujarati, who was examined vide Exh.6299.

11.81. This witness has been declared hostile after the reference to Test Identification Parade of the accused whom he identified. Reference was also made to Secret Witnesses, who were named as "I" and "J". It is submitted that according to investigation, these witnesses had attended meeting of 20-07-2008 where preparation to take revenge etc. was taken in Ahmedabad. However, these witnesses have been dropped vide Exh.9367 by giving reason of being repetitive witnesses. It is submitted that this being last meeting before blast actually took place, if these witnesses were genuine, the prosecution would not have dropped on the ground being repetitive, which again shows that the prosecution is not bringing before the Court substantive evidence.

11.82. One more issue argued is that these witnesses in their statement under Section 161 have referred to planters of the bombs, 8 of which were from outside Ahmedabad and 5 were from within Ahmedabad, whereas secret witness has mentioned that all these planters were from outside Ahmedabad, being main reason for dropping the witness.

11.83. In the opinion of the Court, it is the prerogative of the prosecution to examine the witnesses in support of case of the prosecution and if the same are repetitive witnesses, it is open for the prosecution to drop such witnesses, as is done in the present case, as Section-161 statement of these witnesses cannot be brought on record. Therefore, submission of learned Advocate regarding number of planters from within Gujarat or outside Gujarat remains in realm of submission. Moreover, the fact of the meeting prior to date of bomb blast have already been brought on record through other witnesses. Hence, there is justification in treating these witnesses to be repetitive.

11.84. Learned Advocate has thereafter submitted that the prosecution has examined PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi, who was examined vide Exh.6687, wherein he mentions that the accused No.27-Abdul Rajik has confessed to him about the blast and the accused involved therein. However, it is only on 17-10-2008, three months after offence that PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi has confided to the Crime Branch about his interaction with accused No.27-Abdul Rajik and this delay creates doubt on the version of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi. Therefore, the prosecution ought not to have relied upon evidence of this witness. Learned Advocate has submitted that on 25-10-2008, panchnama Exh.5545 was drawn under which the cycle and key was recovered from accused No.27's house. It is submitted that Exh.5545 is pointing out the same house, as was pointed out earlier in the panchnama, which was drawn earlier. Exh.5545 was drawn on 25-10-2008, wherein he has volunteered to disclose to discover cycle and other articles, which are hidden by them along with co-accused; Kayamuddin Kapadia. Accused No.27-Abdul Rajik thereafter discovers one cycle of black colour in the flat of Alamin and the key to the cycle. Various other articles were also seized, which pertains to daily routine. The panchnama was exhibited through PW No.824-Sanjaykumar Shyamjibhai Dhamecha at Exh.5544. Therefore, Exh.5545 is disclosure, which led to cycle, custody of which was with the accused. Another panchnama at Exh.5622 is drawn, wherein accused No.27-Abdul Rajik has pointed out house at Almahmadi Society as a spot, where he collected bombs and the spot, where he handed over bombs to accused No.23-Ayaz Razakmiyan Saiyed and the spot where the bombs were planted and the shops from where cloth bags were purchased. According to learned Advocate, house at Almahmadi Society was already pointed out previously by accused No.1- Jahid S/O Kutubuddin Shaikh vide Exh.6656 and therefore, this disclosure panchnama cannot be used as there is no new fact, which is disclosed. In this regard, the Court has perused Exh.5622, wherein he has disclosed in first part of the panchnama that he would voluntarily show the house in Danilimda and the place where exchange of bomb and planting of bomb have taken place and the place from where cloth bags have been procured. Therefore, the argument that the panchnama discloses only house in Almahmadi Society, which was already disclosed earlier, may not be accepted as in the panchnama, all the three points mentioned herein above have also been taken to by this accused.

11.85. It is therefore prayed that their respective appeals be allowed and the accused be given clear acquittal.

(Submissions of learned Senior Advocate Mihir Desai)

11.86. Learned Senior Advocate represents seven appellants, who are awarded death penalty and three appellants, who have been sentenced to life imprisonment. Learned Senior Advocate seeks permission to begin his submission with regard to three appellants of Criminal Appeal No.1917 of 2022, who have been awarded life sentence and they are appellant No.1; Atikurrehman @ Atik Abdulhakim Khilji (accused No.20), appellant No.4; Mohammad Sadik @ Yasir @ Imran @ Sadakat @ Sahadat Ishrar Ahmed Shaikh (accused No.30) and appellant No.10; Mohammad Abrar @ Munna @ Ismail @ Abdulla @ Ibrahim Babukhan Maniyar (accused No.74).

11.87. Learned Senior Advocate has made submissions on the issues in general and thereafter proceeded to make submissions accused-wise. It is submitted that entire conspiracy can be broadly divided into various meetings held beginning with camp at Vagamon in Kerala in December, 2007, thereafter camp at Halol in January, 2008 and thereafter, several meetings within Ahmedabad, Surat, Bharuch and also Pune. However, it is submitted that in so far as so-called meeting at Pune is concerned, the Special Court itself has not taken the same into consideration and therefore, no submissions are required to be made in this regard.

11.88. It is generally submitted that though some of the accused, who were not present in Halol camp, have still shown to be present. According to the appellant, accused No.18 and accused No.5 were not present at Halol camp, but the Court has proceeded to presume their presence.

11.89. It is submitted that the prosecution has based their case on confessions of the accused particularly accused No.2; Imran S/o. Ibrahim Shaikh and accused No.24; Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira and also evidence of so-called eyewitnesses PW No.957- Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Kureshi at Exh.6687. However, even from the confession or evidence of the witnesses, it is not coming on record that there was any plan of planting the bombs nor does confessions refer to any accused having taken any action to buy material, actual preparation and planting of bombs. It is submitted by learned Senior Advocate that undoubtedly the crime is heinous and the culprits are required to be punished. However, in so far as the appellants whom learned Senior Advocate represents, their role are not coming out about their participation in any of the act related to serial bomb blast. It is submitted that undoubtedly, planting of bombs is one of the part of conspiracy, however, there has to be some strong chain of events to link planting of bombs with so called conspiracy during the meeting at the camps and other cities. According to learned Senior Advocate, there is no link between the meetings, which are sought to be established by the prosecution and the execution of planting of bombs and causing serial blasts.

11.90. Learned Senior Advocate has submitted that on the issue of conspiracy, all the circumstances are required to be established and all these circumstances are required to be linked, so as to point towards conspiracy being hatched. It is submitted that on the issue of larger conspiracy, which resulted into explosion of bombs and planting of bombs, the prosecution is required to interconnect Vagamon camp of Kerala with Halol camp, meetings in Ahmedabad and Surat and the circumstance of actual preparation of bombs and thereafter, planting of bombs, as the prosecution has failed to interconnect all these aforesaid issues, the conviction is erroneous.

11.91. It is submitted that it was necessary for the prosecution to place on record some evidence to the extent that hatching of the conspiracy was for causing bomb explosion and planting of bombs. According to him, though the prosecution has placed on record evidence with regard to meeting at Vagamon, Halol and various places at Ahmedabad, still there is no evidence that in these meetings, there was any discussion or decision to plant the bombs. It was necessary for the prosecution to come out with clear cut evidence as to what is the conspiracy and who participated in such conspiracy, which would essentially be established by circumstantial evidence.

11.92. Learned Senior Advocate has thereafter raised an issue of the trial, which was conducted by the Ernakulam Court, which was in connection with alleged terror camp at Vagamon in Kerala and for some of the accused for whom, learned Senior Advocate has made submissions, having been acquitted, therefore, principle of 'issue estoppel' would be attracted and therefore, the prosecution is precluded from establishing very fact in issue, which was fact in issue before the Ernakulam Court. It is submitted that acquittal of accused persons in Vagamon Camp case at Kerala, was on the basis of prosecution having failed to establish the presence of the accused persons at Vagamon during the Camp. Therefore, one Court has already accepted finding of fact recording non-presence/absence of the accused persons in the camp allegedly organized for terror activities.

11.93. For this issue, learned Senior Advocate has relied upon the decision of the Apex Court in case of Ashwini Kumar Allias Ashu and another v/s. State of Punjab reported in (2015) 6 SCC 308 and particularly relied upon Para-20.

11.94. The Court finds that rule regarding 'issue estoppel' relates to admissibility of evidence in subsequent proceedings, whereas facts before the Apex Court was where the principle of 'issue estoppel' was sought to be applied to the findings, where an attempt was to rely on finding at subsequent stage to upset finding of facts recorded on previous occasion. The Court finds that in this very judgment, the Apex Court has relied upon earlier decision in case of Sangeetaben Mahendrabhai Patel v/s. State of Gujarat reported in (2012) 7 SCC 621, wherein principle of 'issue estoppel' was in context of Criminal trial explained that where the issue of fact has been tried by the Competent Court, on an earlier occasion, such finding would constitute 'estoppel' or 'Res judicata' against the prosecution, but not as a bar to the trial, but operates only to extent of precluding acceptance and receipt of evidence to disturb the finding of fact, when the accused is tried subsequently for different offence. This rule relates only to admissibility of evidence, which is designed to upset finding of fact recorded in previous trial on a factual issue.

11.95. Referring to case of accused No.15-Abubasar @ Mufti @ Abdul Rashid @ Abdulla Abubakar Shaikh, it is submitted that in the trial by the Ernakulam Court, he was convicted for being present in the camp, but was acquitted of charge of being a member of banned organization 'SIMI' and therefore, to that extent, the accused person could not be called upon once again to answer the same charge.

11.96. It is submitted that all the accused persons except for accused No.15-Abubasar @ Mufti @ Abdul Rashid @ Abdulla Abubakar Shaikh, having been acquitted by the Ernakulam Court and if the case of the prosecution is to the effect that camp at Vagamon was starting point of conspiracy, then in that case also, absence of accused persons from that offence will take them out from the role of conspiracy.

11.97. Learned Senior Advocate has cursorily referred to pending matter in case of S. G. Vombatkere v/s. Union of India passed in Writ Petition No.682 of 2021 dated 11th May, 2022, where the Apex Court has passed the order and which is still in effect, which reads as under:

d. All pending trials, appeals and proceedings with respect to the charge framed under Section 124A of IPC be kept in abeyance. Adjudication with respect to other Sections, if any, could proceed if the Courts are of the opinion that no prejudice would be caused to the accused.

*L*d. Advocate has prayed for clear acquittal of the appellants whom he represents.

Submissions of Learned Advocate Mr. Hriday Buch:

Confirmation Case No.2 of 2022.

11.99. Learned advocate representing the aforesaid convicts, who have been given capital sentence has made submissions initially in general on the points of nature of investigation, conspiracy, nature of evidence, identification and connect of the accused with the offense and thereafter, made submissions individually with regard to the convicts whom he represents. It is submitted that the offense of this magnitude would always invoke strong emotion amongst the Investigating Officers like any other common citizen and would therefore, take up as a challenge and would resort to desperate measure to detect the crime. The present investigation also appears to be a desperate measure to detect the crime and presenting the same to the citizenry.

11.100. It is submitted that the entire theory of the investigation then was developed on the basis of E-mail received at India Today Office and therefore, if the incident and till receipt of the E-mail, the investigation was clueless. As per the deposition of the one of the Investigation Officers, PW No.1000-Hareshkumar Ranchhodlal Muliyana, examined at Exh.6960, which would indicate that even if receipt of E-mail till 3rd August, there was no definite line of investigation and in fact originator of the E-mail have been acquitted.

11.101. It is submitted that a very important witness from the investigating team has not been examined. Learned advocate has submitted that from the evidence of the Investigating Officers, particularly, PW No.1154-Usha Bachubhai Rada, examined at Exh.8340 in para-10 of the deposition, it is mentioned that the team of investigation was headed by Shri Abhay Chudasma, the prosecution has not examined him as witness.

11.102. It is submitted that the foundation of the entire investigation and prosecution is bulk evidence of confession, panchnamas and demonstration panchnamas which is not sufficient to bring home the serious charge and would therefore need direct evidence to conclusively establish charge against the appellants-convicts.

11.103. It is submitted that the prosecution has put a case of conspiracy hatched which requires meeting of minds of 78 persons and still want the Court to believe that this meeting of minds and conspiracy remain a tight secret amongst themselves without there being any links.

11.104. It is submitted that even the objective for meeting of minds which are as per the prosecution to take revenge of the Godhra kand incidents are too stale to serve as a current object. The other common intention share is to topple the State Government and to establish 'Islamic Rule' of Sharia are also too far fetched and unconnect with the incident of serial blast.

11.105. The prosecution has relied upon the evidence of secret witnesses, where 26 secret witnesses have been named of which only 10 secret witnesses have been declared examined and three of them have been declared hostile.

11.106. Once again referring to the dropping of important police officer connected with the investigation namely Abhay Chudasma, learned advocate has drawn attention of this Court to Exh.9366 and 9367, which are purshis of dropping of witness, wherein, name of Shri Chudasma appears at Sr. No.67 citing that he is being cited as a witness only on account of him being a sanctioning authority, whereas from the evidence of other Investigating Officers, Shri Chudasma was there from beginning.

11.107. Learned advocate has thereafter, commented upon the manner in which the Investigating Officers have deposed. It is submitted that the deposition are in callous manner and have deposed that without the case diary and by making stock answers that they were able to answer the questions posed to them in cross-examination only after perusing the case papers.

11.108. With regard to the conspiracy, he has submitted that as per the case of prosecution, hatching of conspiracy is at three meeting points, firstly at Vagamon (Kerala), then Halol and some place in Dariyapur at Ahmedabad. Learned advocate has submitted that another witness that the prosecution relies upon are PW No.1067-Ambalal Vechatbhai Bariya, examined at Exh.7231, PW No.981-Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Katariya, examined at Exh.6835 and PW No.972-Ramkabhai Devkaranbhai Kesariya examined at Exh.6802. All these witnesses are the chance witnesses who are completely unreliable as it is coming from deposition itself that it is the Investigating Officer who has provoked themselves to become the witness by directly inquiring from them on the very day when the Investigating Officer along with accused had reached there at Halol for execution of panchnama Exh.6480 dated 27.08.2008 at the behest of accused No.1-Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Shaikh. Therefore, these witnesses were led by the Investigating Officer to become witnesses and therefore, neither their evidence nor their identification in Test Identification Parade can be treated as a evidence for conspiracy.

11.109. It is submitted that even from their deposition, it is coming out that they had no sufficient time to make a detailed observation of the accused persons as they had witnessed a group of people that too from a distance around 100 meters.

11.110. Learned advocate thereafter, has assailed the evidence of PW No.1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir Diwan, who was examined vide Exh.7923, who is the Mujawar of Khundpir Dargah at Pavagadh in Halol. It is submitted that though this witness is one of the secret witnesses, is not reliable as there is no Test Identification conducted. He has wrongly identified Imran in Court though it was Imran who had approached him first in point of time. The identification of certain accused though not represented by learned advocate Shri Hriday Buch, but the same was done for the first time in the Court.

11.111. Though this witness is for corroboration to the confessions of three accused who were present in the camp the prosecution has failed to conduct test identification though this witness.

11.112. Therefore, though this witness is for important purpose of holding terror camp, such a witness is not a reliable witness.

11.113. Learned advocate has thereafter, referred to the confessional statement of accused No.21-Mehndihasan @ Viki Abdul Habib Akbarkha Ansari at Exh.8623 and has raised doubt on the confessional statement and submitted that the same cannot be treated as admissible evidence against the appellant as the confessional statement was recorded while he was in custody. He has submitted that the arrest was affected on 09.10.2008 and was on remand till 26.11.2008 and the confessional statement was recorded on 12.11.2008 which he has retracted on 25.11.2008 being Exh.9226. He has referred to the last portion of Exh.8623 to submit that if this confessional statement is to be believed then, after the so-called training, he has left for his home and thereafter, he has not been in contact with anyone else so the role even as per the prosecution is only to the extent of participating in some camp.

11.114. Learned advocate has thereafter referred to PW No.1068-Pragneshbhai Govindbhai Rajput, who was examined vide Exh.7251, who is the panch witness of the pointing out panchnama by accused No.66-Mohammad Shafik @ Dadabhai @ Thakur @ Rafix @ Ali Abdulbari Ansari of the Halol Camp. He has referred to para-6 of the panchnama and submitted that by this panchnama, accused No.66 (Mohammad Shafik) has pointed out the place, where the terror camp was conducted, but in cross-examination, particularly in para-6 very callous answers have been given regarding him informing his family for travelling from Ahmedabad all the way to Halol without informing them. With regard to the identity of accused No.66, except for the accused mentioning the name, nothing has been shown as an identity of that accused and therefore, putting the entire panchnama to doubt.

11.115. Thereafter, learned advocate has referred to Exh.8619, which is the confessional statement of co-accused-Imran Ibrahimbhai Shaikh, which was recorded on 14.11.2008, but was retracted on 25.11.2008 vide Exh.9216, the same cannot be treated as admissible evidence. Even if the confessional statement is perused, the same cannot be associated with the bomb blast. He has thereafter, referred to the confessional statement of co-accused No.35-Rafiuddin Safruddin Kapadia, which was recorded on 04.02.2009 and was retracted on 20.06.2009 vide Exh.9351. With regard to the aforesaid confessional statements, it is submitted that there is no connect of the camp at Halol and the bomb blast. Secondly, the statements having been retracted cannot be relied upon. It is submitted that the entire episode of confessional is the theory of one Abhaysinh Chudasma, who was in complete charge of the investigation, but has still not been examined as a witness. Doubting the manner in which the confessional of Imran Ibrahim Shaikh was recorded, learned advocate has referred to Exh.8617, which is an application for recording of confession under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. and if the order passed by the Magistrate dated 07.11.2008 is perused, then the order is passed as if the recording of the statement is that of a witness and not an accused.

11.116. However, in this regard, the Court is of the opinion that only the opening para of the order is seen, then it records that the accused is present and thereafter, the accused is forwarded to Court No.11 for recording of statement, where it appears that there is a typographical error and will not therefore, doubt the process of recording the statement.

11.117. Learned advocate by referring to various exhibits being 9188, 9195 and 9187 has submitted that though the order by the Magistrate for judicial custody was from 3:30 PM in due course, the accused were being taken to the judicial custody only after 5:00 o'clock, thereby giving sufficient time to the Investigating Officers to manipulate between 3:30 to 5:00 on each occasion. Therefore, attention is drawn to one particular document being Exh.9187, where the time by which the accused is taken in the jail custody at 20:30 hours i.e. almost 5:00 hours after the order by the Magistrate to be sent to judicial custody. Annexure-C of Exh.9187 is a document dated 18.09.2013, relating to the entry register of 07.11.2011, where the time of entry in the jail is reflected as 20:30 hours for Imran Ibrahim Shaikh and two other co-accused Mahendi Hasan and Umar @ Ashok Kala.

11.118. Based on this, it is argued that the confessional statements of Imarn and Mehandi were under influence of the police.

11.119. It is pertinent to observe that the application by Imran was dated 10.11.2008 and Yadi was sent on 12.11.2008 and confession was recorded on 14.11.2008 and the retraction was on 25.11.2008.

11.120. Therefore, the document which is relied upon does not specify about the entry of the aforesaid accused persons in jail premises at 20:30 hours on that particular day. Therefore, the arguments that the confessional statements were recorded in duress on the basis of timing of grant of judicial custody and entering of the accused into the jail premises cannot be accepted. The aforesaid documents have appeared on record along with statement under Section 313 of the Cr.P.C. and have been received under the Right to Information Act.

11.121. Another aspect for not relying upon the confessional statement being under duress with regard to accused No.21-Mehandi Hasan, it is argued that after the recording of the statement of this accused vide Exh.8623 on 12.11.2008, he had applied for retraction on 20.11.2008 and had requested for paper to write such application, but was provided for such paper only on 24.11.2008 and when he retracted on 24.11.2008, he was immediately arrested for offenses at Surat on 01.12.2008. He was on remand till 05.12.2008, but was never taken to Surat for any investigation and therefore, as a pressure tactic, the Investigation Officer has cuff-out his confessional statement. Learned advocate has referred to this chronology on the basis of further statement of the accused vide Exh.143. Therefore, there is a chance that post arrest, accused persons have either been tortured or lured into giving the confession.

11.122. With regard to holding of Halol Camp, learned advocate has submitted that the only evidence of such camp is three chance witnesses, who can corroborate the confessional statement however, if the manner in which these three witnesses have been brought on record as witnesses, then, it is clear that it is in fact the Investigating Officer, who had initiated them as witnesses and they cannot be termed as natural and voluntary witnesses. It is submitted that if the confessional statements are to be discarded having been retracted, then the only the evidence is of three chance witnesses, to which it is submitted that they are not sufficient to establish the holding of terror camp at Halol. The entire theory therefore, of conspiracy and meeting of mind to carry out the blasts becomes unsubstantiated.

11.123. It is submitted that it was for the prosecution to establish with cogent evidence and for that reason, the prosecution ought to have examined respected persons from the trust which was maintaining the Dargah however, no such office bearers or other concerned persons of the trust or Dargah management was examined, only one Mujavar was examined.

11.124. Even if the content of the confessional statements are to be read, then also, none of the confessional statements would indicate that the accused persons were sharing a common object of carrying out serial blasts and therefore, there is no supporting conspiracy to cause serial blast.

11.125. With regard to the conspiracy at Vagamon Camp, learned advocate has referred to PW No.998-Anilkumar Damodar Pottnaniyil, who was examined vide Exh.6950 and submitted that the evidence of this witness can hardly be evidence on holding of terror camp as the witness has stumbled upon the investigation by chance. He is a supervisor working in the vicinity and he is made a witness in the year 2008 to a fact which had occurred almost one year back and the only evidence is that he had seen camp being conducted. This witness had stated that the camp was under the name of adventure camp. This is not sufficient to establish the terror camp for conspiracy.

11.126. Thereafter, reference is made to PW No.1147-Geerindran Bhaskaran Nair, who was examined vide Exh.8250, who stood as a panch witness to the panchnama being Exh.8251, which is an exercise, recorded by showing the photographs and identifying the accused through one Anilkumar Damodar Pottnaniyil (PW No.998), wherein out of 26 photographs shown, 21 photographs were identified by accused Mohammad Yunus. This witness is also a panch witness of the panchnama vide Exh.8252, wherein Mohamad Yunus has shown the place, where the camp at Vagamon was conducted. This Court finds that Exh.8251 is the panchnama, where PW No.1147 (Geerindran Bhaskaran Nair) was a panch witness and another witness Anilkumar-PW No.998, who was working in the proximity of terror camp at Vagamon at the relevant time and had witnessed group of people participating in the camp shouting slogans and was shown passport size photographs of 100 persons out of whom, the said witness Anilkumar was called upon to identify and Anilkumar identified 26 photographs of the persons, who had attended the camp at Vagamon.

11.127. It is apparent that the witness Anilkumar did not know any details including the name of those persons whose photographs he had identified and while drawing the panchnama, these 26 photographs were shown to accused Mohammad Yunus @ Umar @ Khalid and he had identified the entire list of 21 persons out of 26 with name. This would go on to establish the presence of 21 accused, the photographs of which were identified by witness Anilkumar as having participated in the Vagamon camp and thereafter, name by co-accused Mohammad Yunus. These 21 persons are (1) Imran Shaikh, (2) Mohammed Ansar, (3) Hafiz Hussain @ Adnan, (4) Shakil Ahmed Mali, (5) Dr. Asadulla, (6) Shilbli, (7) Mohammed Shajid Mansuri, (8) Safdar Hussain Nagori, (9) Yasin @ Gulraj, (10) Dr. Anwar Bagwan, (11) Mohhamed Irfan @ Wakib, (12) Nadim Saiyed, (13) Mohommed sami, (14) Kamran @ Fajilat, (15) Dr. Ahmed Beg., (16) Shaduli @ Hariz, (17) Nasir Ahmed Patel, (18) Zahid @ Javed, (19) Amil Parvezm, (20) Mohd. Ismail @ Razzik and (21) Mufti Bashar.

11.128. Though the arguments are advanced in this regard that the investigation was almost after period of five years and therefore, there would be great changes on the side which would create doubt on the panchnama executed and pointing out of the place, where the camp had taken place. However, the Court may refer to Exh.8252, which is the panchnama executed at the behest of accused Mohammad Yunus @ Usman Khalid, where the accused had given detail of his travel from Ernakulam Railway Station to Vagamon and leading the panch witnesses and police officers in the police vehicle and pointed out the place, where the tents were pitched in the open land and training being given to them. During this panchnama, the accused had pointed out in detail about the activities being conducted there which included training for making chemical bombs, firing etc. The Court has perused the cross-examination of both the evidences of PW No.998-Anilkumar Damodar Pottnaniyil, who was examined vide Exh.6950 as well as panch witness PW No.1147-Geerindran Bhaskaran Nair, who was examined vide Exh.8250. The Court does not find any reason to doubt the contents of the panchnamas as well as the evidence of these witnesses.

11.129. Learned advocate has referred to PW No.1148-Josaf Joysan, who was examined vid Exh.8253, who is another witness of the pointing out panchnama at Exh.8252. This witness is a panch to the point out panchnama by one Hafiz Hussain, which he had agreed to and has exhibited Exh.8254 panchnama and in this panchnama, Hafiz Hussain has pointed out the place where the terror camp at Vagamon was conducted. Though in cross-examination, this witness was questioned with regard to the manner in which he was summoned and about the delay of the police officers, who are present therein and about another person Sunny, who appears to be co-panch, however, there is nothing suggestive to doubt the deposition of this witness. The argument that this witness has failed to identify Hafiz Hussain is of no consequence as during the panchnama, he was introduced to Hafiz. Exh.8254 is the panchnama of pointing out the place and location of the camp by the accused Hafiz Hussain @ Adnan. Exh.8254 records the manner in which the police team was led by the accused Hafiz Hussain @ Adnan in police vehicle and has shown the place of the camp and the activities which took place at various locations within that camp. During this, the accused had also pointed out the place, where the tents were erected, the place where they practiced riding of two wheelers and place where practice for crossing by rope was undertaken.

11.130. Learned advocate has thereafter, referred to deposition of Investigating Officer, PW No.1163-Mayur Jagmalbhai Chavada, who was examined vide Exh.8638, pertaining to recording of witnesses Riyaz and Chhotu and submitted that though these two witnesses were cited as secret witnesses, the prosecution has not examined one Chhotu as he was not traced out, which shows the poor state of affair of the prosecution and the other secret witness Riyaz though examined, was declared hostile.

11.131. It is argued by referring to page No.202 of the deposition of PW No.1163 that the accused-Yunus through whom panchnama Exh.8251 and 8252 regarding photographs of the accused persons and the place at Vagamon, stands acquitted and therefore, the Court in the case of this accused has appreciated the evidence, then similar benefit be also available to the present accused persons. He then referred to page 211 of the evidence of PW No.1163 which referred to the panchnnama executed at behest of accused Zahid Shaikh vide Exh.5581, which was executed by Investigating Officer, V.R.Tolia, who could not be examined on account of his demise. He has thereafter, referred to page-290 where the witness has deposed with regard to the investigation which took place at Vagamon and execution of Exh.8254 and submitted that the Investigating Officer has deposed in a callous manner despite this being a very serious investigation. He has then referred to page-316 referring to the executing of panchnama of Halol vide Exh.7053 and questioned being put to this witness regarding his knowledge with regard to the first panchnama of the very place dated 27.08.2008 which he has denied and therefore, it is argued that though this witness has admitted to have exchanged information with other Investigating Officers, he has expressly denied knowledge of previous panchnama dated 27.08.2008 and his inability to answer as to the status of the Dharamshala and Dargah as to whether the same were operational at the relevant time or since when they were inoperational. However, this witness has denied the suggestion that he had the knowledge of other Investigating Officer, having executed panchnama and has executed the present panchnama only to support the previous panchnama. In para-110 of the evidence, the Investigating Officer was cross examined about the manner and method in which panchnama of identification by 100 photographs was undertaken and the role of Mohammad Yunus in executing of such panchnama. It is submitted that the answers given by the Investigating Officer were only to the extent that he can give the answers to the questions only by looking into the case papers and therefore, this Investigating Officer cannot be treated as having carried out in proper manner. The investigation also does not arrive at any conclusion or a consistent theory against the accused person. It is submitted that the evidence with regard to Vagamon Camp cannot be said to be on the basis of independent evidence or fair investigation and therefore, reliability of the panchanams executed at Vagamon are doubtful.

11.132. It is submitted that though the Court may believe the holding of Camp at Vagamon on account of conviction recorded by Ernakulam Court, still the same cannot be treated to be sufficient evidence of holding a terror camp at Vagamon with a common object to cause serial blast at Ahmedabad.

11.133. Learned advocate has thereafter, referred to Exh.9021, which is the confession of Mohammad Manzer Imam-accused No.76, who is also an accused of offense being tried at Ernakulam at Kerala. Exh.9021, which was retracted by the accused through Exh.9230. Accused No.76-Mohammad Manzer Imam was acquitted by this Court in this offense however, was convicted in Kerala Case for Vagamon Camp.

11.134. Learned advocate has thereafter, argued on the issue of place of conspiracy within Ahmedabad. It is submitted that according to prosecution, a residential premises in Dariyapur, identified as house of grand-father of Samsuddin to be the place, where the accused person had met to conspire.

11.135. Learned advocate has referred to evidence of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Kureshi, who was examined vide Exh.6687. Learned advocate has generally submitted that this witness is not a reliable witness in view of the improvement made in his version over the version given by this witness in statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. According to him, many facts which were mentioned in the deposition were missing in Section 164 statement. It is submitted that the conduct of this witness is doubtful from the beginning as even as per his deposition he was aware of some illegal activity and he has not approached the police. It is submitted that the manner in which this witness decided to make judicial confession is also not coming on record.

11.136. It is submitted that though this witness is also a witness to the extra judicial confession of accused-Abdul Razik, the same cannot be treated to be sufficiently reliable evidence as even from his deposition this witness ought to have been treated as an accomplice and the extra judicial confession being weak piece of evidence would need corroboration. Moreover, the so called extra judicial confession of Razik was made at the time of travelling in train to which the Investigating Offices have not made any investigation about the fact of Razik and this witness travelling altogether in one train. Therefore, this witness is not reliable witness. This Court finds, upon perusal of the cross-examination of this witness, that insofar as the judicial confession of Razik is concerned, the defence has not tried to contradict him in the cross-examination by putting necessary questions regarding his travel in Train with Razik and in absence of such challenge to the issue of travel in Train, the defence cannot raise doubt on the fact of the witness travelling with accused Razik.

11.137. With regard to evidence of meeting of the group at Dariyapur at the place of Samsudin's Nana, learned Advocate has submitted that Exh.8266 being statement of Riyazhussain Mohammadhussain Siddiqui under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., cannot be treated as evidence, as the same can be said to have been exhibited only for the purpose of the signature.

11.138. Riyazhussain Mohammadhussain Siddiqui has been examined as PW No.1151 at Exh.8265, wherein he has been declared hostile and has admitted about his signature on certain papers and therefore, even if exhibit is to be believed, then also, it is only for the purpose of signature. Therefore, evidence of this witness does not help the prosecution for establishing the meeting for conspiracy at Dariyapur.

11.139. Learned Advocate has submitted that evidence of Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed; PW No.1141, who is approver, also cannot be relied upon, as his evidence does not reflect that there was a conspiracy to carry out bomb blast. However, the Court on perusal of the evidence in chief, this witness has deposed about the program held in Dariyapur at the residence of grand father of Samsudin and he was informed about the meeting by Arif Kagzi, where the witness had attended meeting with other people, wherein he was introduced to Safdar Hussain Nagori, Sibli, Abdul Subhan @ Taukir, Kayamudin Kapadiya, Mufti Abubasar, Zakir, Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Razik, Arif Kagzi and Samsudin Shaikh were the people, who were present in the earlier meeting also and in the present meeting, mainly speeches were delivered by Safdar Husain Nagori, Abdul Subhan @ Taukir, Samsudin Shaikh and Arif Kagzi. Speeches were for setting up Islamic governance and to resort to Jihadi activities and thereafter, there was viewing of Video Cassettes on VCD Player regarding Taliban, Alqaeda and Hamas and activities like Suicide bombing, Gorilla attack, bomb explosions. Though this witness has been cross examined, aforesaid fact appears to have not been disturbed and the witness has also come out as reliable witness.

11.140. Learned Advocate in the deposition of this witness has referred to the portion of cross examination, wherein reference is made to vacate the premises, which was occupied by Taukir and that he came to know through one Sayeedu Rehman that Taukir and Kayamudin have already left and vacated the premises occupied by them, which was around 15th of that month and thereafter, on 22nd July, he received phone from Kayamudin. It is submitted that version given by this witness is very sketchy and not reliable about what had transpired between him and Kayamudin.

11.141. Thereafter, learned Advocate has referred to Exh.7385; Panchnama drawn at the behest of Tausif Khan @ Atik to point out the premises, where the meeting had taken place for conspiring.

11.142. With regard to this, it is submitted that panchnama has brought on record location of the house, located in Dariyapur (Samsudin's Nana house), which was in the ownership of one Hussain Hasambhai Shaikh. Defense has examined this owner Husain Hasambhai Shaikh as defence witness at Exh.9263. Learned Advocate has drawn attention of this Court to Exh.9263, it is submitted that even if nature of construction of this house is taken into consideration, then it is evident that house is not big enough to accommodate any kind of meeting or program that prosecution wants this Court to believe.

11.143. Learned Advocate in this regard has submitted that on the issue of meeting at Dariyapur before blast, the prosecution has evidence of certain witnesses particularly approver and those who have participated in the meeting on one hand and on the another hand is the defence witness; Hussain Hasambhai Shaikh, who is citizen with clean image and has nothing to do with the offense except for being relative to one of the accused. Therefore, say of Hussain Hasambhai Shaikh should be treated as more believable. It is also submitted that though Hussain Hasambhai Shaikh was cited as a witness in the charge-sheet, he was not examined by the prosecution and therefore, he was sought to be examined by the Defense.

11.144. Thereafter, learned Advocate has made submissions on behalf of accused No.28-Afzal @ Afsar @ Raja @ Ajit Singh @ Sanjay Pandey @ Usmani Mutlib Usmani and accused No.69; Aamin @ Raja Aiyub Nazir Shaikh, who have been arraigned as accused in the offense for having some connection with the cars, which have alleged to be used in the incident. In so far as Black Wagon R Car in the offense is concerned, offense was registered of theft of this car at Mumbai, wherein accused No.28-Afzal @ Afsar @ Raja @ Ajit Singh @ Sanjay Pandey @ Usmani Mutlib Usmani was tried for the offense of theft at Mumbai and has been acquitted. It is the case of the prosecution that three persons had come in this car from Mumbai and has placed on record evidence of National Highway Authority and Toll Tax Receipts to establish movement of the car on the Highway from Mumbai towards Gujarat. Exh.6640 is evidence of Petrol Pump Attendant and Exh.6642 is evidence of Mechanic, who repaired the car. Both these evidences are of no use to the prosecution, as they did not connect either the car or the accused with the blast, which took place at Ahmedabad. Moreover, there is no continuous evidence to connect the cars movement from Mumbai to Ahmedabad. Exh.6649 is evidence of PW No.951- Gulamhussain Rasulbhai Gayakwad, who has repaired Maruti Alto Car. However, his evidence is not sufficient to connect, as there is no evidence as to who actually placed the car at L.G. Hospital. Exh.6438 is pointing out panchnama drawn at the behest of accused No.28-Afzal @ Afsar @ Raja @ Ajit Singh @ Sanjay Pandey @ Usmani Mutlib Usmani, who has taken Investigation Team during panchnama. The Court has perused this panchnama, which is proved by PW No.899-Shersinh Khusalsinh Mahavar at Exh.6437. This witness has fully supported the case of the prosecution and this document at Exh.6438 does refer to what had taken place on 26-07-2008 of Wagon-R Car of grey colour bearing registration No.GJ-6-CD-9718 and on the night prior thereto, the car being loaded with nut bolt on the back side with gas cylinder and time bomb being adjusted between seat and being taken from Alahmadi Society at Danilimda to Civil Hospital in Shahibaug along with Abdul Razik. He has accurately pointed out place, where he had driven the car and parked it nearby the Trauma Centre.

11.145. Exh.5556 is panchnama at behest of Mohammad Ismail Abdul Razik. Learned Advocate has referred to Exh.6421; evidence of PW No.896-Durgeshbhai Kanubhai Patel, who is witness of panchnama Exh.6422, which is panchnama by which accused No.42; Mohammad Shakil @ Shakil Yaminkhan Luhar has pointed out the place, where cycle containing the bomb was placed. Learned Advocate has submitted that reliance placed on this panchnama, portion by which the accused giving panchnama, has narrated circumstances, which connecting to the offense, cannot be treated as evidence against him and therefore, such pointing out panchnama of cycle being placed in Mahalaxmi Market, is not sufficient and independent evidence. The prosecution has thereafter referred to Exh.6079, which is panchnama at the behest of accused No.39, accused No.41 and accused No.42, who were jointly taken to premises of FSL at Gandhinagar and through these accused persons in this panchnama the bicycles lying at FSL were identified to be bicycles on which, bomb was placed and had exploded. According to learned Advocate, there is no special marking by Investigating Officer to identify the cycle, which is different and available commonly in the market. Moreover, accused persons, if at all had no clue of how the damaged cycle would look after explosion of bomb and therefore, identification of these materials through accused person, was an exercise in futility and does not help the case of the prosecution.

11.146. Learned Advocate has thereafter referred to Exh.6687, which is statement of witness; PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C.. Learned Advocate has broadly submitted about admissibility of such statement, as the facts, which were recorded in the statement under Section 161, were greatly varying from facts, which emerged in the statement under Section 164 and this variance itself creates doubt on the version of the witness. When this variance was brought to the notice, the only answer given by this witness was that the facts which he had not mentioned in the statement under Section 164, recorded later on, was that he did not deem it important and necessary to state all the facts narrated by him earlier and had only narrated important facts. Learned Advocate has assailed evidence of this witness that though it is coming out on record that he was using two mobile numbers and investigation had those two mobile numbers, but no investigation was carried out to establish the credibility of the witness. In fact, the investigation ought to have collected the call detail record, when his mobile location to establish veracity of facts that he has mentioned in his evidence.

11.147. One more aspect with investigation ought to have probed further, is with regard to mobile connectivity between Zakir and Razik. There is no investigation on the point that Razik, who wanted to abscond, wanted to have SIM card on the name of unknown person particularly of Hindu name. However, in the raid by the investigation on the office of accused No.1, no documents of such nature for issuing of fake SIM card was found and therefore, investigation had remained incomplete. Moreover, if the prosecution is to rely upon extra judicial confession made by Razik to this witness, investigation ought to have completed investigation with regard to seat number and actual travel of Zakir and Razik together in the train, where the extra judicial confession has taken place. It is submitted as it is extra judicial confession is weak piece of evidence and further being uncorroborated, the role attributed to accused person by Zakir himself could not be believed.

11.148. One more reason for doubting the evidence of Zakir is fact that he himself was in the custody from 8th July to 8th October and only after he agreed to stand as witness, on 17th October, 2008, he was released and his evidence was recorded. In fact, he was accomplice, who has been converted into witness by the prosecution to emphasize his argument about this witness being in custody between July to October.

11.149. Learned Advocate has questioned the prosecution regarding mobile phone recharge. It is submitted that there were no mobile phone recharge of this witness and therefore, it is to be presumed that he was in custody. Otherwise, ordinarily during this period, in natural course, his mobile phone would have been recharged. With this glaring infirmities, this witness has to be discarded as to be thoroughly unreliable.

11.150. Learned Advocate has thereafter commented upon the evidence of Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed; approver, who was examined as PW No.1141 at Exh.8191. First reason to create doubt on the evidence of Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed is chronology in which he made application to become approver and the speed at which such application was facilitated and within no time, the approver was moved to the Court to take by the Jail Authority, therefore, would create doubt. Learned Advocate has drawn attention of this Court to Para-23 and Para-29 to dispute the fact mentioned in these Paras and create doubt by pointing out that if the meeting which took place with Razik is to be believed, then the timing that the witness took to travel from place of his job to meet Razik is an impossibility. Learned Advocate has submitted that the witness has lied on the point of planting of bomb, which is evident from colour of bag that he has mentioned. According to this witness, colour of the bag in which bomb was planted is white bag, whereas from recovery panchnama at Exh.1867 as well as FSL report at Exh.5916, colour of bag recovered from the site was that of grey colour. This witness one more instant for not believing witness, is fact that he mentioned that recce of the City was done by him along with Kayamudin on 23-07-2008 and Kayamudin was accompanied by one Asif Usmanbhai Shaikh, who is another secret witness. Asif was dropped, but his statement under Section 164 has been recorded and exhibited as Exh.8020. However, Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed throughout has not mentioned presence of Asif and therefore, his evidence is not believable. Evidence of Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed is also falsified, when he refers to date of 11-07-2008 of having met Taukir in the rented house. However, owner of the house; PW No.1106-Firoz Dilawar Shaikh at Exh.7929 and Exh.7930 does not support version of this witness about meeting of Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed with Kayamudin on 11-07-2008.

11.151. Learned Advocate has also submitted that as per the confession by Imran, Taukir was in Baroda with him and therefore, presence of Taukir on 11-07-2008, as is stated by Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed, becomes doubtful.

11.152. Learned Advocate has thereafter submitted that Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed was lured into becoming approver by coercing him or threatening him into becoming of the approver by showing him that there is strong evidence against him in the form of recovery of key of the cycle, which would directly connect approver; Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed with the offense and that according to learned Advocate is reason why Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed had change of heart to become approver. However, as Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed had become approver only to save his own skin, his evidence cannot be taken into consideration at all.

11.153. Learned Advocate has thereafter commented upon evidence of Investigating Officer; Shri Mayur Chavda and has submitted that investigation does not inspire any confidence, as still 15-08-2008, there was no clue about direction, in which investigation is to be carried out and all of sudden, investigation of Shri Toliya stumbled upon one Chotu and Riyaz, which disclose their involvement after interrogation of these two persons by Shri Toliya. However, on account of his sad demise, Shri Toliya has not been examined as witness. Even another Officer involved i.e. Shri Chudasma is also not examined, whereas Shri Chavda has claimed ignorance altogether about Chotu and Riyaz. As submitted earlier, Chotu is dropped, as having not been found, whereas Riyaz has been declared hostile and therefore, going to the route, there is nothing clearly coming on record as to how the crime was detected in the first place.

11.154. Learned Advocate has thereafter taken this Court to Para-8 of the deposition of Investigating Officer; Mr.Chavda and compared the same with Exh.6687, cross examination of witness-Zakir and submitted that there is completely black out as to how the name of Zakir surfaced with the Investigating Officer either as witness or as accomplice. He has reiterated his arguments that Zakir was accomplice who was kept in custody from July to October till he agreed to become approver.

11.155. Learned Advocate has also submitted that this Officer has left the investigation regarding extra judicial confession of Razik to Zakir half away and ought to have brought on record circumstances to establish joint travel together of Zakir and Razik in the train towards Bhopal.

11.156. Lastly, learned Advocate has submitted that evidence of Investigating Officer makes evidence of Zakir more unreliable, as other accused have seen Zakir in custody and that his mobile had remained uncharged for a period between August to October.

11.157. Learned Advocate has thereafter submitted by referring to evidence of Investigating Officer; Usha Bachubhai Rada as PW No.1154 at Exh.8340 to submit that even as per this witness, Mr.Abhay Chudasma was the main person in whose supervision, the investigation was taking place. Still, he has not been examined as witness by the prosecution. He has submitted that none of Investigating Officers examined have remained present before the Court with the Case Diary and have answered several questions in callous manner, which creates doubt about investigation being carried out sincerely and in correct manner.

11.158. Learned Advocate has therefore challenged the conviction on following grounds:

(A) One weak piece of evidence cannot stand as corroboration to another weak piece of evidence.

(B) Impugned judgment is against principle that no innocent person should be punished, even if 100 accused persons are let off.

(C) Inconsistency in the judgment for sentencing as compared to the role, which is established on evidence.

(D) Extensive reliance on pointing out panchnama and discovery panchnama, which are against principle of that only what is covered, can be discovered, whereas in present case, panchnamas are pointing out to facts, which are already within knowledge of the investigation.

(E) Basic Policy in the conspiracy theory as there cannot be conspiracy of 78 accused persons, as such conspiracy would hardly remain secret for such long time.

(F) Erroneous reliance upon confession of the accused and the co-accused especially when retracted.

(G) Complete unreliability on the Test Identification Parade, as the same have taken place after long lapse of period.

11.159. Learned advocate therefore, has assailed the evidence of PW

No.1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir Diwan, who was examined vide Exh.7923, who is the Munjavar of Khundpir Dargah at Pavagadh in Halol. It is submitted that though this witness is one of the secret witnesses, he is not reliable as there is no test identification conducted. He has wrongly identified Imran in Court though it was Imran who had approached him first in point of time. The identification of certain accused though not represented by learned advocate Shri Buch, but the same was done for the first time in this Court.

11.160. Though this witness is for corroboration to the confession of three accused who were present in the camp, the prosecution has failed to conduct test identification through this witness.

11.161. Therefore, though this witness is for important purpose of holding terror camp such a witness is not a reliable witness.

11.162. Ld. Advocate has therefore prayed for acquitting the accused whom he represents.

supplementary chargesheets filed against the present Appellant. Hence, the entire trial stands vitiated in the absence of a valid sanction in law.

12.3. It is pleaded that the present Appellant was not even arrested in connection with any of the cases registered in various police-stations of Ahmedabad but was thereafter sent up for trial. It is pleaded that the present appellant has been gravely prejudiced by the clubbing and joint-trial of Surat-case along with the Ahmedabad-case.

12.4. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment is passed without appreciating the fact that there is no legal evidence on record, which can be said to be incriminating against the Appellant. It is pleaded that Section 27 of the Evidence Act cannot be used as a camouflage or a device to introduce confessional statement in a whole-sale manner. Furthermore, Section 8 of the Evidence Act cannot be used to admit a post-arrest conduct of a suspect without anything else as a proven chain of circumstances, that too, when the suspect is in police-custody. Furthermore, it is pleaded that no fact relevant can be said to have been discovered pursuant thereto.

12.5. It is further pleaded that from the alleged pointing out of 21 places where the appellant had allegedly planted the bombs, muddamals were already recovered and seized well before the date of arrest of the present Appellant. Hence, nothing can be said to have been discovered in the eyes of law. The alleged pointing out of various coin-boxes from where the Appellant had allegedly made certain calls but nothing was discovered and hence, nothing can be said to have been discovered in the eyes of law. It is pleaded that the alleged pointing out of the cause-way bridge where the Appellant had allegedly thrown away the pipe-bomb in water without anything being discovered is of no consequence. Further, it is not even the case of the prosecution that pipe-bombs were recovered from any of the 21 places from where unexploded bombs were found and nothing was recovered from the place where the appellant had allegedly thrown away a mobile-phone in water.

12.6. It is further pleaded that from the place of pointing out of flat in River-view Society by the Appellant, no incriminating articles were recovered and from the place of pointing out of flat in Master House Building by the Appellant, no incriminating articles were recovered.

12.7. It is pleaded that the entire prosecution case rests on circumstances which are in the form of post-arrest statements. It is pleaded that the present Appellant is shown to be arrested on 26/08/2008. It is pleaded that on 27/08/2008 or 28/08/2008 and thereafter, on 29/08/2008, the present Appellant is alleged to have purchased 15 to 16 kgs. of nuts and bolts from PW No.855-Jayeshbhai Manubhai Patel. Although during the investigation, no muddamal was shown to this witness, only during trial, he claims to have identified an iron-bolt as the article allegedly sold. Furthermore, PW No.855 could not identify the present Appellant during trial.

12.8. It is pleaded that in September 2008, the investigating agency had allegedly taken the present Appellant to the shop of PW No.859-Ahmadnur Abdulrahik Tambuwala who had sold a car-cover to the Appellant. During the investigation, no muddamal was shown to this witness but, for the first time, during the trial, he claims to have identified the said car-cover without any specific mark but admits that other shops also sell similar car-cover. Additionally, no bill or bill-book of this alleged transaction was brought on record. Furthermore, PW No.859- Ahmadnur Abdulrahik Tambuwala could not identify the present Appellant during the trial.

12.9. It is further pleaded that the investigating agency has allegedly taken the present Appellant to the shop of PW No.861-Rameshbhai Maneklal Jindal, who alleged that his partner, PW No.954-Abdul Sajidkhan Abdul Majidkhan Pathan, had sold indigo-cloth to the Appellant and produced a bill-book containing a bill in the name of one Rafik without his signature. Although during the investigation, no muddamal was shown to this witness but, for the first time, during the trial, he claims to have identified the said cloth and admits that other shops also sell similar cloth. PW No.984-Radheyshyam Madanlal Thakkar, who has claimed to have sold indigo-cloth to the Appellant and to one Rafik, has not identified the cloth during the investigation. He also admits that other shops also sell similar cloth. Furthermore, PW No.954- Abdul Sajidkhan Abdul Majidkhan Pathan could not identify the present Appellant during trial.

12.10. It is pleaded that when the Appellant has not been identified by any of the witness in Court during their Court deposition, it is a settled proposition of law that the only substantive evidence is identification in the dock during Court evidence.

Submissions of learned Advocate for the appellants:

12.12. Learned Advocate Mr.Somnath Vatsa appeared for appellant-accused Nos.1, 3, 32 and 70, learned Senior Advocate Mr. S. 12.13. It is pleaded that the trial Court has wrongly convicted the Appellants herein under the stringent provisions of the UAPA. It is pleaded that the Parliament, in its wisdom, has stipulated very important safeguards in order to protect the rights and interests of accused persons from wrongful prosecution instituted for grave and serious charges vide amendment to Section 45 of the UAPA. It is pleaded that post amendment, Section 45(1) of UAPA reads - "No court shall take cognizance of any offence-". It is pleaded that the bar to “taking of cognizance” is offence related and not case related Therefore, all the offences punishable under the stringent provisions of UAPA are Sessions triable. It is pleaded that the Sessions Court takes cognizance of offence under Section 193 of the Cr.P.C. pursuant to committal under Section 209 of the Cr.P.C. In case of the present appellants, the first Sessions Case which came to be committed was Sessions Case No.38 of 2009 that arose out of C.R. No.236 of 2008 registered with Shahibaug Police Station.

'taking of cognizance', without the chargesheet papers being reviewed by the High-Powered Committee, as directed in Section 45(2) of the UAPA, is mandatory. It is pleaded that in absence thereof, the trial Court could not have taken cognizance of offences punishable under the UAPA. It is pleaded that though Sessions Case No.38 of 2009 came to be committed on 4/02/2009, the trial Court framed the charges and took cognizance of the offence in the year 2010. The State of Gujarat notified the constitution of the aforesaid 'High-Powered Committee' only in the year 2013. Hence, the impugned judgment and order convicting the present Appellants and awarding death-sentence for offences punishable under the UAPA is untenable and void ab initio in the eyes of law.

12.15. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment has erred in law and on facts, as even otherwise, the sanction accorded against the present Appellants under Section 196 of the Code of Criminal Procedure, Section 45 of UAPA and Section 7 of the Explosives Substances Act, is without due application of mind. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment is passed without appreciating the fact that there is no legal evidence on record which can be said to be incriminating against the appellants and is based on whole sale reception of inadmissible confessional statements despite the specific bar on relying upon confessional statement of an accused under Section 25 of the Evidence Act, which cannot be circumvented by resorting to camouflages or under the nomenclature of Section 27 of the Evidence Act.

12.16. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment is contrary to the settled proposition of law that Section 8 of the Evidence Act cannot be used to admit a post-arrest conduct of a suspect, without anything else, in order to prove a circumstance as part of an unbroken chain of circumstances in a case wholly resting on circumstantial evidence.

12.17. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment is contrary to the settled proposition of law that no person can be held to be a member of any banned organisation or terrorist organisation without any cogent and sufficient evidence. It is pleaded that such conclusions have been drawn on the basis of conjectures and presumptions.

12.18. It is pleaded that it is a settled proposition of law that the allegations against the present appellants rest on circumstantial evidence. It is a settled proposition of law that burden is on the prosecution to prove each incriminating circumstance constituting an incriminating link, that too, beyond all reasonable doubt and that, each such link should be so joined together so as to constitute an unbroken chain which should unquestionably inculpate the accused and should be inconsistent with the innocence of the accused. It is further pleaded that the circumstances on which conclusion of guilt is drawn, should be fully proved and such circumstances must be conclusive in nature. Moreover, all the circumstances should be complete and no gap should be left in the chain of evidence. It is pleaded that in the present case, the entire prosecution case rests upon unproven and broken chain of circumstantial evidence.

12.19. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment errs in not considering the explanation offered by the present appellants in their S.313 Cr.P.C. statements, which has been held by the Hon'ble Apex Court to be a very crucial circumstance while appreciating the prosecution evidence. It is pleaded that the present appellant has specifically disclosed that he was kept in illegal custody for a period of about two weeks prior to the date on which he was shown to be arrested on 26/08/2008 and unsurprisingly, all the alleged so-called witnesses have emerged post-arrest of the present appellant.

12.20. It is pleaded that prosecution has relied upon the discovery-cum-recovery panchnama dated 18.08.2008 vide Exh.5492 whereby, allegedly at the instance of original accused No.1-Jahid Kutubuddin Sheikh, from a mobile shop in Nagori Complex near Dani Limda bus-stand, 10-15 ball-bearings were found with some wax-like object in the presence of FSL, which were seized. It is pleaded that prosecution has also relied upon the discovery-cum-recovery panchanama dated 01.09.2008 vide Exh.5517 allegedly at the instance of original accused No.1-Jahid Kutubuddin Sheikh of a cyber-cafe, near NID, Paldi carried out in the presence of FSL. It is claimed in the said panchanama that in the presence of police, accused No.1- Jahid @ Javed Kutubuddin Sheikh had stated that he had sent an email from this cyber-cafe. It is further claimed that certain hard-disks were seized from the said cyber-cafe. However, the opinion of the FSL forwarded vide Exh.-5640 states that no data relating to the query sent by the investigating agency was found from any of the seven Hard-disks. Further, the implication of the present Appellant with the present offence is on the basis of production cum seizure of a Register from this cyber-cafe vide Exh.-3207 and the entries therein are based on surmises and conjectures.

12.21. It is pleaded that pointing out panchanama dated 27/08/2008 vide Exh.-6480 at the instance of the present appellant containing inadmissible confessional statement is not followed by discovery of any material fact or incriminating circumstances against the present appellant. It is pleaded that area near the ‘vav’ and around the old mosque has places where annual festivities of ‘Urs’ takes place and therefore, the articles seized from the place allegedly so pointed-out cannot be held to be an incriminating circumstance, as it is not a secluded place, which is otherwise, not accessible to people.

12.22. It is pleaded that discovery-cum-recovery panchanama dated 19.09.2008 vide Exh.6656 allegedly at the instance of original accused No.1-Jahid Kutubuddin Sheikh of house No.10 of Al-Mohammadi Society in the presence of FSL cannot constitute legal and admissible circumstance against the present applicant. It is pleaded that the prosecution version as to this house suffers from insurmountable discrepancies. It is emerging from the evidence of PW No.943-Kukhrajbanu Mohammad Yakub Sheikh that the electricity meter number of her house (Customer No.-2437127), which was claimed to be rented and the electricity-meter number of the house (Customer No.-2033406), which was claimed to be pointed out at the instance of the present Appellant, are different. Further, the claims made in this memorandum of panchanama-proceedings are contradicted by the contemporaneous scene-visit report made by the mobile-FSL. It is pleaded that it is not the case of the prosecution that this house was situated at a secluded spot or without any thriving neighbourhood and yet, no person from the neighbourhood was joined in the panchanama or independently examined during the trial. It is further pleaded that all the alleged recoveries fail to connect the present appellant with the present offence.

12.23. It is pleaded that the prosecution has attempted to connect the present appellant with other co-accused person through the identification of utensils claimed to have been sold by PW No.938 to accused No.8, which is claimed to have been seized from house No.10, Al-Mohammadi Society at the instance of the present Appellant vide Exh.-6656. However, not only were all the utensils in pristine and new condition but, they were also not sealed at the time of alleged seizure proceedings vide Exh.-6656. Hence, in view of the material discrepancies, the present appellant cannot be linked with another co-accused on the basis of the alleged panchanama of identification of unsealed and brand new utensils vide Exh.-5538.

12.24. It is pleaded that the production-cum-seizure panchnama dated 9.10.2008 of the black-coloured Bajaj Company motor-cycle vide Exh.3193 allegedly at the instance of the father of the Appellant fails to link the present Appellant with any of the allegations in absence of identification of this motor-cycle by any independent witness in Halol, Pavagarh.

12.25. It is pleaded that the pointing out panchanama dated 1/09/2008 of I-Net Cyber Cafe, Paldi, Ahmedabad vide Exh.-5516 allegedly at the instance of the appellant has not been proved by the prosecution. It is claimed by the prosecution that this cyber-cafe has been used by the appellant to send e-mails before the bomb-blast but, no e-mails attributable to the appellant have been recovered. Further, no e-mails, much less any incriminating e-mail, has emerged during the investigation, even though the respective Hard-drives were seized during the investigation.

12.26. It is pleaded that the seizure panchanama dated 13/09/2008 vide Exh.7224 wherein a register of Infinity cyber-cafe, Bhuj came to be seized has not been proved by the prosecution. It is pleaded that there is no evidence to link the present appellant with the said cyber-cafe except the oral claim of the police-witnesses. Further, there is no seizure of any Hard-disks from the computer-terminal, which was allegedly used by the present appellant.

12.27. It is pleaded that the production-cum-seizure panchanama dated 30/08/2008 vide Exh.3188 of three mobile-phones allegedly by the father of the present Appellant, even if taken at its highest, does 12.28. It is pleaded that the report of the DFS, Gandhinagar with respect to 'Suspect Detection System' vide Exh.5901 and the entire exercise carried out thereto in respect of the present Appellant, inter alia, does not have any evidentiary value simply because the same is a computerised one and such report will not elevate it to the category of a 'report of an expert' as provided under Section 45 of Evidence Act. It is pleaded that the prosecution has failed to lead any evidence or bring any material on record, which would remotely suggest that the said 'Suspect Detection System' is an established scientific evidence to be admissible under Section 293 of the Cr.P.C.

12.29. It is pleaded that the ocular evidence of PW No.972-Ramkabhai Devkaranbhai Kesariya, PW No.981-Naimeshbhai Labhubhai Chauhan, PW No.1067-Babubhai Ganeshbhai Mali and PW No.1105-Idris Gulabsha Fakir Divan in respect of the presence of the present Appellant is not established as the present Appellant has not been identified by anyone in the dock in Court during the trial, which is the only substantive evidence. Even otherwise, the said test identification parade suffers from several basic flaws and cannot be relied upon for any purpose. It is pleaded that the present Appellant has not been put to TIP through the only natural witness, i.e., PW No.1105-Idris Gulabsha Fakir Divan.

12.30. It is pleaded that the finding of the trial Court in placing reliance on the retracted-confessional statement of co-accused person (i.e. accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Sheikh) under Section 164 Cr.P.C. as well as on the confessional statement of other co-accused persons (i.e. accused No.21-Mehndi Hasan Abdul Hamid Ansari and accused No.35-Rafiuddin Surfuddin Kapadia) under Section 164 Cr.P.C. in order to return a finding that the allegation of criminal conspiracy stands proved against the present appellant is contrary to the principles laid down in this regard in numerous judgments of the Apex Court and this Court.

The following pleadings have been made against specific incriminating circumstances found against appellant (accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Sheikh)

12.31. By referring to specific incriminating circumstances found against the appellant (accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Sheikh) in the impugned judgment, it is pleaded that the confessional statement alleged to have been made on 14/11/2008 has not only been retracted on 25/11/2008 (Exh.9216) but, the same has been recorded in flagrant violation and disregard to the criminal manual. It is pleaded that the finding of the trial Court in even considering Section 164 Cr.P.C. confessional statement of co-accused person (original accused No.35) in order to return a finding that the allegation of criminal conspiracy stands proved against the present appellant on the strength of the confessional statement of the co-accused is erroneous.

12.32. It is pleaded that reliance placed on the aspect of alleged identification of the present appellant in the TIP proceedings (Exh.-3061) before the Executive Magistrate - PW No.571, Solanki Ramanbhai Sendabhai, through prosecution witnesses, being PW No.972-Ramkabhai Devkaranbhai Kesariya, PW No.981-Naimeshbhai Labhubhai Chauhan and PW No.1067-Babubhai Ganeshbhai Mali, is in clear disregard of the settled proposition of law that dock-identification is the only substantive evidence, i.e. identification on oath before the trial Court during the recording of evidence. Hence, the trial Court ought to have considered that none of the aforesaid prosecution witnesses, i.e., PW No.972-Ramkabhai Devkaranbhai Kesariya, PW No.981-Naimeshbhai Labhubhai Chauhan and PW No.1067-Babubhai Ganeshbhai Mali, have identified the present appellant in Court and therefore, the claimed identification during the TIP cannot constitute an incriminating circumstance against the present appellant. It is pleaded that even otherwise, the said TIP suffers from several basic flaws and cannot be relied on for any purpose.

12.33. It is pleaded that the confessional statement alleged to have been made during the drawing of Exh.6278 is inadmissible in the eyes of law as the same cannot be within the scope and ambit of Section 27 of the Evidence Act. Further, the confessional portion in Exh.6278 is also hit by Section 25 of the Evidence Act. Even otherwise, the articles thus seized are common household object and there is no investigation whatsoever about its relevance or relation to the alleged criminal conspiracy. Therefore, it cannot be said that the articles so seized constitute any incriminating circumstance against the present Appellant.

12.34. It is pleaded that the circumstance of the alleged pointing out vide Exh.6443 and the accompanying confessional statements recorded therein allegedly at the instance of another co-accused is an inadmissible evidence against the present appellant. It is pleaded that even otherwise, Exh.6443 is nothing but, re-discovery of facts, which were already within the knowledge of the investigating agency and for that reason as well, Exh.6443 is inadmissible in evidence and cannot be read in evidence.

12.35. It is pleaded that the seizure of a TATA Sumo vehicle by PW No.940-Nasior Aminsaheb Kureshi, allegedly given to the appellant and seized by way of seizure-panchanama vide Exh.3256, does not constitute any incriminating circumstance, as against the present appellant, there is no evidence that this vehicle was ever claimed to have been seen in the manner as alleged. It is relevant to note that PW No.940-Nasior Aminsaheb Kureshi has not even identified the present appellant in dock. Further, the investigation agency has neither bothered to carry out TIP of the present appellant through PW No.940-Nasior Aminsaheb Kureshi nor any claim has been made that the present Appellant was known to PW No.940-Nasior Aminsaheb Kureshi. It is pleaded that PW No.941-Asifbhai Iqbalbhai Bodiwala has been examined as the person accompanying the present appellant to PW No.940-Nasior Aminsaheb Kureshi and nothing more. Further, even otherwise, the articles thus seized have not been identified during the trial to be present at the relevant period of time at Pavagarh. Therefore, even if everything is assumed against the present appellant, it cannot be said that the vehicle so seized constitutes into an incriminating circumstance.

12.36. It is pleaded that the trial Court has incorrectly recorded a finding that the present appellant used to come for internet-surfing at I-Net Cyber Cafe, near NID, Municipal Market, Paldi. In fact, PW No.1062-Abdulajim Abdulhamid Saudagar has categorically stated that the present appellant used to come to the house when PW No.1062-Abdulajim Abdulhamid Saudagar was residing at Vadodara at the relevant time.

Kasam Sheikh, it is pleaded that in the oral evidence of PW No.1115-Mohammadumar Usmanbhai Mansuri nothing incriminating is emerging against the present appellant and hence, the same cannot be regarded as an incriminating circumstance against the present appellant as the appellant has neither been identified in the TIP nor in the Court during the deposition of the witness.

12.38. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erroneously relied upon the inherently weak evidence in the nature of extra-judicial confessional statements claimed to have been made before PW No.1117-Asif Usmanbhai Sheikh and PW No.1132-Jasubhai Karshanbhai Patel, whose versions appear after substantial delay, i.e. on 7/12/2008, and that too, after the present appellant was subjected to multiple custodial interrogations during the investigation. It suffers from incurable lacunae and cannot be made basis to record a finding of conviction, particularly, when the prosecution is based on circumstantial evidence. Even otherwise, the TIP suffers from several basic flaws and cannot be relied on for any purpose. It is further pleaded that the trial Court has erred in even appreciating the manner in which the present investigation has been carried out in general, and in particular, against the present Appellant by not appreciating the contents of letter Exh.9198, which was addressed by the present Appellant to the learned Metropolitan Magistrate, Court No.-11 on 20/11/2008.

12.39. It is pleaded that the finding of the trial Court in placing reliance on the Section 164 Cr.P.C. retracted-confessional statement of the co-accused person (accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Sheikh) as well as the Section 164 Cr.P.C. confessional statement of other co-accused persons (accused No.21-Mehdi Hasan Abdul Hamid Ansari and accused No.35-Rafiuddin Surfuddin Kapadia) in order to return a finding that the allegation of criminal conspiracy stands proved against the present appellant is contrary to the principles laid down in this regard in numerous judgments of the Apex Court and this Court.

12.40. It is pleaded that the circumstance of alleged pointing-out panchanama at the instance of the present Appellant vide Exh.6311 and Exh.6312 and the accompanying confessional statements recorded therein is clearly hit by Section 25 of the Evidence Act and is inadmissible in evidence, as the same is neither admissible under Section 27 of the Evidence Act nor under Section 8 of the Evidence Act. It is further pleaded that even otherwise, both Exh.6311 and Exh.6312 are nothing but, rediscovery of fact, which were already within the knowledge of the investigating agency and it is a settled proposition of law that there cannot be re-discovery of a fact.

The following pleadings have been made against specific incriminating circumstances found against appellant (accused No.7-Mohammad Usman @ Usman Mohammad Anis Agarbattiwala)

12.41. With respect to the very specific incriminating circumstance that has been found against the appellant (accused No.7-Mohammad Usman @ Usman Mohammad Anis Agarbattiwala), it is pleaded that nothing incriminating is emerging against the present Appellant from the oral evidence of PW No.1115-Mohammadumar Usmanbhai Mansuri.

12.42. It is pleaded that the ocular evidence of PW No.972-Motiji Ramji Prajapati and PW No.1067-Babubhai Ganeshbhai Mali with respect to the presence of the present appellant at Pavagarh is not established, as the present appellant has not been identified by either of the two witnesses in the dock during the trial, which is the only substantive evidence. It is pleaded that even during the investigation, the present appellant was not put to TIP through the only witness, i.e., PW No.1105-Idris Gulabsha Fakir Divan, who can be said to be ordinarily and naturally present at the alleged camp-site.

12.43. It is further pleaded that the finding of the trial Court in placing reliance on the Section 164 Cr.P.C. retracted-confessional statement of co-accused person (accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Sheikh) as well as the Section 164 Cr.P.C. confessional statement of another co-accused persons (accused No.21-Mehdi Hasan Abdul Hamid Ansari and accused No.35-Rafiuddin Surfuddin Kapadia) is erroneous. It is pleaded that the confessional statement accompanying Exh.6370 is inadmissible in the eyes of law, as the same is not within the scope and ambit of Section 27 of the Evidence Act and is hit by Section 25 of the Evidence Act. Further, even otherwise, there is no independent material and no further investigation as to the ownership of the place from where the articles have been allegedly recovered and its connection with the present appellant. It is pleaded that there is no proof about the mandatory seizure-memo having been prepared and of handing it over during the course of drawing of Exh.6370. Conspicuously, no criminal proceedings were even instituted against the owner of the place from where the alleged incriminating articles were recovered. It is pleaded that there is no investigation as to the alleged relation of the articles so alleged to have been seized with the present appellant or their relation to the present alleged criminal conspiracy.

12.44. It is pleaded that seizure of a motor-cycle, claimed to have been given by one Anis to the present appellant, which was seized by way of seizure-panchanama vide Exh.3256, does not constitute any incriminating circumstance as against the present appellant. It is pleaded that the prosecution has not examined said Anis as a witness and therefore, the claim made in Exh.3256 is nothing more than hear-say and thus, inadmissible and the same cannot be used as incriminating circumstance against the present appellant. Further, even otherwise, the said motor-cycle has not been identified either during investigation or during the trial by any of the relevant witnesses in order to create one link against the present appellant. Therefore, even if everything is assumed against the presen appellant, it cannot be said that the motor-cycle so claimed to have been seized constitutes an incriminating circumstance.

The following pleadings have been made against specific incriminating circumstances found against Appellant (accused No.32-Asif @ Hasan Bashiruddin Shaikh).

12.45. It is pleaded that the trial Court has wrongly relied upon the evidence of PW No.965-Akhtar Mohmmad Hanif Memon, PW No.966-Asfaq Ahmad Saiyad and PW No.967-Reza Ahmad Nabatiyan to convict the present appellant, whereas the trial Court acquitted co-accused No.51-Dr.Anwar Abdulgani Bagvan, who had allegedly accompanied the present appellant and had taken a flat on rent in Pune. It is pleaded that none of the above three witnesses have been able to identify the present appellant during the trial. Even otherwise, the TIP suffers from several basic flaws and cannot be relied for any purpose. It is further pleaded that there is nothing substantive or incriminating or relevant, which was even claimed to have been recovered from the flat situated at Pune during the investigation.

12.46. It is pleaded that the confessional statement accompanying Exh.6508 and Exh.6546 is inadmissible in the eyes of law as the same cannot be within the scope and ambit of Section 27 of the Evidence Act nor is it a conduct relevant under Section 8 of the Evidence Act, without there being no other incriminating material which can even remotely link the present Appellant to the present offence. It is pleaded that the aforesaid is a post-arrest confessional statement, which has been made while the appellant was in police-custody and in the immediate presence of the investigation officer and is, thus, hit by Section 25 of the Evidence Act. Further, the present appellant is native of Maharashtra and there is no endorsement in Exh.6508 and Exh.6546, written in Gujarati language, to the effect that the contents of the same have been read over in the language known to the present appellant or that it has been translated in Gujarati from the language known to the appellant and thus, there is serious doubt about the veracity and authenticity of the contents that can be attributed to the Appellant. Even otherwise, there is no investigation to even suggest any link with any other co-accused person or the alleged conspiracy in any manner whatsoever. Therefore, it cannot be said that Exh.6508 and Exh.6546 constitutes any incriminating circumstance against the present Appellant.

The following pleadings have been made against specific incriminating circumstances found against Appellant-accused No.70-Mohammad Mubin @ Mubin @ Irfan Abdul Sakurkhan.

12.47. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.985-Hasanali Ahmadbhai Sunavara without appreciating the fact that there is no substantive evidence of identification of the appellant in the dock by this. Even otherwise, the TIP, that too after over 3 years, suffers from several basic flaws and cannot be relied for any purpose. It is pleaded that out of the many such flaws, the reason for the identification has not been stated in the TIP panchanama.

12.48. It is pleaded that there is report of the FSL in respect of similarity of hand-writing samples claimed to be the basis, which cannot be said to be the evidence of a scientific expert.

12.49. It is further pleaded that the alleged joint pointing out panchanama (Exh.6537) and (Exh.6819) at the instance of the appellant and another accused person has been frowned upon by the Apex court in catena of judgments by the Apex Court. Even otherwise, the confessional statement attributed to the appellant are inadmissible in law and cannot be used for any purpose. Further, it is a settled proposition of law that re-discovery of a fact which is already known to the investigation agency is impermissible in the eyes of law.

12.50. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in law in placing reliance on the evidence of PW No.977-Kamal Jashvantlal Thapar without there being any identification of the alleged muddamal number-plate or there being any other evidence linking the present appellant with the alleged number-plate.

12.54. It is pleaded that accused-wise evidence recorded during trial is quite insufficient and improper to hold the guilt of accused as under:

Evidence and alleged role of Accused No.20-Atikurehman Abdul Hakim Khilji (Appellant No.1)

12.55. Official Date of arrest of accused No. 20 by transfer warrant from Rajasthan: Dt. 09.10.2008, Period of remand: Dt. 09.10.2008 to 07.11.2008 and from 25.11.2008 to 05.12.2008 and Arrested in Katargam II-CR No. 203.08 on Dt. 19.01.2009

12.56. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during trial against the accused No. 20, the role of the accused is that he attended the alleged camp at Halol between 13th to 15th January, 2008. However, prosecuting agency had not examined any witness stating that at any point of time the accused was present at Halol camp or no panchnama u/s.27 is drawn while this accused was in police custody for a long period as stated herein above pointing the place of Halol. However, the Ld. Judge relied upon the confessional statement of Accused No.21-Mahendi Hasan and Accused No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya referring the presence of this accused No. 20 at Halol. It is pleaded that the confessional statement of these two accused cannot be relied on for convicting the accused No. 20. No.30-Sadik Shaikh while in police custody had pointed one watch shop situated at Bombay from where some watches were purchased. Except this pointing panchnama, no other evidence appeared against this accused during trial.

12.63. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of pointing panchnama's panch PW No. 1128 Sunil R. Shah appears quite unnatural, unbelievable and concocted panch considering his cross-examination. considering his cross-examination, it shows that no prudent person can believe his testimony.

12.64. It appears from the cross-examination of PW No. 1128 that he had pointed one watch shop situated at Abdurrehman Street, Mumbai from outside of the shop, he had not checked that whether it was a watch shop or they did not enter the so called watch shop. Even, no person from so-called watch shop states that on a particular date or time the accused came to their shop and purchase the watches and they had identified him as a watch purchaser. No any kind of documentary evidence supports the evidence of PW No.1128-Sunil Rasiklal Shah. It is pleaded that the panchnama drawn vide Exh.8093 at the instance of accused No.30- Mohammad Sadik @ Yasir @ Imran @ Sadakat S/O Israr Ahmed Shaikh as stated herein above was prepared by Mr. Narayansinh Bhavansinh Parmar-PW No.1155, an investigating officer of the Surat bomb plantation cases, but the bomb allegedly planted at different places of Surat did not contain the watch as a timer. 12.66. It appears from the evidence led during trial that Accused No.35 Rafiuddin when he was in police custody - (1) he pointed out the place of Halol camp under a panchnama Exh.No. 6443 on Dt. 17.11.2008, PW No. 900 Himeshkumar Pravinchandra Mehta was examined vide Exh.No. 6442. (2) his alleged confessional statement u/s 164 of Cr.P.C. vide Exh.No. 8631 (3) Evidence of PW No. 1105 Idris Gulabshah Fakir.

12.67. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.900-Himeshkumar Mehta for the reasons that the details of panchnama and the details of deposition of this witness No.900 indicate that it is in the form of confessional statement of accused No.35-Rafiuddin narrating the prosecution case as alleged regarding the activities of Halol Camp which is not admissible in evidence.

12.68. It is pleaded that cross-examination of PW No.900-Himeshkumar Mehta indicate that he is selected and tutored witness for the reasons that, in para No. 8 he admits that, "it is true that I have not remember any conversation during panchnama" in para No. 10 he admits that "when we reach to Dargah No administrator / manager was present or I do not remember whether any Mujavar was residing there at." In para No. 12 he admits that police had not interrogate/inquired about any person at Dargah."

12.69. It is pleaded that as per prosecution evidence led in the trial Court on Dt. 27.08.2008 1.0. Shree Toliya, on Dt. 28.09.2008 1.0. Mr.M.J. Chavda had visited the places of Halol camp as shown in panchnama vide Exh.6443 were one and same. It is admitted by all the above stated IOs that they were simultaneously investigating the offence and exchanging the evidence collected by them to each other, meaning thereby, I.O. Mr. P.G.Waghela had the knowledge of this place and he was attached with the investigation from day one to the submission of the last charge sheet and even a person 1.0. remain present every day in trial Court from framing the charge to final judgment and order. It is pleaded that this witness did not identify the accused in the Court during his deposition as to who pointed out the place.

12.70. It appears from the finding of the Ld. trial Judge in its impugned Judgment and order at page No. 6577 that PW No.1105-Idris Gulabsha Fakir had identified the accused No.35 in his deposition before the trial Court and therefore, there is no reason to disbelieve him.

12.71. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.1105- Idris Gulabsha Fakir regarding the presence of accused No.35-Rafiyuddin S/O. Sarfuddin Kapadiya at the Halol camp for the reasons that this witness has clearly admitted in his cross-examination at para No.14 that "it is true that when any investigating officer come with any accused and at that time I came to know the name of accused through police. It is true that according to me no any register was maintain regarding the persons name and address who stayed at Dargah. It is true that I have not stated in any of my police statement the name of Kayamuddin Kapadiya or Rafiuddin Kapadiya. It is true that during January 13 to 15 January, I have no any kind of relation with Kayamuddin Kapdiya and the same way Rafiuddin Kapadiya." Therefore, the witness at the instance of prosecuting agency, wrongly identified the accused Rafiuddin Kapadiya and Kayamuddin Kapadiya. It is pleaded that PW No.1105-Idris Gulabsha Fakir Divan did not identify accused Rafiuddin Kapadiya before any Executive Magistrate in any Test Identification Parade. The cross-examination clearly indicate that PW No.1105-Idris Gulabsha Fakir Divan had no any occasion to interact the accused Rafiuddin Kapadiya or to know his name or he did not disclose the name or description of accused No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya but the prosecuting agency tried to rope the accused No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya in the crime exceeding the deposition of PW No.1105- Idris Gulabsha Fakir Divan beyond his police statements.

12.72. It is pleaded from the finding of the trial Court that the alleged confessional statement of accused No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya is illegal and is not acceptable. However, the trial Court while disbelieving the so-called confessional statement of accused No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya has erred in relying upon the confessional statement of co-accused No. 2 Imran Shaikh.

12.73. It is pleaded that the alleged confession of accused No.35 at Exh.8631 is quite contrary to the details of his pointing out panchnama at Exh.6443. It is stated in Exh.8631 by the accused No.35 that at the instance of his brother Kayamuddin Kapadiya he visited Halol just to accompany his brother for about two hours, while it is stated in panchnama Exh.6443 that, he visited the Halol camp for three days. Even in the confessional statement of accused No.2-Imran Shaikh Exh.8619 it is not stated that accused No. 35- Rafiuddin Kapadiya stayed at Halol camp for three days.

of remand: Dt. 12.11.2008 to 30.11.2008 at Surat and arrested in Khadia Police Station case on Dt. 01.12.2008 and under police custody up to Dt. 24.12.2008 in different cases of Ahmedabad and arrested in Kalol P.S. case on 06.08.2009.

12.75. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during trial Accused No.43-Anik along with Accused No.44-Akbar and accused No.45-Fazlerehman stayed at a house situated at Sherpura, Bharuch in the month of July, 2008. Accused No.43-Anik along with accused No.44-Akbar pointed out the house situated at River View Society while he was in police custody and Accused No.43-Anik had purchased second hand Kinetic Scooter at Surat. The accused No.43-Anik pointed out the petrol pump from where he allegedly purchased 10 litres of petrol and also pointed out the place from where 06 containers were allegedly purchased.

12.76. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1138-Gulam Husen Abdurashid Pathan for the reasons that PW No.1138- Gulam Husen Abdurashid Pathan had admitted in his cross examination that he had not given any documentary evidence regarding the ownership of the premises and he had not stated before the police that he had not disclosed that three persons were staying in his house and he did not given any receipt of rent.

12.77. It appears from the cross-examination of PW No.1138-Gulam Husen Abdurashid Pathan that he was working as an electrician when the police had searched his house, his books relating to electronics were lying and he has clearly admitted that the alleged house searched by the police was not in exclusive possession of accused No.44-Mohammad Akbar @ Said @ Yakub @ Vinod S/O. but goods lying in the house belonged to the landlord i.e. PW No.1138-Gulam Husen Abdurashid Pathan.

12.78. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying on the evidence of PW No.1110-Jignesh Himmatlal Shah to the extent that accused No.43-Anik while he was when in police custody, on 28.11.2008, had pointed out along with Accused No.44-Akbar, the premises situated at River-view Society, Surat. However, the cross-examination indicates that it was a joint panchnama, the accused have not disclosed before panchas that they were ready to show a place and accordingly the accused led the police and panchas to River-view Society, Surat. However, the cross-examination indicates that they did not enter the house and had pointed out the premises from outside the society from a distance and that the panchnama did not contain the number of premise.

12.79. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying on the panch witness, PW No.1108-Abhishek Shukla, who is the pointing panchnama's panch of petrol pump and plastic container shop alleged to have been shown by accused No.43-Anik. It is pleaded that this has no relevancy with the bomb plantation at Surat and the bomb blast at Ahmedabad. Even otherwise, as per the cross-examination, no documentary evidence was collected from these two places and panch was a tutored stock panch. The panch witness has not identified the accused in the Court and no TIP was held by the I.O. for the persons of petrol-pump or plastic container shop so as to strengthen the prosecution's case.

12.80. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying on the purchase of kinetic scooter as there is no relevancy of purchase of two-wheeler in the bomb plantation at Surat and Ahmedabad. Therefore, PW

No.1109-Vikash Babubhai Bhoi, PW No.1113-Maheshkumar Manubhai Vadgama and PW No.1129-Bhavesh Bhupatbhai Thakkar had no relevancy with the present offence for which accused had been charged.

Evidence and role against accused No.46-Mohammad Naushad Mohammad Irshad Saiyed (Appellant No. 7)

12.81. Official Date of arrest of accused No. 46: Dt. 05.01.2009 in Surat Bomb plantation case II-CR No. 176/08 Kapodara Police Station, Period of remand: Dt. 05.01.2009 to 05.02.2009 at Surat and arrested in Shahibaug Police Station case on Dt. 06.02.2009 and under police custody up to Dt. 05.03.2009 in different cases of Ahmedabad and arrested in Kalol P.S. on 15.06.2009

12.82. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during trial the Accused No.46-Mohd. Naushad Saiyed, while he was in police custody, had pointed out a house situated at River View Society, Surat along with co-accused No.47-Ahmed Bawa vide Panchnama Exh.No.8529. Moreover, the evidence laid by the prosecuting agency states that from the page of Guest Register of Hotel Abhilasa Tourist Home situated at Konnoor, Kerala, it appears that the accused stayed at the said hotel by giving fake name and signed it with fake name and therefore, the hand-writing expert confirmed the handwriting of the accused No.46 with the specimen and disputed signature. The trial Court erred in appreciating the aforesaid evidence while convicting accused No.46 for the following reasons that the alleged panchnama Exh.No. 8529 is drawn in the nature of joint panchnama as accused Nos. 46 and 47 allegedly pointed the place of River View Society and the cross-examination of panch Witness No. 458 Deepak Ramchandra Mali indicates that first time he was called on 29.08.2008 and a panchnama was drawn to the effect that one Jayesbhai Patel the owner of a shop 'Kamala Hardware' produced one bolt and nut which was recovered. It was a recovery panchnama at Exh.No. 2814 not implicating any accused or admitting that either accused Nos.46 or 47 had purchased the muddamal nut and bolt from his shop.

12.83. It is pleaded that this witness did not state anything about pointing out of the joint panchnama by accused Nos.46 and 47 during his first deposition on Dt. 28.04.2015. However, he was recalled on Dt. 20.09.2019 and stated something about joint panchnama. The cross-examination indicates that at the time of preliminary panchnama, he had no talk with accused Nos.46 and 47 regarding their voluntariness to show the incriminating place, which was the essential requirement u/s. 27 of the Evidence Act. It is very surprising and unbelievable that this panch witness admitted that both the accused Nos. 46 and 47 belonged to Karnataka State and without any kind of confusion and without stopping or asking anyone about the address of the place, he straightaway led the police and panch witness to the alleged place situated at River View Society in Surat City. Moreover, except panchanama Exh.No. 8529, no evidence was brought on record to show that accused No. 46, at any point of time, had stayed at the house shown under this panchnama. Neither the landlord nor any independent witness has identified accused No.46 as the person who stayed at the place in River View Society, Surat. It is further pleaded that the panchanama Exh.No.8529 was drawn on Dt. 07.01.2009 and prior to this, as per prosecution case. one panchnama Exh.No. 2757 was drawn at the instance of Accused No.63 on Dt. 28.08.2008, which means that the I.O. - Mr. N.B. Parmar already had the knowledge of place allegedly shown by accused No.46 under panchnama Exh.No. 8529.

12.84. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No. 1155-Mr. N.B.Parmar with respect to his collecting the page of Hotel Abhilasha at Kunnoor, Kerala and his evidence regarding collecting the specimen signature of Accused No. 46 for the purpose of sending it to FSL for getting the handwriting expert's opinion for the reason that the prosecuting agency had not examined the panch witnesses in whose presence the page of Hotel Abhilasha was allegedly recovered vide Panchnama Exh.No. 8531. It is pleaded that even the panchas of panchnama Exh.No.8532 were not examined during the trial to the effect that the specimen hand-writings were collected. Even the I.O. - PW No.1155 admitted in his cross-examination that during his investigation he did not find any natural hand-writing of accused No.46. Therefore, at the same time, the Ld. Judge erred in accepting the opinion of FSL Expert vide Exh.No.7984. In light of the above evidence of I.O. and as held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court, it is pleaded that the opinion of Hand-writing Expert is a weak evidence in nature in the absence of other corroborative evidence. It is pleaded that no person or employee of Hotel Abhilasha was examined during the trial to show that accused No.46 had stayed at the said hotel or had identified accused No. 46 as the guest who had allegedly stayed at this hotel.

However, the trial Court relied upon the alleged confessional statement of Accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh, Accused No.21-Mehandi Hasan and Accused No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya u/s.164 of Cr.P.C. The confessional statements of the above said co-accused could not be believed for the reasons stated herein above in the appeal, more particularly, there is no any direct or corroborative oral evidence brought on record against Accused No. 59.

Evidence and role against accused No.66-Mohammad Safik Abdulbari Ansari (Appellant No. 9)

12.87. Official Date of Arrest of accused No.66: Dt. 05.11.2008, Period of remand: from Dt. 05.11.2008 to 08.01.2010.

12.88. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during the trial, Accused No.66-Mohd. Safik had pointed out the place of Halol camp under panchnama Exh.No.7252 on 24.11.2009 and the evidence of PW No. 1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir and the confessional statement of Accused No. 35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya.

12.89. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.1068-Pragneshbhai Govindbhai Rajput for the reason that the cross-examination of the aforesaid witness indicates that he is a tutored and selected panch, who was specially called by the police for signing the panchnama; that the cross-examination of this witness indicates that he did not keep any record regarding the conversation that allegedly took at the time and during the panchnama between the police, accused and other persons. offence for which he was booked and since when he was under police remand; that the cross-examination of this witness further indicates that the places mentioned in panchnama and in his disposition like, Khundpir Dargah, Ek Minar Masjid, Helical Vav, Kabutarkhana and Mahadev Temple, etc. were not properly and correctly described by him and the aforesaid places, according to panch witness, they had hardly stayed there for two minutes time. It indicates that deposition was given after he was tutored by the police. It is at the same time the panch witness, who is doing garage work on footpath, was dictating details of panchnama to ACP -Mayur Chavda seems absolutely unbelievable and that it is pertinent to note that prior to Date 24.11.2009 it has come on record that several I.O.s like Usha Rada, V.R.Toliya and R.V.Asari had visited the same places with the same details narrated in panchnama and have drawn the panchnamas, meaning thereby, the above places were within the knowledge of A.C.P. - Mayur Chavda who was exchanging the materials of investigation with above said Investigation Officers.

12.90. Moreover, the panchnama Exh.7252 is a panchnama, but in the form of confessional statement of the accused while in police remand, which is barred u/s 24 and 25 of the Indian Evidence Act.

12.91. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No. 1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir for the reason that the said witness had clearly deposed in his evidence at page No.10 Para Nos.10, 13 and 14 that whenever the police visited the Dargah, he did not give the name of any accused person but he was informed by the police that the particular person / alleged accused brought with them had stayed at the Dargah and therefore, he came to know about it. Moreover, this witness admitted in his cross-examination that he did not have any occasion to talk with any person / accused who had allegedly stayed at the Dargah during the period - January 2008 and therefore, obviously, he had not declared the presence of any accused by name and therefore, he could not identify any person saying that he stayed at the Dargah. Even no independent witness or three alleged chance witnesses, i.e. PW Nos. 972, 981 and 1067 had not deposed about the presence of accused No. 66 at the Halol camp or had identified the accused in any TIP.

12.92. It is pleaded that in the absence of any independent evidence the Ld. trial Judge ought to have considered the submissions made on behalf of accused that the evidence u/s.27 of the Indian Evidence Act is quite weak evidence in the absence of other independent cogent and conclusive evidence.

12.93. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the alleged confessional statements of Accused No.35 to the effect that the Ld. Judge himself had disbelieved and discarded the confessional statement of accused No. 35 vide Exh.No. 8631 in his impugned judgment and order at page No. 6579.

evidence of PW No.914 Mukund Jivanlal Jadav for the reasons that the cross-examination of the aforesaid witness indicates that he is a tutored and selected panch, who was specially called by the police for signing the panchnama; that the cross-examination of this witness indicates that, he did not keep any record regarding the conversation allegedly took at the time and during the panchnama between the police, accused and other persons. Police did not supply him the detail of arrest of accused and details of his involvement in the offence for which he was booked and since when he was under police remand and that it is pertinent to note that prior to Date 11.06.2012 it has come on record that he himself visited the and drawn panchanama of the same facts, meaning thereby the above places were within the knowledge of Shree Mayur Chavda A.C.P.

12.97. Moreover, the panchnama Exh.6528 is a panchnama, nothing but in the form of confessional statement of the accused while in police remand, which is barred u/s 24 and 25 of the Indian Evidence Act.

12.98. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir for the reasons that the said witness had clearly deposed in his evidence at page No. 10 Para No.10, 13 and 14 to the extent that whenever police had visited the Dargah, he did not give the name of any accused person but he was informed by the police that, the particular person/ alleged accused brought with them was stayed at Dargah and therefore he came to know.

12.99. Moreover, this witness admitted in his cross-examination that, he did not have any occasion to talk with any person /accused allegedly stayed at Dargah during period January 2008, therefore obviously he had not declare the presence of any accused, by name and therefore he could not identify any person saying that he stayed at Dargah.

12.100. Even two alleged chance witnesses, i.e. PW Nos.972 & 981 had not deposed the correct and full name of accused No. 74 while identifying the accused No. 74 in there respective Test Identification Parade.

12.101. It is pleaded that the so-called camp was held in January 2008, the aforesaid witnesses have allegedly identified the accused No.74-Mohammad Abrar @ Munna @ Ismail @ Abdulla @ Ibrahim S/O Babukhan Maniar in the year 2012, i.e. after about 04 years and the nature of their evidence, particularly the cross-examination, indicates that when they have seen some persons near tent, some persons stood in a circular form and they had no any occasion to interact with them. Therefore, the reasons discussed here in above regarding the evidence of chance witnesses does not inspires confidence or truthfulness of their respective evidence.

12.102. That in the absence of any independent evidence, the Ld. Judge ought to have considered the submission made on behalf of accused that the evidence u/s.27 of the Indian Evidence Act is quite weak evidence in the absence of other independent cogent and corroborative evidence.

12.103. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the alleged confessional statements of Accused No.35 to the effect that the Ld. Judge himself had disbelieved and discarded the confessional statement of accused No. 35 vide Exh.No. 8631 in his impugned judgment and order at page No. 6579.

12.104. It is pleaded that Exh.9248 given by Accused No. 68 during his further statement u/s.313 is not admissible in evidence for the reasons; (1) These documents are not a part of charge sheet or not collected under any panchnama etc. (2) No one was examined to prove these documents and it is a settled law that mere exhibiting a document does not amount to considering the same as genuine, and even otherwise, from where these documents were collected is also not clear as no date, no signature or any source is mentioned on the documents. (3) These documents are Xerox copies, so it is not a admissible evidence. (4) Immediately an application to de-exhibit the above documents was given by Accused No. 68. Stating that by mistakenly those documents were produced by him, therefor even no reliance could be placed. It is therefore pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of any of the accused persons in commission of the offence beyond all reasonable doubts.

CRIMINAL APPEAL No.1710 of 2023

12.105. The present appeal is filed by the appellant-original accused No.26-Mohammadali @ Jamal @ Zia @ Yasar @ Abubakr S/O Mohramali Ansari being aggrieved by judgment and order of conviction dated 08.02.2022 and order of sentence dated 18.02.2022 passed by the Special Designated Judge for Speedy Trial of Serial Bomb Blast Cases Court, City Sessions Court, Ahmedabad in Sessions Case No.38 of 2009. By the impugned judgment and order, the appellant-accused was awarded life imprisonment.

Submissions of learned Advocate for the appellant:

12.106. Learned Advocate Mr.S.M.Vatsa with learned Advocate Mr.Arjun Joshi appeared for the appellant-accused.

12.107. It is pleaded that the trial Court has failed to consider that prosecution against the Appellant is not maintainable. Statutorily, sanction under the Unlawful Activities Prevention Act, 1967 ("UAPA") is void, untenable and bad in law in the absence of an independent review by a High-Powered Committee as contemplated therein, which is the case here.

12.108. It is pleaded that the statement of a co-accused can be pressed into service only in circumstances where other evidence is available and such statement lends assurance. It is also settled that grave suspicion does not take the place of proof.

12.109. It is pleaded that there is no direct evidence linking the Appellant with the incident. Admittedly, a charge of conspiracy is to be supported by direct or circumstantial evidence. In the present case, the Ld. trial Court has relied on the retracted Section 164 of Cr.P.C. statement of a co-accused, which is inadmissible under Section 10 of the Evidence Act 1872, as held by the Supreme Court in Mohd. Khalid v. State of West Bengal reported in (2002) 7 SCC 334 that a co-accused / co-conspirator's post-arrest statement cannot be regarded as one made in reference to their common intention and cannot be understood as a proven circumstance.

12.110. It is pleaded that appellant's mere alleged presence at the alleged terrorist camps and that too, solely on the basis of a co-accused confessional statement, cannot be the ground to prosecute the appellant.

12.111. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment does not even refer or rely upon any legal evidence to show involvement in either the Ahmedabad case or the Surat case.

12.112. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment errs in convicting the Appellant, when, admittedly, the prosecution has failed to put the present Appellant to any dock-identification during trial or even a Test Identification Parade as an aid to investigation of trying to confirm whether the Appellant was even present at the alleged terrorist camp.

12.113. It is pleaded that the impugned judgment errs in law and fact as the sanction accorded against the Appellant under Section 196 of the Code of Criminal Procedure; Section 45 of UAPA and Section 7 of the Explosives Substances Act is without due application of mind.

Evidence against accused No. 4 Samsuddin Shahbuddin Shaikh (Appellant No.1)

Alleged role of the Accused No. 4

12.118. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during the trial against accused No.4, the role of this accused is that the accused / appellant - Samsuddin Sahbuddin Shaikh had allegedly attended some meetings at Ahmedabad and had also given speeches in the meetings.

12.119. It is pleaded that during trial, prosecuting agency examined PW No. 957, 1041, 1097, 1141 as witnesses and PW No. 596, 809 as panch witnesses and also wrongly relied up on the alleged confessional statements of accused No. 2, 24 and 35. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought to have not believe the evidence of aforesaid prosecution witnesses for the reasons that PW No. 957 Zakirhusen Abdul Jabbar Qureshi, an accomplice and PW No. 1141 Ayaz Razaqmiya Saiyed an Approver should not believe for the reasons pleaded earlier in this appeal memo. PW No. 809 Nasruddin Ismail Shaikh and PW No. 596 Mahesh Kantilal Sumara, being panch witnesses in the light of their respective cross-examination as they emerged as the tutored and unnatural, unbelievable. Even otherwise so-called Electricity bill recovered during Panchnama Exhibit-5452 is also not suggest that this house was belong to any Yakub Memon.

12.120. It is pleaded that as per prosecution case, a ‘Nana’ (Father of mother), namely, Husenbhai Shaikh, was examined as DW No.1, who had categorically deposed that no meeting at any point of time was held at his residence, as claimed by the investigating agency. Even considering the area of his house and the number of his family members, there was no possibility to have any meeting at his house, that too, for constant three days, involving more than 18 persons. The most important aspect is that this defence witness was cited as a prosecution witness in the charge-sheet but, he was dropped apprehending the contrary effect to the prosecution. (Reference PW No. 17 Sr. No. 535)

12.121. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in concluding that as per the Confessional Statement of accused No.2-Imran Shaikh vide Exhibit No. 8619, the accused No.4 was present at Halol and Vagamon camps. However, upon reading Exhibit No. 8619, no where any mention is made about accused No.4 or about the presence of accused No.4 at the above-stated camps.

12.122. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1097-Mehtab Ibrahim Shaikh for the reasons that PW No.1097 had clearly deposed in his examination in chief that he had seen Accused No.4-Samsuddin and other persons in one meeting, which was a religious program and no illegal conversation was discussed and after the meeting, he was not in contact of any person. As per his cross-examination, in such religious meeting, he did not ask to do any illegal activity or did not find any participant of such meeting doing any illegal act. It appears from his examination-in-chief and cross-examination that in the so-called meeting of SIMI persons, except religious discussions regarding Quran and Hadis, no unwarranted discussion took place.

12.123. It is pleaded that the incidents of serial bomb blasts took place on 26.07.2008, the statement of PW No.1097 was recorded on 27.02.2009, i.e. after about 09 months of incident. The cross-examination indicates that as he did not find anything wrong in the religious meetings, he did not inform the police or any person up to 27.02.2009. Even he did not identify accused No.37-Kayamuddin who allegedly came to him to hire the house. However, he identifies accused No.4-Samsuddin to whom he met once in a so-called meeting, as per his deposition. The Ld. Judge, even otherwise, erred in appreciating the evidence of other witnesses as discussed herein above to connect the accused No.4 showing that he attended the meetings at Ahmedabad and other places. It is pleaded that accused No.4-Samsuddin had offered his false implication in the case vide his F.S. Exhibit-126 u/s.313 of Cr.P.C. The Ld. Judge has not assigned any reasons in his judgment as to why this explanation and evidence of DW No.1-Husenbhai should not be believed. It is pleaded that no role is attributed to this accused stating that he actively participated in any manner, like hiring the premises, preparing the bombs, shifting the bombs, placing the bomb at any place, etc. It is, therefore, pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during the trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.4 in the commission of the offence beyond all reasonable doubt.

Alleged role of Accused No. 5:

12.125. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against accused No.5 that the role of the accused is that he attended one meeting at Ahmedabad and Vagamon (Kerala) respectively. The prosecuting agency relied upon the PW No.957-Zakir, an accomplice and the confessional statement of Accused No.2-Imran.

12.126. It is pleaded that except the oral evidence of PW No.957-Zakir, no other independent evidence has been led by the prosecuting agency against accused No.5. PW No.957 has deposed that accused No.5- Gyasuddin had allegedly attended meetings held at different places in Ahmedabad. However, it is pleaded that PW No.957, being an accomplice, this witness should not be believed.

12.127. It is pleaded that the confessional statement of accused No.2 should not be believed for the reasons stated while discussing the submission regarding his statement u/s.164 of Cr.P.C. That, except this two evidence, i.e. oral evidence of accomplice and confessional statement of co-accused, nothing is brought on record in the form of conclusive evidence to connect accused No.5 with the crime. It is pleaded that due to his false implication at Vagamon, the Ld. trial Judge of the Sessions Court, Ernakulam, Kerala, acquitted accused No.5.

12.128. It is pleaded that no role is attributed to this accused stating that he actively participated in any manner, like hiring the premises, preparing the bombs, shifting the bombs, placing the bomb at any place etc. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during the trial does not prove the alleged role of accused No.5-Gyasuddin in the commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubt.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 6:

12.130. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against accused No. 6 that the role of the accused is that he attended meetings at Ahmedabad, Halol and Vagamon (Kerala). To substantiate the alleged role played by Accused No.6-Mohd Arif, the following evidence emerged during trial.

i) PW No.972-Ramka Devkarnbhai Kesariya, PW No.981-Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Kathiriya and PW No.1067-Ambalal Vechatbhai Bariya, being the so-called chance witnesses. Evidence of PW No.957-Zakir Qureshi and PW No.1141-Ayaz, Approver. Evidence of PW No.571- Executive Magistrate, before whom PW Nos.972, 981 and 1067 allegedly identified the accused as the accused who were present at Halol.

ii) PW No.972-Ramka Devkarnbhai Kesariya, PW No.981-Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Kathiriya and PW No.1067-Ambalal Vechatbhai Bariya.

12.131. It is pleaded that the aforesaid three witnesses appeared as chance witnesses, who had allegedly seen 15 to 20 persons once at Halol during the period 13.01.2008 to 15.01.2008 in a mob who stood in a circle. It appears that on 27.08.2008 the investigating officer found them near Helecal Step-well (vav) and on his inquiry, they told that they have seen 15 to 20 persons as stated herein-above near the adjoining forest. Therefore, their statements were recorded on 30.08.2008 stating that they have identified these accused as well as 09 other persons. Ten accused persons in one single Test Identification Parade.

12.132. It is pleaded that the cross-examinations of these three witnesses states that these witnesses are got-up and created witnesses by the investigating agency. These witnesses have no idea about the date, time, direction, distance, kilometer, etc. but even then, they tried to give date, time, year and distance. The reasons assigned by these witnesses to be chance witnesses appear absolutely unbelievable. These witnesses could not give the description of the police officer who had recorded their police statement, could not give the description of any peon or Executive Magistrate whom they had met. The distance given by these witnesses while watching 15 to 20 persons near Helical Vav seems to be about 100 to 150 meters in a mob that stood in a circle. While comparing the distance of police officer, the Executive Magistrate and peon are face to face, while the person to whom they show are at a distance of about 100 to 150 meters. The cross-examination indicates that these witnesses have no any reason to remember any of the persons in the mob or have no conversation with them. Therefore, witness PW No. 972 and 981 could not identify the accused persons in the court. Even PW No. 1067 Ambalal had identified some other accused persons who were not present at the alleged Halol camp, stood with other accused in the courtroom.

12.133. It is pleaded that the oral evidence of these chance witnesses was not corroborated with other evidence like FSL reports, which does not shows any recovery of explosive substance.

12.134. It is pleaded that the evidence of chance witnesses and evidence of accomplice and approver could not be believed for the reasons and grounds so stated. It is pleaded that except the so-called attendance at Halol, Vagamon and Ahmedabad meetings, there is no any evidence or accusation against Accused No.6 to the effect that he actively participated to commit the offences like hiring any premises, preparing bomb, planting the bomb or purchase any material for making the bombs etc. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.6-Arif Kagzi in the commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubt.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 8:

12.136. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against the accused No. 8 that the role of this accused is that he attended the meeting at Halol and during the remand period, he had pointed out the so-called house situated at Rakhiyal area of Ahmedabad from where the FSL officers have scratched the lime (paint) from wall and had sent it for FSL analysis. This accused had purchased some utensils from one shop, which was allegedly found from the house in Al-mohammadi society at Danilimbda, Ahmedabad.

12.137. To prove the role of accused No.8-Yunus, the prosecuting agency have examined PW No.972-Ramkabhai, PW No.981-Pravinbhai and PW No.1067-Ambalal Vechat, PW No.938-Mohammad Faruk, an utensil seller and Panch witnesses - PW Nos.817 & 823 and I.O., PW No. 1154-Ms.Usha Rada. The trial Court has erred in relying upon the evidence recorded during the trial so as to convict accused No.8-Yunus Mansuri for the reason that PW Nos.1067, 972 and 981 are posed as the so-called chance witnesses while examining them before the Court. These witnesses are not believable for the reasons and grounds stated herein-below.

12.138. It is pleaded that the evidence of PW No.938-Mohd. Faruk Memon, a utensil vendor, cannot be believed considering his cross-examination inasmuch as the utensils which he had sold and was selling were quite common utensils and there were no specific signs or marks of his shop on the utensils and no bills for selling the so-called articles were produced or shown to him.

12.139. It is pleaded that PW No.817-Chirag is examined by the prosecuting agency to show that when accused No.8 was in police custody. He had pointed out the place, i.e. his house, from where in the presence of FSL officials, some muddamal and lime scratches were taken from the wall of his house. However, the FSL report Exhibit-5957 does not support the prosecution case, as it is negative in nature. No presence of any explosive substance was found from the house of accused No.8 as alleged.

12.140. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred to appreciate the evidence pleaded by the accused during his further statement vide Exhibit-130 u/s.313 of Cr.P.C. to the effect that the place which was allegedly searched and some muddamal was recovered under the reasons and the ground stated here in above in this appeal memo. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in relying upon the oral evidence of PW No. 848-Vasantbhai, Scientific Officer, FSL Gandhinagar. Considering his cross-examination, it appears that SDS is the name of a company based in the country - Israel and the said company was producing machines for testing, named SDS. The said Company is close down. The witness has admitted that before undertaking test of the accused through this machine, no written consent was obtained. Further, this witness had also not made any inquiry from the accused to the extent that, "since when they were in police remand and whether any mental and physical tortures were subjected to them". It is also admitted fact that prior to the so-called SDS test, he had not obtained the medical fitness certificate of the accused persons. The witness has admitted that the so-called SDS test is not 100% perfect and the Government of India does not approve this test. The witness has admitted that before conducting the test, he had made discussion with the investigating officers, meaning thereby, that the test was not transparent and no notes were prepared about the discussion. Considering the cross-examination, no reliance could be placed upon the evidence of this witness.

12.145. It is pleaded that the trial Court has failed to appreciate the Judgment cited by the defence during the arguments, reported as 2020 Cr L J 3085 (Gujarat High Court) Nasimben Vs State of Gujarat, wherein, it is held that, "No person accused of any offence shall be compelled to be a witness against himself". Thus, the test itself is violative of Article 20(3) of the Constitution of India.

12.146. It is pleaded that no role is attributed to accused Nos.9 and 10 to the effect that they had either prepared the bomb or had planted the bomb or were present at the time of blast. It is further pleaded that since March 2008 they were in judicial custody at Indore Jail and the serial bomb blast took place on 26.07.2008. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during the trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.9-Kamruddin Nagori and No. 10-Aamil Parvez beyond reasonable doubt.

Evidence against Accused No. 11-Shibli Abdul Karim Muslim (Appellant No. 7)

12.147. Official Date of arrest of accused No.11: 23.08.2008, Was brought by transfer warrant from Indore Court on Dt. 23.08.2008, Period of remand: from Dt. 23.08.2008 to 18.01.2009 and 02.08.2009 in Kalol Police Station Case.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 11:

12.148. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against the accused that he attended the meetings at Ahmedabad and Vagamon camps. To prove the above role, the prosecuting agency relies upon the evidence of PW No.1141, an approver and PW No.848-Vasant Patel, Scientific Officer, FSL Gandhinagar.

12.149. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relaying upon the evidence of PW No.1141 - Approver for the reasons and grounds stated hereunder. As per the evidence of Approver, he was present in one meeting at Ahmedabad at the House of DW-8. However, this meeting is highly doubtful and he also erred in identifying him before the Court during his deposition. The Ld. trial Judge erred by holding that he was present in the meeting, even though it is well settled that benefit of doubt is always given to accused, especially when it was a case of circumstantial evidence.

12.150. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.848-Vasan Patel. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.11-Shibli in commission of the offences beyond reasonable doubt.

Evidence against Accused No.12-Safdarhusen Jahirulhusen Nagori (Appellant No.8)

12.151. Official Date of Arrest of accused No.12: 23.08.2008, Accused was brought by transfer warrant from Indore Court on Dt. 23.08.2008, Period of Remand: Dt. 23.08.2008 to 18.01.2009 and 14.06.2009 in Kalol Police Station case.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 12:

12.152. It appears from the evidence led during trial against the accused that he had attended meetings of Vagamon Camp, Halol Camp and various meetings of Ahmedabad City. It is also alleged that in the meetings, he had delivered the speeches and had thereby, provoked other attendees and had asked them to fight and be ready for 'Jehad'.

12.153. To substantiate the aforesaid allegations, the prosecution has examined PW Nos. 972, 981 & 1067 (Three Chance Witnesses), PW No. 1141-Ayaz Saiyed (an Approver), PW No.1063, Panch witness of Infinity Cyber Café, Bhuj, PW No.1074, Panch witness of recovery of Hard disc from the computer of Infinity Cyber Cafe in the presence of owner Mohd. Yunus Sumara, PW No.571, Executive Magistrate, before whom three chance witness had allegedly identified accused No.12 and PW No.1073- Mohd Yunus who had allegedly identified Accused No. 12, PW No.1097- Mehtab Ibrahim Shaikh who had identified accused No.12 as a person who had remained present at the Surat meeting.

12.154. That the Ld. Judge has erred in appreciating the evidence against accused No.12 for the reason that PW Nos. 972, 981 and 1067 are chance witnesses of Halol camp and they cannot be relied upon. It is pertinent to state that accused No.12 is having white-beard and his appearance is totally different from others, especially different from the 10 accused who are at Bhopal Central Jail. So, it very easy for the prosecuting agency to teach / tutor the witness in advance about his figure and therefore, he was able to be identified by the so-called chance witnesses.

12.155. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1073-Mohd. Yunus, owner of Infinity Cyber Cafe, Bhuj because PW No.1073 and two panch witnesses, PW Nos.1063 and 1074 had no connection with the present serial blast case as the so called recovery of Register and Hard-disc of Computer does not state any incriminality with the crime as alleged. Even otherwise, their respective cross-examination does not inspire the confidence so as to believe them.

12.156. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.848-Vasant Patel. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to have believed the confessional statements of Accused Nos.2, 21, 35 and 76. It is pleaded that the alleged delivery of lectures does not show that the lectures were delivered for any purpose to hatch the conspiracy or to get ready attendees for the serial bomb blasts at Ahmedabad or bomb plantations at Surat.

12.157. It is pleaded that PW No.1097-Mehtab Ibrahim Shaikh could not be believed. It is further pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.900-Himesh Pravinchandra Mehta, the panch witness of pointing out Panchnama Exh.6443 at the instance of accused No.35, stating that the accused Nos.2, 9, 10, 12, 14 and 37 were present at Halol camp. However, it is a confession of accused No.35 before the panch witness while he was in police custody and the important fact, which emerges from the impugned judgment and order is that the Ld. Judge has not accepted the confessional statement of accused No.35 as legal and voluntarily. Moreover, PW No.900 did not refer to the name of accused No.12 in his deposition. Even otherwise, as pleaded earlier, the confession of accused u/s.27 of the Evidence Act is not admissible in evidence.

12.158. It is pleaded that no role is attributed to accused No.12 to the effect that he had either prepared the bomb or had planted the bomb or was present at the time of blast. It is pleaded that since March 2008 he was in Judicial Custody at Indore Jail and the serial bomb blast took place on 26.07.2008.

12.159. It is pleaded that there no evidence or accusation against Accused No.12 to the effect that he actively participated to commit the offences, like hiring any premises, preparing bomb, planting the bomb or purchase any material for making the bombs etc.

12.160. It is pleaded that Exh.9248 given by Accused No.68 during his further statement u/s.313 is not admissible in evidence for the reasons; (1) This document is not part of charge-sheet nor is collected under any panchnama, etc. (2) No one was examined to prove this document and it is a settled law that mere Exhibiting a document does not amount to admitting its genuineness and even otherwise, from where these documents are collected is also not clear. There is no date, no signature nor any source is mentioned in the documents. (3) These documents are Xerox copies so it is not admissible evidence. (4)

Immediately, an application to de-exhibit the above documents was given by Accused No.68 stating that by mistake those documents were produced by him. Therefore, no reliance could be placed on them. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during the trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.12-Safdarhusen in the commission of offences beyond reasonable doubts.

Evidence against Accused No.13-Hafizhusen Tajjudding Mulla (Appellant No.9)

12.161. Official Date of Arrest of accused No.13: 23.08.2008. This accused was brought by transfer warrant from Indore Court on Dt. 23.08.2008, Period of Remand: from Dt. 23/08/2008 to 18.01.2009 and 29.07.2009 in Kalol Police Station case.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 13:

12.162. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against the accused that he had attended meetings at Vagamon camp and he had undergone Spectrography test. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of only panch witness examined against this accused, PW No.1148-Josef Joyson vide panchnama Exh.8254. However, the cross-examination of this panch witness states that he was informed for panchnama by the Kerala Police. He does not know Gujarati or Kannad language; he did not have any conversation with Gujarat police or the person, named Hafizhusen, i.e. Accused No.13. It appears that he has simply signed the panchnama without any activity or procedure as stated therein.

12.163. It is pleaded that PW No.1163-M.J. Chavda, I.O., who allegedly took Accused No.13 to Vagamon, Kerala does not give any account to the effect as to where Vagamon is situated in Kerala state?, from which place of Ahmedabad he went to Kerala? and to what place?, even he could not state as to how he went to Kerala, whether by air, railway or road?, he had no idea about Vagamon as to whether it is a tourist place or not? Coupled with this evidence, it can be said that the panchnama Exh.8254 is got-up and concocted in nature.

12.164. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.848-Vasant Patel. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in holding in para No. 89 at Page No.6488 that PW No. 981-Pravin Hamir Kathiriya had identified accused No.13-Hafiz Mulla in the Test Identifiacation Pared hold by PW No.571-R. S. Solanki, Executive Magistrate. However, the evidence of PW No.571, Para No. 13 at Page No.19, 20 indicates that PW No.981-Pravin Kathiriya had not identified the accused No.13-Hafiz. It is pertinent to state that even it was not the prosecution case that accused No.13 was sent for TIP before the Executive Magistrate and it is also not the case of prosecution that he attended the alleged Halol camp.

12.165. The Ld. Judge erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 900-Himesh Pravinchandra Mehta, the panch witness of pointing out panchnama Exh.6443 at the instance of accused No.35, stating that accused Nos.2, 9, 10, 12, 14 and 37 were present at Halol camp. However, it is a confession of accused No.35 before the panch witness while he was in police custody and the important fact that emerges from the impugned judgment and order is that the Ld. accused u/s. 27 of the Evidence Act is not admissible in evidence. It is important to submit that no role is attributed to this accused No.13 to the effect that he had either prepared the bomb or had planted the bomb or was present at the time of blast. It is pleaded that since March 2008 he was in Judicial Custody at Indore Jail and the serial bomb blast took place on 26.07.2008.

12.166. That there is no evidence or accusation against Accused No.13 to the effect that he actively participated to commit offences. like hiring any premises, preparing bomb, planting the bomb or purchase any material for making the bombs etc. It is therefore pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.13-Hafiz husen in commission of the offences beyond reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No.14-Mohd Sajid Gulamkhwaja Mansuri (Appellant No.10)

12.167. Official Date of arrest of accused No. 14: 16.08.2008, Unofficial arrest and confinement of Accused No.14: Dt. 09.08.2008, Period of remand: Dt.16/08/2008 to 01.01.2009 and 09.02.2009 in Kalol P.S. case.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 14:

12.168. It appears from the evidence led during trial against the accused No. 4 that the role of the accused is that he attended the meetings at Halol, Vagamon (Kerala) and Surat and during the remand period, he had pointed out the so-called house at Vadodara and also the two houses at Bharuch. To substantiate the aforesaid allegations, the prosecution has examined PW Nos.981 & 1067 (two chance witnesses).

PW No.571, Executive Magistrate before whom the chance witness had allegedly identified Accused No. 14, PW No.878-Yodgesbhai Kaysth, PW No. 894-Hitesh Patel and PW No.917-Pinkeshbhai Desai, PW No.989-Raju Gopinathan Nayar and some other witnesses. The Ld. Judge erred in appreciating and convicting the accused relying upon the evidence recorded against him for the reason that the Ld. Judge ought not to rely upon the evidence of two chance witnesses.

12.169. It is pleaded that cross-examination of panch witnesses - PW No.878-Yodgesbhai Kayasth, PW No.894-Hitesh Patel and PW No.917-Pinkeshbhai Desai does not inspire any confidence. The evidence of these three witnesses, more particularly, the evidence of PW Nos.894 and 917 does not corroborate any documentary evidence regarding ownership / occupation / possession of the premises allegedly pointed out by him while in police custody. No owner had identified accused No.14-Sajid in the trial Court as the person to whom the premise was let or permitted to be used. No independent witness surrounding the premises was examined to show that at any point of time accused No.14-Sajid was staying at the place which he allegedly pointed out.

12.170. It is pleaded that PW No.917-Pinkesh, panch and landlord of the house and PW No.1138-Gulambhai clearly admitted that the alleged house searched at Sherpura was not in exclusive possession of accused No.14 but the goods lying in the house belonged to the landlord i.e. PW No.1138-Gulambhai. Even the evidence of panch witness, PW No.878, is not supported by any independent witness or documentary evidence regarding occupation / possession of the premises allegedly used by the accused No.14. In the same way, the scientific evidence, i.e. FSL Report, does not support the prosecution case with regard to presence of any explosive substance in the house where allegedly the bombs were prepared to commit the offences.

12.171. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to have believed the evidence of PW No.989-Raju Gopinathan Nayar for the reason that he being the Manager of Hari Tourist Home, Manapattipuram had produced two pages of his Hotel Guest Register bearing page Nos.156 and 157, which does not tally with his oral testimony. This witness admitted that two pages were taken out from the Register, which was bounded with thread in the middle and was handed over to Investigating Officer - Mayur Chavda, PW No.1163, in the absence of accused. However, the pages produced by him were intact and were not torn while taking them out from the so-called Guest Register. The original Guest Register was not produced during the trial and accused No.14 did not lead I.O. to the so-called Guest House. Therefore, it appears that some blank pages of the Guest Register were given to the police which were later on misused by the investigating agency to connect the accused to show that he visited the hotel somewhere in the month of December 2007, i.e. on 13.12.2007. Even otherwise, no independent witness has deposed at any point of time that accused No.14-Sajid was seen at Vagamon camp and that during the trial, no evidence was brought on record to show that any of the witness had identified this accused as a participant of Vagamon camp.

12.172. It is pleaded that PW No.989-Raju Gopinathan does not depose that when the police from Crime Branch, Ahmedabad came in the year 2008 at Shree Hari Tourist Home, the accused No.14 was in police custody and he pointed out the hotel showing that he stayed at this hotel. Moreover, after recording the statement of PW No.989, he was not called to identify accused No.14 in the TIP. It is further pleaded that as per the deposition of PW No.1163-Mayur Chavda, at no point of time, accused No.14 while was he was in his custody had shown willingness to point out Shree Hari Tourist Home situated in Kerala and he even does not say that when he brought the Guest Register from Kerala, accused No.14 was in police custody. It is very surprising that I.O., PW No.1163-Mayur Chavda, at whose instance the visit was undertaken to Shree Hari Tourist Home and the pages of Guest Register were collected, indicates the name of Guest as 'Salim Shaikh' when the accused was not in his custody at Kerala.

12.173. It is pleaded that in light of the above discussion, it is clear that what is stated in the deposition of PW No.905-Kalpesh Ratilal Gajjar is a futile exercise at the Crime Branch office, Ahmedabad. The Ld. Judge erred in relying on the deposition of PW No.905 in the light of his cross-examination. Even the pages of the so-called Guest Register are not in sealed condition and looking to the cross-examination, the entire panchnama is unbelievable and there is no natural hand-writing of this accused, which was collected during the entire investigation. Therefore also, the Ld. Judge erred in relying on this evidence.

12.174. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying on the evidence of PW No.975-Rizwan Yasinbhai Shaikh for the reason that the details of panchnama u/s.27 and the deposition of PW No. 975 indicates that it is nothing but a confession of the accused while in police custody regarding his so-called involvement, except he pointed our two places i.e. 1) a premise situated at Sherpura, Bharuch containing a board "General Electric Works" and another premise at Lukman Park, Bharuch. However, the owners of both the premises could not provide any document with regard to their ownerships of the said properties as well as any document to show letting-out of the premises to the accused.

12.175. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought to have considered the explanation offered by accused No.14 during his further statement (Exh.136) to the extent that his hand-writings were obtained on a blank paper of the Hotel Guest Register and these papers were filled-up and sent to FSL for the opinion of Hand-writing expert. Therefore, obviously, the hand writing report of expert was found to be positive. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to have relied upon the evidence of PW No. 900 for the reasons discussed herein above.

12.176. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of panch witness, PW No. 461-Ankit Bhatt and witnesses - PW No.1021-Yash Kansara, PW No.1023-Jitendra Soni, PW No.1024-Sabbir Ismaili Saiyed and PW No.1025-Yusuf Patel, owners of coin-box telephone shops, for the reasons that; - 1) as per the cross-examination of PW No. 461-Ankit, at most of the places, no coin box telephones were found during the panchnama; 2) the entire panchnama is in the form of confession of accused, which is hit by Sec. 24 and 25 of the Evidence Act; 3) all the above witnesses have not identified the accused before the Court and even no TIP was held before the Executive Magistrate; 4) the alleged panchnama is Dated: 10.11.2008, which is after about five months of the incident and after four month of the arrest of accused; and 5) No phone numbers from any of the above witness were produced on record and even no Bills or CDR of calls were collected during the investigation.

12.177. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1084-Saeed Mohd. Hayat to the extent that he had given house No. 33 of Lukman Park on rent to accused No. 14. The Ld. Judge erred in appreciating that the said witness has not taken the name of accused No.14 in his deposition and has not identified him in the Court during the trial nor in any TIP.

12.178. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to have believed the confessional statements of Accused Nos.2, 21 and 35.

12.179. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during the trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.14-Sajid Mansuri in the commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No.15-Mufti Abubasar Abubakar Shaikh (Appellant No.11)

12.180. Unofficial arrest of Accused No.15 from Azamgadh on Dt. 14.08.2008, Official Date of Arrest of Accused No. 15: Dt. 16.08.2008, Period of Remand: Dt. 16/08/2008 to 23.12.2008 and 09.02.2009 in Kalol P.S. case.

Alleged role of Accused No.15:

12.181. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against accused No.15 that the role of the accused is that he attended the meetings at Ahmedabad and allegedly stayed at a house in Vatva area of Ahmedabad and that, during the remand period, he had pointed out the so-called house at Vatva, Ahmedabad.

12.182. It is pleaded that during the trial, the prosecuting agency examined PW Nos.571, 898, 929, 957, 1106 and 1141 and also relied upon the alleged confessional statements of accused Nos.2 & 76.

12.183. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to have believed the evidence of prosecution witnesses examined to prove the above allegations for the reasons that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.1106-Firoz Dilavar Shaikh to the extent that after letting-out his premises through one Saeedurehman to the other co-accused Kayamuddin, one A.Subhan had introduced him as the person from U.P., whom he remembered as one person of small height and having little beard and who later was known 'mufti'. He objected his presence and Saeedurehman told him that he was a guest. It was also deposed by PW No.1106 that on 18.08.2008, at about 9.00 pm, the police came with one person of small height, who was in a 'nakab', i.e. his face was covered with cloth, and the police asked him as to whether he knows the said person? He replied saying, "Yes, He is mufti". However, it is pleaded that the person Saeedurehman, who introduced accused Kayamuddin and A.Subhan, was not examined by the prosecuting agency. Even the cross-examination of PW No.1106-Firoz reveals that on 18.08.2008 at 9.00 pm when the police came with the accused with his face covered with cloth, he was not brought inside the house and was made to stand outside the house. He did not have any conversation with that person nor did the police introduce to him the person whose face was covered with the cloth, meaning thereby, the person brought by police during night time, stood outside his house and this witness did not have any kind of conversation with that person in the presence of police.

12.184. It is pleaded that this witness has not identified the accused as the person whom he had once seen in his premises, which he had allegedly let to other co-accused.

12.185. It is pleaded that the trial Court has erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.898-Bipin Patel, panch witness, in whose presence accused No.15-Abu Basar is alleged to have been pointed out the Vatva premises and recovered some muddamal for the reason that this witness, in his cross-examination, has stated that he is a labourer and has not seen any Firoz Sheikh nor could he give his physical description though he had stated in his examination in chief about the presence of a landlord. Even this witness could not identify accused No.15-Abu Basar in the trial Court.

12.186. It is pleaded that during the investigation neither Firoz Shaikh offered any document nor the investigating agency had collected any document with regard to the ownership / occupancy of said Vatva premises.

12.187. It is pleaded that the alleged muddamal recovered in the presence of this panch witness and sent to FSL does not state about the presence of any explosive substance or any material. Even the manner in which the muddamal plastic bag was recovered under this panchnama creates doubts. Therefore, the presence of accused No.15 at Vatva house is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.

12.188. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.929-Rafikbhai Husenbhai Abdal who deposed that he was running a hotel in the name of "Garib Nawaz" and that on 24.08.2008, the police came to his hotel and told him that there was a blast in Maninagar area and one accused told that he was eating at Vatva hotel. He was further asked, "could you identify him?" and he replied, 'Yes'. Thereafter, on 27.08.2008, he went to the Court of Executive Magistrate and identified one Abu Basar Shaikh. However, this witness could not identify accused No.15 in the Court. It is pleaded that in his cross-examination, this witness admitted that when the police came to him, he did not give description of any person / accused. He could not identify his customers as several customers used to come to his hotel. It is pleaded that accused-Abu Basar was in police custody and in police remand since 16.08.2008 and he did not point out any hotel where allegedly he was eating.

12.189. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.957-Zakir Qureshi and PW No.1141-Ayaz Saiyed, being accomplice and approver referring to the presence of accused No. 15 at Ahmedabad meetings and pleaded to discard their evidence.

12.190. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.848-Vasant Patel for the reasons and grounds herein.

12.191. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of Panch witness, PW No.892-Karnav Patel and wrongly relied upon the panchnama Exh.6083. This panchnama is a so-called panchnama u/s. 7 of the Evidence Act of accused No.37, which is in the nature of confession of accused and no where in the deposition, the panch witness has taken name of accused No.15.

12.192. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to have believed the confessional statements of Accused Nos.2 and 76 for the reasons discussed herein. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.15-Mufti Abu Basar in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Alleged role of Accused No. 16:

12.194. It appears from the evidence led during the trial against accused No.16 that the role of the accused is that he attended the alleged camp at Halol and his presence was found at one Cyber Cafe, namely Infinity Technology Cyber Cafe, Bhuj and some muddamal was recovered in his absence from the house allegedly belonging to him.

12.195. That, during the trial, the prosecuting agency examined PW Nos.588, 934, 981, 1039, 1067, 1073 and 1105 and also relied on the alleged confessional statements of accused Nos. 2 & 35.

12.196. That, the trial Court ought not to have believed the evidence of prosecution witnesses examined to prove the above allegations for the reason that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 1039-Laxmanbhai Bharvad, panch witness, for the reason that this panch witness admitted in his cross-examination Para No. 9 that, "No preliminary panchnama was signed at the police station" and the accused had disclosed in detail the places, meaning thereby, that it was already within the knowledge of the I.O. as to where they had to go. From the cross-examination of this witness, he appears to be a selected, stock and tutored witness. Even this panch witness could not identify accused No.16 in the trial Court. It is also pleaded that prior to this panchnama allegedly made on 28.09.2008, the investigating officer conducting the investigation with three other investigating officer, had already visited the place to prepare the same kind of panchnama. By narrating the details of this panchnama, it is pleaded that almost all the investigating officers admitted in their respective cross-examinations that they were doing investigation at one place, they were discussing the progress of investigation everyday and that they were exchanging evidence to each other collected during the investigation.

12.197. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of two chance witnesses i.e. PW No.981 and 1067 for the reasons stated herein.

12.198. It is pleaded that before the trial Court, PW No.1067-Ambalal Vechat Bariya has deposed before the Executive Magistrate, PW No.588-R.S.Solanki, that reason to identify Accused No.16 in the TIP was that he was found in a mob of about 18 to 20 persons sitting at a 'Dargah' at Halol, while as per the prosecution case, three chance witnesses had seen some persons near the forest at Helical Vav, which was quite away from the 'Dargah'. Therefore, the reason assigned by the chance witness, PW No.1067, itself is against the prosecution case. Even otherwise, as pleaded above, the manner of holding TIP is quite unfair and illegal in the nature.

12.199. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in considering the submissions made on behalf of accused No.16 to the extent that the evidence of PW No.1073-Mohd. Latif Sumara of allegedly running a Cyber Cafe in the name of Infinity Technology and Cyber Cafe at Bhuj does not have any relevance with the case or the presence of accused. The alleged Register of Cyber Cafe does not disclose any offence or connect the accused with the charge Exh.122 and no incriminating material is collected or found from the aforesaid Cyber Cafe.

12.200. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 934-Kuldipsinh Dasrathsinh Parmar to the effect that on 04.09.2008, the Ahmedabad police had searched the so-called house of accused No.16 and had recovered one adapter, election card, light bill, invitation card, one chit containing mobile number. However, this search and recovery of muddamal does not find any kind of connectivity of the accused with the crime for which he is charged.

12.201. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the case of defence led during the explanation under section 313 of Cr.P.C. and the defence witnesses examined on behalf of this accused namely 1) DW No. 2 Mohd. Faruk Umar Sameja, 2) DW No. 3 Mahendtra Kumar Parmar, Supervisor, M. T. department, 3) DW No. 4 Narendra Dahyalal Bhatti, a senior clerk of DSP office Kutch, Bhuj, 4) DW No. 5 Dasrathsinh Bhagatsinh Zala, a police officer working at A Division Police Station, Bhuj to show that since 07.08.2008 the accused No.16 along with his brother who was prosecution witness were illegally arrested from Bhuj and brought to Ahmedabad in a police vehicle. Therefore, the wife of his elder brother gave an application to DSP office on 1.09.2008 regarding her husband and his brother's illegal arrest and thereupon, her statement was recorded on 12.11.2008 at A Division Police Station, Bhuj.

12.202. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence to the effect that accused No.16 was present at Halol camp during the period January 13th to 15th 2008 for the reason that PW No.1105-Idrish Gulabshah Fakir is a person, who was allegedly working as 'Mujavar' at Khundpir Dargah. The only witness regarding presence and identification of accused did not depose that at any point of time he had seen accused No.16 at Khundpir Dargah, Halol. Even this accused has not been identified by any of the investigating officer in the TIP through this witness.

12.203. It is pleaded that confessional statements of Accused Nos.2-Imran, No.21-Mahendihasan and No.35-Rafiuddin Kapadiya are not believable and reliable. Therefore also, the presence of Accused No.16 at the Camp at Halol is not proved beyond reasonable doubt. At the same time, the Ld. Judge erred in appreciating the judgments cited on behalf of accused No.16 regarding the appreciation of explanation u/s.313 and the standard of appreciation of defence witnesses. It is, therefore, pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during the trial does not prove the alleged role of Accused No.16-Abbas Sameja in the commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No.18 Javed Sagir Ahmed Shaikh (Appellant No.13)

12.204. It is pleaded that although the accused was unofficially taken into custody on 08.08.2008, his arrest was formally shown only on 04.09.2008. It is further pleaded that the accused thereafter remained in custody/ remand from 04.09.2008 to 07.11.2008, from 05.01.2009 to 18.01.2009, and from 28.01.2009 to 29.01.2009.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 18

12.205. It appears from the evidence led during trial against accused No.18, the role of the accused is that he attended the alleged Darsh E Quran program meeting in Ahmedabad and also present at Vagamon camp.

12.206. It is pleaded that the Trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 957- Zakir Quresi an accomplice to the extent that for the first time his statement was recorded on 17.10.2008 by Investigation Officer Mr. M. J. Chavda under all suspicious and unexplained reasons for inordinate delay to record the statement.

12.207. It is pleaded that the Trial Court erred in concluding that as per confessional statement of accused No.2- Imran Shaikh vide Exhibit No.8619, accused No.4 was present at Halol and Vagamon camp.

However, upon reading Exhibit No.8619, no where it is stated in the statement regarding the presence of accused No.18. Moreover, mere attending a religious meeting without any kind of intentions and any discussion regarding the bomb blast, no one can connect with such a serious offence at the instance of accomplice who himself had attended several religious meetings like once accused No.18. Except above evidence, there is no other clinching evidence against accused No.18.

12.208. It is also pleaded that confessional statements of Accused No.2- Imran S/O Ibrahim Shaikh and Accused No.24- Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira are not believable and reliable for the reasons stated herein above in this appeal memo.

12.209. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.18- Javed Ahmed S/O Sagir Ahmed Shaikh in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No. 27 Mohd. Ismail (A.Razik) Mohd. Ishak Mansuri (Appellant No.14)

12.210. It is pleaded that although the accused was unofficially taken into custody on 10.10.2008, his arrest was formally shown only on 23.10.2008. It is further pleaded that the accused thereafter remained in custody/remand from 10.10.2008 to 23.10.2008, from 23.10.2008 to 18.01.2009, and 09.02.2009.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 27

12.211. It appears from the evidence led during trial that Accused No.27 had purchased several bicycles for bomb plantation, purchase the gas cylinders allegedly used for bomb blast, planted the car containing bomb at L. G. Hospital, handed over the beg containing bombs to the approver/accused No. 23.

12.212. It is pleaded that during the trial prosecuting agency examined PW No. 826, 828, 829, 926, 952, 955, 957, 1035, 1036, 1141 and panch witnesses PW No. 822, 824, 827, 833, 865, 867, 868 and also relied up on the alleged confessional statements of accused No. 2, 24 & 76.

12.213. It is pleaded that the Ld. Judge ought to have not believe the evidence of prosecution witnesses examined to prove the above allegations for the reasons that as per evidence, it appears that in the city of Ahmadabad at about 18 places the bombs were blasted on bicycles, and about 18 bicycles were recovered from the scene of offence. It is also pleaded that out of 18 bicycles there is no evidence about 9 bicycles showing that which accused had purchased from where, and whom, and on which date.

12.214. It is urged that it has come on record that Accused No.27- Mohammad Ismail, while in remand had alleged to have been pointed out two shops from where he had purchased about 8 bicycles. The panchnamas are exhibited as Exhibit No.6268, 6064 and 5545.

12.215. It is also urged that investigating officer did not collect any documents from any bicycles seller to show that on which date, at which cost, or to whom bicycles were sold. None of the bicycles seller was called to identify any bicycle stating that he had sold those bicycles.

12.216. It is pleaded that investigating officer Mr. Mayur Chavda, PW No.1163 had deposed at page No.282, Para No.48 and admitted that the Panchnama at Exh.6064 & Exh.6068 do not reveal that accused No.27- Mohammad Ismail had purchased the bicycle on which date of which colour, which company and at what cost. The said witness admitted that he had not collected any bill or document of sale of bicycles, even the bicycle shopkeeper did not state that the accused who allegedly pointed the shop, was the person, who purchased the bicycle from his shop. The said witness had admitted in his cross examination at page No.341, Para No.129 that he has not seized any bicycles and does not know who had seized the bicycle, and after seizer in which condition the bicycles were kept. He also admitted that at page No.107, Para No.79 that two blasts were taken place on bicycle in Odhav and Ramol areas, but he had not made any investigation about the owners of bicycles. Likewise, PW No. 1000 - Muliyana (ACP) had admitted the same kind of evidence in his cross-examination regarding the sale and document of the muddamal bicycles.

12.217. It is urged that as per Panchnama at Exh.6064, 6068 and 5545, accused No.27- Mohammad Ismail had pointed out ten bicycle shops during his remand period. The prosecution has examined following 5 persons as the sellers of bicycles:

i) PW No. 826 Rafiqbhai Ataurrahman Ansari
ii) PW No. 829 Aiyubbhai Husen bhai sheikh
iii) PW No. 955 Allarakha Sattarbhai Sanghi
iv) PW No. 1035 A.Rahim Gulambhai Mansuri
v) PW No. 1036 Khurshid bhai ahemad bhai Qureshi.

12.218. It is also pleaded that none of the aforesaid witnesses has produced any documents regarding sale of bicycles, none had identified any of the bicycles. None of the witness had identified any of the accused either in pointing out Panchnama or in any Test Identification Parade or in the Hon'ble court during trial. It appears that they were used to call after one month of the blast at crime branch office, and they were threatened and under pressure, their statements were recorded.

12.219. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 926- Mukhtiyarbhai Primaswala stating that he had sold the 5kg Gas bottles to a person to whom, he identified in a TIP for the reason that in his first statement, he had dined that he had not sold any gas cylinder to any person during the time of blast.

12.220. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of this witness indicates that it did not keep any record of sale and purchase of gas cylinders, he did not have given any bill to any person during the time of blast, he admitted that there were not any specific marks of his shop upon the gas cylinder as to identify the cylinder, even he admitted that the cylinders which he was selling were available in other shops and the same kind of cylinders were selling by others. Therefore, considering the cross-examination this witness No.926, it is not proved that this witness had sold the gas cylinder to accused No. 27.

12.221. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon evidence of PW No. 827-Babubhai Makwana to the extent that when the accused was under police custody on 04.12.2008, he had pointed out L. G. Hospital, where at he parked Maruti Car containing the bomb. It is also pleaded that prior to 04.12.2008, the investigating officers have already visited the L. G. Hospital and had made panchnama of scene of offence. It was not a new information or knowledge to the investigating officer that the blast was taken place at L.G. Hospital.

12.222. It is pleaded that the prosecuting agency did not bring any evidence on record that on 26.07.2008 the accused had driven the Maruti car and placed it at L. G. Hospital. No witness to this aspect connect the accused with the crime. Even the cross-examination of this panch witness states that he is a selected, stock and tutored witness.

evidence and PW No. 957- Zakir Qureshi and PW No. 1141 Ayaz Saiyed, being accomplice and approver referring the presence of accused No.15- Mufti Abubasar @ Abdul Rashid @ Abdulla S/O Abubakar Shaikh at Ahmedabad meetings for the reasons as stated hereinabove in this appeal memo as to discard their respective evidence.

12.224. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.833- Urmit Kayasth to the extent that on 25.10.2008 he was called by crime branch police and he agreed to witness to a panchnama and accused No.27- Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan S/O Mohammad Isaak Mansuri pointed out the places from where he had got a bag of bomb, a premises of Al-Mohammadi society, a premises near Sarangpur bridge from where he boarded in Autoriksha and went to Nilkanth Hotel. Accused No. 27- Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan S/O Mohammad Isaak Mansuri thereafter pointed out one wall, a shop from where he purchased the bag, a place near Dhanvantri Hospital where he allegedly placed a bicycle containing bomb, a place near Panchkuva, from where he purchase bicycle etc. For the reason that from the deposition of this panch witness appears that he is selected and tutored witness. He had no any reason to pass in front of crime branch office, where at he was asked to stand as Panch, while he was going to reverse direction, where the crime branch office was not to come on the way. Even the crime branch office was about two kilometers away.

12.225. It is pleaded that the panch witness has not kept any record or notes of the details of panchnama, while he deposed from first to last page of the panchnama, which contains about six pages, whereas he was not able to give the details that on the day of panchnama he was going to purchase the goods, but he could not able to give the name of the traders, though he was regularly purchasing the goods from his shop. The Panch witness agreed that no physical appearance of accused was mentioned in panchnama, yet he said that due to changes in physical appearance, he could not identify the accused in the trial court.

12.226. It is also pleaded that most important aspect of the evidence of panchnama Exhibit-5622 states that there is about 80 percent averments and contentions are in the nature of the confession of the accused, if these confessions are taken away then it is very difficult to understand and believe the panchnama. Moreover, the places allegedly shown by accused No.27- Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan S/O Mohammad Isaak Mansuri were already within the knowledge of Investigating Officer as earlier all the places pointed out by the accused were visited by the investigating officer.

12.227. It is further pleaded that from the contents of panchnama, it appears that no independent witness had identified the accused at the places, which he had shown or the persons, who sold the bicycles to him identified him or any person had seen him parking the bicycles at any scene of offence.

12.228. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of below mentioned Panch witnesses as their entire depositions are in the nature of confession of accused and are not admissible in evidence as discussed:

a) PW No. 822 Jignesh Panchal
b) PW No. 824 SanjayKumar Dhamecha
c) PW No. 865 Kanubhai Thakor

Investigating Officer are in the nature of confession/ admission of the accused, which are not permissible under the Evidence Act. That most of Panchnamas are drawn after long police custody of the accused, which are not supported by other independent evidence. Moreover, the detailed cross-examination of the Panch witnesses indicates that these Panchas are stock-panchs, selected and concocted witnesses in the nature and their respective evidence does not inspire any confidence with regard to their truthfulness.

12.230. It is pleaded that the evidence of TIP as stated hereinabove and the explanation offered by the accused No.27- Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan S/O Mohammad Isaak Mansuri in his further statement states that the TIP were arranged after long period of incident, which were not fair and legal and just a formality to connect the accused with the crime.

12.231. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought not to believe confessional statements of Accused No.2- Imran S/O Ibrahim Shaikh, 24- Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira and 76- Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil S/O Aliimam for the reasons discussed herein above.

12.232. It is also pleaded that the trial Court erred by holding at page No.6547 that the accused No. 27-Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan S/O Mohammad Isaak Mansuri was participated in alleged camp at Halol-Pawagadh. It is not the case of prosecution and neither Accused No.2-Imran S/O Ibrahim Shaikh, who has stated in his alleged confession that accused No. 27-Mohammad Ismail @ Abdul Rajik @ Musaf @ Furkan S/O Mohammad Isaak Mansuri was ever present at Halol camp.

Evidence against accused No.31 Mohd. Arif BadruddinShaikh (Appellant No.15)

12.234. It is pleaded that the accused was formally arrested on 05.11.2008 and thereafter remained in custody/remand from 05.11.2008 to 24.12.2008 and again on 13.06.2009 in connection with Kalol Police Station.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 31

12.235. It appears from the evidence led during trial, that the Accused No.31 Mohd. Arif Shaikh while, in police custody, had allegedly purchase the watches from Mumbai and thereafter the watches were use for bomb explosion and bomb plantation. The evidence led by the prosecution also suggests that in the presence of panch witnesses he made demonstration how to set the device timer in the watch.

12.236. It is pleaded that to substantiate the above role of the accused, prosecution had examined PW No.979 Dasrath Vishnu Patil a servant of PW No. 978 Mohd. Hanif A. Kaiyum Roshan an owner of M/s Vali Mohammad Roshan & Co. Watch shop situated at Abdurehaman Street Mumbai. Prosecution has also examined PW No. 988-Nimesh Bhanuprasad Bharmbhatt and PW No. 919 Kalpesh Rajaram Thakur, Panch witness before whom accused No.31- Mohd. No.31- Mohammad Arif @ Arif Badar @ Ladan S/O Badruddin @ Jumman Shaikh for the reason that the prosecution had examined Mohd. Hanif Roshan- PW No.978 and Shri Dashrath Patil- PW No.979 of one "Vali mohammad Roshan & Co". His shop is situated at Bombay. To show that, they have sold about 16 pieces of watches of Prince company, it was the case of prosecution that accused No.31 Mohd. Arif Badruddin had purchased 50 pieces of watches. However, the said accused did not point the said shop during his long lasting remand period to show that he had purchased the watches from the said shop. It is pleaded that the evidence of aforesaid two witnesses does not inspire the confidence that the so-called Muddamal watches were sold by them. They have clearly admitted that while recording their respective statement, they were not shown any muddamal watches by police, even the watches which were sold by them, were not contained any mark or sign of their shop. The said types of watches are available in the market by different shops. Even the evidence of PW No.589- Executive Magistrate did not inspire any confidence to show that the accused No.31- Mohammad Arif @ Arif Badar @ Ladan S/O Badruddin @ Jumman Shaikh was only identified by the aforesaid two witnesses as they claimed. Even the alleged bills at Exhibits-6824, 6826 and 6827 regarding sale of watches, do not contain the name and address of the purchaser of the watches in questions.

12.238. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of two panch witnesses i.e. PW No. 988- Nimesh and PW No.919- Kalpesh Thakur to the extent that the Accused No.31- Mohammad Arif @ Arif Badar @ Ladan S/O Badruddin @ Jumman Shaikh had shown the demonstration how he used the circuit and inserted it in the watch as a timer, for the reasons that the so-called demonstration Panchnama prepared are not admissible in the evidence for the reasons that such Panchnamas are one kind of admission/confession of the accused, while he was in police custody, which is not before the judicial officer.

12.239. It is pleaded that the investigating officer has called the report of FSL with regard to the functioning of circuit as a timer in the watch and that report was available to him and therefore, it was not necessary to make any demonstration Panchnama as allegedly before the pachas.

12.240. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of these two witnesses indicates that they are tutored witnesses having no knowledge of understanding the activities of alleged panchnama and manner in which the panchnama prepared seems absolutely unbelievable.

12.241. It is also pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying deposition of PW No.929 and discussing evidence of Accused No.29 at page No.6566 of the judgement. The conclusion of Ld. Judge is based only on presumption.

12.242. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial do not prove the alleged role of the Accused No. 31- Mohammad Arif @ Arif Badar @ Ladan S/O Badruddin @ Jumman Shaikh in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No. 36 Mohd. Arif Nasim Ahmed Mirza (Appellant No.16)

12.243. It is pleaded that the accused was formally arrested on 22.11.2008 and thereafter remained in custody/remand from 22.11.2008 to 12.01.2009 and again on 15.06.2009 in connection with Kalol Police Station.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 36

12.244. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during trial it transpires that Accused No.36- Mohammad Arif Nasim Ahmed Mirza was when in police custody pointed out two places, where bomb blasts had taken place and pointed out one place, from where he placed the bicycle carrying the bomb under panchnama u/s 27 of Evidence Act. The prosecution had examined one Witness-PW No.936. This accused was found placing a bicycle at Raipur Chakla near Gokhle Pan House and thereafter, in evening he came to know that blast had taken place and after about four months reading the news of blasts, he went to Giakwad Haveli, where he met one Investigating Officer PW No.-1154 Smt. Usha Rada and she recorded his statement on 07.12.2008 and thereafter, he identified Accused No. 36- Mohammad Arif Nasim Ahmed Mirza in TIP parade, but could not identify in the trial court during his deposition.

12.245. It is pleaded that the learned Judge erred in relying upon and convicting the Accused No. 36- Mohammad Arif Nasim Ahmed Mirza for the reason that the evidence of PW No.866- Rameshbhai Shah and PW No.860- Jagatsinh Rajput appears that almost the accused had made a confession before these witnesses regarding planting bicycles at the places mentioned in the Panchnama and the place pointed regarding Al-mohammadi society. It is already discussed in this appeal memo that why the Panchnama u/s 27 containing the culpability/confession of the accused should not be believed. Moreover, the detailed cross-examination of the Panch- witnesses indicates that these Panchas are stock-panchs, selected and concocted witnesses in the nature and their respective evidence does not inspire any confidence with regard to their truthful evidence.

12.246. It is pleaded that the alleged place of occurrence i.e. blasting places were already within the knowledge of concern investigating officer, therefore it was not new fact, which was not within the knowledge of concerned Investigating Officer. Even nothing was recovered or discovered at the instance of this accused during his respective pointing out Panchnama.

12.247. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.936 Sunil Kantilal Patel to the extent that on the day of incident i.e. 26.07.2008 in the morning, he had seen two boys at about 11.00 to 12.00 Hrs at Gokhle Pan House, as they appeared outsiders to him and in evening he had seen these them again, where one boy had parked his bicycle near M. Narayandas Medical Store and near Gokhle Pan House, and this witness identified them in TIP later on. For that reason the cross-examination of this witness indicates that after about four months of the incident and reading the news of bomb blasts, he voluntarily went to the police and declared that on the day of incident he had seen two boys near scene of offence with bicycle. This discloser of planting bicycle near scene of offence after about four months in light of the cross-examination states that this witness is quiet un-natural and unbelievable, who had no any reason to see these boys coming and parking bicycle near the scene of offence in a very crowded area, where number of persons, collegians and boys coming there on bicycle and parking the bicycles that too in absence of any specific reason to remember the boys. Even after inordinate delay of four months after the incident in recording the statement, cannot be considered as laid down in several judgements of Hon'ble Supreme Court and Hon'ble High Courts.

Evidence against accused No. 37 Kayamuddin Sarfuddin Kapadiya (Appellant No.17)

12.249. It is pleaded that although the accused was unofficially taken into custody on 31.03.2008, his arrest was formally shown only on 04.12.2008. It is further pleaded that the accused thereafter remained in custody/remand from 05.12.2008 to 06.03.2009, from 06.05.2009 to 19.05.2009 in connection with Odhav Police Station, from 15.06.2009 to 25.06.2009 in connection with Kalol Police Station and on 02.07.2009 in connection with Mahidharpura Police Station

It appears from the evidence led during trial, the accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had hired a premises situated at Danilimbda, Ahmedabad being House No.10 Al-Mohammadi Society. He had hired a premises situated at Umravnagar, Vatva, Ahmedabad. He had purchased two gas bottles from Royal Gas Stove Centre. 12.251. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No. 943- Fukhrajbanu Mohd. Yakub Shaikh alleged owner of house No.10, Al-Mohammadi Society, PW No. 928-Ibrahimbhai a property broker and PW No.952- Mohd. Arif Bismillah Saiyed, PW No.834- Mahendrabhai Raval a Panch witness of a pointing out panchnama stating that the accused No.37- when was in police custody allegedy shown this house on 16.09.2009 and PW No.1154 Smt. Usha Rada (Investigating Officer) for the reasons that it has come on record during the cross-examination of PW No.943-Fukhrajbanu that the documents she had produced did not confirm undoubtedly that she was the owner of house in question. She had not produced any document showing that she rented the premises to accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya. She could not identified accused No. 37- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya in the court and she confirmed that when police came first time she had not given name of any person as a tenant. Moreover, the evidence of PW No.928- Ibrahimbhai and PW No.952-Mohd. Arif is quite contradictory to the evidence of PW No.943 and these two witnesses confirmed in their respective cross-examinations that they had not given name accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya to whom they allegedly introduced to owner PW No.943. Even it appears that they have not identified that person in TIP as Accused No.37- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya. Moreover, these two witnesses did not identify the accused No. 37- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya in the trial court. It is important to submit that PW No. 1154-Investigating Officer had confirmed that the electricity bill, which she allegedly recovered from landlady was describing consumer No.2013406 (Exh.6630), while in the alleged panchnama drawn, she has stated consumer No.2437127 of the alleged premises for House No.10, Al-Mohammadi Society. Even, she had stated that she could not say whether she had recovered a electricity bill of July, 2008 of the premises in question.

12.252. It is pleaded that none of the independent witness i.e. a resident of Al-Mohammadi Society or surrounding area did not come forward to depose that at any point of time accused No.37- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was found, present or stayed at the premises in question.

12.253. It is further pleaded that the prosecuting agency tried to led a evidence of PW No.834- Mahendrabhai Raval to show that when accused No.37- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was in police custody, on 16.01.2009 he pointed out premises of House No.10 Al-Mohammadi Society. It also pleaded that as per prosecution case PW No.1154- Smt. Usha Rada herself had visited and searched the said premises at the instant of Accused No.1-Jahid S/O Kutubuddin Shaikh on 19.09.2008 vide Panchnama Exh.6656. It is pleaded that even no incriminating materials for making bombs were found or recovered under the said panchnama as per the FSL report.

12.254. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence led by the prosecuting agency with regard to a house situated at Umravnagar, Vatva, Ahmedabad, for the reason that the cross-examination of PW No.1106- Firoz Shaikh does not indicates that he rented the premises in question to accused No.37-Kayamuddin @

Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya, in the absence of any document with regard to his ownership as well as documents regarding tenancy like rent note, rent receipt, rent agreement etc. The detailed submission is made earlier in this appeal memo which may kindly be considered.

12.255. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence led by prosecuting agency that accused No.37- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had purchased gas bottles for making the bomb for the reason that Mr.V. R. Toliya, Assistant Commissioner of Police had drawn one Panchnama on 08.12.2008 between Night 00:00 hrs to 5:30 am, whereby accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya, while in police remand had pointed out some shops and from one shop viz. Royal Gas Stove, some gas cylinders were purchased by him. The Panch witness- Karnav Hemantbhai Patel, PW No.872 and PW No.927- Mohammad Ayaz Rizwan Dudhwala, owners of M/s. Royal Gas Stove were examined. It appears that Investigating Officers Mr.Mulyana PW No.1000 and PW No.1163- Mayur Chavda had visited the aforesaid shops and recorded the statement of the said shop owner before this so-called panchnama.

12.256. It is pleaded that PW No.927 Shri Mohd. Rizwan Dudhwala had specifically admitted in his cross-examination that during one week period of the date of bomb explosion he did not sale any gas cylinder to anyone and he had no knowledge about sale of gas cylinders to anyone.

12.257. It is pleaded that none of the witness had identified the accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya to show that he was the person, who visited the shop and purchased the gas cylinders at any point of time. It is also pleaded that no documentary evidence had been collected by any of the investigating officer during long lasting remand period regarding the sale and purchase of cylinders alleged to have been used.

12.258. It is pleaded that PW No.927-Mohammad Rizwan Dudhwala had confirmed in his cross-examination at para No.13 that his three statements were recorded on 05.08.2008, 06.08.2008 and 15.12.2008 and he clearly deposed that he did not sale gas cylinders within one week of incident to any suspicious person and he did not know who had purchased gas bottles from where, allegedly used for commission of offence.

12.259. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence led during trial that the several SIM cards of several service providers, where allegedly used by accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya.

12.260. It is pleaded that the following SIM card numbers of different companies were allegedly used:

No.	Name of service provider co.	Mobile No

4	Vodafone	97123 81157

12.261. It is pleaded that it has come on record that during the detailed investigation they have not investigated the use of above 5 SIM cards or collected CDR records or recovered or discovered the mobile phones of any mobile company, in which these 5 SIM cards were installed or did not find any communication record between any of the accused before or at the time of bomb explosion or after such incident.

who had allegedly sold the SIM cards to accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya are as under;

1) PW No.799 Desharam Vardhaji Prajapati.
2) PW No. 807 Bhawarlal Nenaji Prajapati
3) PW No. 803 Dineshbhai C. Chaudhri
4) PW No. 801 Azad Ahmed Sardar Ahemad Shaikh

12.263. It is pleaded that from the depositions and cross-examinations of the aforesaid witnesses, it has come on record that none of the witness had identified accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya, as he had purchased the mobile phone from the respective shop. None of the witness had stated that they have identified accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya, as the person to whom they have sold either mobile phone or SIM cards.

12.264. It is pleaded that as per prosecution case PW No. 1163-Mr.Mayur Chavda, Investigating Officer had discovered one diary, driving license and a bill of mobile phone of Reliance company having SIM card No.9377201545, as to show that accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had purchased that SIM card by submitting a false driving licence, which was in the name of Gujarati Ashok Navinbhai. A Panchnama was drawn at Exh.6355 and a bill was produced at Exh.No.6356, the driving licence was submitted at Exh.6355. However, in the evidence of PW No.801 Mr. Azad Ahmed Shaikh, he has stated that he had not seen any person on 17/07/02008, who had purchased SIM card or did not identify by police. He admitted that he had not identified any person either under police custody or before Executive Magistrate. Even this witness had not identified Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya in the court as a person to whom he sold the SIM card under a false licence.

12.265. It is pleaded that the F.S.L evidence regarding the evidence of handwriting at Exh.6913 does not disclose that Exh.8999 an application form contains the signature of handwriting of accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya.

12.266. It is also pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence led by the prosecuting agency to the effect that accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had booked a room of Hotel Vapi Intercontinental at Vapi, as to facilitate co-accused Abdul Subhan Qureshi under false name and signature in the guest register for the reasons that PW No.1122-Ismailbhai Bagga a receptionist deposed that in the year 2009 police came at Hotel Vapi Intercontinental with one person whose face was covered with cloth and police introduced him as Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya. The witness allegedly deposed that police had verified the guest register and took out page Nos.174 and 175 containing entry No.1739. However, the cross examination of this witness indicates that this witness had no any conversation with the person covered with cloth and his cover was not removed and he did not see him. Police had recovered page Nos. 174 and 175 along with six blank pages of register. He admitted that the register does not contain the seal of the Mamlatdar and the blank pages Exh.6739 and the pages Exh.6498 are different being page Nos.174 and 175. It indicates that the police had misused the blank pages as the explanation offered by accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya in his further statement u/s 313 of Cr.P.C at Exh.159.

12.267. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence led by the prosecuting agency with regard to PW No.959-Balvantbhai to the extent that police had recovered one register informing him that it was brought from Vapi and entry No.1739 of page No.175 was marked with red circle and the specimen signature of accused by Mark S/1 to S/16. However, cross-examination does not inspire the confidence regarding recovery of register in question. The page No.174 contains entry Nos.1746 to 1755, while page No.175 contains entry Nos.1736 to 1745 which is not in serial or sequence in natural course. It is pleaded that in fact page No.174 should have contained entry Nos.1736 to 1745 in ordinary course. This indicates that the blank pages where misused.

12.268. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.969-Sunil Agarwal an owner of Hotel Kamleshwar, PW No. 970- a manager of Hotel Kamleshwar and PW No.997- Ravi Shah in whose presence the alleged specimen signature of Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was taken for the reason that PW No.969 Sunil Agarwal had deposed that on 21.12.2008 police had come at his hotel and verified the entry of guest register dated 19.10.2008 and police told him that one Samir I. Kirani was stayed in his hotel on 19.10.2008. The cross-examination of this witness indicates that one accused in the police custody and police have shown that person as Samir Kirani. However, on 21.12.2008, Investigating Officer Smt. Usha Rada-PW No.1154 went to Pune and in her custody one Accused No.44- Mohammad Akbar @ Said @Yakub @Vinod S/O Ismail Chaudhari and Accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani were there. It is pertinent to state that as per police record/investigation papers Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was in the police custody of one Investigating Officer Mr. Mayur Chavda on 21.12.2008 at Ahmedabad. Therefore, this evidence indicates that police had created false evidence of PW Nos.969, 970 and 997. Even PW No. 1154 does not state in her evidence that on 21.12.2008 she went to the Hotel Kamleshwar with the Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya and she had checked the guest register and recovered the relevant pages of guest register. Therefore, the explanation offered by Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya may kindly be considered regarding creating the evidence of Hotel Kamleshar at Pune.

12.269. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying the evidence of PW No. 864-Abdul Farid Shaikh and PW No. 1016 Mohd. Sakir stating that Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had hired the premises known as 'Master House' at Surat for the reason that as per the evidence adduced by the prosecuting agency on 09/07/2008, Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had hired a house of one witness Abdul Farid Shaikh situated at Sopariwala compound known as Master House. The prosecuting agency had examined PW No.864 Abdul Farid Shaikh and PW No.1016 Mohd Sakir being a son of PW No.864, however from the respective cross-examination of these two witnesses, it appears that Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was not identified by them during trial as the person, who had hired the respective premises of Master House. Even Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya while in police custody from 04/12/2008 to 06/03/2009 did not point out the premises of Master House under any panchnama. 12.270. It is pleaded that on 04/09/2008 accused No. 63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha S/O Mohammad Akhtar Pathan while in custody had pointed out the premises of Master House under a Panchnama Exh.2806 during the evidence of PW No.456 Mehulkumar Jadiya. However, after the breaking open the door and searching the premises in presence of FSL experts, nothing incriminating materials like explosives etc., were found. Therefore, evidence regarding premises of Master House allegedly used for making the bombs by Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya and others was not proved beyond reasonable doubt.

12.271. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence to the effect that Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was present at Halol camp during period January 13th to 15th 2008, for the reason that PW No.1105-Idrish Gulabshah Fakir is a person, who was allegedly working as a Mujavar at Khundpir Dargah, the only witness regarding the presence and identification of accused did not refer and depose that at any point of time that he had seen Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya at Khundpir Dargah, Halol. Even this accused did not get identified by any of the investigating officer in TIP through this witness.

Therefore also presence of Mehandihasan @ Vikki S/O Abdul Habib Ansari (Julaha Sunni) at alleged camp of Halol is not proved beyond reasonable doubt.

12.274. It is submitted that all the vendors witnesses have not identified Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya in the court during their respective depositions. However, as per prosecution case during investigation Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had not pointed out that he had purchased 50 shirts from witness Hafizurhaman Vohra. It has come during the deposition of PW No.589-Executive Magistrate Mr.I.V.Zala that one Hafizurrahman Vohra had identified Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya during Test Identification Parade but the said witness is not examined and the evidence of Test Identification Parade is not substantive evidence.

It is pleaded that Mr. V. R. Toliya, Investigating Officer had recorded the statement of one Shri Sarfaraj Abdul Rahim Ajmerwala on 11/12/2008. 24th. The said witness could not identify the accused in the Court.

12.277. It is pleaded that the evidence of PW No.589- Mr. I.V.Zala, Executive Magistrate does not inspire the confidence regarding the fair and legal TI Parade, which appears from his cross-examination at Para Nos.36, 37, 39, 40, 41, 42, and 45.

12.278. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.1098- Asif Vora, PW No.1115- Mohd. Umar and PW No.1117 Asif Shaikh for the reason that on 07.12.2008 their respective statements were recorded by Investigating Officer Mr.R.V.Asari at Vadodara i.e. after about four months of the incident dated 26.08.2008.

12.279. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of these witnesses indicates that from 26.08.2008 to 07.12.2008 they were at Vadodara and they have not disclosed anything about their knowledge regarding incident or Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya to any person or even after the incident of serial bomb blast, they did not feel or like to inform to the police or did not feel that Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had done something wrong or he was involved in serial blast cases.

12.280. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of PW No.1153 Investigation Officer Mr.R.V.Asari indicates that he might have not recorded the statements of these witnesses on 07.12.2008. It is pertinent to state that how the Investigation Officer approached the above witnesses without any information or a notice u/s 160 of Cr.P.C. is quit suspicious. Even above three witnesses admitted in their respective cross-examinations that for recording their statements at Vadodara city, they had not received any summon or notice from concerned Investigating Officer.

12.281. It is pleaded that the trial Court has wrongly concluded in its Judgement at page No.6588 that Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was discussing about SIMI activities with the aforesaid three witnesses. However, the respective depositions of these three witnesses does not say at any point that they had discussion with Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya regarding SIMI activities.

12.282. It is pleaded that from cross-examination of above three witnesses indicates that after recording of their respective statements, the Investigation Officer had not collected the details of their conversation on mobile phone or collected the CDR of their conversation with Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya or Investigation Officer himself admitted that he had not recovered the mobile phones of aforesaid witnesses or collected CDR of their conversation with Kayamuddin. Moreover, the important aspect regarding the places where at the witnesses met to Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya as appeared, in their respective depositions, were not visited or shown by any of the witness, or no any witness brought on record to show that at any point of time Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was found in the company of aforesaid three accused at any place of meeting.

12.283. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.930- Kishorbhai Ravat for the reason that as per his deposition, in the year 2008 he was working as a booking clerk at Neeta Travels, Ahmedabad and once he had delivered a parcel, which was received to its travelling office from Pune and delivered to a boy, which he later identified on 17.12.2008 in TIP. However, the cross-examination of this witness indicates that he was the rickshaw driver, though he had passed BA, he could not understand the date and time and he was not keeping any record of his activities. According to his cross-examination, at Neeta Travel Agency he was maintaining a register of parcels containing the details of sender's name and address, receiver's name and address, signature of receiver, date of booking a parcel etc. However, he did not give it to the police when his statement was recorded on 13.12.2008 or did not show it to the police. This witness has not identified the accused person to whom he identified in TIP while, while giving his deposition. It is thus pleaded that considering the deposition of this witness, it seems that he is tutored and concocted witness.

12.284. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.603 Pintu Piraji regarding recovery of alleged application form pertaining to Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya vide Panchnama Exh.No.3232 for the reason that the cross-examination of this witness indicates that he was called by police at about 10.30 am, while according to him the police was present in the office of one Rasikbhai Laliwala, an employee of Municipal Swimming Pool. He had also deposed that when he entered in the office, one bunch was lying on the table and he also admitted that in his presence an application form was not taken out from the said bunch. It is pertinent to state that according to this witness the photograph of Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was affixed by the stapler pin and not affixed with any item like gum. He also admitted in his cross-examination that this form was not containing the signature of Laliwala or Panch himself.

12.285. It is further pleaded that the prosecution had sent this application form with alleged specimen signature of the Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya to the FSL for obtaining the handwriting expert's opinion. However, the alleged signature of Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya does not tally with the signature of disputed document i.e. application form at Exh.3233. Even Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had offered his explanation in his further statement u/s 313 with regard to the alleged application form at Exh.3233.

12.286. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in disbelieving the evidence of Accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya, who himself offered after giving an application u/s 315 of Cr.P.C. at Exh.9169 and after Hon'ble Court's permission examined as DW No.8- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya to disprove the charges and evidence led by the prosecuting agency against him for the reason that on 31.03.2008, DW No.8- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya was taken away by Vadodra Crime Branch Police, who in turn handed over him to Madhya Pradesh Police and at that time his mobile phone was taken away by Vadodara Police. DW No.8 had in detail given the accounts of his illegal custody from 31.03.2008 to 03.12.2008 with all necessary documents. It is pleaded that DW No.8-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had narrated the details of physical and mental torturing by all the Investigating Officers from 04.12.2008 to till his last police custody 06.02.2009. DW No.8-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had narrated at Para No.21 of his examination-in-chief that how the investigating officer had created evidence against him and how his mobile phone No.98987 31479 was misused by the police. It is also pleaded that DW No.8-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had described in Para Nos.30 to 37 of his examination-in-chief stating that during trial what tactics had been applied by the investigating agency in collusion with jail officials as to get identified the accused by witnesses, installing a camera at the entry door of particular place. It is submitted that DW No. 8 Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had described that under what circumstances accused No.23-Ayaz Razakmiyan Saiyed was lured and influenced by the investigating agency with the help of jail officers to turn as approver. (Para Nos.41 and 42). It is pleaded that as to strengthen the oral evidence, DW No.8-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya had submitted several documents with list, which were required to be considered by the learned Judge positively, however the learned Judge did not give the proper weightage and importance to the oral testimony of the DW No.8- Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya and the document submitted by him. It is pleaded that the learned Judge at the same time erred in appreciating the judgements cited by the defence that the evidence of the defence witness should be given same weightage as it is given to prosecution witnesses. On the contrary the learned Judge should not expect strong evidence in comparison of prosecution evidence.

12.287. It is further pleaded that the trial Court had given more reliance while appreciating the evidence of PW No.1141-Ayaz Saiyed being approver, who turned from accused to approver under an inducement of set to acquittal, while DW No. 8 Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya came forward to give the full account of illegal confinements of himself and under his police remand, how the police created the evidence against him and how the police made accused No.23-Ayaz Razakmiyan Saiyed as an approver under inducement. Therefore, it is pleaded that it was quite necessary to believe the evidence of DW No.8-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya as true and correct as defence witness. It is pleaded that prosecution has failed to prove guilt of accused No.37-Kayamuddin @ Rizwan @ Ashfak S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya beyond reasonable doubt.

12.288. It is pleaded that the accused was formally arrested on 27.10.2008 and thereafter remained in custody/remand from 27.10.2009 to 20.03.2009 and again on 15.04.2009 and 15.06.2009.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 38

12.289. It appears from the evidence led during trial, that the Accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh had shown the house situated at Al-Mohammadi Society by way of pointing out panchnama, when he was under police custody and this accused had also pointed out the place where he allegedly parked the bicycle at Hatkeshwar Circle whereas the blast has taken place.

12.290. It is pleaded that the prosecution had led the evidence of PW No.933- Mohd. Rashid Ahmed having his pan shop near Al-Mohammadi Society, who allegedly identified this accused before Executive Magistrate PW No.588 in an TIP.

12.291. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of panch witness PW Nos. 842 and 873 pointing out the places, where he allegedly parked the bicycle containing the bomb for the reason that the Panchnama drawn before the aforesaid two witnesses are u/s 27 of the Evidence Act in the nature, that the said accused No.38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh almost admitted/confessed his alleged role as per prosecution case in details, which is not admissible as per settled law. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of the aforesaid two witnesses shows that they are tutored witnesses and created witnesses, as no other evidence was found against accused No.38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh during a long period of police remand.

12.292. It is pleaded that the places allegedly shown by the aforesaid accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh were already within the knowledge of concern Investigating Officer, where as several visits were performed by them during earlier Panchnama allegedly drawn.

12.293. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.933- Mohd. Rashid to the extent that he had a pan shop outside of Al-Mohammadi Society and some five to six times- Accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh visited his shop for purchasing ice-cream etc. However, the cross-examination of this witness does not inspire any confidence regarding his memory and causes to remember accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh. Therefore, after long time of investigation and under the police custody he identifies the accused during TIP before Executive Magistrate. This witness is even did not able to identify accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh in the court.

12.294. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of witnesses PW Nos. 953, 482 and 880 against accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh because they are not connecting the accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh with the present offence in any manner. It is therefore pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of accused No. 38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

12.320. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1138 Gulam Husen Abdurashid Pathan for the reason that PW No.1138 had admitted in his cross examination that he had not given any documentary evidence regarding the ownership of the premises and he had not stated before the police that he did not disclose that three persons were staying in his house and he did not had give any receipt of rent.

12.321. 12.324. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying the evidence of PW No.1123 a landlord of a house situated at Riverview Society to the extent that he rented the premises to one Yakub and thereby connected Accused No.44-Mohmmad Akbar @ Said @ Yakub @ Vinod S/o Ismail Chaudhari. However, the examination in chief of this witness does not refer the name of this accused or identifies in the court during his deposition that the accused No.44-Mohmmad Akbar @ Said @ Yakub @ Vinod S/o Ismail Chaudhari was the person came as Yakub before him and he rented the premises to him. Even no any independent or oral evidence produced by the investigating agency that the accused No.44-Mohmmad Akbar @ Said @ Yakub @ Vinod S/o Ismail Chaudhari at any point of time stayed in the house situated at Riverview Society.

12.325. Alleged role of the Accused No. 45

12.328. It is pleaded that from the evidence led during trial, it appears that Accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani stayed at Hotel Harimangala, Hotel Narmada and Hotel Revan situated at Bharuch in the first week of July, 2008. The said accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani stayed at the house of Sherpura situated at Bharuch in the month of July, 2008 and the said accused travelled from Pune to Ahmedabad in the first and second week of July, 2008 by the buses of different travels. The prosecuting agency tried to lead the evidence that the Accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani purchased some bolts/kills from Bharuch and he purchased some clothes from Surat city. It is also tried to lead the evidence that accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani once got repaired WeganR car near Bharuch.

12.329. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying up on the deposition of PW No. 944 Bhavinkumar Vijaykumar Bariya, a receptionist of Hotel Harimangala, PW No. 946 Gulam Adambhai Patel an owner of Hotel Revan, Bharuch and PW No. 945 a receptionist of Hotel Narmada, Bharuch to the extent that the Accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani stayed in the first/second week of July, 2008, for the reason that the cross-examination of the above three witnesses indicates that they have simply handed over two pages of hotel guest register of their respective hotels. It is pleaded that while these two pages were not tallied when the muddamal produced before the Hon'ble Court as they were found intact and not in torn condition, not indicating that these two pages were taken out from the guest register and were not joined with the cello tape, as they have stated in there respective cross-examination. It is pleaded that the cross-examination further indicates that all the aforesaid three witnesses of hotels have handed over simply blank pages of the respective hotel register, and later on these papers were misused by the investigating agency filling up the necessary details as per their desire and wish. It is pertinent to state that at any point of time the original entire guest registers were not collected nor verified with the muddamal two pages of guest register.

12.330. It is pleaded that even PW No. 944 BhavinKumar Bariya's cross-examination indicates that his statement was not recorded by police (Page No.3 Para No. 4). It is pleaded that when alleged pages of three hotels guest registers were shown to the Panch-witness for the purpose of taking specimen handwriting of accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani, all the pages of guest register were not in sealed condition or not taken out from any sealed box. It appears that when Panch had seen Exh.6516, 6517 and 6518, they were in open condition without any seal.

12.331. It is pleaded that the Investigation Officer had allegedly recovered the two pages of above stated three hotels on 12.12.2008 in the presence of panch witnesses. However, the investigation reveals that on 17.10.2008 one Investigation Officer Mr. A. F. Sindhi visited above three hotels and recorded statements of : 1) Harun Asrar Mukhi, 2) Suhel Adam Patel 3) Jayaben Dhananjay Joshi, and on 18.11.2008 another Investigating Officer, Mr. S. J. Tirmiji - PW No.1120 went at above three Hotels with the Accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani and he did not collect any guest register of these hotels. It is pleaded that he did not found any incriminating material/evidence related to accused No. 45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani. It is pertinent to state that accused No. 45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani was arrested by Surat Crime Branch on 12.11.2008 and by Ahmedabad Crime Branch on 01.12.2008.

12.332. It is pleaded that even evidence of PW No.912- Yogesh Kanniyalal Pandya, a panch witness, in whose presence the alleged pages of guest register were recovered does not inspire any confidence to the extent that the pages taken out from register of above three Hotels from the respective manager/ receptionist on 12.12.2008. The oral testimony of the Panch-witness does not tally with the muddamal guest register pages, in which condition they were allegedly recovered. Even the presence of this witness at the time of so-called panchnama Exh.6520 does not inspired the confidence.

12.333. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of above three witnesses even not inspires the confidence to the extent that any of the managers/ receptionist of the hotel had seen the accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani staying at their respective hotel, considering their cross-examination as well as their evidence allegedly identifying the accused No. 45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani in TIP.

12.334. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the further statement of accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani, Exh.67 to the extent that he has said that the entire entries were got up, therefore in light of this fact, the positive FSL report regarding the handwriting of Accused No. 45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani cannot be considered.

12.335. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1138-Gulam Hussain Abdurashid Pathan for the following reason that PW No.1138 had admitted in his cross-examination that he had not given any documentary evidence regarding the ownership of the premises and he had not stated before the police that he did not disclose that three persons were staying in his house and he did not had given any receipt of rent. It is also pleaded that in his deposition before the trial court, he deposed that, 'he had rented his premise to one Rafik Shaikh' and at the time of renting his house one Rafik Sahikh came to him and even his deposition indicates that when once or twice he visited his house, he did not see any of the accused including Rafik Shaikh as the premise was found close. It is very surprise to state that as per evidence of PW No.589-Executive Magistrate this witness had allegedly identified three persons to whom he allegedly rented his premises. This indicates that the investigating agency had tried to rope the accused persons pertaining to the Sherpura premises at Bharuch.

12.336. It is pleaded that from the cross-examination of PW No.1138 it appears that he was working as an electrician when police had searched his house, his books relating to electrical articles was lying and also he had clearly admitted that the alleged house searched by police was not in exclusive possession of accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @

Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani but goods lying in the house was belonged to him.

12.337. It is pleaded that even during investigation period and police remand of the accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani and two other co-accused namely Akbar and Anik, it was alleged that they were stayed in this premises, but no key of the aforesaid house is recovered or discovered as to link there possession with the said premises.

12.338. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying the evidence of PW No.975 Rizwan Yasinbhai Shaikh for the reasons that, the details of panchnama u/s 27 and the deposition of PW No.975 indicates that its nothing but a confession of the accused while in police custody, regarding his so-called involvement, except he pointed two places i.e. 1) a premises situated at Sherpura Bharuch, containing a Board General Electric Works and another premises at Lookman park, Bharuch. However, the owners of both the premises could not provide any document with regard to their respective ownership of the property as well as any document letting to the premise either any accused who might allegedly acquired the premises.

12.339. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying the evidence of PW No.986 Akbar Sadruddin Sorathiya a pointing panch witness, while accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani in police custody, on 21.12.2008 pointed office of one travel agency from where the investigating officer PW No.1154- Smt Usha Rada had recovered carbon copies of traveling tickets from Pune to Ahmedabad, from three different ticket books. However, the cross-examination indicates that the carbon copies of tickets do not tally with the ticket books and appears concocted tickets.

12.340. It is pleaded that an important aspect of the evidence of PW No.1154-Smt Usha Rada is that she claims that Accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani was in her custody from 20.12.2008 to 24.12.2008 that too at Mumbai and Pune but records of the Hon'ble Metropolitan Magistrate court shows that on 23.12.2008 the accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani and other co-accused No.44-Mohmmad Akbar @ Said @ Yakub @ Vinod S/o Ismail Chaudhari was produced before the said court. Even she confirmed in her cross-examination that during 20.12.2008 to 24.12.2008 she did not return to Ahmedabad with any of the above accused, but stayed at Mumbai and Pune. Therefore, also any evidence of any travel agent as emerged as evidence showing that Investigating Officer- Smt. Usha Rada recorded there statement or recovered any travels document/tickets during 20.12.2008 to 24.12.2008 seems concocted evidence against concern accused. It is pleaded that there is no investigation done about how accused No.45 return thrice from Ahemedabad or Bharuch to Pune or else.

12.341. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in considering the evidence of PW No. 983 Naresh Mehta an owner of hardware shop stating that one boy named as Rafik had purchased the kills and teen-patra from his shop. However, the cross-examination of this witness state that he had not produced any documents regarding the sale or he could not say on which date a boy name Rafik came to his shop, he had not given any physical appearance of a boy who bought the kills etc. to the police on 18.11.2008 when police first time came. Even in Test Identification Parade, he did not come to know that the person to whom he identified was Rafik by name or neither Magistrate had informed him. Therefore, his TIP does not give any confidence showing that he identified accused No. 45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani.

12.342. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.984 Radheshyam Madanlal Thakkar regarding his sell of cloths to accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani in the light of his cross-examination, which indicates that the material, which he was selling was common and several traders were selling in the Surat city, and the muddamal was not containing any specific sign as to identified it showing that the same muddamal was sold by him. Even there is no evidence to show that muddamal sold by him was used to connect the accused with the crime by any other evidence like FSL report etc.

12.343. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 948 Irfan Shaikh a car mechanic to the extent that this witness does not give the name of accused to the police, but police gives accused name to this witness and he said that he might have repaired his WagonR car. There is no pointing out panchnama of accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani, who took the shop of this witness and this witness might have confirmed accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani, even he could not identify the accused during his deposition in the court.

12.344. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 947 Hamid Memon to the extent that he filled the ten liters petrol in a car, which brought by the accused and he was in police custody. However, in cross-examination he says that he has no personal knowledge about filling the petrol and therefore, he could not identify the accused during his deposition in trial court.

12.345. It is further pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.909 Brijesh Dudhwala to the extent that accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani had pointed out one petrol pump viz. Vanaz petrol pump and one bill book was recovered. The cross-examination of this witness does not inspire the confidence regarding alleged recovery of bill book. The witness seems a tutored and selected witness.

12.346. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No. 855 Jayes Manubhai Patel to the extent that he runs a shop in the name of Kamal Hardware Mart and he had sold some nut bolts to one boy in 2008. However, in his cross-examination he admits that he did not submit the bill book or account book or sell register to police, when he was interrogated. He did not have given the description of the boy, who had allegedly purchased the nut and bolts from his shop. He admitted that the so-called nut and bolt sold by him were available in the market. It is pleaded that he did not declare to any person from the date of sale of nut and bolt to the period when he went to police and from D.C.B. police station no notice or summon was issued to him. It is pleaded that this witness is created by the police to support their false claim of purchase of nut and bolt from his shop. Moreover, from the examination-in-chief of this witness, in his deposition he has stated that in the year 2008 one boy was came to purchase the nut and bolt, while the evidence of PW No.575 the Executive Magistrate indicates that this witness has identified two persons allegedly purchased nut and bolt from his shop. It indicates that again police had try to create evidence to implicate accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani in the case.

evidence of PW No.918 Amar Rajput stating that the accused No.45-Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani had pointed a premises known as 'Master House" under panchnama Exhibit-6544 for the reason that this witness admits that he does not know Gujarati or English and can only understand Hindi language and he did not have read the Panchnama. He admits that the room pointed by the accused was not got open and no inquiry was made that who was the landlord. Further, he admitted in cross-examination that no efforts were made to search the landlord or to break open the lock of the room even the accused had not shown the key of the room. The witness could not identify the accused during deposition in the trial Court.

12.348. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.45- Fazle Rehmaan @ Rafik @ Salauddin S/O Musaddik Durrani in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

12.349. It is pleaded that his arrest was formally shown only on 05.01.2009 in connection with Kapodara Police Station. Accused No. No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi, while he was in police custody pointed a house situated at Riverview society, Surat along with co-accused No.46-Mohammad Naushad @ Mohammad Irshad Saiyed vide Panchnama Exh.8529 and also it appears from the evidence led during trial that the Accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi had pointed out a house under a panchnama u/s 27 of Evidence Act situated at Al-Mohammadi Society, Danilimbda, Ahmedabad, whereat as per prosecution's case some accused have prepared the bomb.

12.351. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the aforesaid evidence while convicting the accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu s/o Abubakr Barelvi for the reason that the alleged panchnama Exh.No.8529 is drawn in the nature of joint panchnama as accused Nos.46 and 47 allegedly pointed out the place of Riverview society.

12.352. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of panch-witness No.458 Deepak Ramchandra Mali indicates that first time he was called on 29.08.2008 and a panchnama was drawn to the effect that one Jayesbhai Patel the owner of a shop 'Kamala Hardware' produce one bolt and nut, which was recovered. It was a recovery panchnama at Exh.2814 not implicating any accused or admitting that either accused No.46 or 47 had purchased the muddamal nut and bolt his shop.

12.353. It is pleaded that this witness did not state anything about pointing out the joint panchnama by accused Nos.46 and 47 during his first deposition on 28.04.2015, however he was recalled on 20.09.2019 and stated something about joint panchnama. The cross-examination indicates that at the time of preliminary panchnama he had no any talk with accused Nos.46 and 47 regarding their voluntariness to show the place which was the essential requirement u/s 27 of the Evidence Act. It is very surprising and unbelievable aspect admitting by this panch witness, both the accused Nos. 46 and 47 were belonged to Karnataka State and without any kind of confusion straightaway stopping or asking to anyone about the address of place led the police and panch-witness to the alleged place situated at Riverview society at Surat City. Moreover, except panchnama Exh.8529 no evidence was brought on record to show that accused No.47 at any point of time stayed at the house shown under this panchnama. Neither the landlord nor any independent witness had identified accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi, person as who stayed at the place at Riverview society, Surat. It is further pleaded that the panchnama Exh.8529 was drawn on 07.01.2009 and prior to this, as per prosecution case, one Panchnama at Exh.2757 was drawn at the instance of Accused No.63 on 28.08.2008. It means that the Investigation Officer Mr.N. B. Parmar had already the knowledge of place allegedly shown by accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi under panchnama Exh.8529.

12.354. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and convicting the accused only relying the evidence of PW No.1111- Satish Vamanrav for the reason that the cross-examination of this witness indicates that during panchnama, he simply pointed out one premises at a distant place and the police did not go to this premises and the house was closed and door of the house was not got opened. Moreover, the premises pointed out by accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi as alleged, did not show that it was situated at Al-Mohammadi Society, Danilimbda and no house number was mentioned. Therefore, it could not be said that the accused No. 47 pointed the premises was a house No.10 situated at Al-Mohammadi Society. Moreover, the evidence recorded during trial indicates that prior to this panchnama Exh.7950 the house of Al-Mohammadi Society was visited by Investigation Officer and search and seizer was made.

12.355. It is pleaded that it cannot be said that the place as shown by accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi was not within the exclusive knowledge of Accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi. Even otherwise, no any independent evidence or witness connects accused No. 47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi stating that at any point of time he was found present at house No. 10 Al-Mohammadi Society.

12.356. It is further pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.47-Ahmed Bava @ Abu S/O Abubakr Barelvi in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No. 49 Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim (Appellant No.25)

12.357. It is pleaded that his arrest was formally shown on 15.04.2009. It is further pleaded that the accused thereafter remained in custody/remand from 15.04.2009 to 25.06.2009.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 49

12.358. It appears from the evidence led during trial that the Accused No.49-Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim had shown one demonstration before PW No.1162 Jay Panchal, a panch witness about how to prepare a electrical chip and drawn a diagram for preparing a chip.

evidence of PW No.1162-Jay Panchal and thereby erred in convicting for the reason that the alleged demonstration panchnama Exhibit-8594 is in the nature of confession of the accused, which is inadmissible in evidence.

12.360. It is pleaded that cross-examination of the panch witness indicates that the accused belongs to Kerala state and he did not know Gujarati language or Hindi language and the panchnama drawn in Gujarati language and it does not contain any endorsement that the accused was speaking English and it was translated into Gujarati language while preparing panchnama.

12.361. It is pleaded that as per further statement of accused recorded u/s 313 of Cr.P.C. (Exhibit-171) the statement was recorded with the help of one employee of the court who belongs to Kerala and knowing Malyalam language and he translated the replies from Malyalam to Gujarati. Even accused No.49-Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim had stated that except Malyalam he does not know other language like English etc.

12.362. It is pleaded that panchnama and the alleged diagram for preparing a timer chip does not contain signature of accused, panch witnesses and FSL officer, who were allegedly present during panchnama. Moreover, the panchnama or panch-witness does not say that the diagram at Exh.8594 was sealed in a cover or in any other article, meaning thereby, the diagram was kept open without any precautions or preservation to save from any tempering.

12.363. It is pleaded that the alleged diagram drawn by accused No.49-Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim, was in the same manner the diagram was in the possession of PW No.1136-Sujata Majmudar an Investigating Officer of the case. The details of diagram and manner in which, chip was working was already within the knowledge of said Investigating Officer with the report of the Bharat Electrical Limited vide Exh.8099 dated 14.08.2008. It is also pleaded that demonstration panchnama (dated 04.05.2009) was prepared after the receipt of diagram and report of BEL, Bangalore dated 14.08.2008. As per cross-examination of Investigating Officer, it is very much clear that Investigation officers of Ahmedabad and Surat are exchanging each and every details of investigation.

12.364. It is pleaded that in cross-examination, the panch had admitted that the alleged chip prepared by accused No.49-Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim was not tested by putting an electric bulb as to verify that the chip was weather properly prepared or working as per diagram.

12.365. It is pleaded that most important aspect of the panchnama is that during panchnama it is alleged that the accused told the police to bring the certain electrical articles like, 1) Micro controller, 2) Diod, 3) Disc Cap 4) Different types of registers, 5) Capesiter, 6) Transester, 7) Comon PCB, 8) Chip on Board 9) Connector, 10) Socket, 11) Soldering rod, 12) Soldering led 13) Different coloured wires, and accordingly one police constable went to market and he purchased the articles as stated above and returned with the materials and handed over to the accused. It is also pleaded that in a panchnama nowhere it is stated that the accused had stated to bring any type of “PIC”, and also not given any particular number of PIC. It is also pleaded that the FSL report at Exh.5644 refers similarity of timer circuit with the PIC number of bomb found at Surat and PIC number of alleged diagram at Exh.8594 i.e. PIC No.16F628A. Moreover, the drawing of Diagram and the articles allegedly brought form the market for preparation of so-called timer circuit in presence of

FSL officer, indicates that the investigating officer would have taken the help of FSL officer for obtaining the Electrical articles and preparing the map of circuit diagram as they already having report of BEL dated 14.08.2008 at Exh.8099. So, it is very much clear that so-called diagram and alleged timer chip prepared is not a result of exclusive knowledge of Accused No.49-Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim.

12.366. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No. 49- Sarfuddin @ Sarfu S/O It Sainuddin @ Abdul Sattar @ Abdul Salam @ Salim in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Evidence against accused No. 50- Saifur Rehmaan @ Saifu @ Saif Abdul Rehmaan (Appellant No.26)

12.367. It is pleaded that his arrest was formally shown on 04.07.2009. It is further pleaded that the accused thereafter remained in custody/remand from 04.07.2009 to 31.07.2009.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 50

12.368. It appears from the evidence led during trial, the Accused No.50-Saifur Rehmaan @ Saifu @ Saif Abdul Rehmaan had shown the house situated at Al-Mohammadi Society by way of pointing Panchnama u/s 27 of the Evidence Act, when he was under police custody and this accused had also pointed the place u/s 27 of the Evidence Act, where he allegedly parked the bicycle at Narol Circle whereat blast has taken place.

evidence of panch-witness PW Nos.825 and 869 pointing the house of al-mohammadi society and the places, where he allegedly parked the bicycles containing the bomb for the reason that the panchnamas drawn before the aforesaid two witnesses are u/s 27 of Evidence Act in the nature that the said accused No.38- Mohammad Saif @ Rahul Sabad Ahmed @ Mr. Sheikh almost admitted / confessed his alleged role as per prosecution case in details, which is not admissible as per settled law.

12.370. It is pleaded that the cross-examination of the aforesaid two witnesses show that they are tutored witnesses and created witnesses, as no other evidence was found against them during a long period of police remand.

12.371. It is pleaded that the places allegedly shown by the aforesaid accused Accused No.50-Saifur Rehmaan @ Saifu @ Saif Abdul Rehmaan were already within the knowledge of concerned Investigating Officer, whereas several visits were done by them during earlier Panchnamas allegedly drawn. These two witnesses are even did not able to identify Accused No.50-Saifur Rehmaan @ Saifu @ Saif Abdul Rehmaan before the Hon'ble Court during their respective depositions.

12.372. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.50-Saifur Rehmaan @ Saifu @ Saif Abdul Rehmaan in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 60

12.374. It appears from the evidence led during trial against accused No.60 was that during the examination in chief of PW No.1141-Ayaz Saiyed referred the presence of his brother Sibli @ Sabit S/O Abdul Karim Muslim (Accused No.11) at Ahmedabad in one meeting, but during his examination in chief he wrongly identified present accused No.60-Saduli @ Hariz S/O Abdul Karim Muslim as accused No.11-Sibli @ Sabit S/O Abdul Karim Muslim. Relying this evidence though he had not attended any meeting in Ahmedabad but by misconception of evidence the learned Judge convicted both accused No.60-Saduli @ Hariz S/O Abdul Karim Muslim with accused No.11-Sibli @ Sabit S/O Abdul Karim Muslim. It is also pleaded that benefit of doubt always helps the accused but here the learned Judge given benefit to the prosecution without any reason assigned. Moreover, the learned Judge erred in appreciating the confessional statement of Accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil S/O Aliimam, which he allegedly made in another case at Ernakulam, Kerala, wherein it refers the presence of some accused persons at Vagamon alleged camp including accused No.60-Saduli @ Hariz S/O Abdul Karim Muslim. However, u/s 300 of Cr.P.C., accused No.60-Saduli @ Hariz S/O Abdul Karim Muslim cannot be retried for the same offence and facts in another trial. Even otherwise confessions of co-accused require corroboration from independent evidence, which is not available in present case.

12.375. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.60-Saduli @ Hariz S/O Abdul Karim Muslim in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

Exhibit Nos.7072, 9315 and 9316. Therefore, it is pleaded that even u/s 300 of Cr.P.C., it is quite unfair, illegal and unconstitutional to try these accused Nos. 69 and 70 for the same facts and evidence.

The examination-in-chief and cross-examination indicate that near I.O.C. colony, there is a public road and it was simply a confession of the accused of being a place of parking. No independent witness was examined to state that at any point of time the accused were found near I.O.C. colony parking the vehicles in question. Even this witness could not identify any of the accused during his deposition.

12.388. He admitted that the accused have simply stated the name of their village and he had signed the Panchnama at Tirupati Hotel. One signature put at parking plot and another signature put at Tirupati Hotel. 12.391. It is pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.69-Amin @ Raja S/O Ayub Nazir Shaikh and 70-Mohammad Mobin @ Mubin @ Irfan S/O Abdul Sakurkhan in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

prosecuting agency tried to rely on PW No. 957 Zakir Qureshi an accomplice stating that he had seen the accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed after bomb explosion at the house of his relative whereat he was in feared condition.

12.394. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.-1082 Nalinbhai Jadawala to the extent that accused No.75 had pointed out the place at Unique Apartment, Juhapura and Hanuman Temple at Narol Circle for the reason that none of the independent witness deposed before the Hon'ble court that the accused was found near Unique Apartment or Hanuman Temple at Narol Circle. Even no evidence has come on record on which date the accused obtained the bicycle or what was the description of the bicycle viz. colour, name of company etc.

12.395. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the evidence of PW No.1114- Rajeshbhai Chauhan to the extent that accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed, when in police custody, had pointed a house situated at Al-Mohammadi Society. However, the cross-examination indicates that the house pointed by the accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed did not have any house number and they have not seen any board outside the society showing that Al-Mohammadi Society, even they did not visit the house. It is also pleaded that the important aspect is that none of the witness examined by the prosecuting agency to state that at any point of time accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed was present or found at Al-Mohammadi Society. Even otherwise, it is pleaded that the alleged place/house situated at Al-Mohamamdi society was earlier, alleged to have been pointed by other co-accused persons accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed had pointed out the shop named Delux Stove from outside of the shop and they did not enter in the shop to confirm that weather it was the shop selling gas cylinders or not. It is pleaded that none of the witness had identified, including the gas cylinder shopkeeper to accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed, as a person who purchased the gas cylinders. It is also pleaded that even otherwise, it has come on record that other investigating officer have visited the place Delux Stove and recorded the statements of shopkeeper and this place was within the knowledge of investigating officer prior to this panchnama dated 27.04.2016.

12.396. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No.1102 Santoshsing Rajput to the extent that accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed, when he was in police custody, pointed the place of Halol camp, where alleged conspiracy was hatched under a panchnama of section 27 of the Evidence Act, for the reason that prior to the alleged panchnama of Halol camp drawn at the instance of accused No.75, several instigating officers had earlier visited the said place and drawn the Pachnamas of the same/identical nature. Therefore, the said place was within the knowledge of investigating officers prior to 01.05.2016. It is pleaded that none of the independent witness was examined by the prosecuting agency to show that accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed was found and present at Halol camp at any point of time. Even no Test Identification Parade was arranged to show that any of the witness had seen the accused at this place at any point of time. The cross-examination of PW No.1102 indicates that he had simply signed the panchnama and he appears to be a selected and tutored Panch.

12.398. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon the evidence of PW No. 957 Zakir Qureshi stating that, on 27th i.e. after the day of explosion he went to one house situated at Rakhiyal and he had seen accused No.75-Mohammad Rafiq @ Javed @ Alam Jeb Afridi S/O Maskur Ahmed there at in fearing condition. Evidence against accused No. 78-Tausifkhan @ Atiq S/O Sagir Ahmedkhan Pathan (Appellant No.30)

12.401. It is pleaded that his arrest was formally shown on 27.11.2017. It is further pleaded that the accused thereafter remained in custody/remand from 27.11.2017 to 02.01.2018.

Alleged role of the Accused No. 78

12.402. It appears from the evidence led during trial, the accused No. 78 had pointed out a place of Halol-Pavagadh, when he was in police custody on 01.12.2017 and also the prosecuting agency led evidence of one panch witness to the extent that when accused was in police custody had pointed out one house situated at Dariyapur.

12.403. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and relying upon PW No. 1083 Mahendrabhai Vishnubhai Patil for the reasons that the alleged place of Halol Pavagadh pointed by the Accused No.78-Tausifkhan @ Atiq S/O Sagir Ahmedkhan Pathan was already within the knowledge of investigating officer as earlier accused Nos.1, 16, 35, 66, 74, 75 etc., have pointed the said place and the panchnama drawn vide Exh.7392 is an identical. This panchnama is almost same kind of panchnama of earlier Panchnamas drawn at the instance of aforesaid accused persons. It is simply a repetition of details of earlier Panchnamas.

12.404. It is pleaded that cross-examination of PW No.1083 states that he is a tutored witness and he had signed panchnama without going to the places as discussed in the panchnama.

12.405. It is pleaded that except panchnama at Exh.7392 no any independent witness or evidence brought on record to show that at any point of time accused No.78-Tausifkhan @ Atiq S/O Sagir Ahmedkhan

Pathan was found or present at Halol camp as alleged by the prosecuting agency. It is also pleaded that even otherwise, the detailed discussions made herein above does not inspires any confidence as alleged by the prosecuting agency regarding any kind of conspiracy.

12.406. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.1081-Anand Shrivastav, to the extent that accused No.78-Tausifkhan @ Atiq S/O Sagir Ahmedkhan Pathan, when he was in police custody pointed out one house situated at Tambu Chawki, Dariyapur. However, his examination-in-chief and cross-examination indicate that when they stopped at Tambu Chawki, he did not go to the house pointed out by accused No.78-Tausifkhan @ Atiq S/O Sagir Ahmedkhan Pathan and even in cross-examination he had admitted that the police also did not enter in the house pointed out by accused. He further admitted that when police called he did not have any conversation with regard to the arrest of accused or reason for his arrest or he had no any note that on the day when he signed, regarding the conversation with any person.

12.407. It is pleaded that the trial Court relied upon the alleged confessional statement of accused No.2- Imran Ibrahim Shaikh u/s 164 of Cr.P.C. The confessional statement of above said co-accused could not be believed for the reasons stated herein above.

12.408. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in relying upon the evidence of PW No.1105- Idrish Gulabsha Fakir for the reason that the said witness had clearly deposed in his evidence at page No.10, Para Nos.10, 13 and 14 to the extent that whenever police had visited the Dargah, he did not give name of any accused person, but he was informed by the police that the particular person/ alleged accused brought with them was stayed at Dargah and therefore, he came to know about the same. Moreover, this witness admitted in his cross-examination that he did not have any occasion to talk with any person /accused allegedly stayed at Dargah during period of January 2008. Therefore, obviously he had not declared the presence of any accused, by name and hence, he could not identify any person saying that he stayed at Dargah. It is pleaded that even no independent witness or three alleged chance witness i.e. PW Nos. 972, 981 and 1067 had not deposed about the presence of accused No.78 at the Halol camp or had identified the accused in any TIP.

12.409. It is pleaded that therefore in view of the aforesaid set of evidence showing that there is no other clenching evidence led by the prosecution to connect the accused with a case of serial bomb blast.

12.410. It is also pleaded that the oral as well as documentary evidence led by the prosecuting agency during trial does not prove the alleged role of the Accused No.78-Tausifkhan @ Atiq S/O Sagir Ahmedkhan Pathan in commission of the offences beyond all reasonable doubts.

12.411. It is also pleaded that Exh.9248 given by Accused No.68-Mohammad Habib @ Habib Falahi @ Mohammad Taiyab S/O Abuljais Shaikh during his further statement u/s 313 is not admissible in evidence for the reasons that this document is not a part of charge-sheet or not collected under any panchnama etc. and No one was examined to prove this documents and it is a settled law that mere exhibiting a document does not amounts to consider its genuineness and even otherwise, from where these documents are collected, is also not clear, no date, no signature or any source is not mentioned in this documents. by accused No.68-Mohammad Habib @ Habib Falahi @ Mohammad Taiyab S/O Abuljais Shaikh stating that by mistake those documents were produced by him, therefore, even no reliance could be placed.

12.412. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in not accepting and considering the arguments advanced by the defence lawyers with regard to all so-called premises hired either at Ahmedabad, Surat, Bharuch and Pune during investigation. It is pleaded that no any key of such premises was recovered from the possession of any of the accused or discover panchnama to point such key. That in absence of any key in the possession of any accused, it cannot be said that such premises allegedly hired by the accused, were in possession of any accused. It is pleaded that from the impugned Judgement and Order, it appears that the trial Court had believed one evidence at one stage and the same evidence is disbelieved at other stage in its Judgement. It is pleaded that moreover, upon evaluation of impugned Judgement and Order, it appears that the learned Trial Judge believed the prosecution case relying upon the oral evidence of concern witness and not asked them to submit the relevant documents pursuant to their claim. It is also pleaded that the learned Judge assigned the reason that it can be believed without documentary evidence as argued by the prosecuting agency. For example, all the premises allegedly hired by the accused persons, the concern owners of the premises were challenged to produce the documents regarding their ownership, which was considered by the learned Judge, as it was not necessary. It is also pleaded that at the same time the learned Judge expected the documentary evidence from the defence side and from the accused persons, who offered their explanation u/s 313 of Cr.P.C. For example, that DW No.1 Husenbhai Shaikh deposed about his house, though his ownership was not challenged during his cross-examination by the special prosecutors, yet the learned Judge expected the document regarding the ownership of his premises.

12.413. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred to apply the rule in case of Bipan Shantilal Panchal v. State of Maharashtra 2001 ALL M.R. (Cri.) 452 uniformly. A number of objections raised by the accused persons during the examination-in-chief of prosecution witnesses were left pending to be decided at the time of final hearing. As a consequence, the evidence sought to be led by the prosecution was brought on the record. However, objections raised by the prosecution during the course of the cross-examination of prosecution witnesses and the examination-in-chief of defence witnesses were immediately disposed of. It is pleaded that this prevented the accused from having an equal opportunity to bring the evidence on record.

12.414. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought to have appreciated that so many accused were repeatedly tortured by the police under the pretext of calling him for interrogation from the day after the blasts, i.e., 31.07.2008. From 31.07.2008 to 16.08.2008, they were kept in illegal custody. The details of torture and illegal custody come on record in evidence of PW Nos.881 and 1151. The retraction application and other applications sent from jail just after remand was over and also described in further statement under section 313 of Cr.P.C.

12.415. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in rejecting the evidence regarding the illegal detention of the accused persons by the Crime Branch, Ahmedabad, on the ground that it does not affect their guilt. The learned trial Judge ought to have appreciated that the illegal detention of the accused facilitated their torture, which resulted in the false confessions. It is pleaded that the defence has come with a specific case that the accused Nos.1 to 8 were detained almost 8 to 10 days before their official arrest, which is shown arrested on 16.08.2008. Therefore, their arrest is not supported by any documents like arrest panchnama, supply of grounds of their arrest. It is averred that the arrest of accused No.15-Mufti Abubasar @ Abdul Rashid @ Abdulla S/O Abubakar Shaikh from Azamgadh on 16.08.2008 and shown at Ahmedabad on the same day i.e. 16.08.2008 speaks in volumes, at the same time arrest of Accused No.16-Abbas S/O Umar Sameja, itself suggests that actually he was arrested on 08.08.2008 but official arrest was on 04.09.2008. It is also pleaded that several prosecution witnesses have deposed in their respective evidence that they were illegally arrested and when they assured after a long torturing were released by the investigating agency after recording their confessional statements as per their choice.

12.416. It is pleaded that the accused persons consistently deposed in their written complaints, their statements u/s 313 of the Cr.P.C., as well as on oath as Defence Witnesses that they were kept in illegal custody prior to their formal arrest.

12.417. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought to have appreciated that the torture is not only the violation of a substantive right, but it also vitiates the evidence of confessions and recoveries led by the Prosecution. In the light of the torturing suffered by the accused, the confessions and disclosures Panchnamas cannot be said to be voluntary and thus, must be discarded.

12.418. It is pleaded that the trial Court ought to have appreciated that the evidence of torturing, is corroborated by the remand applications filed by the Crime Branch itself. Successive remand applications relating to a number of the accused make references to the kind of interrogation they were being subjected to.

12.419. It is pleaded that the trial Court failed to consider that the prosecution had malafidely withheld some of the material evidence, in the form of photographs, videography, mobile call details etc. Some of the investigating officers and witnesses accepted that photographs were taken, mobile numbers are on record but such material were never produced on record. The prosecution also failed to give any explanation for such illegal withholding of material evidence. (see Sec. 114 (g) and (2015 (1) Crimes 105 (SC)

12.420. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in law by reading and relying upon certain documents without they having been proved as per law of evidence. That the handwriting of none of the Panchnamas nor that of alleged confessions were proved, as required u/s 67 of the Evidence Act and they were wrongly exhibited, read, relied and acted upon by the learned Judge, as if they were properly proved documents.

12.421. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating and evaluating the statements of all the witnesses which have been recorded u/s 164 of Criminal Procedure Code and further erred in reading them as substantive evidence with the help of Sections 80 and 114 (e) of the Evidence Act. The learned Judge ought to have considered that there was no independent corroboration to the evidence of all the above witnesses. It is pleaded that while considering the evidence of said witnesses, the learned Judge lost sight of the fact that one tainted evidence cannot corroborate another tainted evidence.

12.422. It is pleaded that the trial Court has completely lost sight of the provisions of Sections 8 and 27 of the Indian Evidence Act and has misinterpreted and misapplied them to the alleged discovery Panchnamas in the present case, which is quit contrary to the law established by the Hon'ble Apex Court and High Courts.

12.423. It is pleaded that the Panchnamas are corroborative evidence to the respective panch-witness and in absence of substantive oral evidence of the panch-witness, it cannot be said that there is substantive evidence merely because the panch-witness has confirmed the contents of the panchnama as true.

12.424. It is pleaded that coupled with whatsoever stated about confessional statement, the learned Judge also erred in considering the retractions of the appellants sent to the Hon'ble Court from jail. That the said retractions were from the earlier alleged confessions, which were taken without their free will and consent.

12.425. It is also pleaded that the conduct of the Trial Court holding appellants the members of the ban terrorist organization in absence of any evidence on the record, suggestive of the fact that the entire issue is decided on conjectures and surmises.

12.426. It is further pleaded that the trial Court has also ignored the well established principle of law that benefit of proving any facts in issue goes to accused but in the present case, the Trial Court with the reasons best known, though each and every events of the facts and issue not proved by the prosecution beyond reasonable doubt, has read all the evidence by twisting the same in favour of prosecution and therefore, the entire conclusion of the trial court is not only erroneous and contrary to the law, but unjust and arbitrary.

12.427. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in awarding the capital punishment and heavy fine to the appellants for the reason that the prosecution case was based on circumstantial evidence. It is well settled principle laid down by the Hon'ble Supreme Court that ordinarily no capital punishment should be awarded to the convict when prosecution case was based on circumstantial evidence, meaning thereby, if any error is committed to appreciate the evidence at later stage, it cannot be corrected. As per the prosecution case, in 2002, Godhra Train burning incident and thereafter, communal riots broken out in the State of Gujarat, and number of persons of minority community were killed and number of properties of minority community were destroyed and damaged, as a result thereof, the accused persons hatched the conspiracy in the year 2007-2008, these serial bomb blast incidents took place in the city of Ahmedabad and several bomb plantation incidents took place at Surat city. It indicates that it was not any conspiracy to wage the war against the nation or to commit the offence of sedition, but the incidents of serial bomb blast took place after communal disharmony resulted in 2002 Gujarat communal riots and, as it happened in past several serious bomb blast incidents took place because of communal disharmony like i) Samjota Train Blast, ii) Malegaon Bomb Blast, iii) Mecca Masjid Blast, iv) Ajmer Dargah Blast, which suggests that the incident of present case is not one or alone or unique or rarest of rare in nature.

12.428. It is lastly pleaded that the trial Court ought to have considered that all the accused persons are Indian Nationals, mislead by communal atmosphere and being young persons having a family and root in the society shall not be subjected to death penalty.

12.429. It is pleaded that the trial Court erred in appreciating the mitigating circumstances as argued by the defence on the question of sentence in its proper prospective and in light of reported judgement of the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India.

13. Court's observation on topics related to the case

(1) Investigation:

13.1. Investigation proceeds by keeping in mind all the possible circumstances pertaining to an offence and then keeping all the options open. Meaning, an open-end investigation and therefore, as and when evidences start appearing in investigation, a theory starts getting confirmation and other theories start getting insignificant. The Investigating Officer at that stage is adopting a discounting theory and he will discount those circumstances and those facts which are not leading to any conclusion near to the fact or circumstances being investigated. For example, to establish conspiracy, the mobile connectivity and mobile location may play an important role to detect the crime. But smart accused with a plan to commit offense will refrain from using mobile contact. When no such evidence is available, the Investigating Officer may not proceed in that line. Even if he investigates the mobile angle still the accused may be using different mobile phone which cannot be linked to the accused and there is no method for the Investigating Officer to force the accused to mention the correct mobile number which he has used during offence, but is not running in his name. It is at this point the Investigating Officer has to try another angle to establish conspiracy.

13.2. Once the Investigating Officer collects the evidence, the ball is in the court of prosecution which would examine the evidence and only produce that evidence which would be in the line of the crime.

13.3. The incidents of successive bomb blast is th single most convincing evidence that the incident is a terror attack with a sole objective to cause damage to life and property to terrorize common citizens. This under no circumstance be trivialized by comparing this investigation with the investigation of an offence of ordinary crimes. There cannot be a comparison of nature of evidence collected in investigation of a terror plot with nature of evidence in a Cyber crime. If one nature of evidence is a clinching evidence in Cyber crime need not necessarily be treated as a benchmark for a clinching evidence or an offense related to human body or an offence of terror activity.

13.4. The defence has broadly argued that there is always a lurking doubt about bonafide of investigation, where it is popularly argued by the advocate representing accused that the police in pursuit of fame or promotion, act in over enthusiasm to nail any person as an accused and then use the ingredients of Section 24 of Indian Evidence Act, threat, inducement and promise to create evidence to support their story. Therefore, the investigation will always be taken with pinch of salt.

13.5. The Court is of the opinion that there are types of offences where, for offences of murders, it can be a targeted killing, at a spur of the moment or can also be an act of private defence, but mass murders fall in a complete different category and therefore, the investigation tactics do vary in such offences. Therefore, the Court cannot accept the stock argument of the defence that the accused are victimized and wrongly implicated in the offence.

13.6. The investigation in this case has been rather exhaustive and certainly has not proceeded as an undercover operation completely insulated from judicial and public glare. The arguments advanced by defence seems to suggest that the police was having a complete free hand and there was no judicial watch.

13.7. On the contrary, the Court finds that all the procedures and guidelines led from time to time to safeguard the rights of an accused have been complied. The Court is particularly aware the investigation was not only being conducted in due course here but also, all the steps required to be followed and reported to Magisterial Court, committal Court and trial Court are followed and the same was also under public glare.

13.8. Over and above, the record and the proceedings do indicate that from day one, not one or two but, battery of lawyers were present on behalf of the accused at each and every stage. Not only that, the Courts have also inquired for the legal representatives for each accused and have also offered legal aid and more often than not, the accused have refused legal aid and have been represented by private advocates. Even before this Court, it is a fact that each and every accused is represented and there is a battery of senior advocates, experienced advocates representing their cases. After all this to argue that, the procedure is not followed and that the confessions are an outcome of threat, promise and inducement is only an attempt to set up what is popularly called as “Narrative” and to support such a narrative, a hostile witness is cross-examined by defence, to elicit the story which will run in the line of defense which of course, is to be strategically utilized by the defence at an appropriate stage.

13.9. What is deposed by the hostile witness now could have been easily brought on the record at the relevant time when the accused were being actively represented by lawyers but, at that time, there does not appear to be any complaint of threats, third degree, etc. and even if such complaints are made, the same have been legally attended to and brought to a conclusion. From the record also, it does not get established that the investigation was shoddy or shrouded with instances which would lead this Court to believe that the evidence on record is an outcome of illegal investigation.

13.10. Investigation necessarily follows a crime. It also depends upon the nature of crime. Obviously, the Basic Principles of Investigations have been guided by the procedure code and various Manuals or Acts, which are enacted. However, the steps required to be taken in investigation will vary with the nature of offence. Steps taken in an investigation by Investigator for offences related to Body will always be different from the steps required to be taken by Investigating Officer in offences related to property. Hence, the steps required to be taken by the Investigating Officer and the evidence that appears on records in a case of a conspiracy of a Terrorist Act cannot be similar to the offence of murder arising out of a family feud or land dispute.

13.11. The Investigation in a Terror attack case will be a broad base with the element of conspiracy cutting across various sections of Society and also across Cities, Districts, States and even Countries. Therefore, investigation of an offence of the present magnitude can never be made in compartmentalized manner or in silos.

13.12. Particularly when Serial Blasts occur in different Cities in quick succession and outward appearance of the incidents are similar in these different Cities even for a layman, it is easy to understand the pattern that is left behind due to such incidents. The commonality of the Modus, the target group being Hindu Community and common motivation driving behind such incident will therefore be natural factors which will decide the length and breadth of the Investigation.

13.13. In the opinion of the Court, with these undeniable incidents of Serial Blasts across the Country in important Cities is nothing but an outcome of a larger conspiracy driven by a Common intention. In this situation, the Investigation is obliged to interact across their jurisdiction with the best effort to zero down of these Terrorists.

13.14. The Court may therefore, briefly refer to the prevailing situation of 2007-2008 globally when there was a meltdown in Terrorist Activities across the World post 09/11, Twin Tower Attack where “Islamic Terror attacks” had gained its foothold and more so, in India. This information is already in public domain.

13.15. In the context of the present Serial Blast which the Court believes to be a part of conspiracy which is manifest by Serial Blasts in Delhi, Mumbai, Pune, Jaipur, Ahmedabad, Bengaluru and that too in a sequence is a conclusive circumstance of the Common design.

13.16. In this connection, only for the purpose of observing the nature of investigation of the Delhi blasts, the Division Bench of Delhi High Court in Criminal Appeal No.343 of 2022, Cr.M.A. No.20364 of 2022 and 722 of 2023, though in a bail application of an accused, has made observation which will pertain to this case as well. While dealing with factual matrix, in para 3 and 4, Delhi High Court observed as under:

"3. The factual matrix of the present case, as has been narrated in the present appeal, is that on 13.09.2008, at about 06:27 pm, a terrorist group "Indian Mujahideen" sent an e-mail from email ID al_arbi_delhi@yahoo.com to various electronic/print media of Pakistan, India and other countries including Darul Uloom Deoband, Central Waqf Council, Al Jamia Tussalafiah (Markazi Darul-Uloom Varanasi) with the heading „MESSAGE OF DEATH" and claiming intense, accurate and successive bomb attacks exactly 5 minutes from the said mail. 4. The said email also had slide containing pictures of their previous blasts in India and a PDF file claiming responsibility of present and previous serial blasts in Rajasthan and Gujarat and challenged the Indian Government that there is no shortage of explosives or lack of manpower with them and they are extremely capable to shed blood anywhere anytime in India and threatened to do whatever Indian Government could do to stop the blasts."

13.17. Upon investigation on this point, the Delhi High Court in Para 30 has observed about the contents of the chargesheet in that case which reads as under:

"30. In the present case, charge sheet was filed before the learned Trial Court on 20.10.2010 and charge was framed on 05.02.2011 against all the accused persons involved in serial blast cases. The learned Trial Court while passing order on framing of Charge dated 05.02.201 (sic) has noted that during investigation of serial blasts in Gujarat, Delhi, Mumbai and Ahmadabad, on the basis of specific leads, appellant-Mubin Kadar Shaikh was arrested from Pune, Maharashtra on 28.09.2008. The text of the alleged threatening email was handed over to the appellant herein and his co-accused Mansoor Agha Khan Peerboy, in a pen drive at Pune and they both made grammatical corrections in the said e-mail draft. Thereafter, on the same day, appellant with co-accused Mansoor Agha Khan Peerboy and Riaz Batkal went to Mumbai in Maruti Esteem Car driven by Mohd. Akbar Ismile Choudhary and at about 06:00 PM they found unsecured wifi connection. Mansoor Agha Khan Peerboy connected the wireless laptop and created the e-mail ID ID al_arbi_delhi@yahoo.com and attached the PDF file and slide the initial and gave the subject "Message of Death". At about 06:25 PM the unsecured wifi connection was hacked and the e-mail was sent to various electronic and print media through unsecured wifi connection of M/S Kamran Power Control Private Limited, Mumbai."

13.18. The aforesaid mention is made only to indicate the commonality and the complexities involved in the investigation of this nature. Of course, Court is conscious that the trial of the Delhi blasts is still pending.

13.19. From the investigation also it is coming out that, SIMI (the Safdar Nagori faction) had started radicalizing its cadre and organized training camps in various parts of the country. SIMI was looking for outside support for violent action. In March 2008, the central government took strong action against SIMI and many members of the Safdar Nagori faction, including Nagori were arrested. SIMI had organized many training camps, imparting training in the handling of explosive devices.

13.20. The logistical support in Gujarat was provided by SIMI. Prior to the Gujarat attack, the modus operandi of the IM group was to extensively recce the targeted places during daytime and return to base by night. They prepared bombs at the base and then travelled to the targeted place on the scheduled day to plant the bombs.

13.21. It has also appeared in the investigation that Pune and Azamgarh modules worked in coordination and stayed in accommodations provided by local SIMI activists. The Police got information on these accommodations because of involvement of the SIMI activists. However, two important SIMI leaders (Kayamuddin and Subhan), who had actually liaised with IM, could not be caught immediately.

13.22. The Pune module involved, Afzal Usmani, Afzal was asked to arrange four vehicles for Gujarat. Afzal stole those vehicles from Navi Mumbai and delivered them at the accommodations in Gujarat. After the 2008 Gujarat blasts, the Mumbai Police started picking up car thieves and interrogating them. In the process, Afzal appears to be detained at Mumbai. Four cars were arranged, two each for Ahmedabad and Surat. The cars used in Ahmedabad were destroyed as a result of the explosion of bombs planted in them, but the cars used in Surat were found intact. The investigation of the intact cars found in Surat led to the discovery that these vehicles were stolen from Navi Mumbai. The Police, on the other hand, was able to apprehend the SIMI group, which had provided local support to IM.

(2) CDR and Electronic Evidence:-

13.23. Learned advocate Dr.Yug Mohit Chaudhary has offered lot of criticism to investigation by comparing it with investigation of 26.11.2008 terror attack, where according to him, the entire conversation between the terrorist and their handlers were put on record. This is the nature of clinching evidence or the CCTV footage of the accused in action. The investigation here has not been able to offer such evidence and therefore, the entire evidence is not reliable in such serious matter.

13.24. Firstly, it will not be proper to compare the two terror attacks, due to the very nature of attacks which is established as a prime circumstance. One is, cross border terror attack which was upfront where the terrorist were “Fidayen”, who would take pride for their acts of terror and would hog publicity to claim whatever benefits they were promised and the attack was in a place, where CCTV existed, being a hotel or a Railway Station. Whereas, the present planting was in an area which is open to public and was not within CCTV coverage in the year 2008. Therefore, considering the nature of evidence in one terror attack and to set it as a benchmark, is like playing in the hands of future terrorists who would always find a way to circumvent such benchmark. In any case, each terror attack has its own planning and methodology, and certainly, the nature of evidence does and should, vary as it evolves.

13.25. Moreover, with regard to mobile conversation in 26.11.2008 terror attack case, the conversation which finds place in the Apex Court judgment is between the terrorist and his handler which was recorded in an ongoing attack.

13.26. Whereas, the plan of present attack was of a nature which was to attract minimum attention and carried out camouflaging it as a routine day to day activity like parking a cycle with a tiffin like cloth bag tied around the handle. By the very nature of the incident, the planning behind it is very clear i.e., to mix in the crowd as a part of it, to plant a bomb just by parking a cycle or car laden with explosives, to get sufficient time to walk away from the periphery, to make it appear as a routine day to day activity of the very area where the bombs were planted.

13.27. It is the submission of the defence that no meaningful investigation has been conducted with respect to the CDR and that no electronic evidence appears on record, so as to connect the accused with the offence. However, in the opinion of the Court, upon perusing the record, it appears that the investigating agency has actually undertaken an effort to conduct systematic investigation into the mobile numbers which has been used by the accused persons during the period of conspiracy by obtaining subscriber details, customer application forms, identity proof, call detail record from the service providers, examining the shopkeepers and the concerned persons and also subjecting the disputed documents to forensic examination. It appears that the accused persons had obtained several mobile connections in fake names by using forged documents to conceal their identity and to make their tracing more difficult. Upon analyzing the aforesaid evidence, it appears that there was an organized and anonymous communication network which had been used by the accused persons during the period before the said blasts occurred in Ahmedabad and also the recovery of unexploded bombs from Surat. The following evidence described hereinbelow would show the investigation that has been undertaken by the agency in respect to the CDR and electronic evidence.

13.28. It appears that during the course of investigation, A-37 had pointed out the places from where he purchased five sim cards namely (1) Dharti Belt House, (2) Evergreen Belt House and (3) OK Selection Shop.

13.29. It appears from the evidence on record that on 02.09.2008, A-14 had pointed out house of Sherpura, as per panchnama Exh.6540 mobile number 9426870271 was found written on the compound wall of the house. As per panchnama and the evidence of panch witness at Exh.6539, the Investigating Officer called on the said number and inquired about the house, whereupon it was known that the person was Gulambhai. Thereafter, Gulambhai came to the house. Gulambhai (PW-1138/Exh.8165) has deposed that his house had been rented by Rafik Shaikh. During cross-examination, Gulambhai in para 8 admitted that he had spoken on different dates with the persons to whom he had rented his house. His mobile number i.e. 9426870271, has also came on record during the cross-examination. This witness has further deposed that on 12.09.2008 Mr. Chavda had interrogated him and that he gave him all his mobile numbers. It has also come on record that he had gone to the police to get back his mobile phone and that although the police had called for the call details of his mobile, the same was not given to him. Therefore, during the course of investigation, the mobile number of Gulambhai, as also the mobile number of Rafik Shaikh, who rented Gulambhai's house came to the knowledge of investigating agency.

13.30. During investigation, the Investigating Officer asked for the call details and ID proof of mobile phone numbers 9712381157 and 9712398204 by letter dated 14.10.2008 addressed to Vodafone Essar Gujarat Limited. In response, Vodafone Essar Limited sent the detail vide letter Exh.7194 which was received on 22.10.2008. On the same day, under panchnama Exh.3200, documents such as prepaid application form of the aforesaid mobile numbers alongwith xerox copy of the ID proof which were with application form were seized. The said panchnama was proved through PW-593/Exh.3196.

The prosecution examined PW-1056/Exh.7193-Dhiren Lariya, an employee of Vodafone company through whom Exh.7194, the CDRs of two different mobile numbers at mark A and B and the application forms at Exh.3198 and Exh.3199 were duly proved.

13.34. Similarly, the Investigating Officer called for the details of mobile number 9714552899 by letter Exh.7206 dated 06.10.2008 addressed to Legal Manager, Idea Limited. During investigation, when details of the mobile number were received, such as customer application form and ID proof (driving licence), they were seized under panchnama Exh.6347. through PW-597/Exh. 3214. The enrollment form of mobile number 9724764195 alongwith copy of driving license (Exh.3216) is in the name of Bansal Ashokbhai Hasmukhrai. The said form contains particulars and signature of the applicant. Similarly, the enrollment form of mobile number 9724764196 alongwith copy of driving license at Exh.3217 is in the name of Dave Pravinbhai Ashokbhai. The said form contains particulars and signature of the applicant. Exh.8646 is the letter of Airtel alongwith CDR of mobile number 9724764195 (paper book pages 773685 to 773687). Exh.8646 is letter of Airtel with call data record of mobile number 9724764196 (paper book pg.773669 to 773683). Also, Exh.8646 has been produced in the deposition of PW 1163/Exh.8638 Mayur Chavda (Investigating Officer) at para-3(19) page 25. PW-1060/Exh. 7205 Shyam Sundar Prajapati gave evidence with regard to the aforesaid two mobile numbers.

13.36. The Court has also perused the evidence of PW-803/Exh.5324 Dinesh Chandubhai Chaudhary, who was carrying on a business in the name of 'OK Selection' and has deposed that he was selling mobile, mobile accessories and sim cards of different companies. This witness has given evidence regarding application form of mobile number 9712381157, which is in the name of Ashok Navinbhai Gujarati and has also identified the stamp of his shop, his signature and the signature of the customer made in his presence on the application form and the copy of driving licence which is at Exh.3199. Likewise, PW-799/Exh.5312 Desaram Vardhaji, shopkeeper of Dharti Belt House situated at Isanpur cross road in Gurukrupa Shopping Centre, who used to sell sim cards of various mobile companies such as Idea, Vodafone, Airtel etc has deposed that when any customer came for procuring sim card, he took copy of ID proof such as election card and driving licence. This witness has given evidence with regard to prepaid card of Vodafone company bearing sim number 9712398204. The witness has identified his handwriting on the form and also the photo and signature of the customer-Navinchandra on the said form which is at Exh.3198.

13.37. The Court has also perused the evidence of PW-798/Exh.5310 Navin Chandra Hirabhai Desai, who was serving in the Health Department of Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation and has deposed that during the investigation the police showed him one Vodafone Company sim card application form. This witness has also produced a copy of his driving licence during deposition and has denied that Exh.3198 belonged to him. He deposed that although the name in the form is his own, his father's name, address, photograph and signature were all incorrect and that he had never filled up or signed the application form. This witness has also deposed that at that time corporation has allotted him a phone and that he had no need to take the sim card. The driving licence copy of this witness is exhibited at Exh.5311 which mentioned his house number. Upon perusing Exh.5311 and the deposition of witness, it appears that this witness had not filled up or signed the application form nor purchased the sim card through prepaid application form (Exh.3198). At this stage, it is pertinent to note that Exh.9314 is the Habeas Corpus Petition, which was dismissed containing details of A-24 and upon perusing the same, it appears that A-24 was working at the relevant time in the Ahmedabad Municipal Corporation.

13.38. The Court has examined the deposition of PW-874/Exh.6093 Keyuri Choksi, who has deposed that in the year 2007, her purse fell down near Panjara pole, which contained her driving licence, ATM card and money and that she had informed Ellisbridge Police Station regarding the same, upon which Janva Jog Entry was entered in the register of Police station.

The statement of witness was recorded during investigation by Crime Branch and at that time witness was shown one driving licence in which her licence number was written. This witness produced copy of her duplicate driving licence as well as Janva Jog Entry during investigation. The copy of her driving licence which was produced by her in Crime Branch is at Exh.6092/1/2. Moreover, witness has produced her driving licence copy by showing original, which is produced at Exh.6094 and also a new driving licence copy at Exh.6095. Witness was shown copy of her Janva Jog Entry report and copy of her mobile bill during her deposition. Upon looking at the evidence of this witness alongwith the documents, it appears that the driving licence number appearing in Exh.3198 had been misused for preparing false documents.

13.39. The Court has perused the evidence of PW-797/Exh.5308 Hitesh Chandravadan Bhatt, who has deposed that the address mentioned in Exh.3198 was false and did not correspond with his own residence or the residence of Navinchandra Desai. This witness has also deposed that the name and address written in document are false. Upon looking at the evidence of aforesaid three witnesses, it clearly appears that forged documents had been prepared which were used for purchase of sim cards in fake names during conspiracy.

13.40. Moreover, disputed documents such as customer application form and the copy of driving licence which was attached with it, namely Exhs.3198, 3199, 5433, 3216 and 3217 alongwith specimen writings and signatures of accused No.37-Kayamuddin Kapadiya obtained under panchnma Exh.8651 were forwarded to the Hand Writing Expert under Exh.6912. PW-990/Exh.8686, handwriting expert Shri K P. Vyas has given his opinion vide Exh.6913 that the disputed writings and signatures marked D1, D3/1 to D3/3, D4, D5/1 to D5/3, D6 to D10 had been written by the said person who wrote the specimen writings and signatures of A-37 (marked S1 to S30 and N1). Though no opinion was expressed regarding signature marked D2, the expert opinion establishes that A-37 had made the forged documents which were used for obtaining the aforesaid sim cards.

13.41. The evidence further establishes that these fraudulently obtaining sim cards were used for communication amongst co-conspirators as well Gulam Hussein, the owner of Sherpura house where A-45 had stayed in the fake name of Rafik and which was also occupied by A-43 and A-44. The CDRs revealed the communication amongst these mobile numbers during July 2008 which is proximate to the date of incident and their locations also correspond with the places having nexus to the conspiracy such as Gita Mandir, Dr. House at Surat, Narol-Sarkhej, Relief Road and different places of Ahmedabad, Vadodara and Bharuch. The details of the fraudulently purchased sim cards which were used for the purpose of conversing are described herein under:

1) 9712381157 which for the purpose of understanding is given mark A.
2) 9712398204 which for the purpose of understanding is given mark B.
3) 9714552899 which for the purpose of understanding is given mark C.
4) 9724764195 which for the purpose of understanding is given mark D.
5) 9724764196 which for the purpose of understanding is given mark E.

13.42. From the evidence as referred hereinabove and also from the evidence of witness Gulambhai, the connectivity of these numbers is explained herein under:

1) Mark A mobile contacted Gulambhai's mobile number 9426870271.
2) Mark A phone to mark D phone.
3) Mark B phone to Mark C phone.
4) Mark B phone to Mark E phone.

5) Mark C phone to Mark B phone.

6) Mark C phone to Mark E phone.

13.43. Thus, the electronic evidence discussed hereinabove, clearly shows the existence not merely of telephonic communication, but also shows the connection between the conspirators through mobile connections which were procured by using forged documents. Further, based on evidence of witness Gulambhai, he had talked with mobile (mark A) and all the users of five mobiles (mark A, B, C, D, E) had also contacted each other.

13.44. The investigation pertaining to electronic evidence appears to have been carried out by different agencies who were also investigating into the serial blasts in their respective jurisdiction. The Investigating Officer of the Delhi Blasts has also carried out the investigation which were conducted post the Gujarat Blast, wherein the mobile numbers which were used by the accused members of the Indian Mujahideen were identified, and their Call Data Records came to be analyzed. The said mobile numbers had been obtained through prepaid connection in fake names which came to be investigated in order to connect the various links of the conspiracy.

(3) On corroboration:-

13.45. Evidence is the foundation of any trial, civil or criminal. The evidences are categorized in many ways i.e., direct evidence, circumstantial evidence, documentary and oral evidence, electronic and digital evidence. One such category is corroborative evidence. What does “corroboration” mean, and in the context of an evidence in trial, how it is required to be applied? The dictionary meaning of the word “corroborate” is to strengthen, to make more certain, to add weight to credibility, and "corroboration" is an act of corroborating, strengthening or confirming. Therefore, corroborative evidence is the evidence which concurs with other evidence. In short, a form of evidence which renders other evidence more probable. (P.Ramanatha Aiyar, Concise Law Dictionary, 1997).

13.46. The method of proof for a corroborative evidence is same as any other evidence. Such evidence has to be established and exhibited in the same manner like an oral evidence of a particular witness or a document exhibited. However, it is not necessary that each of the fact mentioned in this type of evidence also has to undergo a mini trial to be established as a "fact beyond reasonable doubt". Time and again, arguments for defence are advanced to mean that the trial Court has treated evidence corroborative in nature, itself as a substantive evidence of the crime and therefore, the corroborative circumstance contained in such evidence is also required to be established by yet other corroborative piece of evidence. Meaning thereby that each "circumstance" of a corroborative evidence has to withstand a "mini trial" before the corroborative circumstance can be used as a "corroborative evidence". This cannot be the purpose of a trial to seek corroboration within corroboration.

13.47. Corroboration of material particular and to what extent corroboration is required is succinctly explained by the Apex Court in the case of State (NCT of Delhi) v/s. Navjot Sandhu alias Afsan Guru (supra) [Parliament Attack Case], wherein by referring to two important judgments in the case of Parmanand Pegu v/s. State of Assam and Subramanya Gounden, has held in Para-37 and 38 vis-à-vis confession, retracted confession and Section 30 of the Indian Evidence Act and therefore, the Court may reproduce the aforesaid paras which would lay a guideline on the issue and would read as under:

“37. In Parmanand Pegu V/s. State of Assam this Court while adverting to the expression "corroboration of material particulars" used in Pyare Lal Bhargava's case clarified the position thus:

"By the use of the expression 'corroboration of material particulars', the Court has not laid down any proposition contrary to what has been clarified in Subramania Goundan case as regards the extent of corroboration required. The above expression does not imply that there should be meticulous examination of the entire material particulars. It is enough that there is broad corroboration in conformity with the general trend of the confession, as pointed out in Subramania Goundan case."

The analysis of the legal position in paragraphs 18 & 19 is also worth noting:

"18. Having thus reached a finding as to the voluntary nature of a confession, the truth of the confession should then be tested by the court. The fact that the confession has been made voluntarily, free from threat and inducement, can be regarded as presumptive evidence of its truth. Still, there may be circumstances to indicate that the confession cannot be true wholly or partly in which case it loses much of its evidentiary value.

19. In order to be assured of the truth of confession, this Court, in a series of decisions, has evolved a rule of prudence that the court should look to corroboration from other evidence. However, there need not be corroboration in respect of each and every material particular. Broadly, there should be corroboration so that the confession taken as a whole fits into the facts proved by other evidence. In substance, the court should have assurance from all angles that the retracted confession was, in fact, voluntary and it must have been true."

38. The use of retracted confession against the co-accused however stands on a different footing from the use of such confession against the maker. To come to the grips of the law on the subject, we do no more than quoting the apt observations of Vivian Bose, J, speaking for a three-Judge Bench, in Kashmira Singh V/s. State of Madhya Pradesh. Before clarifying the law, the learned Judge noted with approval the observations of Sir Lawrence Jenkins that a confession can only be used to "lend assurance to other evidence against a co-accused." The legal position was then stated thus:

"Translating these observations into concrete terms they come to this. The proper way to approach a case of this kind is, first to marshal the evidence against the accused excluding the confession altogether from consideration and see whether, if it is believed, a conviction could safely be based on it. If it is capable of belief independently of the confession, then of course it is not necessary to call the confession in aid. But cases may arise where the Judge is not 'prepared set on the other evidence as it stands even though, if believed, it would be sufficient to sustain a conviction. In such an event the Judge may call in aid the confession and use it to lend assurance to the other evidence and thus fortify himself in believing what without the aid of the confession he would not be prepared to accept."

39. The crucial expression used in Sec. 30 is "the Court may take into consideration such confession". These words' imply that the confession of a co-accused cannot be elevated to the status of substantive evidence which can form the basis of conviction of the co-accused. The import of this expression was succinctly explained by the Privy Council in Bhuboni Sahu V/s. King in the following words:

"The Court may take the confession into consideration and thereby, no doubt, makes its evidence on which the Court may act; but the section does not say that the confession is to amount to proof. Clearly there must be other evidence. The confession is only one element in the consideration of all the facts proved in the case; it can be put into the scale and weighed with the other evidence". (emphasis supplied)

40. After referring to these decisions, a Constitution Bench of this Court in Haricharan Kurmi V/s. State of Bihar further clarified the legal position thus:

".....In dealing with a case against an accused person, the Court cannot start with the confession of co-accused person; it must begin with other evidence adduced by the prosecution and after it has formed its opinion with regard to the quality and effect of the said evidence, then it is permissible to turn to the confession in order to receive assurance to the confession of guilt which the judicial mind is about to reach on the said other evidence." (emphasis supplied)

(4) Connection of SIMI and Indian Mujahideen and the accused:

13.48. The prominent anti-national activities of SIMI were also noticed by the Second Administrative Reforms Commission in its Eighth Report titled “Combatting Terrorism: Protecting by Righteousness”, and a special reference thereto is made under the heading of “Terrorism based on Religious Fundamentalism”. The Court may usefully quote the relevant portion of the Commission report as under:

“3.5 Terrorism Based on Religious Fundamentalism

3.5.1 There have been several terrorist incidents in India which were motivated by religious fundamentalism. Some of these activities overlap with political ambitions - like separatist elements in Jammu & Kashmir. Some of these incidents have been aided and abetted by external forces inimical to India. The ISI launched an initiative in 1991, even before the Babri Masjid demolition to forge an alliance between Khalistani terrorism that prevailed in Punjab and the terrorist groups in Jammu & Kashmir. However, the initiative did not yield results because the key figures were arrested soon after their arrival in India. Thereafter, in January, 1994, Mohammed Masood Azhar Alvi arrived in India with the task of working out the reconciliation of the cadre of Harkat Mujahiddin and Harkat-ul Jehad Islami whose parent organizations had merged to form the Harkat-ul-Ansar. His organisation's main objective was to liberate Kashmir from Indian rule and to establish Islamic rule in Kashmir. He also interacted extensively with the leading figures of the Deoband Ulema.

3.5.2 The next initiative in Islamist terrorism by the Pakistani Intelligence was the setting up of the Jammu & Kashmir Islamic Front. Its task was to work together with the mafia figures who had executed the Mumbai serial bombing of 1993. JKIF was responsible for the Lajpat Nagar blasts in New Delhi in 1996. However, the case was quickly detected and the accused arrested.

3.5.3 In 2001, several Islamic terrorist attacks took place in New Delhi, the most important being the attack on the Parliament House in December 2001. The attack on Akshardham temple and the killing of Haren Pandya, the former Home Minister of Gujarat State, were the major operations of Islamist terrorists in 2002 and 2003. In July 2005, there was an attack at Ayodhya which the Security Forces succeeded in repulsing. This was followed by the Sarojini Nagar market blast in November, at New Delhi. The heinous serial bomb blasts in Mumbai took place in July 2006. A suicide attack (in which only the Bangladeshi suicide killer died) near the Office of the Commissioner of Police, Hyderabad; an attack on the Indian Institute of Science in Bangalore in which an eminent scientist was killed and the Aurangabad arms seizure case were the other major terrorist incidents of 2006. The latest in the spate of such terrorist attacks has been the serial bomb blasts in Jaipur on 13th May, 2008 in which a number of innocent lives were lost.

3.5.4 It is important to take a look at the role played by the Students' Islamic Movement of India (SIMI) in the promotion of Islamist extremism in India. Funded generously by various Islamist charities, but particularly the World Assembly of Muslim Youth with its headquarters in Riyadh, SIMI spread its activities to various States in India. SIMI cadres were linked to the abduction of five foreign nationals who were rescued from Saharanpur in 1994. (One of the accused in this case was the British national Syed Mohammed Omar Sheikh, who was later released in exchange for the IC-814 hostages. He is currently in prison in Pakistan for his role in the killing of the American journalist, Daniel Pearl). SIMI's then President CAM Basheer, hailing from Kerala, was the first Indian Muslim known to have gone to Pakistan for arms training. SIMI was banned by the Government of India under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967, in September, 2001."

13.49. It is a matter of public knowledge that after the first ban on 27th September, 2001 on SIMI, under the provisions of TADA, MCOCA and UAPA, which was for a period of two years, was extended firstly till 27th

September, 2005 and thereafter on 8th February, 2006. For the third time it was banned for a further period of two years whereas, the special tribunal of the Delhi High Court lifted the ban but, the ban was reinstated by the Supreme Court of India on 6th August, 2008.

13.50. For being a member of SIMI, a banned organization, there obviously cannot be any documentary evidence. Though not so seriously, it was argued that the prosecution has not placed any evidence that the accused were members of banned Organization like SIMI and Indian Mujahideen. 'Terrorist Act' is defined under Section 2(k) of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967 and 'Terrorist Organization' is defined under Section 2(m) of the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act, 1967. The First Schedule specifies the organization. The proof of being a member of such organization cannot be searched in some kind of application form or maintenance of Register, as if it is some legally recognized organization.

13.51. Therefore, the requirement is the perception of the individual himself and other witnesses considering him to be part of the activities being undertaken by a group of persons sharing common object. In the present case, there is material in the form of deposition of witnesses, confessional statements recorded under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., documentary evidence, SIMI literature, SDS reports and other evidence which shows the association of various accused with SIMI and its activities.

13.52. PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi in his statement under Sectuion 164 of Cr.P.C. at Exh.6688 has stated with specific reference to I.M. that Rajik informed him that the idea to cause blasts in Ahmedabad was of Kayamuddin and Taukir, and they had made contact with Indian Mujahideen and both were in contact and Rajik was in their contact.

Rajik mentioned that to avenge 2002, bomb blats were planned and all necessary things will be provided by Indian Mujahideen. Rajik also narrated that Taukir and Kayamuddin came to stay in Ahmedabad and all were in their touch. He also mentioned to prosecution witness about the recce of certain areas to plant bomb was performed. For this Afridi, Mujib and Aiyaz were already in his touch and Taukir was in touch of Indian Mujahideen and all the materials for making bomb will be provided by Indian Mujahideen and for deficit "things' can be procured locally.

13.53. Accused No.2 Imran Ibrahim Shaikh, in his confessional statement recorded under Section 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure (Exh.8619), stated that he attended the Vagamon and Halol training camps organized by SIMI members and further stated that he was a member/associate of SIMI. The confessional statement of accused No.76 Manzar Imam (Exh.9021) refers to the ban imposed upon SIMI, his meeting with accused No.12 Safdar Nagori, instructions given by Safdar Nagori to participants and the Vagamon camp being organized by Safdar Nagori and other SIMI functionaries.

13.54. PW No.1115 Mohd. Umar Mansuri (Exh.8002) stated that accused No.3 Iqbal was involved in SIMI activities along with accused No.37 Kayamuddin Kapadia. PW No.1097 Mehtab Shaikh (Exh.7767) stated that a SIMI meeting was held at Limbayat, Surat, and named accused No.4 Shamsuddin, accused No.8 Yunus Mansuri, accused No.6 Mohammad Arif Kagzi and accused No.12 Safdar Nagori as being present in the said meeting.

13.55. The previous statement of Talib Abdul Gafar, put to him during cross-examination, indicates that he was a SIMI worker, that accused No.4 Shamsuddin attended SIMI meetings, that accused No.12 Safdar Nagori was the General Secretary of SIMI and that accused No.4 Shamsuddin was arrested in a SIMI gathering at Bharuch in the year 2001.

13.56. The SIMI literature and documentary material at Exh.9248 shows accused No.4 Shamsuddin Shaikh and accused No.6 Mohammad Arif Kagzi as SIMI activists. The said material further shows accused No.6 Mohammad Arif Kagzi as President of SIMI Gujarat Zone, contains the names of several other accused associated with SIMI, contains material relied upon in relation to the ban imposed on SIMI and has been relied upon by the Court as material connecting various accused with SIMI activities.

13.57. Approver Ayaz Shaikh deposed that he visited the SIMI office at Shahpur, which was occupied by accused No.6 Mohammad Arif Kagzi, and through Kagzi learnt about SIMI, its activities and objectives. According to him, SIMI members used to gather and discuss jihad and establishment of an Islamic regime. He further stated that prior to the ban, SIMI activities were conducted openly and that after the ban such activities continued secretly through meetings held at houses, shops and factories. He referred to a meeting held in the year 2008 at the house of accused No.4 Shamsuddin which was attended by SIMI activists from Gujarat and outside Gujarat, where accused No.6 Mohammad Arif Kagzi addressed the gathering and videos relating to Taliban, Al-Qaeda, Hamas, suicide bombing, bomb-making and similar activities were shown. He further stated that after the arrests of SIMI activists in Indore, it was decided that members should avoid openly meeting each other.

13.58. Also, accused No.35 Rafiuddin, in his confessional statement (Exh.8631), referred to the attendance of certain accused at the Halol Training Camp, which the prosecution treats as a SIMI linked camp. Though the trial Court has discarded the confessional statement as the same being on oath, this Court has only referred to it as an additional factor, it being exhibited and the content being in the line of the other independent evidence.

13.59. The Court has also referred to SDS reports indicating association with SIMI in respect of accused No.9, accused No.11 Sibli and accused No.12 Safdar Nagori. The perusal of Exh.5901 which is the opinion of an expert who performed the SDS test by putting suggestive questions and recording their reactions. In this document, six accused Hafiz @Adnan Tajuddin Qureshi, Safdar Nagori, Kamruddin Nagori, Aamil Parwez Saifuddin Kagzi, Sibli Abdul Kareem and Jahid Sheikh, their SDS report confirms their strong association with SIMI. Though, the SDS report is an opinion of an expert but still, this evidence goes on to corroborate the evidence of witnesses about the involvement of SIMI and IM in this incident.

13.60. In the opinion of the Court, the present crime appears to be an outcome of coordinated efforts of the accused who were driven by the projected objectives of SIMI and I.M.

14. Issues

14.1. Conspiracy

14.1.1. On 30-03-2026, learned Advocate Mr. Yug Chaudhry commenced his arguments on conspiracy. All the defence counsel have also made similar submissions and have also adopted the arguments inter-se. All the convicts have also been convicted for Section 120B and other offences with the aid of 120B. He submits that Section 120B is an offence in itself and even if the offence is actually not committed, but when the accused together have agreed to commit offence, at the point of agreement, offence is said to be committed. So, in case the accused have agreed to cause serial blast and blast does not take place, still they can invite a sentence.

14.1.2. It is submitted that as the consequence of convicting with aid of Section 120B is very serious and the requirement to prove the same is not so stringent individually no overt act is required. Therefore, the responsibility of this Court increases manifold.

14.1.3. It is submitted that there is a tendency to use Section 120B as a 'drag net' i.e. to throw the net as wide as possible and drag in as many accused as possible into the offence by using Section 120B.

14.1.4. Learned Advocate, while referring to Section 120A, submitted that ingredients to attract conspiracy is (1) agreement and (2) an illegal act. For illegal act, the object has to be very clear known to all and shared by all.

14.1.5. Even if it is not necessary for each conspirator to know all the co-conspirators or each step of preparation, still the object must be clear. It cannot be vague, broad, omnibus and remote by timing. It is further submitted that in present case, the motive may not be important, but object is and it is necessary for prosecution to establish common object. According to learned Advocate, the object required to be established is causing of serial bomb blast. It is submitted that according to learned Advocate, knowledge, object and participation in the meeting have to be proved independently and cannot be informed and it cannot be inferred just by proving membership as a Terror group.

14.1.6. It is also submission of defence that to establish conspiracy against the accused, mere presence or attending the meeting is not sufficient. Mere listening to the proposal without actually consenting to proposal to commit the crime also does not constitute conspiracy.

14.1.7. The defence also submits that no direct evidence is needed for conspiracy, but surrounding circumstances are sufficient to infer. However, such inference must be irresistible.

14.1.8. It is submitted that even before inference is drawn and adverse inference is required to be drawn against the prosecution that though there was a direct evidence available, it was withheld from the Court. The reference is made to the Secret witnesses, who were dropped by the prosecution.

14.1.9. Referring to charge Exh.122, learned advocate submitted that the charge is as vague as possible. Reading Exh.122, it is submitted with regard to charge of an individual the first part of 'removing' the Government of Gujarat is a vague charge impossible to be proved as even an opposition party fights for removal of the Government does not amount to offence and the reference is given to India-wide causing terror.

14.1.10. The court finds that the word 'removing' is not the correct translation. The charge is to topple the Government of the day and the implication of the crime planned in any corner of India does not have implication across the Country.

14.1.11. Learned Advocate then submitted that one of the reasons for this crime according to prosecution is revenge of riots arising out of the Sabarmati Train Burning crime and loss suffered by Muslim community.

14.1.12. It is submitted that same cause was also part of the charge in Akshardham Terror attack case, but the Apex Court in case of Adambhai Sulemanbhai Ajmeri and others v/s. State Of Gujarat, reported in 2014 (7) SCC 716 has discounted such revenge angle to be motive behind that attack. Similarly, the same is required to be rejected here also.

14.1.13. Defence therefore, in great detail referred to the decision of the Apex Court of Rajiv Gandhi murder case in case of State Through Superintendent of Police, CBI/SIT v/s. Nalini and others, reported in (1999) 5 SCC 253 to substantiate their arguments. By relying on Para-174 to submit that merely because a person is member of a organization does not automatically dragged the member in conspiracy. In Nalini (supra), the Court has found on facts regarding accused Shankar, who was with other co-accused in the Boat travelling to India. So merely because Shankar was member of LTTE, he could not be made conspirator to murder of Rajiv Gandhi as conspiracy for that purpose would be strictly confined to limited number of person to prevent leakage.

14.1.14. This aspect cannot be brought into facts of our case as there is a difference in the nature of conspiracy in a targeted killing (here Rajiv Gandhi) and a conspiracy to cause mayhem. LTTE, which was working on an ideology also had a political outfit and the Military outfit. Their targeted killing of an individual of a stature of Rajiv Gandhi would need different kind of planning and maintaining of secrecy about the operation. Here, it is not a targeted killing. It is to strike terror in general public by resorting to Bomb blast and that too where the planning and execution was not be planned based on a movement of an individual like Rajiv Gandhi.

14.1.15. Again, case of accused No.7-S. Kanagasabapathy and accused No.8-Athirai was drawn attention to Para-184 to 188 of Nalini (supra), where also on facts the finding was given that though these accused were given a role to play in the entire episode, but no material in any form or from the confessional statement, the involvement of the young girl in conspiracy of murder of Rajiv Gandhi surfaced. The Apex Court therefore concluded that it had doubt though accused No.7 and 8 were involved with LTTE movement, but in murder of Rajiv Gandhi is doubtful. Case of accused No.17 who himself had made confessional statement under Section 15 of TADA was read out in Para-253 to 255 of Nalini (supra). There also, the point for acquittal was that out of their relationship with Sivrasan and Subha (main conspirators) they did provide for shelter post the crime and accused No.17 was aware of their role in crime, but that he was aware of the crime prior to crime having taken place, is doubtful.

14.1.16. Similarly, attention is drawn to the case of accused No.19-Rajiuddin Nasir @ Riyajuddin Nasir @ Alaur Rehmaan @ Abujaj @ Mohammad Daud @ Abdul Razak @ Rashidkhan Mohammad Nasiruddin @ Maulana Nasiruddin in Nalini (supra), where though he knew about Rajiv Gandhi incident earlier, however, benefit of doubt was given to him regarding his involvement in the conspiracy of assassination of Rajiv Gandhi. For granting the benefit of doubt, the Apex Court has taken into consideration a crucial question, whether he was party to the conspiracy of assassination of Rajiv Gandhi. For which the statement of co-accused was evidence, relied upon by the prosecution and that evidence in the form of confessional statement of accused No.2, wherein it is mentioned that upon the instruction of leader of LTTE, the amount was collected from accused No.2 (maker of confession to be delivered to one Suresh Master). At that stage, he was informed about by accused No.2 that LTTE was making arrangement to kill an important leader quickly. The Apex Court was of the opinion that knowledge of the aforesaid fact did not grant any certainty of participation by accused No.19 about the conspiracy to assassinate Rajiv Gandhi.

14.1.17. In case of Nalini (supra), the Court went on to refer to several Apex Court's decisions on the issue of conspiracy and ultimately laid down a broad principle on the subject.

"*583. Some of the broad principles governing the law of conspiracy may be summarized though, as the name implies, a summary cannot be exhaustive of the principle*s.

"1. Under Section 120A IPC offence of criminal conspiracy is committed when two or more persons agree to do or cause to be done an illegal act or legal act by illegal means. When it is legal act by illegal means overt act is necessary. Offence of criminal conspiracy is exception to the general law where intent alone does not constitute crime. It is intention to commit crime and joining hands with persons having the same intention. Not only the intention but there has to be agreement to carry out the object of the intention, which is an offence. The question for consideration in a case is did all the accused had the intention and did they agree that the crime be committed. It would not be enough for the offence of conspiracy when some of the accused merely entertained a wish, howsoever, horrendous it may be, that offence be committed.

2. Acts subsequent to the achieving of object of conspiracy may tend to prove that a particular accused was party to the conspiracy. Once the object of conspiracy has been achieved, any subsequent act, which may be unlawful, would not make the accused a part of the conspiracy like giving shelter to an absconder.

3. Conspiracy is hatched in private or in secrecy. It is rarely possible to establish a conspiracy by direct evidence. Usually, both the existence of the conspiracy and its objects have to be inferred from the circumstances and the conduct of the accused.

4. Conspirators may, for example, be enrolled in a chain A enrolling B,

B enrolling C, and so on; and all will be members of a single conspiracy if they so intend and agree, even though each member knows only the person who enrolled him and the person whom he enrolls. There may be a kind of umbrella-spoke enrollment, where a single person at the centre doing the enrolling and all the other members being unknown to each other, though they know that there are to be other members. These are theories and in practice it may be difficult to tell whether the conspiracy in a particular case falls into which category. It may, however, even overlap. But then there has to be present mutual interest. Persons may be members of single conspiracy even though each is ignorant of the identity of many others who may have diverse role to play. It is not a part of the crime of conspiracy that all the conspirators need to agree to play the same or an active role.

5. When two or more persons agree to commit a crime of conspiracy, then regardless of making or considering any plans for its commission, and despite the fact that no step is taken by any such person to carry out their common purpose, a crime is committed by each and every one who joins in the agreement. There has thus to be two conspirators and there may be more than that. To prove the charge of conspiracy it is not necessary that intended crime was committed or not. If committed it may further help prosecution to prove the charge of conspiracy.

6. It is not necessary that all conspirators should agree to the common purpose at the same time. They may join with other conspirators at any time before the consummation of the intended objective, and all are equally responsible. What part each conspirator is to play may not be known to everyone or the fact as to when a conspirator joined the conspiracy and when he left.

7. A charge of conspiracy may prejudice the accused because it is forced them into a joint trial and the court may consider the entire mass of evidence against every accused. Prosecution has to produce evidence not only to show that each of the accused has knowledge of object of conspiracy but also of the agreement. In the charge of conspiracy court has to guard itself against the danger of unfairness to the accused. Introduction of evidence against some may result in the conviction of all, which is to be avoided. By means of evidence in conspiracy, which is otherwise inadmissible in the trial of any other substantive offence prosecution tries to implicate the accused not only in the conspiracy itself but also in the substantive crime of the alleged conspirators. There is always difficulty in tracing the precise contribution of each member of the conspiracy but then there has to be cogent and convincing evidence against each one of the accused charged with the offence of conspiracy. As observed by Judge Learned Hand that "this distinction is important today when many prosecutors seek to sweep within the dragnet of conspiracy all those who have been associated in any degree whatever with the main offenders".

8. As stated above it is the unlawful agreement and not its accomplishment, which is the gist or essence of the crime of conspiracy. Offence of criminal conspiracy is complete even though there is no agreement as to the means by which the purpose is to be accomplished. It is the unlawful agreement, which is the gravamen of the crime of conspiracy. The unlawful agreement which amounts to a conspiracy need not be formal or express, but may be inherent in and inferred from the circumstances, especially declarations, acts, and conduct of the conspirators. The agreement need not be entered into by all the parties to it at the same time, but may be reached by successive actions evidencing their joining of the conspiracy.

9. It has been said that a criminal conspiracy is a partnership in crime, and that there is in each conspiracy a joint or mutual agency for the prosecution of a common plan. Thus, if two or more persons enter into a conspiracy, any act done by any of them pursuant to the agreement is, in contemplation of law, the act of each of them and they are jointly responsible therefore. This means that everything said, written or done by any of the conspirators in execution or furtherance of the common purpose is deemed to have been said, done, or written by each of them. And this joint responsibility extends not only to what is done by any of the conspirators pursuant to the original agreement but also to collateral acts incident to and growing out of the original purpose. A conspirator is not responsible, however, for acts done by a co-conspirator after termination of the conspiracy. The joinder of a conspiracy by a new member does not create a new conspiracy nor does it change the status of the other conspirators, and the mere fact that conspirators individually or in groups perform different tasks to a common end does not split up a conspiracy into several different conspiracies.

10. A man may join a conspiracy by word or by deed. However, criminal responsibility for a conspiracy requires more than a merely passive attitude towards an existing conspiracy. One who commits an overt act with knowledge of the conspiracy is guilty. And one who tacitly consents to the object of a conspiracy and goes along with other conspirators, actually standing by while the others put the conspiracy into effect, is guilty though he intends to take no active part in the crime."

14.1.18. In the very judgment, Hon'ble Justice S.S.M. Quadri has penned a separate judgment to discuss conspiracy as provided under Section 120B of the IPC and thereafter, discussing some more judgments, on the subject has in para-662 recorded the position as it emerges.

"662. From a survey of cases, referred to above, the following position emerges:

In reaching the stage of meeting of minds, two or more persons share information about doing an illegal act or a legal act by illegal means. This is the first stage where each is said to have knowledge of a plan for committing an illegal act or a legal act by illegal means. Among those sharing the information some or all may form an intention to do an illegal act or a legal act by illegal means. Those who do form the requisite intention would be parties to the agreement and would be conspirators but those who drop out cannot be roped in as collaborators on the basis of mere knowledge unless they commit acts or omissions from which a guilty common intention can be inferred. It is not necessary that all the conspirators should participate from the inception to the end of the conspiracy; some may join the conspiracy after the time when such intention was first entertained by any one of them and some others may quit from the conspiracy. All of them cannot but be treated as conspirators. Where in pursuance of the agreement the conspirators commit offences individually or adopt illegal means to do a legal act which has a nexus to the object of conspiracy, all of them will be liable for such offences even if some of them have not actively participated in the commission of those offences.(emphasis supplied)

663. The agreement, sine qua non of conspiracy, may be proved either by direct evidence which is rarely available in such cases or it may be inferred from utterances, writings, acts, omissions and conduct of the parties to the conspiracy which is usually done. In view of Section 10 of the Evidence Act anything said, done or written by those who enlist their support to the object of conspiracy and those who join later or make their exit before completion of the object in furtherance of their common intention will be relevant facts to prove that each one of them can justifiably be treated as a conspirator.

664. Section 10 of the Evidence Act recognises the principle of agency and it reads as follows:

"10. Things said or done by conspirator in reference to common design. Where there is reasonable ground to believe that two or more persons have conspired together to commit an offence or an actionable wrong, anything said, done or written by any one of such persons in reference to their common intention, after the time when such intention was first entertained by any one of them, is a relevant fact as against each of the persons believed to be so conspiring, as well for the purpose of proving the existence of the conspiracy as for the purpose of showing that any such person was a party to it."

665. To apply this provision, it has to be shown that (1) there is reasonable ground to believe that two or more persons have conspired together; and (2) the conspiracy is to commit an offence or an actionable wrong. If these two requirements are satisfied then anything said, done or written by any one of such persons after the time when such intention was entertained by any one of them in furtherance of their common intention, is a relevant fact against each of the persons believed to be so conspiring as well as for the purpose of proving the existence of conspiracy and also for the purpose of showing that any such person is a party to it."

14.1.19. Another judgment referred is in case of Yash Pal Mittal v/s. State of Punjab, reported in 1977 (4) SCC 540, where on the offence of conspiracy under Section 120B of IPC, the Court recorded in para-9 as under:-

"9. The offence of criminal conspiracy under section 120A is a distinct offence introduced for the first time in 1913 in Chapter VA of the Penal Code. The very agreement, concert or league is the ingredient of the offence. It is not necessary that all the conspirators must know each and every detail of the conspiracy as long as they are co- participators in the main object of the conspiracy. There may be so many devices and techniques adopted to achieve the common goal of the conspiracy and there may be division of performances in the chain of actions with one object to achieve the real end of which every collaborator must be aware and in which each one of them must be interested. There must be unity of object or purpose but there may be plurality of means sometimes even unknown to one another, amongst the conspirators. In achieving the goal several offences, may be committed by some of the conspirators even unknown to the others. The only relevant factor is that all means adopted and illegal acts done must be and purported to be in furtherance of the object of the conspiracy even though there may be sometimes misfire or over-shooting by some of the conspirators. Even if some steps are resorted to by one or two- of the conspirators without the knowledge of the others it will not affect the culpability of those others when they are associated with the object of the conspiracy."

14.1.20. Here the Court was considering an offence under Sections 454, 471/466, 476/466, 417, 419 of IPC read with Section 120B of IPC and charge was cheating by personation, unlike the nature of offence in our cases.

14.1.21. Learned advocate has then referred to case of Baliya Alias Bal Kishan v/s. State of Madhya Pradesh, reported in, (2012) 9 SCC

Justice A.Y.Kogje

696. In this case, under Section 302 of IPC based on circumstantial evidence against three accused where deceased Pradeep according to main accused Baliya has mentioned that co-accused Manish and Gopal were responsible for circulating the pamphlet casting doubt on the character of one Dr. Sandhya and later Pradeep was found dead. Therefore, the only circumstance against co-accused Manish and Gopal was only what Baliya conveyed to them about role of Pradeep and that he should not be spared.

14.1.22. This, in the opinion of the Court, is an observation on the specific fact of the case where the co-accused were only conveyed the thoughts of the main accused and by this much they cannot be made conspirators, unlike this case.

14.1.23. Learned advocate has also relied upon the decision in case of State (Government of NCT of DELHI) v/s. Nitin Gunwant Shah, reported in, (2016) 1 SCC 472 by drawing specific attention to Para-17 to argue that for conspiracy meeting of mind is essential. Mere knowledge or discussion would not be sufficient. In the opinion of the Court, the observation cannot be held as a ratio laid down. In the very paragraph, it is held that circumstance of conspiracy was a used motorbike and car in the incident and presence of all accused in Delhi, and such contention of prosecution was already discarded by the High Court. Hence, this Court does not find any discussion on facts related to circumstances for conspiracy. Moreover, the facts of present case are absolutely incomparable to fact cited as the terror camp at Halol shows several activities than merely getting together.

14.1.24. The Court may now deal with the arguments on facts vis-a-vis conspiracy advanced by the defence. It is argued that the meeting on November, 2007 refers to holding of preprogram of Dars-e-Quran but did not make any reference to the Criminal Act or violence. In this regard, the Court may refer to evidence of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi, who was examined vide Exh.6687, wherein in Para-2 the prosecution witness refers to he being invited for Dars-e-Quran program by Abdul Razik and there, he deposes to presence of, going to house of Ibrahim Ansari where Gyasuddin Ansari of Gomtipur, Javed Shaikh, Aslam and thereafter, Javed Shaikh read out Quran and also talked about 'Quyamat' and 'Jihad'. He was also invited for similar program to be held every Monday. Here the word 'Jihad' will have to be understood in the context in which the accused have referred to and which thereafter, has led to the actual carrying out of 'Jihad'. This will also have to be seen where in continuity, the discourses which develops in later meetings, connects 'Jihad' with damage to Muslims and to take revenge.

14.1.25. The bomb explosion caused in sequence is the single most clinching circumstance for conspiracy. The bomb laden cycles were not placed randomly anywhere. Both in Ahmedabad and Surat, the places where the bombs were planted, were at strategic locations. The criteria for selecting the location is evident from the very place, where bomb blast took place. It is a crowded public place predominantly frequented by Hindu or Non-Muslim population and definitely not a Muslim dominated area. The Court is consciously aware of this fact. Both in Ahmedabad and Surat, there is a concept of religion based dominated areas. The Court observes that one blast in AMTS Bus was in the area of Juhapura, which is a Muslim dominated area but when the bomb was planted, the bus was in the area, which is a non-Muslim area and in its journey, when the AMTS Bus reached Juhapura when the Bomb exploded, an indication of mis-timing the placing of this Bomb.

14.1.26. Therefore, the act of planting the bomb laden bicycles at the location is itself an evidence of planning after undertaking Recce, which witnesses have deposed to and even the confessional statement referred to. The time at which the Bomb exploded is the busy hour in the areas where bombs are planted. The selection of time to cause bomb-blast is a circumstance for conspiracy, when selection time is part of planning and time setting of the explosive device is a circumstance of the accused in the conspiracy having knowledge of how to prepare the Bomb using innocuous articles such as projectiles and easily available, and purchase of which will not draw attention like purchase of Nuts and Bolts from hardware shop, purchase of gas cylinders or battery cells or time pieces.

14.1.27. It is also a circumstance, wherein technical knowledge of assembling all the innocuous material to make a fatal explosive device. Therefore, the demonstration panchnama where the accused displays the knowledge of such assembling of explosion device becomes relevant.

14.1.28. As a part of conspiracy, this technical knowledge is used by only limited accused whose role in the conspiracy is to arrive in Ahmedabad from outside and assemble the bombs and then disassociate. This being the modus, typical of a Terror Attack.

14.1.29. Another circumstance for conspiracy and SIMI meetings argued is that of the camp in Vagamon. By submitting that, these circumstances cannot be treated as such to support the conspiracy theory as the evidence for Vagamon camp is the confessional statement of accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil, who is acquitted and a confessional statement of accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh, who is acquitted in the Vagamon trial case. Moreover, neither of the evidence discussed about planting of serial bombs, but mere and general discussion on damage to Muslims and avenging their deaths.

14.1.30. The Court having perused Exh.8619-Confessional statement of accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh, it is giving out material particulars about the preparation and travelling and assembling of various accused from different parts of India at one place at one time. The actual training activities undertaken and the distribution of fake names to hide true identity as a matter of practice and also the nature of discourse and including training in making Bombs (petrol).

14.1.31. Exh.9021 is the confessional statement of accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil recorded in the trial at Ernakulam Sessions Court and duly exhibited here. This confessional statement refers to how accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil was associated with other members of SIMI and upon persuasion of accused No.10- Aamil Parvaz and accused No.63-Mohammad Tanvir @ Talha himself went on to join SIMI. His confessional statement refers to activities and objective of their such meeting and this accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil later on realized that the plan to meet in Vagamon was to cause Jihad all over India. He also states that later on he has refused to assist the co-accused persons.

14.1.32. This statement under Section 164 exhibited being an evidence on record, and that too of co-accused tried along with these accused can be taken into consideration, as it corroborates the other evidence on record.

14.1.33. The Vagamon camp being the first step towards building up a conspiracy, it was not essential that there ought to be threadbare discussion on how to make and plant bomb, but there was an agreement to the proposal of avenging the atrocities on Muslim by resorting to mass killings. Therefore, the nature of participation of accused there and activities undertaken is a strong circumstance towards committing the crime.

14.1.34. It is argued with regard to the January, 2008 meetings at the house of Ibrahim Ansari and Shamsuddin Nana's place, those meetings cannot be treated as circumstance to establish meeting of mind and sharing of common object as those meetings at best indicated general speeches about 'Jihad' and avenging death of Muslims by giving speeches encouraging violent method to establish Islamic Rule.

14.1.35. These two meetings are mentioned by PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi at Exh.6687 and PW No.1141-Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed at Exh.8191. It is argued that these witnesses have played the same role as the accused persons meaning, they were simply present in the meeting still they have not been treated as accused persons and therefore, their evidence also cannot be treated as evidence unless they fulfil the test requirement for considering an evidence of accomplice.

14.1.36. The Court may examine Exh.8191, the evidence of PW No.1141-Aiyaz Razakmiyan Saiyed, who has been granted pardon being approver. The evidence of this witness in detail indicates from beginning how he was introduced to the activity of SIMI and came in association of co-accused. This witness refers to two meetings in the beginning of the year 2008 at the residence of Ibrahim and the activity done there and therefore, another meeting at the residence of Samsuddin of Dariyapur at his Nana's residence and the activity done there.

14.1.37. Similarly, PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi, who was examined vide Exh.6687, specifically mentions about a meeting at Ibrahim Ansari's residence and the activity undertaken therein and accused who participated. This deposition also refers how he disassociated himself from the meeting. The evidence of this witness is in line with the evidence of approver Aiyaz Exh.8191.

14.1.38. The Court may also consider the evidence of PW No.1151 at Exh.8265. Though he is declared as a hostile witness, this witness confirms having put his signature on Exh.8266 which is a confessional statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. before the Judicial Magistrate.

14.1.39. Though this witness has turned hostile, yet the statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. before the Magistrate can be utilized to corroborate or to fill up the gap that may appear in the chain of circumstances. Ex.8266 was recorded based on the order of summons issued by the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate and this document records all the precautionary measures adopted by the Magistrate before actually recording of the statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C including reflection period and possibility of the same being used against him. In Exh. 8266 he refers to series of programs in 2006-2007 which continued for 8 to 9 months at various places which included Samsuddin Nana's place. This document also narrates how many accused participated and what were the nature of activities in such meetings.

14.1.40. This exhibited document supports the prosecution. These evidences also establish on record the taking place of the meeting in January 2008, the place of meeting, the participants of the meeting and also the activities during the meeting.

14.1.41. The argument that these witnesses themselves having participated in such meeting be treated as accomplice. It is pertinent to find that all the witnesses had disassociated themselves at a particular stage, except for the approver. Therefore, as is held by the Apex Court in case of Nalini (supra), has held in para 662 as under:-

a place of their meeting. Therefore, in the opinion of the Court, the prosecution has established holding of the meeting, participation and nature of activities during the meeting as a strong circumstance for the meeting of minds and sharing of common object.

14.1.43. Learned advocate has then argued that incident of Halol training camp cannot be considered as a circumstance to conspiracy as State has failed to establish the same by cogent evidence. It is submitted that only evidence relied upon by prosecution is statement of accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki. The nature of confessional statement by accused No.21- Mehandihasan @ Vikki is exculpatory and therefore, required to be excluded from being considered. Similarly, evidence of confessional statement of accused No.35-Rafiyuddin, which the Sessions Court has itself excluded from evidence and that leaves only with evidence of confessional statement of accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh and his version on bomb making or explosion device or planting of bomb training is completely uncorroborated and therefore, cannot be treated as evidence at all.

14.1.44. The Halol terror training camp has taken place between 12th-14th January, 2008, which is a proximate period to the incident considering the level of preparation needed. During this training camp, physical training, firearm training were being given over and above religious discourse and inciting fanaticism and resort to Jihad with a strong object was propagated.

14.1.45. The evidence of Accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki cannot be discarded as being exculpatory as till the last stage of the Halol camp, he has shown his active participation and therefore, only at the end he has disassociated himself. Even after such disassociation he has not acted in a manner expected and has not even reported the happenings to any authority to prevent any subsequent event and this omission is on the part of this accused is a deliberate that is how he is liable as a conspirator.

14.1.46. Over and above, there is also independent evidence of the eyewitness being PW No.972-Ramkabhai Devkaranbhai Kesariya, who was examined vide Exh.6802, PW No.981-Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Katariya, who was examined vide Exh.6835 and PW No.1067-Ambalal Vechatbhai Bariya, who was examined vide Eh.7231, all of whom have witnessed the Halol Camp site and the activities carried out therein.

14.1.47. Learned advocate then submitted that the circumstance of a meeting on March 2008 at Samsuddin Nana's place also cannot be treated as a circumstance to conspiracy, as it is argued that accused-Abdul Subhan @ Taukir and Mufti delivered some speeches as per PW No.957- Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi vide Exh.6687 as the evidence only refers to general speeches for Jihad and to avenge Muslim atrocities. It is also argued that the deposition of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi is to be believed, then he himself has remained present and therefore, his role is also similar to those other accused who were merely present. Therefore, he himself being an accused his deposition as a witness could be accepted. Learned advocate also refers to Exh.6695 being an application of the defence under Section 319 of the Cr.P.C. to arraign PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi as an accused and the stand taken by prosecution in this regard.

14.1.48. In para-4 of Exh.6687, the PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi has deposed about a meeting organized in March 2008 which was called at Dariyapur Limbdi telling this witness that since many days he has not attended the 'programme' upon reaching the place accused No.27-Abdul Rajik came to pick him and took him to Samsuddin Nana's place, where co-accused accused No.4-Samsuddin Shaikh, accused No.27-Abdul Rajik, accused No.8-Yunus Mansuri, accused No.15-Mufti from Azamgadh, accused No.6-Arif Kagzi, Abdul Subhan @ Taukir, Mujib Shaikh, and others. Accused- Abdul Subhan @ Taukir had delivered instigating speech that in 2002 Muslims lost their lives due to Anti Muslim Government and therefore, to topple the Government, it is necessary to spread terror in general public and Jihad be resorted to for bringing Islamic Rule. The Mufti also delivered speech in support of Jihad stating that SIMI has become strong in cities of India and all of them together can perform Jihad against anti-Muslim Government.

14.1.49. The witness PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi further deposes that it is at that stage he came to know about those present were SIMI operatives and were planning anti-national and anti-Government activities.

14.1.50. Reference is made to application at Exh.6695 by the defence under Section 319 to contend that PW No.957--Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi be treated as an accused on the ground of his presence and emphasis was laid on the stand of the prosecution itself.

14.1.51. The Court may refer to Exh.6695 and the order dated 15.12.2017 below it. Application Exh. 6695 is submitted after the commencement of deposition of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi. By a reasoned order, the application at Exh.6695 below Section 319 to treat PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi as accused was rejected. The same was subject matter of challenge in Criminal Revision Application No.1225 of 2017 before this Court, which was also rejected by a detailed oral judgment and order dated 14.09.2018 and that order attained finality. Therefore, the status of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi continued as a witness. Therefore, in the opinion of the Court, it is not open for the defence to re-agitate the same only on the strength of the stand of the public prosecutor reflected in oral judgment dated 14.09.2018 (Defence has provided a copy of oral judgment dated 14.09.2018 in Cr.R.A. for perusal, reference to para-18 and 19 therein.).

14.1.52. The Court has also perused the deposition of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi from this angle and has found that it was in the meeting of March, 2008 that this witness; PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi came to know about the co-accused being SIMI Operatives and planning for Anti National activities. Thereafter, his association with that group has discontinued, but he is meeting only accused No.27-Abdul Rajik, who was already his friend and out of friendship, was visiting his place or Abdul Rajik visiting PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi and during these meetings individually with Abdul Rajik, he was conveyed about ongoing activities, but has nowhere appeared to have actively participated.

14.1.53. Then, the Defence has argued about April 2008 meeting under Sarangpur Bridge not to be circumstance for conspiracy in Para-5 of the deposition of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi. It is coming out clearly that accidentally he came across his friend Abdul Rajik near Sarangpur Bridge, who was present with Jahid Shaikh, Mujib, Gyasuddin and Javed Shaikh, who were present there and overheard their conversation as his friend; Abdul Rajik and Jahid Shaikh were crying and conveying to others that their brothers have been arrested as SIMI Operatives and time has come that the Police should realize ‘our’ real strength and for that purpose, others are not doing anything, but now against the Government, we must cause blast in public. While Abdul Rajik was angry, others were trying to console him and Javed informed PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi to take Abdul Rajik at home. While taking Abdul Rajik at his home, when PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi inquired as to what happened, Abdul Rajik informed that in Indore, SIMI Operatives have been arrested and time has come to take revenge. This meeting was an accidental meeting, where participation of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi was also accidental and not planned. Similarly, in Para-6, 7 of his deposition also would indicate that he came across other accused persons only accidentally when he used to go to meet Abdul Rajik without there being any previous plan to participate in such meetings. Entire sequence therefore would indicate that after March, 2008, PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi coincidentally came to know about ongoing plans on account of his association only with Abdul Rajik on friendly terms. Even on 25th July as deposed in Para-11, PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi has visited the house of Abdul Rajik for the purpose of repairing of his door and from his house, Abdul Rajik had taken him to Dariyapur Limbdi, where he came across other co-accused.

14.1.54. On 27th July, he received phone call from Abdul Rajik from PCO and being nearby, he came over to meet along with Yunus Mansuri on his motorcycle and from there, he was taken to house of Yunus Mansuri and Abdul Rajik inquired about old Chal of Bapunagar. There also, the participation of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi in the conspiracy does not appear. Therefore, this Court is also of the view that the moment the witness came to know about SIMI Operatives, he has thereafter not attended any meetings for conspiracy and therefore, rightly treated to be witness unlike other accused persons. Entire deposition would indicate that PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi enjoyed confidence of Abdul Rajik with whom, Abdul Rajik used to share many of his secrets.

14.1.55. It is submitted by the defence that the meeting of May, 2008 in the rented house of Vatva cannot be treated as circumstance to conspiracy, as there was only general speech advocating 'Jihad' and need to avenge atrocities against the Muslims in India. This circumstance in the opinion of the Court, is borne out from deposition of approver; accused No.23-Ayaz Razakmiyan Saiyed. With regard to May, 2008 meeting, this witness has deposed that in the year May-2008, Mohammad Ismail alias Abdul Rajik called him and after calling him, he called prosecution witness outside the society of the house. Then, when he went outside, he was told that there are two people with him and these people are two SIMI friends who used to meet him in SIMI meetings. Then he stated that these two people belong to SIMI, they currently do not have a house to stay in and because of that, they are facing a lot of trouble. Therefore, if a rented house is available anywhere in his area, a house is to be taken on rent. Having a talk in this manner, they went to a tea stall. From there, Abdul Rajik raised his hand and called two persons, and when they came back, he identified them. Among them, one was Kayamuddin Kapadiya and the other was Tauqeer alias Abdul Subhan, and he had seen both these men in the SIMI meeting held at Shamsuddin's maternal grandfather's (Nana's) house, so he knew them. Then Mohammad Ismail stated that he tried to find a rented house around his residence but a house is not available, so he has brought them to him. Thereafter, he asked Kayamuddin and Tauqeer alias Abdul Subhan what work do those people do? So, the one who was Tauqeer stated that he does computer work, and Kayamuddin stated that he does printing work. Then he asked them about their family, so they stated that they will come to stay along with their family, with wife and children. Then he asked them what kind of rented house does he need? So, they stated that a house with one or two rooms and a kitchen will do. Then he had told them that if there is a rented house around him, he will try to find it. Then they parted from there.

14.1.56. After this meeting took place, in the mosque where he used to offer prayers (namaz), another man named Saiyadu Rehman also used to come there; so he told him that if he has any rented house in mind to be given, and if it is of one-two rooms and a kitchen, keep it in mind; so he stated fine, he will search. Then, after one or two days, while meeting again in the mosque at the time of offering prayers, Saiyadu Rehman told him that there is a house in his neighbourhood. It is a one room and one veranda (osari) and it is on the first floor; so he told them to go and see the house as he has talked to them. Therefore, he told him that he will first inform his friends who are to come. After that, those people themselves would come and they would fix the deposit and rent with the person who is the house owner. Then the next day, he called Mohammad Ismail alias Abdul Rajik and he informed him that about the rented house they were talking about, there is one rented house, so they should come and see it. After that, Mohammad Ismail and along with him, Kayamuddin Kapadiya and Tauqeer Abdul Subhan, the three of them came to him, and then from there, Abdul Rajik went back. Thereafter, he, Kayamuddin, and Tauqeer Subhan, the three of them went to Saiyadu Rehman and while meeting Saiyadu Rehman he asked where is the house he was talking about? So he took us to the house which was in his neighbourhood. And there was one person inside, he called him out and introduced that this is Firoz Sheikh and it is his house. Then Firoz went with them upstairs to see the house and the talk about rent and deposit took place. The house owner Firoz Sheikh stated that he will take Rs. 5000/- as deposit and Rs. 900/- as rent. And when the house is ready, he could come to stay. He had not built a bathroom and he had told that he would build a bathroom.

14.1.57. Then between the tenth and fifteenth date of the month of May, those people, that is, Kayamuddin and Abdul Tauqeer, came to stay in the house. Saiyadu Rehman informed him in this regard when he came to the mosque to offer prayers. Thereafter, he went to that house to meet those people and after going there, he asked that you were to bring your family members, wife and children, so what happened? Hence, Tauqeer and Kayamuddin told him that they two will stay first for a few days and if there is no trouble or inconvenience in staying there, then they will bring their wives and children; then he returned from there. After that, whenever he got time, he used to go to meet Tauqeer Abdul Subhan and Kayamuddin at this rented house, and sometimes both of them also met him. Sometimes only one of these two would be there, and sometimes there would be a lock, so he would see the closed house and return. When the three of them gathered there, discussions about taking revenge for the Gujarat riots used to take place. And at the place where he used to go to meet these people, one day when he went there, a third person was also present at the rented house and he knew this person as well. This person was seen at the program / meeting held at Shamsuddin's maternal grandfather's (Nana's) house and he was also introduced to him. His name was Mufti Abu Bashar and everyone also used to call him Mufti Saheb. Now when this third person also came, when he went to them, the same discussion was happening between these three people that revenge for the riots that occurred in Gujarat is to be taken. After that, he does not know how many days Mufti Abu Bashar stayed there; but one day he met Kayamuddin and he told me that the house owner Firoz Sheikh has raised an objection regarding this third person staying in the house; hence Kayamuddin told the house owner that he is their guest and he would leave from here after some time. This house was located in the Vatva area. And when Mohammad Ismail came to meet him at Vatva, he was residing at Vatva.

14.1.58. During the time those people, Kayamuddin and Tauqeer, stayed here, Tauqeer gave him a magazine named "Combat" and inside it, illustrated information about the riots that occurred in the year 2002 in Gujarat was given and he told him to read it. Besides this, Kayamuddin had asked for two swimming pool forms from him, so he brought and gave two swimming pool forms from near Lal Darwaja and then when the form was to be filled, he went to Kayamuddin at that rented house. Therefore, he stated that a false name and address is to be put in the form and he had the name written as Sheikh Ashfak and wrote a false address of Danilimda. After this, during the same time, Kayamuddin and he went to Abdul Rajik in Gomtipur and from there, the three of them together went to Naroda Patiya, Naroda village, and Gulbarg Society. There, Kayamuddin and Abdul Rajik showed him that these are the chawls of Naroda Patiya, houses, and also showed a well and stated that communal riots of 2002 occurred and that at these places, the Muslims were murdered. And in the same way, they went to see Gulbarg Society as well. Then a discussion also took place between them there that a revenge for these murders of Muslims is to be taken. A few days after they had gone, he again went to the rented house and when he went to that house, only Tauqeer alias Abdul Subhan was present and he asked him where is Kayamuddin? So he stated that he has gone out for some work. Then a discussion of riots took place between them. So during the conversation, Abdul Subhan asked him does he remember what is the date today? So he remembered and stated that today is 11th July. So Tauqeer alias Abdul Subhan started laughing. Then while laughing he told him that on this very day, bomb blasts had occurred in trains in Mumbai and now after some time, bomb blasts are going to happen here in Gujarat also; so he asked Tauqeer who is going to do it here? So Tauqeer told him that when the time comes, everything will be known. Some time after that, Tauqeer and Kayamuddin met him in the mosque at the time of prayers and those people told him that now they will vacate the house and leave in two-three days. He asked them the reason as to why the house is to be vacated? So those people stated that when it rains here, water gets logged a lot around the house and on the road. Therefore, they are not going to stay there and are not going to bring their wives and children. One day after that, Saiyadu Rehman met him in the mosque, so he informed him that his friends Tauqeer and Kayamuddin, who had come to stay, have vacated the house and left with their belongings. After these people vacated the house and left, he did not have a meeting with either of them. They had left by the fifteenth date after vacating the house and then on 22nd July, a call from Kayamuddin came on his mobile and told him to come outside Vatva bus station. So he went outside to meet him. At that time, Mohammad Ismail alias Abdul Rajik was also with Kayamuddin. Then the three of them walked from there towards Narol. On the way, a discussion again took place between them that revenge for the Gujarat riots should be taken. During this discussion, Kayamuddin asked him if he got a chance to take revenge for the Gujarat riots, would he support? So he said yes, he is ready. Then Kayamuddin stated that they have a plan to carry out a bomb blast, in which he will have to get involved. He then asked him for more details as to how the bomb blasts that are to be carried out are to be effected? So Kayamuddin told him that such details are not to be asked. He has to do as much as he is instructed and he has to come to the place and at the time where he is called. Thereafter, they parted.

14.1.59. The aforesaid circumstance in the opinion of the Court is a strong circumstance in building up of conspiracy and falling within the periodic timeline, during which such meetings were taking place is an important circumstance indicating the presence of all the accused together at a proximate period.

14.1.60. Over and above as discussed in separate issue, the point out panchnama at the behest of the accused persons also point out the very premise, which is associated with as a meeting place for building up of conspiracy.

14.1.61. There was also a meeting in the house of Ibrahim Ansari in June, 2008, where according to prosecution there was discussion and discourse and instigation to avenge atrocities on Muslims. Relying on PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi, the argument of the defence is that there was only general speech on 'Jihad' but no specific mention to Bomb blast and that too in Ahmedabad. The deposition of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi at Exh.6687 about June 2008 deposes that Abdul Rajik called him by phone to the house of one Ibrahim Ansari when he went there he would find presence of accused Ibrahim Ansari, Abdul Rajik, Gyasuddin, Javed Shaikh and Mufti who said that SIMI operatives are caught but no need to worry as they will establish Islamic Rule. Then this witness was asked to drop Mufti at Yunus Mansuri's residence near Ajit Mill. This witness states Mufti to mean Abu Bashar @ Mufti. PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi further deposes that 2-3 days later Abdul Rajik came to him and informed about his activity how he visited areas affected by roots at Naroda Patiya, Naroda Gam and Gulbarg Society also talked about death of Muslim in 2002 Riots and very soon 'those people' will realize.

14.1.62. This evidence would clearly indicate the periodic meetings of accused so that the plan keeps building up and all the accused are together and sharing the common objective. Therefore, it cannot be said that the meetings did not talk about Bomb Blast, therefore are not about conspiracy but it is evident that all these meetings were to reconfirm and reassure their resolve towards their ultimate object to strike terror.

14.1.63. Another circumstance for conspiracy of 20-07-2008 on the basis of accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira confessional statement under Section 164 according to defence is no circumstance as it only pertains to general speech but no reference to causing Bomb blast.

14.1.64. Perusal of Exh.8627 is the confessional statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. of accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira, which would indicate the reference to application dated 07-11-2008 to confess addressed to Magistrate from Judicial custody after verifying and complying the requirement for recording confession including legal aid and time to reflect, statement was recorded on 12-11-2008 when it is recorded that on 20/07/2008 at about 8:00 or 8:30 in the night, he received a call from Samsudinbhai on his mobile. He told him to come to the house of Yakubbhai in Juhapura as a recitation of the Quran–Hadith was to take place. He told to come quickly. Therefore, Iliyasbhai and he reached there. (1) Javedbhai, (2) Samsubhai, (3) Rajikbhai, (4) Yunusbhai and (5) Yakubbhai were present there and reciting the Quran. After five to seven minutes, the Quran recitation was completed. Yakubbhai went to the kitchen to make tea. Iliyasbhai came out and sat down. Meanwhile, Samsubhai, Yunusbhai, Javedbhai and Rajikbhai started instigating about Jehad, saying, how long will they keep sitting, they must do something. He did not know what Jihad meant. When they said, they should kill the people who have committed atrocities on Muslims and take revenge for the 2002 Godhra incident, he left for home after offering Namaz. This is followed by Memorandum about voluntariness of such statement.

14.1.65. This evidence is also important to support the ongoing conspiracy to avenge and to kill "those people". This version finds corroboration in the pointing out panchnama at Exh.5452 at the behest of accused No.4-Samsuddin @ Samsu Shahabuddin Shaikh, who points out the house of Yakub Memon where the meeting took place on 20-07-2008. The panchnama is proved by the panch witness Nasruddin PW No.809-Nasruddin Ismail Shaikh at Exh.5451. This witness has accurately deposed about the disclosure of the house of Yakub Memon. He has also recited the contents of the panchnama and identification of the house of Yakub Memon by his wife Noorjahan Memon and also recovery of mobile phone in non working condition.

14.1.66. The evidence of the panchnama and the panch witness corroborate the version in Exh.8627 confessional statement of accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira. Even if acquitted, the document exhibited on the record and corroborating can be an evidence to establish the meeting on 20-07-2008 to kill "those people".

14.1.67. The Meeting on 25-07-2008 is also a relevant circumstance of conspiracy. However, according to defence, the same is not proved simply by evidence of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi as according to defence he is required to be treated as accomplice and not as a witness. However, from Para-11 of Exh.6687 (PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi), it is appearing that the panch witness was at the residence of Abdul Rajik by chance to repair the door of Abdul Rajik's house and from there he was taken to Dariyapur Limbdi where he overhead conversation of Imran Puthawala, Yunus Mansuri, Samsuddin Shaikh and Abdul Rajik ridiculing Muslims, who were welcoming Rath Yatra and thereafter, they were conversing by going away at some distance from this witness and hence was not able to know what they were talking about.

14.1.68. The Court in this connection may also refer to Exh.8215 a panchnama exhibited by PW No.1142-Mohammadislamuddin Khalilurehman Shaikh at Exh.8214 and it pertains to discovery of a written material apparently on 'Jihad' and anti-social, anti-national and Islamization conversion, which was hidden in the most unusual place i.e. a 'well' located in precinct of 'Sidi Saiyed Jali' and hidden in a water proof manner.

14.1.69. PW No.1142-Mohammadislamuddin Khalilurehman Shaikh deposed in Exh.8214 about the disclosure made by suspect on 02-09-2008 to hiding of such written material, during deposition has identified the muddamal article Nos. 170 to 192 under the list Exh.461 and his signature.

14.1.70. This Court has considered the submission on behalf of the defence that even if the Terror camps and meetings are established, still there is no evidence on the agreement to cause Terror activities by planting bombs in Vadodara and Surat.

14.1.71. In this regard, it is to be noted that, to be a conspirator, it is not necessary for each member of the conspiracy to be aware of all the aspects of conspiracy or the common design and ultimately the common object shared by all, which was to cause terror in the Public by mass killing at large, for the reasons mentioned. Therefore, causing bomb blast is a medium for achieving the common object.

14.1.72. In this regard, it is necessary to focus on the explanation to Section 120A of IPC.

"Explanation.—It is immaterial whether the illegal act is the ultimate object of such agreement, or is merely incidental to that object."

14.1.73. Therefore, it is immaterial that the illegal act of causing serial bomb blasts and planting of bombs is the ultimate object, suffice it is that such an act is incidental to the ultimate object of "Terror" by mass murders.

14.1.74. The meaning of word "Conspiracy" has remained constant, but the offence of "Conspiracy" has been dynamic. With the changing time, the nature and method of "Conspiracies" have seen a sea change and so has the meaning given by Courts from time to time to various actions to bring them within the fold of "Conspiracy".

14.1.75. The most prominent form of "Conspiracy" found by the world at large are the conspiracies driven by "fanaticism", where the object is shared by the common understanding of their scriptures, culture or even upbringing and the prevailing circumstances commonly affecting a section of society united by their unique but common understanding. The word "Jihad" coming up frequently in each of the meetings has to be understood in the perspective of the persons using it and the place where it is being used. Therefore, use of word Jihad to take revenge in the meetings would have to be understood in context for causing Terror in a particular section (Hindus in present case) of the Society by causing en mass damage to life and property by targeted activity.

14.1.76. In the meetings, as has been referred to in this section of the judgment, the word "jihad" has to be understood as offence of criminal conspiracy as an exception to the general law where intent alone does constitute crime. It is intention to commit crime and joining hands with persons having the same intention. Law making conspiracy a crime is designed to curb immoderate power to do mischief which is gained by a combination of the means. The encouragement and support which co-conspirators give to one another rendering enterprise possible which, if left to individual effort, would have been impossible, furnish the ground for visiting conspirators and abettors with condign punishment The conspiracy is held to be continued and renewed as to all its member wherever and whenever any member of the conspiracy acts in furtherance of the common design. Offence of criminal conspiracy has its foundation in an agreement to commit an offence. A conspiracy consists not merely in the intention of two or more, but in the agreement of two or more to do an unlawful act by unlawful means. A criminal conspiracy must be put to action because so long a crime is generated in the mind of an accused, it does not become punishable. What is necessary is not thoughts, which may even be criminal in character, often involuntary, but offence would be said to have been committed thereunder only when that take concrete shape of an agreement to do or cause to be done an illegal act or an act which although not illegal by illegal means and then if nothing further is done the agreement would give rise to a criminal conspiracy.

14.1.77. Of all the circumstances which supports the theory of conspiracy to commit the crime of Serial Blasts, the single most circumstance which will out-weigh any other probable circumstance is the occurring of the Serial Blast itself and uncovering the unexploded explosive devises. This circumstance is sufficient to conclude that this crime is an outcome of a well guarded conspiracy with deep rooted motive. The occurring of the blasts only at particular location only is proof of strategic recce. The locations being crowded market areas with dominated Hindu populations is to cripple the system and burden the public authority, which actually happened as an aftermath. The planning of the explosive device parked with articles like LPG, nuts, bolts, etc. to act a projective and locating it near the trauma centre of the Government Hospital to target the victims of the blasts in other parts of the city is sufficient to establish the motive to terrorize people causing people to loose faith in existing system.

14.1.78. The incidents of successive bomb blast is a single most convincing evidence that the incident is a Terror attack with a sole objective to cause damage to life and property to terrorize common citizens. This under no circumstance be trivialized by comparing this investigation with the investigation of an offence of ordinary crimes. There cannot be a comparison of nature of evidence collected in investigation of a Terror plot with nature of evidence in a Cyber crime. If one nature of evidence is a clinching evidence in Cyber crime need not necessarily be treated as a bench mark for a clinching evidence for an offence related to human body or an offence of Terror activity.

14.1.79. As to the meaning in English law of Criminal conspiracy; Kenny lays down that in English law conspiracy first began as an agreement of persons who combined to carry on legal proceedings in vexatious or improper way. It is an offence at common law and was for a long time closely allied to attempts and was indeed often regarded as one form of attempt to commit a wrong. However, in modern times conspiracy has become a separate crime and is defined as the agreement of two or more persons to affect any unlawful purpose, whether as their aim or only as a means to it. This definition presents for points for notice: (a) actus reus, (b) the persons agreeing, (c) the purpose agreed upon, (4) the mens rea. Halsbury while discussing the meaning and import of criminal conspiracy as understood in English Law lays down that conspiracy consist in the agreement of two or more persons to do and unlawful act, or to do a lawful act by unlawful means. The law on conspiracy has been described as "the least systemic", the most irrational branch of English Penal Law.

14.1.80. The essence of the offence of conspiracy is the fact of combination by agreement. The agreement may be express or implied, or in part express and in part implied. The conspiracy arises and the offence is committed as soon as the agreement is made; and the offence continuous to be committed so long as the combination persist, i.e. until the conspiratorial agreement is terminated by completion of its performance or by abandonment or frustration or however it may be. In a criminal conspiracy meeting of minds of two or more persons for doing an illegal act is sine qua non but proving this by direct proof is not possible. Hence conspiracy and its objective can be inferred from the surrounding circumstances and conduct of the accused. (Commentary from the Indian Penal Code by Ratanlal and Dhirajlal, Volume-1, 35th Edition, published by LexisNexis).

14.1.81. In Yash Pal Mittal (supra), the Supreme Court holds that the offence of criminal conspiracy under Section 120A is a distinct offence. The very agreement, concert or league is the ingredient of the offence. It is not necessary that all the conspirators must know each and every detail of the conspiracy as long as they are co-participators in the main object of the conspiracy. There must be unity of object or purpose but there may be plurality of means sometimes even unknown to one another. The only relevant factor is that all means adopted, and illegal acts done must be and purported to be in furtherance of the object of the conspiracy. The offence of criminal conspiracy is complete as soon as two or more persons agree to do or cause to be done illegal act, or an act which is not illegal by illegal means. The agreement in itself is enough to constitute the offence…….

14.1.82. One argument advanced by defence that the confessional statement of the accused may not be treated as evidence of conspiracy as these statements are exculpatory in nature and excludes the maker from participating in the discussing of making and planting bomb. Exculpatory means where the accused exculpates himself of the offence altogether. In that case, his version shifts the burden of crime on others. However, in the present case, the confessional statement of the accused cannot be considered as exculpatory. The offence in present case is not a one time incident, but a developing of conspiracy over the period of time where training, planning and execution were undertaken step by step. So where all accused are involved at any of the stage, but later on disassociated then to the extent of the offence they participated, it cannot be held that he has exculpated himself completely of the offence.

14.1.83. Where the crime is in the nature of a singular incident and a confessional statement of a charged accused absolves himself of any participation in that one time incident then on the principle of exculpatory statement not being confessional can be adopted, but in the facts of the present case not being a singular incident the analogy cannot be applied.

14.1.84. Again, the fallacy in the argument of defence that the meeting of mind and sharing of common object must be that which is directly related to the serial blasts. Therefore, the essential is discussion in conspiracy about making and planting of bombs and identifying of place to plant bomb.

14.1.85. It is a well known principle of conspiracy that all the conspirators may not be aware of the entire conspiracy, but only to the role assigned. It is also not necessary that each conspirator to play effective and actual role to making, identifying and planting of bomb.

14.1.86. The Court is of the opinion that the object was to cause terror amongst common public, to avenge damage to Muslim and establish Islamic Rule by committing 'Jihad'. This was the common object shared by accused, who travelled to a common place, not only from different part of the city but from different part of the state and the country and participated in those meetings, remained present consistently, undertook activities as directed during their stay in the meeting and thereafter, followed the role that may have been assigned.

14.1.87. Therefore, discussion on making and planting or explosion of bomb is not an essential requirement to the build up of conspiracy as the common object and meeting of mind for causing terror attack and it could have been through any method and serial bomb blast being only one such method.

14.1.88. Terror activities across the World have seen variety of methods be it car bombs, flying planes into twin towers, even running down the heavy vehicles into a crowded street or radicalizing an individual to become a human bomb. One such method evolved is radicalizing by using narrative of injustice to Muslims as a religion and attack on them by the instrumentalities of Government and using such narrative to instigate young persons into a drastic action with adding a glamour of adventure and heroic treatment in anticipation.

14.1.89. In view of the aforesaid discussion made in detail, there is no iota of doubt in the mind of the Court that present offence is an outcome of thick conspiracy spread and developed over the period of time. Therefore, the ingredients of Section 120(A) have been convincingly established by the prosecution and therefore, the accused have made themselves liable to the punishment for the offence charged with the aid of Section 120(B), which provides for the punishment for criminal conspiracy.

14.2. Confessional Statement and statement under Section 164 Cr.P.C

14.2.1. On 23-03-2026, learned Advocates have commenced arguments on the issue of Section 164 of Cr.P.C. Confessional statements. The lead subjects are by Dr.Yug Chaudhary. In the present case, it is argued that this set of evidence is a weak piece of evidence like as it is argued in connection with the pointing out panchnama and panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act. It is submitted that the confession by the accused is also a weak nature of evidence.

14.2.2. It is submitted that confessional statement is viewed with suspicion, both by the legislature as well as by the Court. The reason for viewing confessional statements with suspicion, is because the confessional statements by and large are an outcome of torture / 3rd degree treatment. It is submitted that since almost more than 100 years because of the reputation of custodial torture and use of it to extract confession, the over reliance of the police on the confessional statement as a tool of investigation is to get an easy way out rather than a thorough investigation. It is submitted that going by natural human behaviour, one would first attempt to save his skin and for that reason confess. He submits that there is a constitutional protection under Article-20 against self-incriminating evidence and a statutory presumption that confession in custody is product of torture, therefore, is hit by Sections 25, 26 of Indian Evidence Act and Section 162 of Cr.P.C.

14.2.3. He therefore submitted that a confessional statement has to fulfil six requirements; 1) it should be before a Magistrate, 2) the Confession is made after obtaining legal advice of a lawyer or with Legal Aid, 3) It is vital that the confessional statement is out of remorse and prompt, 4) it has to overcome the Bar of Section 24 of Indian Evidence Act, 5) the circumstances under which confession is made, must be credible and inspire confidence, 6) the Confession must be corroborated by some independent evidence.

14.2.4. It is argued that in facts of this case, all the aforesaid six requirements have remained unfulfilled and therefore, the evidence in respect of confessional statement cannot be treated as reliable evidence to convict the accused.

14.2.5. He cited one example from the facts that accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil S/O Aliimam has made a confession and his confession is admission of guilt, despite which accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil S/O Aliimam has been acquitted, whereas his confessional statement is used against co-accused to convict them.

14.2.6. Learned Advocate has thereafter referred to the Confessional Statement of accused No.2-Imran Shaikh. It is submitted that accused was arrested on 16-08-2008. He has tendered a set of Remand applications and pointed out certain paras of the application and orders passed therein to point out that in the application, the ground for seeking remand was the accused is not willing to give any relevant and important evidence regarding the offence. He submitted that investigating officer was seeking information on who were main persons in holding camp in Halol, who has given financial support etc. This application was made on 18-08-2008, which was allowed granting remand till 31-08-2008.

14.2.7. He referred to another application for remand of accused No.2-Imran Shaikh, where the Investigating Officer has stated in application dated 01-09-2008 that accused persons are highly literate, strong by determined and also religious fanatics and remand is necessary to interrogate him by adopting various methods.

14.2.8. Similar averments were made in another remand application dated 16-09-2008. In Remand Application dated 01-10-2008, it is mentioned that the accused are hardcore religious fanatics and information is required from them about financial aid received by them and also about nature of instigating Jehadi lectures and the Investigating Officer finds it difficult to gather such information from accused despite extended police remand period.

14.2.9. Learned Advocate then referred to Remand Application dated 09-10-2008 and pointed out Para-8, where it is mentioned that the accused persons are hardcore and fanatics Jehadis and are aware of consequences of confessing to crime and are deliberately hiding true facts from investigation. Therefore, it is difficult to believe that within a period of one month, the accused made application for making confession. Therefore, such confession is due to pressure or inducement and not out of remorse.

14.2.10. Learned Advocate thereafter submitted that in Remand Application, the remand was sought seeking information on specific facts like from whom and where the Bicycle and Material for Bomb was procured, who are involved in the conspiracy, who will plant the bomb laden cycle at which spot and who has funded the terror operations. However, in the confession, there is no such mention of any fact for which remand was sought.

14.2.11. Learned Advocate has thereafter taken up the similar contentions qua the confession of accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki Ansari, who was arrested on 09-10-2008 and application for remand was made on 10-10-2008. Learned Advocate tendered for perusal of the Court the Remand Application and submitted that in such application, the Investigating Officer has written that accused are hardcore, fanatics and religious bigots and therefore, not answering any questions. Therefore, it is difficult to get answers from them, hence, they prayed for long police remand. Considering such facts, remand was being granted.

14.2.12. It is argued that another Remand Application dated 24-10-2008, was ordered on same date and in that order, the Court referred to accused being member of terror outfit and that the accused are required to be interrogated. He also referred to stand of accused to the effect through the Legal Aid Counsel that he is nowhere connected with Ahmedabad offences. Therefore, on one hand, accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki Ansari says he is not involved and on the other hand, the Investigating Officer says he is not cooperating. Both these circumstances are not in consonance with the recording of the confession. He also pointed out that consistently the stand of Investigating Officer in successive Remand Applications has been that the accused are non-cooperative and hardcore and not yielding to investigation, then it becomes the duty of Investigating Officer to explain the circumstances under which the accused agreed to give confessional statement.

14.2.13. Learned advocate has then submitted that one more circumstance that creates doubt on making of confession is that three accused who were in custody of three different Investigating Officers and in three different C.Rs. on the same day i.e. 07.11.2008 made an application to Magistrate that they want to confess. Moreover, the applications are also verbatim. This aspect be coupled with the fact that in the statement under Section 313 of the Code of Civil Procedure, the very accused have stated these to be involuntary. According to learned advocate, the confessional statements therefore, cannot be relied upon.

14.2.14. It is further submitted that when the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate made an order of recording of evidence, the order mentions recording of statement of "witness'. Therefore, it was not clear to the prosecution whether the statement is to be recorded as a witness and therefore, the accused were either lured and convinced by the Investigating Officer that if they confess then they will not be treated as "accused" but as "witness".

14.2.15. The Court has perused the application of the three accused made on the same day i.e. 07.11.2008 vide Exh.8617 by accused No.2-Imran Shaikh, vide Exh.8625 by accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira and vide Exh.8621 by accused No.21- Mehandihasan @ Vikki Ansari.

14.2.16. We do not find the applications to be verbatim same. Exh.8617 is one page application clearly expressing remorse and reason how he was unknowingly emotionally mislead by members of SIMI and IM in the name of religion. When produced before Metro Magistrate Court No.11, an order was passed to the effect that as it is for recording of statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. "Accused". He then forwarded it to the Court of Chief Metropolitan Magistrate and Chief Metropolitan Magistrate passed an Order forwarding the said application to the Metro Magistrate Court No.5 for recording of the statement and in that Order, the word "Witness" has appeared. The case is similar for other two applications, where Metro Magistrate Court No.11 has mentioned in the Order word "Accused". One important fact is that Metro Magistrate Court No.11 records the presence of the accused there, but the presence of accused is not there before the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate Court. Therefore, the argument that the accused was lured in making confessional statement by treating him as witness cannot be accepted.

14.2.17. Insofar with respect to the argument of verbatim applications is concerned, the learned advocate has compared only Exh.8617 and 8621, whereas, this Court having perused other such applications, does not find the applications to be verbatim. Exh.8625 is only a four-line vernacular application. Exh.8625 does not implicate the accused and only states that he has been arrested in bomb-blast case and he wants to disclose something about other persons concerning the bomb-blast, whereas Exh. 8621 is a hand written application in Hindi language. Though attempt is made by learned advocate by submitting the English translation of both the applications Exh.8617 and 8621 as verbatim, the Court is unable to accept this argument. When both these applications are handwritten in two different languages, of course, the English translation may come out to be identical. As the purpose of the application itself is identical, usage of similar words will not create doubt about genuineness of the application or that the applications are completely non-existent or are creation of a common design to implicate the accused.

14.2.18. The Court has also perused Exh.8629, which is an application for confession of accused No.35-Rafiyuddin S/O Sarfuddin Kapadiya. This application is dated 19.01.2009. This application is a five to six line application in Gujarati language which is completely and differently worded. Therefore, the argument that the making of confessions are orchestrated by the group of Investigating Officers, working in tandem cannot be accepted.

14.2.19. The Court by the aforesaid observation also hereby rejects the argument that though the accused were 10th passed, the language of the application is a legal language. Moreover, the learned advocate has compared only two such applications and the words used in application, in Court's opinion, are the words used in common parlance and appropriate to express the version of the accused themselves. In fact, finding out words synonymous in language of the Section 24 of the Indian Evidence Act would have been an abnormal exercise.

14.2.20. On 24-03-2026, learned Advocate Mr. Yug Mohit Chaudhry continued with his submission on the point of confession by submitting that though the Court recording confession is required to send the confession to the trial Court, it took one year to be sent and there is no explanation to it therefore the confession is not required to be considered.

14.2.21. The Court finds that Section 164(6) makes a provision for forwarding the confession to the trial Court. However, it does not prescribe any time limit for doing so. It is for the trial Court to assess the confession at the stage that the trial Court deems appropriate for the period that such confession is in custody of the Magistrate Court. It cannot affect its evidentiary value unless a case of tampering is made out. In present facts, nobody has alleged any tampering of the confessional statement.

14.2.22. Learned Advocate has thereafter argued that Section 24 of Indian Evidence Act provides for confession being made under threat, inducement or promise is irrelevant for criminal proceedings. He has emphasized on words ‘making’ and ‘appear’ in the section to submit that the ‘making’ signifies the entire process of making confession beginning from the desire expressed to actual recording and even thereafter and if in any of the stage, there is a element of threat, promise or inducement then, this confession is irrelevant and also whether there is element of inducement, threat or promise there is no need to have any absolute proof, only it should appear to the ‘Court as such’.

14.2.23. He has therefore, argued that as the retraction as well as the statement under Section 313 would indicate the presence of element of threat and inducement the confession is irrelevant for this trial.

14.2.24. Referring to Section 162(2), learned Advocate has submitted that voluntariness of the confession is very important step to be ascertained and in fact without this step the Magistrate does not even get jurisdiction to record a statement. Therefore, the Magistrate is first required to record in writing the voluntariness of the confession.

14.2.25. He has lastly argued that the confession is exculpatory confession and by pointing out Exh.8623 submitted that maker disassociates himself from the offence of causing Bomb blast and in fact confess that he preferred to stay away from the group. This cannot be treated as confession. It is submitted that in the entire confession, there is no mention of procuring of Bomb materials, preparing of Bomb and explosive and then planting it in Ahmedabad and Surat. In absence, it is no confession at all.

14.2.26. On 25-03-2026 before proceeding with the judgment on the issue of confession and retraction, he has summarized the requirement of confession to meet with the prescription of Section 164 (2) and Section 164(4) and also Rule 34 of Criminal Manual. It is submitted out of the total requirement in the present case even bare minimum of requirement like voluntariness, body check and asking the accused why he wants to confess are also not met with.

14.2.27. Learned Advocate has cited the decision of the Apex Court in case of Nathu v/s. the State of Uttar Pradesh reported in AIR 1956 SC 56 to submit that a prolonged police custody before confession needs to be explained or such confession is presumed to be involuntary. In facts of Nathu (supra), the accused was arrested on 8th June and was transferred to the custody of CID from 7th August to 20th August and the confession was recorded on 21st August. The court found this step to be unacceptable and therefore, needed an explanation.

14.2.28. Learned Advocate has relied on the decision in case of Babubhai Udesinh Parmar v/s. State of Gujarat reported in 2006 (12) SCC 268 to submit that safeguard under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. are required to be strictly complied with. Also the retracted confession is required to be looked at with greater caution. The offence involved was rape and murder of minor. The glaring defect in recording confession that the Supreme Court found in this case is that, the confession was recorded after administrating oath to the accused confessing and that no legal Aid was provided to the accused.

14.2.29. He has then relied on very old judgment of the Bombay High Court in case of Queen-Empress v/s. Narayan, reported in 1901 SCC Online Bom 7 to submit that voluntariness to make confession has to be ascertained and also the police custody prior to confession and it is the duty of the Magistrate to satisfy himself about voluntariness.

14.2.30. The glaring fact that made the Court make such observation is that arrest was made on 11th June, but the police papers showed the arrest on 21st June and on 23rd June, confession was recorded. Based on this judgment, the argument advanced is that the jurisdiction to record the confession begins only after questioning the persons making it and having reason to believe that it is voluntary. Here practically for 10 days the accused was in police custody without arrest. In this circumstance, the Court puts a question "is it reasonable to suppose that during all that time no pressure was put upon the accused by Police to induce him to 'confess'?

14.2.31. Reliance is placed on the decision in case of Bhagwan Singh and others v/s. State of M.P. reported in 2003 (3) SCC 21 to contend that the Magistrate has to ask the accused as to why he wants to make statement and which will go against him in the trial. He should be given time to reflect on and must be given assurance of protection from Police torture, if he does not confess.

14.2.32. Therefore, the Court held that 'Confession' is not voluntary and when retracted, it is not safe to rely on such confession. The facts of the case which invited such observations are that accused Pooran was arrested on 12-03-1984. For confession, he was produced before the Magistrate in handcuffed condition on 09-04-1984 and that too from the Police custody as was admitted by the Judicial Magistrate PW-1 therein, in his deposition.

14.2.33. In case of Sarwan Singh v/s. State of Punjab reported in 1957 SCC OnLine SC 1 to argue that the act of recording confession is a solemn act and it is necessary to put question prescribed by High Court Circulars and the question under Section 164(3) should not be allowed to be put mechanically.

14.2.34. The Court made this observation due to the fact that Sarwan

Singh was arrested on 25th November and was kept in Police custody till 30th November and on that day, he was sent to the Magistrate to record confession and then evidence of the Magistrate showed that the accused was produced at 2.30 pm and the accused was given half an hour to think about the statement he was to make and then soon thereafter, recorded the statement.

14.2.35. Learned Advocate has placed strong reliance of the judgment of Apex Court in case of Shivappa v/s. State of Karnataka reported in 1995 (2) SCC 76 to be a leading judgment and particularly pointed out Para-6 and Para-7 a treatise on Section 164. However, on fact, it would be necessary to refer to Para-8 of the judgment, which records that the Magistrate; PW-17 had deposed that he had not stated to the accused that he is a Magistrate and not even ascertained whether the police had induced him. PW-17 also admitted that he was not sure whether the police official was in vicinity where the confession was recorded. The most relevant is that the Investigating Officer sent the report on 21-07-1986 to the Magistrate for making confession and the Magistrate adjourned recording to 22-07-1986 and ordered the accused to be remanded to the Sub-jail. However, it came on record that the Sub-jail and the office of the Circle Police Inspector (Investigating Officer) was in same premises. Therefore, the reflection period also was under the influence of the Police.

14.2.36. In case of Dagdu and others v/s. State of Maharashtra reported in 1977 (3) SCC 68 to emphasis on the following of the safeguard for recording confession. Drawing attention to Para-50, learned advocate has submitted that mere production of the accused before the Magistrate is not guarantee of voluntariness, but the Magistrate has to ascertain factually certain aspects to rule out the parameters mentioned in Section 24 of the Indian Evidence Act.

14.2.37. This Court is of the opinion on facts of Dagdu and others (supra) the recording of confessional statement is made by a Sub Divisional Magistrate (SDM), who is not a trained Judicial Officer. The very purpose of providing Section 164 confessional statement be recorded by the Magistrate being a Judicial Officer is to ensure the exercise be undertaken by a Judicially trained mind, which by virtue of its training is able to meet with the requirement of Section 164 as well as Criminal Manual.

14.2.38. Therefore, in Para-51, the Apex Court has approved the submissions of State as under:

"51. Learned counsel appearing for the State is right that the failure to comply wit Section 164(3), Criminal Procedure Code, or with the High Court Circulars will not render the confessions inadmissible in evidence. Relevancy and admis- sibility of evidence have to be determined in accordance with the provisions of the Evidence Act. Section 29 of that Act lays down that if a confession is otherwise. relevant it does not become irrelevant merely because, inter alia, the accused was not warned that he was not bound to make it and the evidence of it might be given against him. If, there- fore, a confession does not violate any one of the conditions operative under Sections 24 to 28 of the Evidence Act, it will be admissible in evidence. But as in respect of any other admissible evidence, oral or documentary, so in the case of confessional statements which are otherwise admissible, the Court has still to consider whether they can be accepted as true. (Emphasis supplied). If the facts and circumstances surrounding the making of a confession appear to. cast a doubt on the veracity or voluntariness of the confession, the Court may refuse to act upon the confess;on even if it is admissible in evidence. That shows how important it is for the Magistrate who. records the confession to satisfy him- self by appropriate questioning of the confessing accused, that the confession is true and voluntary. A strict and faithful compliance with Section 164 of the Code and with the instructions issued by the High Court affords in a Large measure the guarantee that the confession is voluntary. The failure to observe the safeguards prescribed therein are in practice calculated to impair the evidentiary value of the confessional statements."

14.2.39. Learned Advocate has then referred to old judgment in case of Ram Chandra and Ram Bharosey v/s. State of Uttar Pradesh reported in AIR 1957 SC 381 to submit that it is important to record the confession in open Court and during the Court hours and also to inquire why the accused is making confession knowing that it can be used against him.

14.2.40. The Apex Court was compelled to make this observation in view of the fact noted in para-10 of the judgment that there was an impropriety in recording the confession as the confession was recorded in the Jail premises, where the Magistrate had gone to interview the accused.

14.2.41. The Court may refer to the judgment of the Apex Court in case of Rabindra Kumar Pal alias Dara Singh v/s. Republic of India reported in 2011 (2) SCC 490, wherein upon analysis of various judgments on the point of confession laid down 11 principles as under:

"64. The following principles emerge with regard to Section 164 Cr.P.C.:-

(i) The provisions of Section 164 Cr.P.C. must be complied with not only in form, but in essence.

(ii) Before proceeding to record the confessional statement, a searching enquiry must be made from the accused as to the custody from which he was produced and the treatment he had been receiving in such custody in order to ensure that there is no scope for doubt of any sort of extraneous influence proceeding from a source interested in the prosecution.

(iii) A Magistrate should ask the accused as to why he wants to make a statement which surely shall go against his interest in the trial.

(iv) The maker should be granted sufficient time for reflection.

(v) He should be assured of protection from any sort of apprehended torture or pressure from the police in case he declines to make a confessional statement.

(vi) A judicial confession not given voluntarily is unreliable, more so, when such a confession is retracted, the conviction cannot be based on such retracted judicial confession.

(vii) Non-compliance of Section 164 Cr.P.C. goes to the root of the Magistrate's jurisdiction to record the confession and renders the confession unworthy of credence.

(viii) During the time of reflection, the accused should be completely out of police influence. The judicial officer, who is entrusted with the duty of recording confession, must apply his judicial mind to ascertain and satisfy his conscience that the statement of the accused is not on account of any extraneous influence on him.

(ix) At the time of recording the statement of the accused, no police or police official shall be present in the open court.

(x) Confession of a co-accused is a weak type of evidence.

(xi) Usually the Court requires some corroboration from the confessional statement before convicting the accused person on such a statement."

14.2.42. The reliance placed by learned Advocate on the judgment in case of Bahadul alias Ghanshyam Padhan v/s. State of Orissa reported in 1979 (4) SCC 346 on the issue of confession. The Court is of the opinion that this judgment cannot be treated as a pronouncement on the point of confession as in para-3, the only discussion on the confession is that even the High Court has not acted on the confession and has merely reproduced the relevant para of the High Court judgment.

14.2.43. Learned advocate has then referred to an old Calcutta High Court judgment of a Single Judge in case of Emperor v/s. Panchkari Dutt and others, reported in AIR 1925 CAL 587, both on the issue of 'confession' and 'retraction'. With reference to Section 24 of the Indian Evidence Act, learned advocate referred to para of the judgment, which dissected Section 24 of the Indian Evidence Act. Learned advocate submitted that, the word 'Appear' in the section is significant as a parameter which the Court has to apply to conclude whether there is any threat, inducement or promise and that too it is not necessary to establish the threat, inducement or promise by any set of evidence or probability, but should only appear to the Court that either of the three exists. However, in the opinion of the Court, the observation of the Court is different than submitted. For this, the Court may quote the relevant portion as under:-

"....There occurs the word "appears"; the "inducement, threat or promise having reference to the charge against the accused person" must proceed from a person in authority, but nothing is said as to the person to whom it is to be directed; it is enough if such inducement, threat or promise would in the opinion of the Court be sufficient to give the accused person grounds which would appear to the accused person (and not to the Court) reasonable for supposing that by making the confessions he would gain an advantage or avoid an evil of the nature contemplated in the section. It will be seen therefore that the mentality of the accused has to be judged rather than that of the person in authority……"

14.2.44. The Single Judge goes on to observe that there is still divergent opinion on the whether the word 'Appear' in the Section indicates a lesser degree of probability than would be necessary as in 'Proof' or whether the prosecution will have to prove affirmatively that it was voluntarily made or they should do so only in the event of doubt arising in the mind of trial Judge. The Court then went on to hold as under:-

"....the true and generally recognised view is that a confession duly recorded by a Magistrate with the proper certificate appended to it will be admitted in evidence subject to the provisions and restrictions contained in Section 24"

14.2.45. In the very judgment, the Court has also referred to the guidelines laid by the Court's general Rules and Circular orders, regarding confessional statement under Section 164, where on the facts the Magistrate had ignored the Rule No.2 (confessional statement be recorded in Court room and during Court hours) and Rule No.3 (immediate recording of statement coming from police custody, but giving reflection time). Still the Court observed that "Contravention of the Circular Orders deplorable though it is, it would not, however, render the record bad if otherwise, I am satisfied that the confession is voluntary."

14.2.46. For the same principle of Section 24 of Indian Evidence Act, learned advocate has relied upon the judgment in case of Pyare Lal Bhargava v/s. State of Rajasthan, reported in, AIR 1963 SC 1094. It is argued that four judges of Hon'ble Supreme Court have given meaning to word 'Appear' in Section 24. The Court has indeed observed as under:-

"...Under Section 24 of the Evidence Act such a stringent rule is waived but a lesser degree of assurance is laid down as the criterion. The standard of a prudent man is not completely displaced, but the stringent rule of proof is relaxed. Even so, the laxity of proof permitted does not warrant a court's opinion based on pure surmise. A prima facie opinion based on evidence and circumstances may be adopted as the standard laid down….."

14.2.47. However, the Apex Court in immediate para has also held as under:-

"The threat, inducement or promise must proceed from a person in authority and it is a question of fact in each case whether the person concerned is a man of authority or not. What is more important is that the mere existence of the threat, inducement or promise is not enough, but in the opinion of the court the said threat, inducement or promise shall be sufficient to cause a reasonable belief in the mind of accused that by confessing he would get an advantage or avoid any evil of a temporal nature in reference to the proceedings against him: while the opinion is that of the court, the criterion is the reasonable belief of the accused."

14.2.48. On the issue of retracted confession, the very judgment has observed as under:-

"…...A retracted confession may form the legal basis of a conviction if the court is satisfied that it was true and was voluntarily made But it has been held that a court shall not base a conviction on such a confession without corroboration. It is not a rule of law, but is only rule of prudence. It cannot even be laid down as an inflexible rule of practice or prudence that under no circumstances such a conviction can be made without corroboration, for a court may, in a particular case, be convinced of the absolute truth of a confession and prepared to act upon it without corroboration; but it may be laid down as a general rule of practice that it is unsafe to rely upon a confession, much less on a retracted confession, unless the court is satisfied that the retracted confession is true and voluntarily made and has been corroborated in material particulars., The High Court having regard to the said principles looked for corroboration and found it in the evidence of Bishan Swaroop, P.W-7, and the entry in the Dak Book, Ex. PA. 4, and accepted the confession in view of the said pieces of corroboration. The finding is one of fact and there is no permissible ground for disturbing it in this appeal."

14.2.49. Learned advocate has thereafter, referred to judgment in case of Kehar Singh and others. v/s. State (Delhi Administration), reported in, 1988 (3) SCC 609. (The Indira Gandhi Assassination Case) to submit that even in this judgment, after considering various decisions of the Supreme Court stated the requirement of provision 164(2) has to be fulfilled before recording confession and shall explain to the person making confession that (a) he is not bound to make it, (b) the evidence will be used against him, (c) sanctification of Magistrate that it is voluntary and (d) recording by Magistrate. It also observed that Section 533 of old Cr.P.C. (Section 463) provides for adducing such evidence to prove fulfilling of the requirement of Section 164 read with Section 281 of Cr.P.C.. These observations in the judgment were arising out of the fact as recorded that a statement of the accused was recorded before a retired District Judge and not before a Magistrate, that the statement was recorded at 9:00 PM and that the Judge did not introduce himself as a Magistrate and also did not satisfy himself by any question to the maker. In fact, the judgment very clearly lays down that failure of the Magistrate to question the accused as to his making the confession voluntarily is a radical and fatal defect which can not be cured by Section 533 of Cr.P.C. (Section 463). In the opinion of the Court, therefore, examining the Magistrate on oath to establish the compliance of requirement of Section 164 of Cr.P.C. was therefore, rightly not resorted to during the trial in the present case.

14.2.50. The Court may now refer to Full Bench decision of the Supreme Court in case of Shankaria v/s. State of Rajasthan, reported in 1978 (3) SCC 435 on the very issue of confession, where the Hon'ble Court Supreme Court has talked about a double test (i) whether the confession is perfectly voluntary, (ii) whether it is trustworthy. If the first test is not met, there is no question of the second test. Like in one case various circumstances were pleaded to argue that confession is not voluntary. The circumstances pleaded were the police did not want to give the appellant an opportunity of having independent advice which could more easily be available in the District town of Ganganagar rather than at the Sub- Divisional town, Raisinghnagar. The appellant therefore, even on the 12th, 13th and 14th of June 1974, during the time when he was an inmate of the Judicial Lock- up, could not be said to be free from police surveillance and influence. The Magistrate hardly gave 20 minutes to the appellant for reflection before recording his confession. It is maintained that according to the ruling of this Court, the Magistrate should have given at least 24 hours to, the appellant, to think and decide. There is reason to suspect that after recording the confession, the appellant was handed back to the Police Superintendent, Shri Srivastava who then took him to Hanumangarh. If that be a fact, it would amount to a contravention of sub-section (3) of Section 164 of Cr.P.C. The appellant during his examination under Section 313 of Cr.P.C., stated: "During those days, Kanshi Prasad Ji was staying in the Police Station, Raisinghnagar which is adjacent to the Judicial Lock-up, and used to see and threaten me. The appellant replied I did not give this statement voluntarily. I have given this statement under compulsion due to the fear, threat and beating given by Shri Kashi Prasad. In cross-examination, no question was put to Shri Kashi Prasad Srivastava to show that the Judicial Lock-Up Raisingh Nagar is adjacent to the Police Station, nor was he asked whether at the material time, he was staying in the Police Station Raisingh Nagar. Shri Srivastava was however asked as to whether he had compelled and beaten the accused to make the confessional statement. This was sharply denied by him. It may be noted that despite a specific question put by the Magistrate to the accused during his preliminary examination on 14-6-1974, he (accused) did not complain about any threat, inducement, pressure or beating given to him by Shri Srivastava or anybody else. The argument is that the Magistrate should have given at least 24 hours to the appellant after his preliminary examination, to think over the matter, in Jail, free from fear of the Police. It is true that the interval between the preliminary examination of the appellant and the recording of his confessional statement was about 15 minutes. But there is no statutory provision in Section 164 of Cr. P.C or elsewhere, or even an executive direction issued by the High Court that there should be an interval of 24 hours or more between the preliminary questioning of the accused and the recording of his confession. The condition precedent for recording a confession by the Magistrate in the course of Police investigation is provided in Section 164(2) of Cr.P.C. which mandates the Magistrate not to record any confession, unless upon questioning the accused person making it, he his reason to believe that it is being made voluntarily. Although the interval between the preliminary questioning of the appellant and his confession was about 15 minutes, the appellant had no less than 38 hours at his disposal, whilst he was in judicial custody free from fear or influence of the Police, to think and decide whether or not to make a confession. The appellant was admitted to the Judicial Lock Raisingnagar under the orders of the Magistrate about or after 4 p.m. on that date. Thereafter, the appellant continuously remained in the Judicial Lock-Up or judicial custody till his confession was recorded on June 12, 1974 from 8.45 a.m. onwards. On the 14th June, notwithstanding the fact that the accused Shankaria was in judicial custody from the evening of the 12th June after the preliminary questioning, the Magistrate allowed 15 minutes more to him for reflection. Thus considered, Shankaria had, as a matter of fact, about 38 or 40 hours in judicial custody, immediately preceding the confession, and this was rightly considered sufficient to secure freedom from fear or influence of the Police to him (Shankaria).

14.2.51. Thereafter, the Apex Court held as under: -

"45. The facts in Sarwan Singh v. State of Punjab were entirely different. Therein, the accused who had visible marks of injuries was straightaway brought by the Police from its prolonged custody, and produced before the Magistrate who immediately thereupon recorded his confessional statement, while the Police Sub-Inspector remained outside in the verandah of the Magistrate's office. The Magistrate did not ask the accused how he came to be injured. It was in these circumstances that this Court held that the failure of the Magistrate to give adequate time to the accused to consider the matter, stamped it is unvoluntary.

"46. The facts of the case in hand are, substantially in line with those of Abdul Razak v/s. State of Maharashtra. There, the accused was kept after his arrest in police custody for a fortnight. Then, after being kept in jail custody for three days, he was produced before the Executive Magistrate for recording confession. The Magistrate after a warning sent back the accused to jail and then recorded his confes- sion on the following day. Repelling the contention that the accused remained in prolonged police custody and his confession was not voluntary, this Court held that the accused had spent four days in judicial custody and he was not under the influence of the investigating agency for at least four days."

14.2.52. Another judgment relied is in case of Preetam v/s. State of M.P., reported in, 1996 (10) SCC 432 to submit that for disregarding provision of Section 164(2) of Cr.P.C. the confession cannot be sole basis of conviction. In the facts of this case, it is pertinent to observe that the Magistrate had given only two hours time to reflect before recording confession.

14.2.53. Learned advocate has thereafter, relied upon the decision of Privy Council in the case of Nazir Ahmed v/s. King Emperor, reported in, AIR 1936 PC 253(2) and submitted that it is this celebrated judgment which led the principle of "where power is given to do a certain thing in certain manner the thing must be done in that manner or not at all". Learned advocate submitted that this observation was made on the issue of 'confession' only. However, in the opinion of the Court, the circumstance under which the observation was required to be made is very relevant. In Nazir Ahmed (supra), the Magistrate at the time of drawing a point out panchnama has recorded the admission which the prosecution had projected as a confession under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. We may therefore, narrate the relevant facts from the judgment itself as under:-.

"...The evidence of one Mr. L. D. Vasisht, a First Class Magistrate, and therefore a Magistrate entitled to proceed under Section 164, was the determining evidence. This witness deposed that on November 14, 1934, on the application of the police and under the orders of the District Magistrate, he proceeded by car to the scene of the dacoity and to the places material to the events connected with it. The accused in handcuffs accompanied him in another car. The object was said to be that the accused, including the appellant, might be given the opportunity of voluntarily and after a caution leading the way and showing to the Magistrates the places where incidents in the crime occurred. On arrival, the Magistrate said that he excluded the police, or sent them to stand apart at a distance, and then, was led round by each man and the places were pointed out. As to the appellant the Magistrate deposed that the result was a full confession to participation in the robbery and to firing a revolver in the course of the pursuit. The deponent said he made rough notes of what he was told and,, after dictating to a typist a memorandum from the rough notes, then destroyed them. He produced, and there was put in evidence, a memorandum, called a note, signed by him, containing the substance but not all of the matter to which he spoke orally. The note was signed by him and at the end, above the signature, there was appended a certificate somewhat to the same effect as that prescribed in Section 164 and in particular stating that the Magistrate believed that " the pointing out and the statements were voluntarily made." But it was not suggested that the Magistrate though he was manifestly acting under Part V of the Code either purported to follow or in fact followed the procedure of ections 164 and 364. Indeed, as there was no record in existence at the material time, there was nothing to be shown or to be read to the accused, and nothing he could sign or refuse to sign. The Magistrate offered no explanation of why he acted as he did instead of following the procedure required by Section 164…."

14.2.54. The next judgment relied by learned advocate is in case of Kalavati v/s. State of Himachal Pradesh, reported in, 1953 (1) SCC 86 on the issue of 'retracted confession'. Though the judgment is cited that the retracted statement is not reliable, actually the judgment speaks about how a retracted confession is to be used against the co-accused. Therefore, in para-10, the five Judge of the Supreme Court have observed as under:

"...It is true that a retracted confession has only little value as the basis for a conviction, and that the confession of one accused is not evidence against a co- accused tried jointly for the same offence, but can only be taken into 'consideration' against him. This deals with its probative value and has nothing to do with any repugnancy to the Constitution."

14.2.55. When the word 'consideration' is used by the Apex Court, meaning thereby, even a retracted statement of an accused can be taken in 'consideration' for a co-accused. Therefore, the retracted statement has some evidentiary value and cannot be rendered as useless piece of evidence.

14.2.56. Reliance is placed in case of Puran v/s. State of Punjab, reported in, 1952 (2) SCC 454 for the issue of retracted confession. In para-9 of the judgment, it is recorded that the confessional statement was recorded even while the accused was still in police custody on 24th February and was retracted on 7th March and then referred to the principle that unless a retracted confession is corroborated in material particulars, it is not prudent to base conviction. Again on facts, it is recorded that the attention of the Court was not drawn to any evidence which corroborates in material particulars the statement contained in the confession. Such is not the fact in the present case where there are panchnamas pointing out the houses used for conspiracy, planning and making of the bomb and the discoveries of various articles connected to making of bomb/explosive and ultimately the FSL report which established the presence of explosive material and other material connected to making of the bomb.

14.2.57. Next case relied upon is in case of Reena Hazarika v/s. State of Assam, reported in, (2019) 13 SCC 289 on the issue of a statement of accused under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. to submit that it is a valuable right and not an empty formality. This judgment is cited while contending that the makers of the confession in their 313 statement clearly narrate that they made the confession due to the threats of harassment by the police and that they were under duress.

14.2.58. True it is that the process under Section 313 is not an empty formality. In this case, para-17 reproduces the version of the accused who is the wife of the deceased and was tried for his murder. In the statement under Section 313, she has given an entire account of what she saw on the day of incident and the circumstance which led to her implication in offence like last seen together with her husband or her unnatural behaviour of not crying on the death of husband led the neighbours to treat her as prime accused.

14.2.59. In our case, the answer given by the maker of the confession to the question put for regarding confessional statement and the explanation regarding commission of crime in the statement under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. is to be considered by the Court and non explanation to each of the circumstances becomes one of the many circumstances in the trial based on the circumstantial evidence. If the argument of defence in this regard is to be accepted, then each answer that may be given to the questions put on the circumstance gathered against accused under Section 313 may lead to a mini trial which cannot be the purport of Section 313.

14.2.60. Therefore, the Apex Court in case of Reena Hazarika (supra) the word 'Admission' and 'confession' can be interchangeably used in common parlance. In law, 'Admission' is defined under Section 17 to mean a statement which suggests any inference as to any fact in issue or relevant fact. Word 'confession' though not defined has found reference in Section 24 of the Indian Evidence Act and admission in a criminal case is commonly called admission (See P. Ramantha Aiyar's Advanced Law Lexicon, 3rd Edition, 2005, Volume-I, Page-960) and there 'confession' is defined as direct admission or acknowledgment of his guilt by a person who has committed a crime. However, the difference in 'admission' and 'confession' can also be that if a person admits all facts necessary to convict him, it is a confession. If such admission does not given all essentials of the crime, it is only 'admission'. Therefore, the term 'confession' is a species of 'admission'.

14.2.61. The Court may refer to an old decision of five Judges Bench of Bombay High Court in case of Emperor v. Narayen Raghunath Patki, reported in, 1907 (0) BLR 789; especially on the issue of treating a confession as evidence. Though, the judgment is written by all the five Judges, but insofar as the 'confession' as 'evidence' the view taken by them is common. For the purpose of brevity and clarity, the Court may reproduce para-23 of the judgment part written by Chandavarkar J, and para-45 of the judgment authored by Devar J, respectively as under:-

"23. The confessions, therefore, cannot be excluded from the evidence in the case. We must consider them and assess their value as evidence properly admitted to see whether they are true confessions. What the presiding Judge at the trial had to decide in the exercise of his judicial discretion was whether the confessions appeared to him to be voluntary and he has so decided. What we have to decide is, are they proved to be true- No doubt in assessing the value of a confession as sufficient evidence and finding out whether it is true or false, various considerations do and must enter, of which one may be and generally is whether it was voluntary or not. But the question as to its voluntariness comes in there only as a subordinate though material element in the main question of the credibility of the proof. And hence the rule of law stated by Mr. Taylor in his work on Evidence (para 791) that "deliberate and voluntary confessions of guilt, if clearly proved, are among the most effectual proofs in law." So it has been ruled in the American Courts that after the Court has ruled that the confession is admissible, the accused may ask to have the jury disregard it if they think it not voluntary: Income v. Culver 126 Mass. 464."

"45. To sum up shortly my views of this question, I hold that the question of the admissibility or otherwise of the accused's confession (Ex. B) was a question which the learned Judge who presided at the trial had to decide. After hearing arguments of counsel he pronounced his judgment on the question and admitted it in evidence. The accused's counsel did not ask for a reservation of this point for the opinion of the High Court. The acting Advocate General refers only to one exhibit and leaves the confession untouched. Under the circumstances I am of opinion that it is not open to us at this stage to go into the recorded evidence for the purpose of finding whether the confession was properly admitted. It is on the record. It is before us as part of the evidence against the accused. I hold that we have no power to exclude it altogether from our consideration."

14.2.62. The Apex Court in case of Nazir Khan v/s. State of Delhi, reported in 2003 (8) SCC 461 also dealing with an act of terror under TADA observed in para-24 that "free and voluntary confession is deserving of highest credit, because it is presumed to flow from the highest sense of guilt.".

14.2.63. The Apex Court in case of Aloke Nath Dutta and others v/s. State of West Bengal, reported in, 2007 (12) SCC 230 in para-87 it is held that confession ordinarily is admissible in evidence. It is relevant fact and can be acted upon confession may under certain circumstances form the basis of conviction. However, it is trite that the Court has to satisfy itself on (1) voluntariness, (2) trustfulness and (3) corroboration.

14.2.64. Section 28 of the Indian Evidence Act makes a provision for the confession to be relevant. Section 24 provides that the process of making confession should appear to the Court that such process is free of any inducement, threat or promise and that too from a person in authority.

14.2.65. For the investigation and prosecution of an offence of this magnitude, the evidence of a particular fact in issue or particular accused, cannot be treated as a representation of all the facts in issue. Therefore, the argument of the defence that if the evidence, such as the confession of one accused is recorded in a manner which is doubtful, for example, by inducement, should not lead to an automatic conclusion that all the other confessions are the outcome of such an inducement.

14.2.66. Moreover, insofar as the circumstances under Section 24 of Indian Evidence Act are concerned, i.e., the confession becoming irrelevant upon being given under any inducement, threat or promise, if the defence seeks to rely upon such a plea, then the existence of such circumstance needs to be substantiated on record and mere pleading of the same is not sufficient.

14.2.67. In the cross-examination of the Investigating Officer, the Court does not find that any question was put with regard to the process of recording and making of the confession, the answer to which would in any manner establish the existence of any circumstance mentioned under Section 24 of Indian Evidence Act. In this regard, the Court has also perused the deposition of the Investigating Officers namely; PW No.1163-Mayur Jagmalbhai Chavda at Exh.8638 wherein he has deposed in his cross examination at Para 177 that, no torture was inflicted upon the accused persons so as to extract a false confession or that false evidence had been fabricated so as to file a false chargesheet against them. The Court has also perused the deposition of PW No.1154-Usha Bachubhai Rada at Exh.8340 wherein in the cross examination at Para 128, it has been deposed that the accused persons were not subjected to any third degree torture and has denied that the accused persons were not subject to medical examination during remand.

14.2.68. Further, to ensure that the confession is free of the three parameters of Section 24, a procedure has been prescribed under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. To appreciate the arguments made by defence, we need to focus on and break down Section 164(2) and 164(4) accordingly. The Magistrate is required before recording the confession to explain to the maker that he is not bound to do so and if done, it can be used against him and Magistrate should put appropriate questions to satisfy himself about the voluntariness of the confession. The Magistrate also has to ensure that the recording is in consonance with requirement of Section 281 of Cr.P.C. and has a memorandum at the foot of it.

14.2.69. Section 281 emphasis on the language of the Court for making recording of examination of accused and make memorandum of substance of examination with a signature. This recording is required to be shown and read over to the accused and made to understand in his language which will thereafter be signed by the accused and the Magistrate and be certified by recording Magistrate.

14.2.70. Criminal Manual Rule 34 further provides for the guidelines to the process that may be adopted by the Magistrate. The Court has considered 14 sub-clauses of Rule 34, which all go on to ensure that the statutory requirement of Section 164 of Cr.P.C. are met with. Learned advocate while referring to these clauses has submitted that the confession of accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh and accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki were recorded before the Court hours and not in open Court, the Magistrate has not written in question and answer form, the Magistrate has not inquired and recorded about the length of police custody, not recorded about police beating in custody or any ill treatment and has also not recorded the reason why he wants to make a confessional statement. Also, it is submitted that the Magistrate has not assessed that the maker will not be sent in police custody and also has not ensured proper legal aid to the accused.

14.2.71. The Court may now consider submission of learned advocate that the confessions are not voluntary as the remand application reflects resistance of accused to co-operate with the investigation. The Court has perused the remand reports which learned advocate has tendered during course of investigation and found that the remand reports filed at various stages, first being on 16.08.2008 which mentions various grounds for remand and which applied to all the accused arrested and produced and did not specifically to accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh and accused No.21- Mehandihasan @ Vikki.

14.2.72. It is submitted that in the very first remand application, the Investigating Officer has referred to the incident to be a serial blast and therefore, pointing to conspiracy and that the accused belonging to terror groups and where headstrong and religious fanatics. If such is a description of accused then it is not believable that the accused would confess. Referring to the orders of the remand, learned advocate pointed that the stand of the defence from that stage that the accused were innocent and are falsely implicated. Therefore, also it is doubtful that they may have confessed. The Court is of the view that the reasons to confess are to be found from the document pertaining to process of making confession which the Court will refer to a little later. To answer the submission on remand application, the Court finds that in each and every remand order, the Court has recorded presence of advocate for the accused not only private advocate, but wherever needed advocate through legal aid have also been provided. In orders, both for accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh and accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki for remand each and every accused is shown to be represented by individual advocates; the Court may particularly observe in the order dated 24.10.2008 where the accused is represented by the legal aid advocate. In all the applications for remand, the accused being represented by private advocate and wherever needed by legal aid advocate, the Court is of the view that accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh and accused No.21- Mehandihasan @ Vikki as well as other accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira and accused No.76-Manjarimam @ Alam @ Jamil S/O Aliimam were all provided with all necessary legal assistance and therefore, arguments of defence that the confession is made without having any legal assistance is required to be rejected.

14.2.73. Exh.8617 is an application by accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh for confession, similarly Exh,.8621 is for accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki, Exh.8625 is for accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira and Exh.8629 is for accused No.35-Rafiyuddin. that out of religious incitement and being emotionally charged they were mislead by the members of SIMI and IM in Ahmedabad and attended various meetings and terror camps for which they are repenting and out of remorse want to voluntarily disclose their involvement with other companions as per procedure of law and that they are not under any pressure (Daban) and greed (Lobh) or inducement (Lalach).

14.2.74. The Court may thereafter refer to Exh.8619 which is the confessional statement of accused No.2-Ibrahim Shaikh. Exh.8619 initial part records that accused No.2-Ibrahim Shaikh was produced before him under forwarding letter of jail bearing No.30/08 from the judicial custody on 07.11.2008 and the Judge introduced himself as a Judge and asked the escort police to sit outside the chamber and ascertain that he wants to say something about the incident to which it is recorded that the Judge informed that it is not necessary for him to give any confession and such confession may be used against him and ascertained that there is no duress of any police or crime branch. He was also asked if he needs any advocate or legal aid, to which he clearly refused and insisted that he volunteers to confess. For reflection time, he was ordered to be taken to jail and yadi to jail authority was issued to produce accused No.2- Ibrahim Shaikh again on 12.11.2008 at 15:00 hours. The document further reads that on 12.11.2008 at 15:45 hours, he was produced however, due to paucity of time confession was not recorded, but accused was ordered to be brought on 14.11.2008 at 15:00 hours. The process of recording confession commenced on 14.11.2008 at 16:50 hours when accused was produced through the jail authority. Once again, the Magistrate records that there is no pressure from police or other authority to record confession no police has met him in jail or that he has not been taken out for investigation purpose and that accused has after due thinking only decided to confess, again he is informed that confession can be used against him only after the recording as also the Magistrate has proceeded to record the confession. Similarly, accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki made application at Exh.8621 which is a handwritten application in Hindi language. This letter also expresses that members of SIMI and IM by religious manner and being emotionally charged the accused helped in bomb blast and attend terror camps and meetings. But he is repenting and therefore, in this offence of bomb-blast he wanted to confess to about activity of all those who have participated in this. The accused was ordered to be produced before the Court No.11 by the Chief Metropolitan Magistrate.

14.2.75. He was thereafter produced on 10.11.2008 and vide Exh.8623, the Magistrate has recorded that under forward No.30/08 by Chief Metropolitan Magistrate the accused was produced by jail authority under forward No.30/08 at 15:50 hours. The accused was brought to chamber to whom the Magistrate introduced himself as a Judge and asked police to leave the chamber and nobody else was present when accused expressed desire to say something about the incident. The Magistrate thereafter, informed the accused that it is not necessary to confess and such confession will be used against him and also recorded that there is no pressure of any police or crime branch and that whether he wants legal assistance to which he refused. Thereafter, the accused was sent back to jail authority for reflection with yadi to produce again on 12.11.2008 at 15:00 hours.

14.2.76. The accused was produced on 12.11.2008 when the time shown is 16:20 hours, again the process commenced at 17:15 hours and the police were asked to leave the chamber again. The accused was questioning about his willingness and whether he has been pressurized or lured in to confess to which he stated that after thinking only he is volunteering to confess. Thereafter, the Magistrate has proceeded to record the confession.

14.2.77. The Court also observes that both confessional statements below Exh.8619 and Exh.8623, the Magistrate has made a memorandum to the effect that the confession is recorded in the own words of the accused and was read out and explained and that the Magistrate having satisfied about voluntariness has put his own signature and also that of the accused.

14.2.78. Similarly, for accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira, Exh.8625 application is made expressing that regarding the blast he wants to disclose voluntarily about role of others in bomb-blast again. The Chief Metropolitan Magistrate forwarded the Court No.5 to record and forward to Metro Magistrate Court No.11. Exh. 8627 records that accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira was forwarded to Metro Magistrate Court No.5 under forward No.303 of 2008 and was brought from judicial custody at 16:50 hours. It also records that the Magistrate introduced himself to be the Judge and asking the escort police to leave ensuring only both of them in chamber. He was thereafter informed about that it is not compulsory to confess and that confession will be used against him and that there is no pressure or inducement by police or crime branch. He was also asked if he needed any legal assistance to which he was refused and thereafter for reflecting he was sent to judicial authority with yadi to produce on 12.11.2018 (sic.) at 15:00 hours.

14.2.79. On 12.11.2008 at 16:45 hours, the accused was produced in chamber where the Magistrate again records whether during reflection period, he met any police or whether crime branch has pressurized him and that no body of investigation met him and that after thinking only he is giving the statement and accordingly, the confession was recorded. A very short confession was recorded followed with the memorandum about the satisfaction of the Magistrate about voluntariness and the statement being in his own hand writing was read out and signed both by Magistrate and accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira.

14.2.80. The Court has compared the timing of recording of both successive confession on 12.11.2008, Exh.8627 between 4:45 PM to 5:08 PM and thereafter, Exh.8625 between 5:15 PM to 6:10 PM therefore, Exh.8619 could not be recorded and was thereafter done on 14.11.2008.

14.2.81. The Court may now refer to Exh.8629, which is a application by accused No.35-Rafiyuddin to Chief Metropolitan Magistrate for voluntary disclosure of some facts of the bomb-blast. Exh.8629 is dated 18.01.2009. The Metro Magistrate Court No.11 on 19.01.2009 records that accused was explained that he may not confess and that it can be used against him. That, there is no lure or promise or force which was ascertained and specified that he is not promised and ascertained of an acquittal/discharge from offence. The Magistrate also introduced himself. Thereafter, he was sent to Sabarmati Jail so he can rethink and be produced again on 31.01.2009. When this accused was produced on 31.01.2009, once again his voluntariness was ascertained and thereafter, the Court room was emptied and thereafter, proceeded to record the statement. At the beginning of recording words “Sogandh Apya” (Oath Administered) is stated. At the end of the statement, the accused has endorsed that facts have been written as per his instructions and have been read out to him. At the bottom is the memorandum of the Magistrate and recording the satisfaction of voluntariness of the confession.

14.2.82. The Court has closely perused the aforesaid document, which indicates the process of making confession. The Court finds that the Magistrate before recording have made the accused aware of their rights, no need to confess, confession being used against maker, need of the advocate, ascertaining voluntariness to confess, reading out and explaining to maker, putting the memorandum as per Section 164(4), introducing himself as a Judge, giving sufficient days for reflection, ensuring that the accused are sent to judicial custody out of the influence of the investigation and that recording the same during Court hours as be the hours which are prescribed by Criminal Manual. Of course, except for one confession, others have been recorded in the chamber, but such a decision of the Magistrate is left to the wisdom of the Magistrate who can assess the prevailing situation. Moreover, the provision of Rule 34(1) only provides for "ordinarily' to record in open Court. The nature of serial blasts itself and investigation surrounding it, is not an ordinary situation where the Magistrate would be at that stage and will have to decide on where to record with due regard to safety and security of those involved in making confession.

14.2.83. The process for statement and confession is similar on Section 164 of Cr.P.C., learned advocate submitted that Sub-clause (2) requires recording of the reason to believe. This submission is required to be rejected outright as it does not oblige/the language does not oblige to record any such reason to believe voluntariness. The fact that the Magistrate has proceeded to record presupposes all the parameters existing.

14.2.84. The arguments are advanced that the confessional statement could not be treated as admissible evidence because the prosecution has failed to examine the Magistrate as a witness. It is the burden of the prosecution to establish the fact of voluntariness of the confession and the fulfilment of the requirement of the criminal manual only by examining the Magistrate and that an opportunity be available to defence to cross examine the witness with regard to existence or absence of such steps mentioned in the criminal manual.

14.2.85. In this regard, the Court is of the view that in the preceding paras, the Court has discussed as to the fulfilment of the requirement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. as also requirement of Rule 34 of the Criminal Manual. Over and above this, the legal provision under Section 80 of the Indian Evidence Act and Section 114(e) of the Indian Evidence Act, both protect the confessional statement Exh.8619, 8623, 8627 to make it admissible in evidence. The court in the subsequent paras also discussed this issue by referring to the Decision of the Apex Court in case of Madi(ibid).

14.2.86. If the argument is to be accepted, then the provision of Sections 114 and 80 of the Indian Evidence Act will be rendered otiose and the Magistrate be reduced to yet another witness who will be questioned treating the statement under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C. to be a previous statement to contradict the Magistrate. The guideline laid down in the Manual are directory and cannot override a Statute. The requirement is under Section 164 of the Cr.P.C.. The Court having found that the content in the application itself is self-explanatory regarding reason to confess and voluntariness free from inducement or fear, the Court has to believe that the Magistrate has proceeded with the making being certain of the requirement being fulfilled.

14.2.87. Learned Advocate has argued based on judgment already discussed that the Magistrate has not inquired from the accused making confession about prolonged police custody before making the confession. The facts as emerging on record and as discussed, there is no question of the accused being in Police custody. All the accused were in judicial custody brought from the Jail and for reflection period again sent to Jail Authority. Moreover, special questions were put that during reflection period there was no contact with the Investigation thereby successfully removing the accused much outside the influence if any of investigation.

Retracted Confession:-

14.2.88. The Court may now examine the arguments of defence that the retracted statement may not be relied. For this purpose, learned advocate has referred to the letter of retraction written to the Magistrate and also to their statement under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. The Court may now examine both in case of all the accused who have confessed and retracted. Accused No.2-Imran Ibhrahim Shaikh has retracted vide Exh.9216, accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki vide Exh.9226 and accused No.24-Umar @ Ashok Kalabhai Kabira vide Exh.9227. Statement under Section 313 of accused No.2- Imran Ibhrahim Shaikh is Exh.124 and accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki is Exh.143. To the Court, it appears that the retraction is a concerted attempt by all the three accused who on same day i.e. on 25.11.2008 have sent their retraction to learned Metro Magistrate Court No.11.

14.2.89. Exh.9216 is a letter of retraction by accused No.2-Imran Ibrahim Shaikh, where he has alleged that during police remand period he was beaten and forced to sign confession. Periodically he was brought on remand and beaten up. It is also alleged that one Police Sub-Inspector Bharwad had issued threats to his mother and out of fear for his parents he had broken down and therefore, confessed. He also said that he was not allowed to meet advocates.

14.2.90. Now the Court may compare with the stand of this accused in his Section 313 statement with regard to the question posed on Exh.8619; confessional statement. The accused No.2-Imrah Ibrahim Shaikh has replied that in the Magistrate's Chamber, Investigating Officer, V.R. Tolia was present who warned him to write and sign to whatever the Magistrate tells him else he would be taken again on remand and tortured and thereafter, on many papers signatures were obtained (See Page No.49561).

14.2.91. Therefore, here two complete different versions are coming out on record of the accused for retraction. Therefore, the Court is of the view that this cannot be treated as a retraction at all, but an afterthought based on the subsequent circumstances. Similarly, for accused No.21--Mehandihasan @ Vikki, the retraction dated 25th November is Exh.9226 where he has alleged that he had lost his balance of mind and he still frightened and that he was made to confess out of compulsion by one 'Madam'. He was threatened that if he did not confess then he would be taken to crime branch. Now, if the same is compared with the stand of accused No.21-Mehandihasan @ Vikki in statement under Section 313 at Exh.143, where he states that his confession is not voluntary but out of fear of crime branch. He had learnt the confession by heart and wrote it before the Magistrate. Here also, inconsistent versions are coming for retraction. Therefore, this retraction, in the opinion of the Court, is an afterthought.

14.2.92. The Court may now deal with the aspect of Retraction of the confession. The Court has already discussed about the circumstances under which it is recorded the safe guards adopted and also the circumstances regarding its retraction. The Court may also therefore discuss the utility and value of a confession upon retraction.

14.2.93. The Apex Court in case of State of Tamil Nadu v/s. Kutty @ Lakshmi Narasimhan, reported in 2001 (6) SCC 550 held as under:

"12. Learned Judges of the High Court declined to act on the said confession mainly for two reasons. First is that the confession was retracted by the maker thereof and second is that the recovery of articles was made prior to the confession. We may state at the outset itself that both reasons are too insufficient for overruling the confession.

13. It is not the law that once a confession was retracted the Court should presume that the confession is tainted. As a matter of practical knowledge we can say that non-retracted confession is a rarity in criminal cases. To retract from confession is the right of the confessor and all the accused against whom confessions were produced by the prosecution have invariably adopted that right. It would be injudicious to jettison a judicial confession on the mere premise that its maker has retracted from it. The Court has a duty to evaluate the evidence concerning the confession by looking at all aspects. The twin test of a confession is to ascertain whether it was voluntary and true. Once those tests are found to be positive the next endeavour is to see whether there is any other reason which stands in the way of acting on it. Even for that, retraction of the confession is not the ground to throw the confession overboard.

14. We are unable to understand how a judicial confession would become bad by reason of the fact that articles belonging to the victims were recovered prior to the making of the confession. That aspect, instead of vitiating the confession, could be a factor in favour of the voluntaries of the confession. When the culprit finds that the articles concealed by him are all disinterred it is possible that he might feel that there is no use in concealing the facts any more. Then he may desire to make a clean brast of everything to any person or authorities."

14.2.94. Yet another judgment of the Apex Court on the issue is an old decision of 1958 in case of Subramania Goundan v/s. State Of Madras, reported in, 1958 AIR(SC) 66 in Para-14 of the judgment, the Apex Court, while considering case of Balbir Singh v/s. State of Punjab proceeded to hold that it is not necessary that each and every circumstance mentioned in the confession regarding the complicity of the accused must be separately and independently corroborated nor is it essential that the corroboration must come from facts and circumstances discovered after the confession is made.

"14. The next question is whether there is corroboration of the confession since it has been retracted. A confession of a crime by a person, who has perpetrated it, is usually the outcome of penitence and remorse and in normal circumstances is the best evidence against the maker. The question has very often arisen whether a retracted confession may form the basis of conviction if believed to be true and voluntarily made. For the purpose of arriving at this conclusion the court has to take into consideration not only the reasons given for making the confession or retracting it but the attending facts and circumstances surrounding the same. It may be remarked that there can be no absolute rule that a retracted confession cannot be acted upon unless the same is corroborated materially. It was laid down in certain cases one such being In re Kesava Pillai, that if the reasons given by an accused person for retracting a confession are on the face of them false, the confession may be acted upon as it stands and without any corroboration. But the view taken by this Court on more occasions than one is that as a matter of prudence and caution which has sanctified itself into a rule of law, a retracted confession cannot be made solely the basis of conviction unless the same is corroborated one of the latest cases being "Balbir Singh V/s. State of Punjab, but it does not necessarily mean that each and every circumstance mentioned in the confession regarding the complicity of the accused must be separately and independently corroborated nor is it essential that the corroboration must come from facts and circumstances discovered after the confession was made. It would be sufficient, in our opinion, that the general trend of the confession is substantiated by some evidence which would tally with what is contained in the confession. In this connection it would be profitable to contrast a retracted confession with the evidence of an approver or an accomplice. Though u/s. 133 of the Evidence Act a conviction is not illegal merely because it proceeds on the uncorroborated testimony of witnesses, illustration (b) to sec. 114 lays down that a court may presume that an accomplice is unworthy of credit unless he is corroborated in material particulars. In the case of such a person on his own showing he is a depraved and debased individual who having taken part in the crime tries to exculpate himself and wants to fasten the liability on another. In such circumstances it is absolutely necessary that what he has deposed must be corroborated in material particulars. In contrasting this with the statement of a person making a confession who stands on a better footing, one need only find out when there is a retraction whether the earlier statement, which was the result of remorse, repentance and contrition, was voluntary and true or not and it is with that object that corroboration is sought for. Not infrequently one is apt to fall in error in equating a retracted confession with the evidence of an accomplice and, therefore, it is advisable to clearly understand the distinction between the two. The standards of corroboration in the two are quite different. In the case of the person confessing who has resiled from his statement, general corroboration is sufficient while an accomplice's evidence should be corroborated in material particulars. In addition the court must feel that the reasons given for the retraction in the case of a confession are untrue."

14.2.95. Similarly, in Henry Westmuller Roberts v/s. State of Assam, reported in, AIR 1985 (SC) 823 the Supreme Court held that for lending assurance to the retracted confession, it is sufficient to have general corroboration of the important incidents mentioned in the confession, and it is not necessary that the Retracted confession should be corroborated in each material particular.

14.2.96. The Apex Court on the issue again in judgment in case of Parmananda Pegu v/s. State of Assam, reported in 2004 (7) SCC 779 in Para-19 observed that the Apex Court in series of decisions has evolved rule of prudence that the Court should look for corroboration. However, there need not be corroboration in respect of each and every material particular and broadly there should be corroboration so that the confession taken as a whole fits into the facts proved by other evidences and the Court should have assurance that the retracted confession was on facts voluntary.

14.2.97. The Court in this regard may also refer to and rely upon decision of the Apex Court in case of Madi Ganga v/s. State of Orissa, reported in, AIR 1981 SC 1165 wherein the Apex Court held that general corroboration is sufficient to sustain conviction. In Madi

(supra), O. Chinnappa Reddy, J. in Para-5, spoke on Section 80 of the Indian Evidence Act that it makes examination of the Magistrate unnecessary. It authorizes the Court to presume that the document is genuine, that any statement as to the circumstances under which it was taken are true and that such statement was truly taken in accordance with law.

14.2.98. The Apex Court also proceeded to reject the argument advanced there, like in the present case that had the Magistrate been examined as a witness, the accused might have been in a position to show by cross examination that the confession recorded by the Magistrate was not voluntary and the Magistrate having appended the Certificate that he was satisfied that the confession was not voluntary.

14.2.99. The Apex Court in case of Bheru Singh S/o Kalyan Singh v/s. State of Rajasthan, reported in, 1994 (2) SCC 467 went a step ahead to hold that retracted confession can form the legal basis of conviction, if the Court is satisfied that it is true and made voluntarily. (See Para-23).

14.2.100. Similarly, again in old judgment in case of Pyare Lal (supra) in Para-7, held on retracted 'confession' that retracted confession can be basis of conviction.

14.2.101. This Court may specifically deal with a particular infamous "Nithari Killing Case" as learned advocate has made a specific reference to the case, both to the decision of the Division Bench of Allahbad High Court and also a curative petition. 16 FIRs were registered with regard to the cases where different persons were suspected to have been killed for cannibalism. Trial of one FIR was concluded and accused were awarded death sentence. The sentence was forwarded for confirmation before the High Court and the High Court confirmed the death sentence.

Appeal to the Supreme Court against confirmation of death sentence was rejected. It is thereafter, the trial of remaining 15 FIRs also resulted in death sentence. However, in the confirmation case, the High Court took a different view and completely acquitted the accused. On account of this development, the accused filed a curative petition which in the death sentence confirmed upto Supreme Court and the Supreme Court thought it fit to re-look at its own decision in a reported judgment in case of Surendra Koli v/s. State of Uttar Pradesh and another, reported in, 2025 SCC Online SC 2384.

14.2.102. The Supreme Court observed two glaring facts and it is these facts which will distinguish our case (a) The Supreme Court observed 60 days of uninterrupted police custody without meaningful legal aid. This factor is completely absent in facts of our case, (b) The presence and influence of the Investigating Officer during Section 164 Cr.P.C. procedure. This factor is also completely absent in our case. Over and above, the Court may refer to the judgment of Allahabad High Court in acquitting the accused, where a finding of fact is given that there was no reflection period given and legal aid was provided for five minutes before recording of the confession (See para 276, 277) 2023:AHC:199091-DB and para-410. Referring to a report of the High Powered Committee placed on record as additional paper book pointing strongly towards the suspected trade of body organs involved which had missed the eye of investigation. With these two fundamentals, variations on facts, the judgment cited of "Nithari Killing" may not be of assistance to the defence.

14.2.103. The arguments of defence regarding long police custody supported by various judgments, referred hereinabove, the Court deems it fit to reject this argument as in the facts of the cited case, typically the investigation is for single incident of crime and single FIR and investigation, whereas this was an investigation of 35 Nos. of FIR of Ahmedabad and Surat, where the necessary process/formality of investigation was required to be completed. Moreover, the cited judgment referred to the Police custody just before recording confession, whereas in the facts of this case as discussed the makers were invariably brought to Magistrate from Judicial custody, send back in Judicial custody for reflection period and precaution was taken to take them out of the influence of the Police before making their respective confession. The Court has minutely perused the confessional statement and for easy reference, has converted in Tabular form which is as under:

- Confessional Statement of co-accused

14.2.104. For considering the topic of confession, it is important to refer to Section 30 of Indian Evidence Act, which provides for consideration of proved confession affecting the person making it and others jointly under trial for the same offence. Before a statement of one of the accused persons can be taken into consideration against the other accused under section 30 of the Act, the following ingredients/conditions must exist/be fulfilled:

(i) there must be joint trial for the same offence

(ii) it must be a confession;

(iii) the confession of guilt must affect himself and others, i.e., implicate the maker substantially to the same extent as the other accused:

(iv) the confession of guilt must be duly proved."

14.2.105. In this regard, reference may be made to the decision of the Apex court in case of Prakash Dhawal Khairnar (Patil) v/s. State of Maharashtra, reported in, (2002) 2 SCC 35, wherein the Apex Court in para-19 held as under:-

"19. Further, explanation to Section 30 of the Evidence Act clarifies that "offence" as used in the Section includes the abetment of, or attempt to commit, the offence. Dealing with the scope of Section 30, this Court in State vs. Nalini has held that a plain reading thereof discloses that when the following conditions exist, namely, (i) more persons than one are being tried jointly; (ii) the joint trial of the persons is for the same offence; (iii) a confession is made by one of such persons (who are being tried jointly for the same offence); (iv) such a confession affects the maker as well as such persons (who are being tried jointly for the same offence); and (v) such a confession is proved in court, the court may take into consideration such confession against the maker thereof as well as against such persons (who are being jointly tried for the same offence). The Court further observed thus:- [SCC p.577, para 695]

> "695. In Kashmira Singh vs. State of MP this Court approved the principles laid down by the Privy Council in Bhuboni Sahu case vs. R. and observed:
> 'But cases may arise where the Judge is not prepared to act on the other evidence as it stand even though, if believed, it would be sufficient to sustain a conviction. In such an event the Judge may call in aid the confession and use it to lend assurance to the other evidence and thus fortify himself in believing what without the aid of the confession he would not be prepared to accept.'"

14.2.106. For this issue, extensive reliance is placed on Bhuboni Sahu v/s. King, reported in, 1949 SCC Online PC 12, of the Privy Council as a pioneer judgment on issue of confessional statement of co-accused. What was the prevailing foundational situation in India then, was the prime consideration for such a view. The Privy Council, of course, held that the confessional statement of a co-accused is a weak type of evidence, and before the Court there was only the evidence of the

"Approver", with the only supporting evidence being the confessional statement of another co-accused. Therefore, the Privy Council while considering the case of appellant, had before it a version of the approver supported by the confessional statement of co-accused, and the High Court did not act on these two pieces of evidence, which was approved by the Privy Council.

14.2.107. At the same time, this Court should not miss the categoric prevailing circumstance in Indian society, which was also observed by Privy Council in the very judgment and which is narrated by Privy Council as under:-

> "....He may implicate ten people in an offence, and the story may be true in all its details as to eight of them, but untrue as to the other two, whose names have been introduced because they are enemies of the approver. This tendency to include the innocent with the guilty is peculiarly prevalent in India, as Judges have noted on innumerable occasions, and it is very difficult for the Court to guard against the danger. An Indian villager is seldom in a position to produce cogent evidence of alibi. If he is charged with having taken part in a crime on a particular night when he was in fact asleep in his hut or guarding his crops, he can only rely, as a rule, on the evidence of his wife, members of his family, or friends to support his story, and their evidence is interested and not likely to carry weight. The only real safeguard against the risk of condemning the innocent with the guilty Ties in insisting upon independent evidence which in some measure implicates each accused This aspect of the matter was well expressed by Sir George Rankin in Ambikacharan Roy v. Emperor....."

14.2.108. The Court would therefore consider the development on the issue through the statute itself. The constitutional guarantee under Article 20(3) of the Constitution of India, the procedural safeguard envisaged under Section 164 of Cr.P.C. and the guidelines issued from time to time covered in the manuals to bring the procedure of recording confessional statement in conformity of various decisions of the Apex Court is an exercise in the direction to overcome the short comings observed by the Privy Council in its judgment before the adoption of Constitution of India and enactment of Cr.P.C. in the present form. With these developments in law, the Court would find it safe to examine the evidence in the light of the provisions of law as referred to hereinabove and the decision of the Apex Court rendered subsequent thereto.

14.2.109. This Court is of the view that such an evidence cannot be discarded and in fact assigns a specific role to such an evidence of confessional statement of co-accused as under:-

> "....The confession is only one element in the consideration of all the facts proved in the case; it can be put into the scale and weighed with the other evidence. Their Lordships think that the view which has prevailed in most of the High Courts in India, namely that the confession of a co-accused can be used only in support of other evidence and cannot be made the foundation of a conviction, is correct...."

14.2.110. The defence has relied on another decision of Apex Court in support of the very contention that confessional statement of co-accused is not a reliable piece of evidence in case of Balvant Kaur v/s. Union Territory of Chandigarh, reported in, (1988) 1 SCC 1. However, an interesting observation in this very judgment in fact supports the

"20. Thirty five years ago, Bose J referring with approval to the principles in Bhaskerville said that this branch of the law in India is the same as in England and that the lucid exposition of it given by Lord Reading, cannot be bettered.

21. The felicitous formulation of the law on the matter by that great master of phrase, Bose J, which has now become classical, may be re-called:

> But to this extent the rules are clear:
> First, it is not necessary that there should be independent confirmation of every material circumstance in the sense that the independent evidence in the case, apart from the testimony of the complainant of the accomplice, should in itself be sufficient to sustain conviction….
>
> Secondly, the independent evidence must not only make it safe to believe that the crime was committed but must in some way reasonably connect or tend to connect the accused with it by confirming in some material particular the testimony of the accomplice or complainant that the accused committed the crime. This does not mean that the corroboration as to identity must extend to all the circumstances necessary to identify the accused with the offence….
>
> Thirdly, the corroboration must come from independent source and thus ordinarily the testimony of one accomplice would not be sufficient to corroborate that of another…

Fourthly, the corroboration need not be direct evidence that the accused committed the crime. It is sufficient if it is merely circumstantial evidence of his connection with the crime .... "
(See Rameshwar Kalyan Singh v. State of Rajasthan)

22. In Rex v. Bhaskerville, Lord Reading, CJ noticed the different views as to the extent and scope of reasonable corroboration:

The difference of opinion has arisen in the main in reference to the question whether the corroborative evidence must connect the accused with the crime. The rule of practice as to corroborative evidence has arisen in consequence of the danger of convicting a person upon the unconfirmed testimony of one who is admittedly a criminal.

Resolving the difference of opinion it was held:

We hold that evidence in corroboration must be independent testimony which affects the accused by connecting or tending to connect him with the crime. In other words, it must be evidence which implicates him, that is, which confirms is some material particular not only the evidence that the crime has been committed, but also that the prisoner committed it. The test applicable to determine the nature and extent of the corroboration is thus the same whether the case falls within the rule of practice at common law or within that class of offences for which corroboration is required by statute. " like the present one, which has a strong base for conspiracy, two particular Sections of Indian Evidence Act will have to be taken into consideration as these two sections are important from appreciation of evidence point of view. (i) Section 10 & Section 30 of Indian Evidence Act which provides for consideration of a proved confession affecting person making it and others jointly tried and Court may take into consideration such confession as against other person as well as against the maker. Following are the ingredients for the application of this sections.

14.2.112. "Before a statement of one of the accused persons can be taken into consideration against the other accused under section 30 of the Act, the following ingredients/conditions must exist/be fulfilled:

(i) there must be joint trial for the same offence

(ii) it must be a confession;

(iii) the confession of guilt must affect himself and others, i.e., implicate the maker substantially to the same extent as the other accused:

(iv) the confession of guilt must be duly proved."

14.2.113. The purpose behind the provision is where an accused person unreservedly confesses his own guilt, and at the same time implicates another person who is being jointly facing trial with him for the same offence, his confession may be taken into consideration against such other person as well as against himself, because the admission of his own guilt operates as a sort of sanction, which, to some extent, takes the place of the sanction of an oath and affords some guarantee that the whole statement is a true one. When a person admits his guilt to the fullest extent, and exposes himself to the pains and penalties provided therefore, there is a guarantee for his truth. The policy of the law in allowing a confession by one accused to be considered against another who is being jointly tried for the same offence, seems to rest on the recognition the palpable fact that such a confession cannot fail to make an impression on the judge's mind, which it was therefore better to control within limits than to ignore altogether.

14.2.114. The Court is conscious of the extent of impact and utility of such a confessional statement with the aid of Section 30.

14.2.115. Therefore, even in the judgment cited by defence in case of Kashmira Singh vs. State of Madhya Pradesh, reported in 1952 (1) SCC 275, where the Court has cautioned in Para-11 that to first marshal the evidence against the accused excluding the confession and still record the conviction then proceed to convict without the confession but in a case, Judge is not prepared to act on other evidence as it stands then the Judge can well in aid the confession and use it to lend assurance to other evidence to fortify himself in recording conviction and immediately thereafter in Para-13, the Court goes on to record as under:

> "13. But all these are only rules of prudence. So far as the law is concerned, a conviction can be based on the uncorroborated testimony of an accomplice provided the judge has the rule of caution, which experience dictates, in mind and gives reasons why he thinks it would be safe in a given case to disregard it. Two of us had occasion to examine this recently in Rameshwar v. The State of Rajasthan. It follows that the testimony of an accomplice can in law be used to corroborate another though it ought not to be so used save in exceptional circumstances and for reasons disclosed. As the Privy Council observe in Bhuboni Sahu v. R: IA pp.157-58

> "...[The] tendency to include the innocent with the guilty is peculiarly prevalent in India, as judges have noted on innumerable occasions, and it is very difficult for the court to guard against the danger. ... The only real safeguard against the risk of condemning the innocent with the guilty lies in insisting on independent evidence which in some measure implicates each accused."

14.2.116. On the same line, the defence did cite another judgment following Kashmira Singh (supra) in Pancho v/s. State of Haryana reported in 2011 (10) SCC 165. The principle of confession of co-accused invoking Section 30 was not really applicable to the facts of the case as in the penultimate para-29, the facts narrated would show that the only basis of conviction was an extra judicial confession of the co-accused No.1 against appellant-Pancho. The extra judicial confession and the confession recorded under Section 164 are two different processes, therefore, the judgment of Pancho (supra) does not assist the case of defence.

14.2.117. Therefore, the twin test to decide the applicability of confessional statement of co-accused is (i) whether the confession is voluntary and (ii) whether it is true and trustworthy.

14.2.118. At this stage, the Court may also touch upon the topic of confession of co-accused and to what extent it can assist the case of prosecution. Where the Court finds that there is a 'reasonable ground' to believe that the other accused has conspired together in committing the offence, the confession of one accused can be used for other accused also.

14.2.119. In this connection, the Court may refer to the decision of Apex Court in case of Ammini v/s. State of Kerala, reported in 1998 (2) SCC 301. In this judgment in Para-21, the Court has appreciated the evidence in form of retracted confession. The retracted confession was discarded by the trial Court on the ground that the accused had retracted within four days of granting bail and in statement under Section 313 of Cr.P.C. he had alleged that he had made the confession under pressure and force from the police. However, the High Court reversed such finding that except for bare allegation, there was no material to indicate that Police had put pressure for confessional statement and where the Magistrate has sufficiently observed the steps to safeguard the voluntariness, the retracted confession can be relied upon. This view of High Court was affirmed by the Supreme Court for the reasons recorded by it.

14.2.120. In Para-22 of the same judgment, applying Section 10 of Indian Evidence Act, it was held as under:

> "22. The trial court had further held that even if the confession was regarded as voluntary and true it could be used only against A-4 and not against the other accused. The High court found the trial court wrong on this point in view of Section 10 of the Evidence Act which provides that where there is reasonable ground to believe that two or more persons have conspired together to commit an offence, anything said, done or written by any one of such persons in reference to their common intention, after the time when such intention was first entertained by any one of them, is a relevant fact as against each of the persons believed to be so conspiring, as well as for the purpose of providing the existence of the conspiracy as for the purpose of showing that any such person was a party to it. The High court held as there was reasonable ground to believe that Ammini and other accused had conspired together and, therefore, the confession made by A-4 could be used against other accused also."

14.2.121. With regard to issue of confessional statement of co-accused, who is acquitted, the argument of the defence is required to be rejected. In view of the decision of the Apex Court in case of Prakash Dhawal Khairnar (Patil) v/s. State of Maharashtra, reported in (2002) 2 SCC 35. In this, the Supreme Court held that plea of defence that confessional statement of co-accused would not be admissible in evidence because he was acquitted of the main offence on benefit of doubt, as untenable and went on to hold in Para-18 as under:

"18. Learned senior counsel Mr. Gupta submitted that the High Court has given benefit of doubt to A-2 with regard to conspiracy for commission of murders and, therefore, as he is acquitted for the main offence, his confessional statement is not admissible in evidence. This submission, in our view, is without any substance. Firstly, the confessional statement of A-2 recorded under Section 164, Cr.P.C. by the Magistrate would be admissible in evidence as accused Nos. 1 and 2 were jointly tried. The said statement is proved by examining the Magistrate who recorded the same. (Re: Ghulam Hussain V/s. The King [(1950) 52 BLR 508]. Only question would be - to what extent it can be used against A-1. In the present case, conviction of A-1 for the offence for which he is charged is based on circumstantial evidence. Conviction of A-2 for the offence punishable under Section 201 is also based on circumstantial evidence and after taking into consideration confessional statement. The circumstantial evidence which gets corroboration from the confessional statement of A-2 for connecting A-1 with the crime could be relied upon. This Court in Aghnoo Nagesia V/s. State of Bihar [(1966 1 SCR 134], held that confessional statement includes not only admission of the offence but also other admissions of incriminating facts relevant to the offence such as motive, preparation, absence of provocation, concealment of weapon, and subsequent conduct which throw light upon the gravity of the offence and the intention and knowledge of the accused. The Court also observed that each and every admission of incriminating fact contained in the confessional statement is part of the confession."

14.2.122. The Apex Court in yet another decision in case of Krishna Mochi v/s. State of Bihar, reported in AIR 2002 SC 1965 regarding confessional statement of co-accused held that if in such confessional statement, the accused did not name several accused persons then merely non-mentioning about their participation in offence will not make the confessional statement doubtful.

14.2.123. The Court in the preceding paras already referred to the confessional statements of the co-accused persons as there is not only one co-accused, but several of them. The Court has also found that the necessary procedural safeguard in recording such statement was undertaken. The confessional statements have also been exhibited in course of trial and therefore, the confessional statements were found to be admissible in evidence. The confessional statements were not exculpatory in nature, but have involved the maker also in the offence to the extent that they have participated meaning thereby to be part of conspiracy to cause terror by resorting to mass killing.

14.2.124. In the opinion of the Court, confessional statement of the co-accused who are being tried jointly with the accused here can be taken into consideration as an evidence and can be acted upon both for the purpose of corroboration as well as for conviction.

- Extra-judicial confession

14.2.125. With regard to the submission of extra judicial confession where the basic submission is that such extra judicial confession is not an evidence at all in the facts of the case as the circumstance under which extra judicial confession is made, is not made out. It is submitted that the extra judicial confession to PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abdul Jaffar Qureshi by Adbul Rajik (a-27) was made in train and there is no record of travel either of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abdul Jaffar Qureshi or Abdul Rajik on the same train like tickets or reservation chart or CDR about their previous conversation. Moreover, the omission regarding his version is proved as what he mentioned in chief regarding confession was not mentioned in Section 164 statement at Exh.6688. Also, he did not disclose it to the Police.

14.2.126. Learned Advocate submitted that there were five prosecution witnesses, who could be termed as accused, but to save them and gain their support to the case of prosecution they are made prosecution witnesses. Exh.8265 and PW No.1115-Mohammadumar Usmanbhai Mansuri at Exh.8002.

14.2.127. In the opinion of the Court, confession made by accused No.37-Kayamuddin to PW No.1115-Mohammadumar Usmanbhai Mansuri at Exh.8002 and PW No.1117-Asif Usmanbhai Shaikh at Exh.8019 cannot be treated as an extra judicial confession as what was conveyed to Prosecution witnesses by Kayamuddin was regarding his plan and much before the incident and not that he has met the prosecution witness to confess what he did after the commission. Hence, this argument for the above prosecution witness cannot be accepted to treat the evidence of this prosecution witness as extra judicial confession at all. The arguments of the defence on this count cannot be accepted at all. Whereas, the confession of accused No.27-Abdul Rajik to Imran in train falls in category of Extra Judicial Confession, however, such a confession also cannot be discarded on the grounds argued.

14.2.128. The evidentiary value of extra judicial confession depends on the nature of circumstances, the time at which confession was made and credibility of witnesses, who speaks about the confession. In case of Narayan Singh and others v/s. State of M.P. reported in AIR 1985 (SC) 1678 in Para-7 it is observed that the Sessions Court has adopted wrong view of the law by brushing aside the evidence of two witnesses, who stated on oath that accused came up to them and admitted that he murdered and it is open for the Court to start with such presumption, but can rely upon it depending on various factors.

14.2.129. The Court has discussed the evidence of extra judicial confession in a different chapter. However, the Court is of the opinion that extra judicial confession can be taken into consideration. In the facts of the present case, though the extra judicial confession is not the sole evidence on which the conviction is based but the same is being considered in support of the prosecution to corroborate the other evidence available on record.

14.2.130. For the proper justification, the Court may quote relevant paras from authoritative of pronouncement of Apex Court in case of Subramanya v/s. State of Karnataka, reported in, (2023) 11 SCC 255. In para-52 and para-55, the Apex Court has held as under:-

> "52 In extra judicial confession, if voluntary and true and made in a fit state of mind, can be relied upon by the Court. The confession will have to be proved like any other fact. The value of the evidence as to confession, like any other evidence, depends upon the veracity of the witness to whom it has been made. The value of the evidence as to the confession depends on the reliability of the witness who gives the evidence. It is not open to any court to start with a presumption that extra judicial confession is a weak type of evidence. It would depend on the nature of the circumstances, the time when the confession was made and the credibility of the witnesses who speak to such a confession. Such a confession can be relied upon and conviction can be founded thereon if the evidence about the confession comes from the mouth of witnesses who appear to be unbiased, not even remotely inimical to the accused, and in respect of whom nothing is brought out which may tend to indicate that he may have a motive for attributing an untruthful statement to the accused, the words spoken to by the witness are clear, unambiguous and unmistakably convey that the accused is the perpetrator of the crime and nothing is omitted

55. It is well settled that conviction can be based on a voluntarily confession but the rule of prudence requires that wherever possible it should be corroborated by independent evidence. Extra judicial confession of accused need not in all cases be corroborated. In Madan Gopal Kakkad v. Naval Dubey and Another, (1992) 3 SCC 204, this Court after referring to Piara Singh and Others v. State of Punjab, (1977) 4 SCC 452, held that the law does not require that the evidence of an extra judicial confession should in all cases be corroborated. The rule of prudence does not require that each and every circumstance mentioned in the confession must be separately and independently corroborated."

14.2.131. Before referring to the evidence on record which will fall in category of extra-judicial confession, the Court may look into certain judgments cited at bar on this issue.

14.2.132. In case of Nikhil Chandra Mondal v/s. State of West Bengal, reported in, (2023) 6 SCC 605, where the Apex Court has relied on earlier decision in case of Sahadevan v/s. State of Tamilnadu, reported in, (2012) 6 SCC 403, where a sort of guideline is laid down while dealing with extra-judicial confession.

14.2.133. From the above case law, it is evident that extra-judicial confession is a form of "evidence" and the utility of the evidence is in twin form. If corroborated and found reliable by the Court, the same can be the basis of conviction and other form is that it can be used to corroborate the other evidences available on the record.

14.2.134. The Court may now refer to the extra-judicial confession made to PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi, who has deposed to it in Exh.6687 and also in Section 164 statement at Exh.6688.

14.2.135. Regarding the basic argument for not accepting the extra-judicial confession made by Adbul Rajik, The Court has already discussed at length the evidence of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi, on the issue of "conspiracy". However, Court may also refer to the same with regard to the extra-judicial confession. Exh.6688 is the statement under Section 164 of Cr.P.C., which records that on 24.10.2008, the statement was before the Magistrate under the outward dated 20.10.2008 of Metropolitan Magistrate and the Magistrate ascertained his willingness and no outside pressure, inducement of any police authority and after being satisfied granted time to reflect and scheduled the recording on 05.11.2008.

14.2.136. On 05.11.2008 also, the Magistrate ascertained the willingness and whether he was under any influence and as the witness wanted to help the nation and that he has come on his own without any help of police, the statement came to be recorded.

14.2.137. In this statement, he gives out the details about his knowledge of what transpired and who all met in the meetings naming the accused persons whom he knew by name from the beginning. He also refers to phone call received from both accused Mujib and Abul Rajik on 03.08.2008 at different time, but from same number apparently from

M.P., but when he asked their whereabouts, they disconnected the call.

14.2.138. He then referred to 07.08.2008 when he was on way to bring his wife from Gwalior when Abdul Rajik called up and came to meet in train at Ratlam after collecting the details of his coach number, etc.

14.2.139. So when the train reached Ratlam at 3:00 a.m., Rajik came to meet and appeared to be frightened and narrated the entire story of Abdul Rajik as conveyed during the journey. The details of such Section 164 statement is already given in the tabular form.

14.2.140. The Court may thereafter also peruse the deposition of PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi vide Exh.6687. In this deposition also the witness gives in detail the manner in which he first received phone call on 03rd August and there Abdul Rajik coming to meet him on 07.08.2008 in train to Gwalior at Nagda. Thereafter, the confession made by Rajik to him about the serial bomb-blast and role played by him as well as other accused.

14.2.141. In the cross-examination, the witness is questioned about how he went to give statement under Section 164 to which he has given answer, which is consistent with his statement under Section 164 recorded on 05.11.2008 about his reaching the Court of Magistrate and his reason for recording the statement to serve his nation.

14.2.142. At this stage, the Court may record the submission of the defence that the reason given for the statement under Section 164 of "service to nation" should not be taken as a genuine reason and if it is so, where was his intent to serve nation when the witness was attending other meetings, why no authority was not informed by him. The Court is surprised to find the submission made "for serving nation" rather mockingly, that this can not be a genuine reason for PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi to come out and give a statement under Section 164. The Court is of the opinion that any good citizen with nation's interest would come out to depose the truth. Merely because he did not speak out earlier will not give reason for the Court to doubt his version. He has been cross-examined in great detail about Section 164 statement, but no question has been asked about the "service to Nation" as a reason to give the statement. The Court deprecates the arguments advanced by defence mocking "Service to Nation" being a reason to give statement under Section 164 or to depose in Court in this case.

14.2.143. Having examined the contents of both Section 164 of Cr.P.C. statement as well as the deposition in Court, the Court finds the witness to be reliable even for the extra-judicial confession of Abdul Rajik by appreciating the "Rule of Prudence" as is held in Apex Court judgment in case of Subramanya (supra).

14.2.144. The Court has also found that this extra-judicial confession is supported by other material and therefore, can be the basis of conviction of Abdul Rajik and at the same time, Court also finds the same can be considered in cases of co-accused named by this witness in the extra-judicial confession of the accused Abdul Rajik.

14.2.145. In the cross-examination, the defence has tried to create doubt on the very fact of making extra-judicial confession by Rajik to this witness by arguing that there is no documentary evidence in the form of railway ticket or reservation chart of railway to support the fact of travel by PW No.957-Zakirhussain Abduljabbar Qureshi to Gwalior to bring his wife or any call details records of Rajik calling the witness to know his travel plan.

14.2.146. The Court has already found from the deposition that the witness is consistent in his version and given exact travel date, the seat number and coach number both at the time of recording 164 statement on 05.11.2008 and the deposition on 11.10.2018. Moreover, from the deposition itself, it is coming out that both were having close friendship to which the accused Rajik had confided in him about the role and incident in great details. In view of the above the court has no hesitation in relying upon the version of this witness Zakir in so far as he has related the extra judicial confession of Abdul Rajik to him to be truthful and reliable. Same can be acted upon as a corroborative piece of evidence even where the role of other co accused are also deposed to by this witness on the basis of such confession.

14.3. Identification

14.3.1. On the issue of identification, it is the case of the defence that identification of accused standing the trial is an important evidence. However, the prosecution has failed to establish the identification by following the known principles for identification. According to defence, the identification in the Court is the substantive evidence and Test Identification Parade is only a corroborative piece of evidence. It is submitted that the trial Court has erred in treating the Test Identification Parade as a substantive evidence.

14.3.2. It is further submitted that identification in the Court also suffers from various infirmities as there is a long gap in the trial, there is a delay in undertaking Test Identification Parade, non-maintaining of ratio of accused to dummy persons, the witnesses not give any description of the accused by which the accused could be identified. In some cases through there is identification in Court, but no proper name is given.

14.3.3. It is therefore submitted that in absence of the identification being absolute, the case of prosecution suffers from a major lacuna.

14.3.4. The defence therefore made elaborate submissions on case law on this issue. In case of Sampat Tatyada Shinde v/s. State of Maharashtra reported in (1974) 4 SCC 213, the defence has relied on Para-16, where it is held that Test Identification Parade is admissible under Section 9 of Evidence Act and is a supporting evidence and can be used to corroborate evidence given by the witness in the Court regarding identification of accused, and Test Identification Parade done earlier in itself has no value.

14.3.5. However, the Court also holds that Test Identification Parade is not the only type of evidence tendered to confirm the evidence of witness regarding identification of the accused in the Court as perpetrator of crime, the identification can be fixed by circumstantial evidence also.

14.3.6. Reliance is placed on the decision of the Apex Court in case of Umesh Kamat v/s. State of Bihar reported in (2005) 9 SCC 200. However, the observations made by Apex Court are only on the facts of that case and no ratio on identification was laid down. In Para-9 which is devoted to identification, it discusses the specific fact of that case and the reason to disbelieve the witness.

14.3.7. Reliance is placed on the decision of Apex Court in case of Vijayan v/s. State of Kerala reported in (1999) 3 SCC 54. Considering the fact that the witness who saw accused boarding auto driven by another witness, the witness did identify in the Test Identification Parade, but not in the Court. Moreover, in Para-8 specific fact has been recorded that the photo of the accused was widely publicized in Newspaper and there was lot of publicity giving opportunity to the witness to see the accused. Therefore, the observations made are in specific facts of the case.

14.3.8. In case of Subash and Shiv Shankar v/s. State of U.P. reported in (1987) 3 SCC 331, the Court may refer to the facts i.e., accused-Subash assisted by his three companions attacked Ram Babu and caused fatal injuries to him. There were as many as 14 injuries on Ram Babu among which 7 were punctured wounds. Among the punctured wounds, injury nos. 7 and 8 were deep injuries which had injured the pleura, left lung, pericardium and the heart. These injuries were certified to be sufficient in the ordinary course of nature to cause death. Dinesh Shankar (P.W. 2) also had sustained an incised wound on his left thigh. Budh Sen (P.W. 1) got a report Exhibit Kha 1 written by his son and presented it at the Police Station at 1.12 p.m. Therein he has stated that accused Subash was known to him but the other three assailants were not known to him but another witness Bhuvan Chand examined as C.W. 1, had in- formed him that one Raja Ram was one of the assailants of Ram Babu. Subash was absconding and he surrendered before the court on 12.3.71. He was subsequently questioned by the Investigating Officer and he gave information regarding the names and addresses of the other three assailants. Test identification parades were held for Raj Kishore and Shiv Shankar on 5.5.71 wherein Shiv Shankar was identified by Budh Sen, Dinesh Shankar and Shyam Behari but Raj Kishore was identified only by Dinesh Shankar. In the subsequent test identification parade held for Om Kumar on 27.7.71 none of the witnesses was able to identify him.

14.3.9. Shiv Shankar was an employee in the office of the Central Excise Department at Bareilly itself. It is, therefore, difficult to believe that the Investigating Officer would not have been able to trace him and arrest him for nearly 9 weeks after coming to know of Shiv Shankar's name and address from Subash. As a matter of fact, the Investigating Officer has stated in his evidence that he visited the house of Shiv Shankar two or three times to arrest him but Shiv Shankar was not to be found. If Shiv Shankar was absent from the house the Investigating Officer could have easily learnt from the neighbours where he was working and where he had gone and located him and arrested him. It is not the prosecution case that Shiv Shankar was absconding. In such circumstances it is difficult to accept the prosecution case that the Investigating Officer could not trace and arrest Shiv Shankar till 14.6.71.

14.3.10. It was in view of these facts that the observations were made in Para-9 as under:

> "9. ....It is, no doubt, true that all the three witnesses had correctly identified Shiv Shankar at the identification parade but it has to be borne in mind that nearly 4 months had elapsed during the interval. It is relevant to mention here that neither in Exhibit Kha-I nor in their statements during investigation, the eye witnesses have given any descriptive particulars of Shiv Shankar. While deposing before the Sessions Judge they have stated that Shiv Shankar was a tall person and had 'sallow' complexion. If it is on account of these features the witnesses were able to identify Shiv Shankar at the identification, parade, they would have certainly mentioned about them at the earliest point of time because their memory would have been fresh then. Thus in the absence of any descriptive particulars of Shiv Shankar in Exhibit Kha-1 or in the statements of witnesses during investigation, it will not be safe and proper to act upon the identification of Shiv Shankar by the three wit- nesses at the identification parade and hold that he was one of the assailants of Ram Babu…."

14.3.11. Moreover, the Court has relied on previous decision in case of Mohd. Abdul Hafeez v/s. State of U.P. [(1983) 1 SCC 143] that if description is not given in the FIR by the witness then identification cannot be safely relied on conviction.

14.3.12. This argument is advanced by defence to counter the dock identification by PW No.1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir Diwan at Exh.7923, who has identified the participants of Halol Terror camp. In the present case, PW No.1105-Idrish Gulabsha Fakir Diwan is not the first informant and therefore, when his statement was recorded, he had claimed that he knew the identity of the participants and that he had stayed with the accused for number of days so his identification cannot be compared with a witness who has only an occasion to see the accused in committing of offence.

14.3.13. Defense advocate has placed reliance in case of Manzoor v/s. State of Uttar Pradesh, reported in (1982) 2 SCC 72 in support of submission that at the earliest opportunity the witness has to give description and identifying feature of accused person to lend strength to test identification. In offence of dacoity the Home Guard witnesses had flashed torchlight to see two persons running from scene. Moreover, as observed in Para-12 of the Judgment, the Court has recorded a specific fact that accused persons were shown to the witnesses before the identification parade took place. Such a fact will obviously make identification doubtful. Such are not the facts in this case where it is emerging on record that the accused were shown to the witnesses.

14.3.14. Defense has then referred to decision in case of Lakhwinder

Singh and others v/s. State of Punjab, reported in (2002) 10 SCC 295 on the importance of Test Identification Parade, but in Para-36, it is observed on facts that on the date of occurrence the informant did not know the names of the Gunmen, who carried out assault still no Test Identification Parade was held, which was held to be a serious lapse.

14.3.15. For the same point, reliance is also placed on the decision of Apex Court in case of Mohd. Iqbal M. Shaikh and others v/s. State of Maharashtra, reported in 1998 (4) SCC 494. Both the aforesaid judgments are cited to oppose the evidence of Idrish (Munjavar). However, as explained earlier, the Munjavar had an occasion to stay with the accused continuously for some days.

14.3.16. In the present case, it is apparent that the witnesses who did not know the accused before the offence was committed, the Test Identification Parade has been conducted. Also for those who knew by name Test Identification Parade is conducted, but for those who knew the accused even prior to offence for them there is no need to hold the Test Identification Parade. In this regard, the Court may refer to the judgment of the Apex Court in case of Jadunath Singh v/s. State of Uttar Pradesh reported in 1970 (3) SCC 518 has observed in para-15 as under:-

> "15. It seems to us that it has been clearly laid down by this Court in Prakash Chand Sogani v/s. The State of Rajasthan (supra), that the absence of test identification in all cases is not fatal and if the accused person is well known by sight it would be waste of time to put him up for identification. Of course if the prosecution fails to hold an identification on the plea that the witnesses already knew the accused well and it transpires in the course of the trial that the witnesses did not know the accused previously, the prosecution would run the risk of losing its case. It seems to us that if there is any doubt in the matter the prosecution should hold an identification parade specially if an accused says that the alleged eyewitnesses did not know him previously. It may be that there is no express provision in the Code of Criminal Procedure enabling an accused to insist on an identification parade but if the accused does make an application and that application is turned down and it transpires during the course of the trial that the witnesses did not know the accused previously, as pointed out above the prosecution will, unless there is some other evidence, run the risk of losing the case on this point."

14.3.17. Also, in this regard the Court may refer to the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Harbhajan Singh v/s. The State of J&K reported in AIR 1975 SC 1814 has observed that absence of test identification parade is not fatal to the case of the prosecution and that when there is other corroborative evidence on record, failure to hold test identification parade or omission to disclose the name of the accused at the earlier stage would not affect the case of the prosecution. In this regard, para-4 is reproduced as under:-

"4. In view of this corroborative evidence we find no substance in the argument urged on behalf of the appellant that the Investigating Officer ought to have held an identification parade and that the failure of Munshi Ram to mention the names of the two accused to the neighbours who came to the scene immediately after the occurrence shows that his story cannot be true. As observed by this Court in Jadunath Singh and Anr. v. State of U.P., absence of test identification is not necessarily fatal. The fact that Munshi Ram did not disclose the names of the two accused to the villagers only shows that the accused were not previously known to him and the story that the accused referred to each other by their respective names during the course of the incident contains an element of exaggeration. The case does not rest on the evidence of Munshi Ram alone and the corroborative circumstances to which we have referred to above lend enough assurance to the implication of the appellant. Gurumukh Singh's acquittal errs in its generosity but that order has become final."

14.3.18. In case of Tukesh Singh and others v/s. State of Chhattisgarh reported in 2025 SCC OnLine SC 1110, the Hon'ble Apex Court has referred in para-21 to the situations for which Test Identification Parade be necessary, which reads as under:-

"21. In a case where there are eyewitnesses, one situation can be that the eyewitness knew the accused before the incident. The eyewitnesses must identify the accused sitting in the dock as the same accused whom they had seen committing the crime. Another situation can be that the eyewitness did not know the accused before the incident. In the normal course, in case of the second situation, it is necessary to hold a Test Identification Parade…"

14.3.19. The Court has further observed by giving example in para-21 as under:-

> "21...Identification of the accused sitting in the Court by the eyewitness is of utmost importance. For example, if an eyewitness states in his deposition that "he had seen A, B and C killing X and he knew A, B and C". Such a statement in the examination-in-chief is not sufficient to link the same to the accused. The eyewitness must identify the accused A, B and C in the Court. Unless this is done, the prosecution cannot establish that the accused are the same persons who are named by the eyewitness in his deposition…."

14.3.20. This illustration is true when the eyewitnesses are to the incident of crime. In the present case, there is no contest that the persons who are standing the trial are the very persons who have been charged for the offense as conspirators, and/or preparing for the offense. Therefore, the identification will have to be appreciated in the facts of the present case.

14.3.21. Great emphasis is made by defence on the observations made in Tukesh Singh (supra) in para 22. The eye witness has to identify the accused in Court even when accused is known to the eyewitness else it cannot be established that accused are the same persons who are named by eyewitness in deposition. This observation was expanded by the defence to submit that in the panchnamas, the panch witnesses have also failed to identify the accused during deposition raising doubt as to whether person named as accused at whose behest the panchnama was drawn is the same person standing the trial as accused and it is possible that accused in panchnama is a different person than who is tried. Such an argument is to be rejected outrightly as the observation in para-22 in Tukesh Singh (supra) is regarding and eyewitness. In case of panchnama, it is the police which introduced the accused to the panch witness so identifying through panch is not relevant for the commission of act of offense. An attempt to raise doubt that accused in panchnama and trial are two different persons is rather a mischievous attempt to stretch observation of Supreme Court to cover such arguments. Particularly, during the cross-examination of the investigating officer or the panch witness which are very large in numbers, there is no line of questioning even remotely casting doubt on identity of the accused being tried or the trial is proceeded on a mistaken identity.

14.3.22. Undoubtedly, the evidence as to identification deserves to be subjected to close scrutiny, but certainly no hard and fast rules can be laid down. Only certain guiding principles are to be taken care of leaving it upon the Court to appreciate the evidence of identification along with other evidence.

14.3.23. The identification during the investigation is through Test Identification Parade covered under Section 9 of Evidence Act and other is identification during the trial. It is trite that the evidence of Test Identification Parade is having corroborative value while the evidence of the witness in the Court is substantive evidence.

14.3.24. According to this Court, the evidence deposed by the witness regarding the identification of the accused on oath is the substantive evidence and to complete this substantive evidence necessary corroboration will be required by Test Identification Parade, which is of course established by a separate set of witnesses.

14.3.25. The Court in the present case has perused the evidence regarding the identification and analyzed the same herein below. The witnesses have deposed on oath that Test Identification Parade was conducted and he also narrates the manner and procedure followed in front of him and how he has been able to identify the accused from amongst the group of individual in the Parade. The Test Identification Parade panchnama is thereafter proved through the Executive Magistrate who has independently deposed as a witness and through him, Test Identification Parade panchnama is exhibited, thereby making the evidence of identification admissible.

14.3.26. During the course of trial, the identifying witness has clearly deposed that with the passage of time and changes in the appearance deliberate or otherwise has made only an attempt to identify by the process adopted by the trial Court through video conference. According to this Court, after more than 10 years with definite changes in the features of the accused, it is natural that his attempt to identify may not succeed.

14.3.27. However, their deposition in the Court about the fact and Test Identification Parade and success therein being corroborated by exhibited Test Identification panchnama through Executive Magistrate. In the opinion of the Court, it is sufficient to safely accept the identification of the accused.

14.3.28. Further, the Calcutta High Court in case of Subhas Bhattacharyya and others v/s. State reported in 1985 (0) Cr.LJ 1807 wherein it was observed that where there is a time gap between holding test identification parade and the trial, failure of the witness to identify the accused in the Court would not by itself render the identification which was conducted earlier unreliable particularly when the witness is otherwise found trustworthy and there exists corroborative evidence. this regard, the Court may reproduce paras-12 and 13 of the judgment as under:-

> *"12. From the evidence on record it appears that Subhas the accused-appellant was thick and thin with both Kalipada and Probhas. That is why P.W. 7 marked that on some previous occasions Subhas was talking with Probhas Misra while taking their meals at the local Mihijam Hotel P.W. 7 also had seen Subhas along with others decamping with the three cash boxes by the black Ambassador Car. P.W. 7 Pabitra was confident that he knew Subhas from before the occurrence. Pabitra therefore correctly identified Subhas in court. The evidence of Mrinal (P.W. 34) read with the evidence of the learned Judicial Officer (P.W. 29) who held the T. I. Parade clearly proves that Mrinal could well identify Subhas at the T. I. Parade. It has been argued by Sri Dilip Kumar Datta, the Id. Advocate appearing on behalf of Subhas that mere identification at T. I. parade is no part of substantive evidence and that therefore, as P.W. 34 failed to identify Subhas at the trial his evidence may be ignored altogether. Reliance was placed in this connection in the case Budhsen v. State of U. P. This case law relied upon by the defence, in our opinion rather helps the prosecution. For it has been observed in this reported case that identification in T. I. Parade does not constitute substantive evidence...there may, however, be exceptions to this general rule, when, for example, the Court is impressed by a particular witness, on whose testimony it can safely rely, without such or other corroboration'. testimony of this witness No. 34 seeing that he was straight forward enough to declare that with the lapse of 10 years time he had forgotten everything and that he was not in a position to identify the accused anymore in the court room. In our opinion, it is just probable and natural that a man should fail to identify a person whom he had seen 10 years ago. Indeed, in an unusual and exceptional case where the time gap in between the date of holding T, I. Parade and the date of commencement of the Sessions trial is long 10 years or so, the trial court in our judgment may if it so chooses rely upon the statements of recognition of the culprits made , by the witnesses in course of the T. I. Parade.

13. The learned Advocate appearing for Subhas has drawn our attention to the decision reported in 1983 Cri LJ (SC 527) (sic) (Mysuddin v. State of U. P.) and has contended on the strength thereof that Test Identification Parade took place only 41 days after the arrest in that reported case, that in our present case the T. I, Parade was held long after one year 14 days and that the delay of only 41 days considered to be fatal for the prosecution in that reported case. We do not, however, see how the reported case helps the case of Subhas in any way. For in this case the learned Additional Sessions Judge it appears, based his judgment not merely on the fact of identification at the T. I. Parade. He relied upon the evidence adduced by other witnesses as well. There is for example, the evidence of P.W. 7 who was confident that Subhas along with others decamped with the booty. Subhas was again identified in court by P.W. 7

There again the evidence of P.W. 21 Krishna Paul read with the evidence of the I. O., P.W. 45 shows that Subhas led them to Danduya wherefrom two of the cash boxes were recovered. It is undisputed that these cash boxes were used for the purpose of filling them up with the currency notes of various denomination (vide unchallenged evidence of P.W. 6, Priyabrata) Ext. 21/2 is the seizure list wherein PW 23 had signed in presence of the I. O., PW 45 Ext. 21/2 contains the signature of Subhas as well. Subhas is not a resident of Danduya. It was not possible for him either to lead the Police Officers thereto make the discovery of the boxes therefrom unless he had taken part in the dacoity. It is indeed difficult to believe that all these witnesses viz. PW 7, PW 34, PW 21 and PW 45 were in collusion with one another just to do harm to Subhas with whom they had never the slightest enmity."

14.3.29. The Gujarat Police Manual provides for the procedure for the identification parade. The defence did point out these guidelines laid down under G.R. No.G/1926/63 dated 29-01-1964 with main objection to maintaining ratio of 1:9 to mix up the suspect with the other person. In the guidelines itself, it is stated as 'advisable' to mix the suspect and other persons, so far as possible the investigation has to match this. In the present case, the Court does find the ratio not maintained on only certain Test Identification Parades, which will certainly not vitiate the evidence of identification. Moreover, it is not a fact that the ratio has fallen to such an extent that Test Identification Parade is rendered doubtful. None of the Test Identification Parades have been undertaken with the ratio of 1:2 or 1:3 or 1:4, but appropriate number of other persons have participated in the parade.

14.3.30. Moreover, all the other safeguards in protecting identity of the accused have been followed. Nowhere, it is coming on record that the accused were made to be seen by the witness prior to Test Identification Parade and these aspects have been deposed to not only by the witness, but also by the Executive Magistrate.

14.3.31. One more grievance particularly regarding identification through three eyewitnesses to the Terror camp at Halol-Pavagadh that all the three prosecution witnesses participated in the common Test Identification Parade on one day. The Court has perused relevant Test Identification Parade and the Court has found from the deposition of Executive Magistrate who conducted the Test Identification Parade that the safeguard and procedure have been followed to keep the actual process of identification independent for each witness. Moreover, the Apex Court in case of Sheikh Sintha Madhar Alias Jaffer Alias Sintha and others v/s. State Represented by Inspector of Police reported in (2016) 11 SCC 265 has held in this regard in Para-16 that there is no invariable rule that two accused persons cannot be made part of same Test Identification Parade and joint Test Identification Parade would not affect validity of Test Identification Parade. In our case, precaution is also taken that two accused are not made part of the same identification process, though the Test Identification Parade may have been held on the same day.

14.3.32. The identification of the accused have been carried out by the witnesses who would fall in category as (1) witnesses to the holding of terror camp, (2) witnesses from whom purchases are made, (3) witnesses from whom help was taken for preparation, (4) witnesses to the conspiracy out of which many witnesses knew the accused from the time prior to offense. Hence, Test Identification Parade through such witnesses is not necessary, through others Test Identification Parade were conducted.

14.3.33. Though arguments were advanced that the panch witnesses of the pointing out panchnama have not been able to identify the accused in the Court, however, such argument cannot be accepted as the panch witnesses were themselves introduced to the accused at the time of preparing the panchnama and therefore, their identification in Court is of no consequence.

process of identification and that the face of the accused persons were covered and that the witnesses were kept separately until called in order to ensure that the accused person was not seen by the witnesses prior to the Test Identification Parade. He has also affirmed that the procedure followed while conducting the Test Identification Parade has been recorded in the panchnama and that instructions were given to bring dummy persons who were similar in appearance and has denied that the panchnama was prepared at the instance of police and that the Test Identification Parade had not been conducted.

14.3.48. Accordingly, this witness has successfully exhibited the documents of Test Identification Parade panchnama and the documents have rightly been admitted in evidence, wherein the following accused persons came to be identified by the respective witnesses during the Test Identification Parade:

i) Kayamuddin @ Rizwan Sarfuddin Kapadiya (accused no.37),

14.3.49. The Court may while appreciating the evidence of the Executive Magistrates through whom the Test Identification Parades have been exhibited, consider the judgments cited before this Court in support of ‘Dock Identification’ are the instances of 1 or 2 or 3 or 5 accused, who are on trial unlike present case where 78 accused are tried.

Even in guidelines for Test Identification Parade ratio of 1:5 or 1:9 is to be maintained. Here the identification is required to be made of one accused out of 78 who are being jointly tried.

14.3.50. A stock Argument is offered based on various judicial pronouncement that identifying the accused in the Court during deposition is only substantive evidence and the Test Identification Parade which is an evidence not before the trial Court is only to corroborate the identification in Court.

14.3.51. The Court is of the view that in our case the identifying witness has deposed before the Court about the fact that he has participated in the Test Identification Parade. This deposition of the witness becomes a substantive evidence. The parade was recorded in the form of panchnama and that he has gone on to identify the accused. Upon identification name of the accused and details have been recorded by the Executive Magistrate. The identifying witness is also cross examined. However, the Court has found that in the cross examination, the defence has not succeeded to affect the credibility that the witness is a got up witness or has just imagined presence of the accused or was tutored to identify the accused by showing him beforehand or the time gap in Test Identification Parade has led to the situation where the accused was exposed to the witness immediately before the Test Identification Parade.

14.3.52. Thereafter, the Court has also perused the evidence of the Executive Magistrate, who is examined as a witness. The Executive Magistrate has also deposed in detail about the Test Identification Parade being conducted with all the safeguards protecting the identity of the accused and in compliance of the guidelines as far as possible except on the occasions mentioned herein above where the perfect ratio of 1:9 is not maintained. There also, the ratio has not fallen to the extent rendering the exercise as illegal. The Executive Magistrate has deposed about the accused being given opportunity to select his appearance and position amongst the dummies who were selected to match general appearance. Thereafter, recording in the panchnama about the actual identification by the witness and then recording the name and detail of the accused thus identified.

14.3.53. The Court also finds extensive cross-examination by the defence Advocate, which pertained to all the prescribed safeguards including verification about the witness himself and presence/absence of the Police etc. and the Court finds that there is nothing to create doubt on the fact of Test Identification Parade being conducted and the same being recorded in the Panchnama. The recording of the proceedings of the panchnama has also been narrated by this witness. It is thereafter that the panchnama of the Test Identification Parade has been given an Exhibit and treated as an admitted evidence.

14.3.54. In the opinion of this Court, this entire exercise was undertaken before the trial Court and subjected to cross-examination and therefore all the aforesaid evidence is indeed the substantive evidence led before the trial Court and the same is corroborated by the actual Test Identification Parade panchnama which also is an exhibited document.

14.3.55. The argument that the failure to identify the accused in the Court will nullify the afore discussed evidence on Identification is not accepted. More particularly, when the witnesses have deposed about the changes in the appearances and body structure of all the accused deliberately or otherwise.

Accordingly, 08 dummy persons were summoned in the Chamber. The test identification parade was convened where the 'burkha' was removed from the face of the accused and he was allowed to stand in the row at the place of his choice. The accused chose to stand between Sr. nos.4 and 5. Thereafter, the panch witnesses were summoned and it was ensured that they had never seen the accused earlier. Thereafter, the witness was summoned in the Chamber and was asked to identify the accused by holding his hand. Accordingly, the accused, namely, Tanvir S/o. Mohammad Akhtar Pathan, was identified by witness - Bimleshkumar Bindunath Jha. After the identification and recording of details of the person identified, the witness was allowed to go and the accused was given an option to change the sequence of his standing and to change his appearance, if he so desired.

14.3.59. Before summoning the second witness, namely, Abbas Ibrahim Kachwala, the accused was given an option to change his place of standing in the row and accordingly, the accused chose to stand in between Sr. nos.2 and 3. Again, the same procedure was repeated, where witness – Abbas Ibrahim Kachwala successfully identified the same accused Tanvir S/o. Mohammad Akhtar Pathan.

14.3.60. In similar fashion, the witness has deposed about the test identification parade conducted at the behest of third witness – Jayesh Manubhai Patel. accused Jahid Kutubuddin Shaikh was called for. A preliminary enquiry was made from the accused as to who all had accompanied him to the Executive Magistrate Court in order to ascertain that his identity is not revealed. After ascertaining that the accused was not made to interact with any other outsider, he was given an option to change his clothes and to stand in the line of dummy persons at the place of his choice. The accused refused to change his clothes and stood in between Sr. Nos.3 and 4. Accordingly, the witness proceeded to examine each of the persons standing in the line and identified one person by holding his hand, whose name the Executive Magistrate inquired and was informed that the identified person is Jahid Kutubuddin Shaikh.

14.3.100. The witness was asked the reasons for identifying the accused, to which the witness conveyed to the Executive Magistrate that the accused had come to his place of business, being a Cyber Cafe, situated in the building named Dr. Ramrao House in Bhuj and at that time, two other individuals had also accompanied him and one of the two individuals was a local resident of Bhuj, named, Abbas Sameja. during the entire process, no police person was kept present inside the Court-room and only independent witnesses were kept present. The test identification parade was concluded at 1815 hrs.. The writing and signatures on the panchnama were identified by the witness and is assigned Exh.3068.

14.3.102. The witness has been extensively cross-examined by the defence counsel with regard to the holding of the Test Identification Parade. The questions were posed initially for the purpose of ascertaining the hiding of the identity of the accused persons, where the witness has deposed that accused were brought to him with their heads covered by the cloth. Though elementary questions were asked about to what extent head was covered, such questions not being of much relevance, are not referred to herein. He has deposed that he has not made any inquiry during the panchnama process as to when the accused persons were arrested.

14.3.103. He has admitted that only when the witnesses, who are referred to in the panchnama, were brought before him, he came to know their details which are mentioned in the panchnama and prior thereto, where they were made to sit, is not known to the witness. He has also admitted that no name of the peon who was in-charge of this witnesses has been mentioned in the panchnama and there is no reason for not mentioning the name of the peon. These questions were put to create doubt about the role of a peon, who may have revealed the identity of the accused to the witness. However, the perusal of the answers given by this witness, the fact as canvassed by this defence is not emerging.

14.3.104. The witness has admitted that in the panchnama, the body built appearance and clothing is not mentioned and that in Exh.3061, an observation is made that the body built of the accused are not similar. It is not mentioned in the panchnama that for bringing the dummy persons, the peon had also seen the accused persons. According to him, the dummy persons were brought by the peon within period of approximately 10 minutes.

14.3.105. The witness was thereafter, questioned about his understanding after looking at the accused, who were apparently from Muslim community and the fact that out of 50 dummy persons, 30 were from Hindu community and 20 were from Muslim community and that the majority dummy persons were from labour class. The witness was thereafter, questioned about the time consumed in each stage of preparing the panchnama and the procedure undertaken before embarking upon the panchnama like reading of the police report, examining of any marks on the body etc. The witness was thereafter specifically questioned for Exh.3061 panchnama, wherein name of Mohamad Iqbal and Azarkhan Mukhtarkhan is not amongst the list of the accused. In this regard, witness-Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Katariya had identified Mohammad Iqbal and Azarkhan Mukhtarkhan which has been noted in the panchnama though they were not present at the time of the deposition, in this connection, the witness has deposed that he is unable to comment. The perusal of Exh.3061 would reveal that in the panchnama, these two names have appeared at item Nos.9 and 10 after the identification carried out by witness-Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Katariya and thereafter, when the names were inquired by the Executive Magistrate himself, it is at that time, these names were given by the identified persons themselves and therefore, those names coming on record are attributed to the accused person, who upon their own identification have given their names as such. Therefore, the questions put to confuse the issue is of no consequence and would not affect the proceeding of Test Identification Parade.

14.3.106. The witness has admitted that after the identification process is over, witness is not aware as to where the identifying witnesses had gone. He was thereafter, asked about some overwriting being made on Exh.3061 on various paras, to which the witness has explained that to correct an error, such overwriting has been made, but has been countersigned by him, which is identified by the witness and therefore also, the Court is unable to doubt the panchnama at Exh. 3061 on account of some overwriting on couple of pages of the document, which in any case is a lengthy document.

14.3.107. The witness was thereafter, questioned that for the purpose of giving an option to the accused to change is clothes whether necessary arrangement has been made for changing the clothes, to which the witness has answered that wherever the accused desirous to change his clothes, then his clothes are made to be interchanged with the persons (dummies present over there). He is unable to answer that in case any artificial change is made in the witness by growing beard or putting on specs and such artificial changes would affect the identification. This question, in the opinion of the Court, is of no consequence being very subjective in nature, which a witness, who is a Executive Magistrate and recording the proceedings, may not be able to answer and even if answer, it would only be his opinion.

14.3.108. With regard to panchnama at Exh.3065, the witness has admitted to the mentioning of time, which according to him, was a bonafide mistake, but has denied that the blanks were later on filled in. He has denied the suggestion that the dummy persons were called by the peon without having a look at the accused.

14.3.109. The witness was thereafter, cross-examined with regard to the geographical location of the office, parking area so as to suggest that the place was open and there was a possibility of the identity of the witnesses being revealed however, in the opinion of the Court in view of the answers given by this witness, such possibility is ruled out, merely by mentioning the geographical situation of the area.

14.3.110. The overall perusal of the evidence of this witness, the Court finds that the witness being a Magistrate in discharge of his duty has undertaken the Test Identification Parade and the panchnama exhibited through him of identification, is sufficiently proved by the witness. Thereby, establishing the identity of the accused through the witnesses, who have stated before the Executive Magistrate the correct reason by which they were able to identify the accused persons and these reasons are in consonance with their own deposition as independent witnesses. In the opinion of the Court, therefore, the accused who are identified under the aforesaid panchnamas exhibited through this witness, list of which are as under, stands established.

Abrar @ Munna @ Ismail @ Abdulla @ Ibrahim S/o Babukhan Maniar in connection with the offence registered at Maninagar Police Station being C.R. I-No.203 of 2008. Thereafter, the accused person was given an opportunity to change his clothes and to choose his possession in the line of dummy persons.

14.3.113. Witness No.1 namely Ramkabhai Devkaranbhai Kesariya was thereafter called inside and was explained the procedure of identification. This witness has deposed that Ramkabhai upon observing the person standing in line, held the hand of one person and brought him out. Upon inquiring, that person disclosed his name as 'Mohd. Abrar @ Munna @ Ismail @ Abdulla @ Ibrahim'. Upon asking the witness-Ramkabhai as to how he could identify this person, he answered that in January 2008, on the date of Utrarayan, he had gone to search for buffalo near an old step-well, near Kamlesh Quarry which was in a forest like area alongwith his friend, wherein he saw something like a tent and about 14 to 15 persons who appeared to be taking some training. Thereafter, one bearded person threatened him and told him to leave. At that time, it was around 11.00 am in the morning and he had seen the said person himself in day light and therefore, he could identify him. The defence has objected to the recording of such statement, which has been duly noted. However this witness has been examined as an independent witness and he has deposed identically to what he conveyed to the executive magistrate.

14.3.114. This witness has further deposed that after witness-Ramkabhai was sent away, the accused person was again given an opportunity to change his clothes and position in the line upon which, the accused exchanged his shirt with one of the dummy persons and changed his position. Thereafter, the next witness namely Pravinbhai Hamirbhai Katariya was called and the identification procedure was explained to him. Thereafter, witness-Pravinbhai identified the accused and brought him out of the line and upon asking the name of the person who was identified, he disclosed his name to be ' Mohd. Abrar @ Munna @ Ismail @ Abdulla @ Ibrahim'. Upon asking witness-Pravinbhai as to how he could identify this accused, he stated that in January 2008, his vehicle got punctured on Halol road, the conductor had gone to get the puncture repaired and that, he and his friend went towards the forest like area, where there was a something like a closed quarry and there, a tent had been put up. He saw 25 to 30 persons there, who were young and some of them had beard and that it was 5.30 pm in the evening and in daylight, he had seen this person there and therefore, he could identify him. The defence similarly objected to the recording of such a statement of witness-Pravinbhai which came to be recorded. The identification witness has been examined as a witness and he has deposed similarly to what is recorded herein above.

14.3.115. This witness has deposed that both these witnesses have successfully identified the accused during the Test Identification Parade. He further deposed that the parade was conducted behind closed doors, with lights turned on and that neither the police officers nor any outsiders were present during the proceedings. He has also deposed that the panchnama was carried out in the presence of both the panch witnesses and that their signatures were obtained on it, and that he affixed the seal and his signature on it. The carbon copy of the panchnama was thereafter handed over to the Investigating Officer upon obtaining acknowledgment. This witness has identified the original and the carbon copy of the Test Identification Parade panchnama and the same came to be jointly exhibited vide Exh.4085.

14.3.116. In the cross examination, this witness has deposed that he had conducted more than 100 test identification parades and more than 1000 dying declarations as an Executive Magistrate. He has deposed that he could not identify the accused, witnesses or panch witnesses connected with the said Test Identification Parade as significant time had passed . He has also admitted that he did not maintain a separate diary or record regarding the Test Identification Parade proceedings and has also deposed that he remained in his office when the said proceedings were conducted and had knowledge as to what was happening outside the Courtroom or compound. He was unable to state the exact time the police, accused or the witnesses had arrived in the Court compound before the Test Identification Parade had commenced. He admitted that in such proceedings, the time of arrival and departure must be noted down so as to ensure that the witnesses do not see the accused persons before the parade, and has also deposed that the accused is brought first and thereafter the witnesses are brought to the Court. He has deposed that as per the information received from his peon, the witnesses had arrived at 2:40 p.m. and they were kept in a separate room than where the Test Identification Parade was conducted. He has deposed that he did not personally go outside to verify them and that he verified the identity of the witnesses through the documents which were produced by them and that the same was not recorded in the panchnama and that he could not remember which documents had been examined by him. He has also admitted that he had not obtained the signature of the witnesses regarding their presence or their participation in the proceedings and that there was also no written proof of the same. The witness further admitted that he had not instructed the Police Officer that the accused person should not be taken anywhere during the period between the receipt of Yadi and completion of Parade although he had instructed that the accused should not be shown to the witnesses. He has admitted that he had not asked the accused as to how long he remained in Police custody or how he had been treated or where he had been taken by the Police between 04-06-2012 and 06-06-2012. He has deposed that when the accused was produced before him, he was covered with Burkha from head to neck. He has admitted that the panchnama did not record that the accused person was seen upon removal of Burkha before the dummy person was called in or description regarding the physical build, complexion, the outfit or footwear of the accused person. Also, he has admitted that the panchnama did not record the description regarding the physical build or the beard of the dummy persons. He has admitted that he did not independently verify the identity of the accused person as he assumed him to be the accused as he was brought by the Police. He has deposed that he did not obtain the signature of the accused on the panchnama. However, he has denied the suggestion that the panchnama was false or prepared at the instance of the Police or that no Test Identification Parade had actually been conducted.

14.3.117. Thus, upon perusal of the deposition of this witness, it is sufficiently proved that he had conducted the Test Identification Parade wherein accused No.74-Mohd. Abrar @ Munna @ Ismail @ Abdulla @ Ibrahim was identified by the witnesses as they had seen him at Halol in January, 2008, where several persons were present and undergoing training. Although in the cross examination, there are certain omissions, it appears that the Test Identification Parade was conducted in enquire on what basis the witness had remained present, and did not make any note regarding whether any person remained with the witness while he was seated outside prior to the parade. He has further deposed that he had not recorded the appearance of the dummy persons and could not state how many dummy persons had light beards. He has admitted that the panchnama does not record the precautions taken by him to ensure neutrality and legality of the proceedings. He has also deposed that he did not ask the accused regarding the period of police custody, whether they had been shown to the witness, or the manner in which they were brought, nor did he ask the witness whether the police had shown him the accused prior to the parade or how he had come there. He has further admitted that the panchnama does not record the reason on the basis of which the witness identified the accused. However the witness has denied the suggestions that he had no authority to conduct the Test Identification Parade, that no such proceedings were conducted, that the panchnama was prepared as per the say of the police, or that he was deposing falsely.

14.3.125. For the purpose of context, the Court observes that the identification witness was examined as PW No.985 vide Exh.6852, and has deposed that the accused identified by him had stayed at the Hotel where he was working and also seen the car brought by him and which is connected with the bomb blast offence. This evidence according to the court establishes the identity of the witness and joint reading with the evidence of PW No.985, becomes an important circumstance connecting the accused with the car.

14.3.126. A perusal of the aforesaid evidence in the form of panchnamas reveal that the following accused, have been identified by the witnesses correctly, namely:

(1) Mobin alias Mubin alias Irfan Abdul Sakurkhan (A-70) and

(2) Amin alias Raja Ayub Shaikh (A-69)

14.3.127. Therefore, this entire sequence of evidence on Identification led before the Court by the witnesses and corroborated with the Test Identification Parade panchnama takes the form of evidence to establish the identity of the accused in the Court.

14.4. Panchnamas under Section 27 of Indian Evidence Act

14.4.1. The Court would now evaluate contents of the panchnama and depositions of panch witnesses in context of Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act.

14.4.2. Though the word 'Panchanama' is nowhere defined in Criminal Procedure Code, 1973, still there are some procedures prescribed to be followed by investigating officers, popularly known as Panchnama. In practice, investigating officers are making mainly 5 kinds of panchnamas, which are as under:

1. Spot Panchnama (Prepared at Scene of offense) : Indicates the situation of things at the crime scene. There may be more than one place of crime.
2. Inquest Panchnama (Prepared in case of death of person) : It is made under Sec.174 of Cr.P.C.. It indicates the condition and other details like wounds on the dead body and surroundings of the place where the dead body lies.
3. Arrest Panchnama : A memo of arrest is prepared at the time the accused is arrested as per Section 41B(b) of the Cr.P.C.. The police officer has to search the person arrested. If anything found from the person arrested, is required to be seized by the Police officer under Sec.52 of Cr.P.C.

4. Discovery Panchnama : Sec.27 of Evidence Act says that when any fact is discovered in consequence of information received from the accused person, as relates distinctly to the fact discovered, may be proved. The police officer reduced it into writing.

5. Seizure Panchnama (Recovery Panchnama): Investigating officer found any article from the place of offence or while making personal search of accused (Sec.51 of Cr.P.C.) or while making discovery panchnama (Sec.27 of I.E.Act) or found any articles from dead body(Sec.174 Cr.P.C.) or collected any article useful for the investigation and trial of offence, he makes seizure panchnama.

14.4.3. So far evidence of Panchnama under S. 27 of Evidence Act is concerned, it is an exception to the general rule that no confession shall be proved against the accused which is made before police. For proving even a confession, it has to be proved by deposition before a Court regarding some discovery of facts in consequence of information received from a person accused of any offence. The deposition must relate distinctly to the fact thereby discovered. Essential ingredients of Sec.27 as held by Hon'ble Supreme Court in various judgments would as under:

1. Discovery of fact in consequence of an information received from accused;

2. Discovery of such fact to be deposed to;

3. The accused must be in police custody when he gave informations and

4. So much of information as relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered is admissible.

14.4.4. General perception in the minds is that in discovery panchnama, a person accused leads the police toward some place, from where some object or article of offence he showed to the police and police recover it upon the information given by the accused. But it is not necessarily always that discovery would be of an article concealed by the accused. The words used in Sec.27 is “Fact is discovered” not merely an article. To understand what is ‘Fact’ one needs to refer to Sec.3 of Indian Evidence Act,1872. It says that,

"Fact" means and includes-

(1) any thing, state of things, or relation of things, capable of being perceived by the senses;

(2) any mental condition of which any person is conscious.

14.4.5. It is an inclusive definition. It is regarding discovery of facts which is a mental fact of knowledge in the mind of the accused, not limited to articles used in offence.

14.4.6. The procedure while recording oral evidence regarding Panchnama is explained by Hon’ble Supreme Court in the case of Shahaja @ Shahajan Ismail Mohd.Shaikh Versus State of Maharashtra-2022 (0) AIJEL-SC 69521, wherein it is held that the contents of the Panchnama should be put to the panch witness in the examination in chief.

14.4.7. Moreover, Indian Evidence Act provides as to how the fact should be proved. In interpretation clause, the word “proved” is explained, it says that-

“Proved”- A fact is said to be proved when, after considering the matters before it, the Court either believes it to exist, or considers its existence so probable that a prudent man ought, under the circumstances of the particular case, to act upon the supposition that it exists.

14.4.8. The Court may as a necessary corollary also refer to Section 8 of the Evidence Act which refers to the conduct of an accused. As per Sec.8 of Indian Evidence Act, the previous and subsequent conduct of the accused is relevant. During the investigation, while recording the statement of accused giving discovery of facts under Sec.27 of Evidence, would also demonstrate the conduct of accused, apart from the admissibility of the discovery of fact. Hon'ble Supreme Court has held in case of Shahaja @ Shahajan Ismail Mohd.Shaikh Versus State Of Maharashtra- 2022 (0) AIJEL-SC 69521 that:-

> "Even while discarding the evidence in the form of discovery panchnama the conduct of the appellant herein would be relevant under Section 8 of the Act. The evidence of discovery would be admissible as conduct under Section 8 of the Act quite apart from the admissibility of the disclosure statement under Section 27, as Apex Court observed in A.N. Venkatesh v. State of Karnataka, (2005) 7 SCC 714".

14.4.9. The defence has taken great pain to explain the entire philosophy of Section 27 of the Evidence Act and while doing so, has cited plethora of decisions of the Apex Court. Most of judgments have been repeatedly cited by the Counsels during their submissions. The Court may refer to those judgments relied by all the Counsels and also to avoid repetition on point of law laid in all the judgments cited at the bar.

14.4.10. The most celebrated being the case of Pulukuri Kottayya v/s. King Emperor of Privy Council reported in AIR 1947 Privy Council 67. The focus of the defence in this judgment is on the part of Para-10 where the reasoning was given to arguments advanced on behalf of the Crown that in such a case the "fact discovered" is the physical object produced, and that any information which relates distinctly to that object can be proved. with this view, the information given by a person that the body produced is that of a person murdered by him, and the weapon produced is the one used by him in the commission of a murder, or that the ornaments produced were stolen in a dacoity would all be admissible. It is observed “If this be the effect of section 27, little substance would remain in the ban imposed by the two preceding sections (S.25 and 26) on confessions made to the police, or by persons in police custody. That ban was presumably inspired by the fear of the Legislature that a person under police influence might be induced to confess by the exercise of undue pressure. But if all that is required to lift the ban be the inclusion in the confession of information relating to an object subsequently produced, it seems reasonable to suppose that the persuasive powers of the police will prove equal to the occasion, and that in practice the ban will lose its effect. On normal principles of construction their Lordships think that the proviso to S. 26, added by S. 27, should not be held to nullify the substance of the section.”

14.4.11. According to this Court in the very judgment, the purpose and applications of Section 27 is given and in Para-10, it was observed by the Court as under:

> “10. Section 27, which is not artistically worded, provides an exception to the prohibition imposed by the preceding section, and enables certain statements made by a person in police custody to be proved. The condition necessary to bring the section into operation is that discovery of a fact in consequence of information received from a person accused of any offence in the custody of a Police officer must be deposed to, and thereupon so much of the information as relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered may be proved. The section seems to be based on the view that if a fact is actually discovered in consequence of information given, some guarantee is afforded thereby that the information was true, and accordingly can be safely allowed to be given in evidence; but clearly the extent of the information admissible must depend on the exact nature of the fact discovered to which such information is required to relate.

Xxxxxx

Information supplied by a person in custody that "I will produce a knife concealed in the roof of my house" does not lead to the discovery of a knife; knives were discovered many years ago. It leads to the discovery of the fact that a knife is concealed in the house of the informant to his knowledge, and if the knife is proved to have been used in the commission of the offence, the fact discovered is very relevant. But if to the statement the words be added "with which I stabbed a" these words are inadmissible since they do not relate to the discovery of the knife in the house of the informant."

14.4.12. Therefore, the interpretation of the Privy Council is not to discard anything and everything deposed to relating to a Panchnama executed during investigation but the part of the information disclosed and distinctly related to the fact discovered may be proved and safely be allowed to be given in evidence.

14.4.13. Defense has then relied on Aghnoo Nagesia v/s. State of Bihar reported in AIR 1966 SC 119 while analyzing the provision of Indian Evidence Act relating to 'Admission' and 'Confession' where

'Confession' is treated as species of 'Admission' (see Para-9) and while considering relationship between Section 26 and Section 27 of Evidence Act appears to have observed that:

> "9. ……..Sec. 26 prohibits proof against any person of a confession made by him in the custody of a police officer, unless it is made in the immediate presence of a Magistrate. The partial ban imposed by sec. 26 relates to a confession made to a person other than a police officer. sec. 26 does not qualify the absolute ban imposed by sec. 25 on a confession made to a police officer. sec. 27 is the form of a proviso, and partially lifts the ban imposed by Sections 24, 25 and 26. It provides that when any fact is deposed to as discovered in consequence of information received from a person accused of any offence, in the custody of a police officer, so much of such information, whether it amounts to a confession or not, as relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered, may be proved."

14.4.14. Thereafter, again considering the inter-connectivity between Section 27 and Section 162. The Court has observed as under:

> "9. ……..Section 162 of the Code of Criminal Procedure forbids the use of any statement made by any person to a police officer in the course of an investigation for any purpose at any enquiry or trial in respect of the offence under investigation, save as mentioned in the proviso and in cases falling under sub-sec. (2), and it specifically provides that nothing in it shall be deemed to affect the provisions of sec. 27 of the Evidence Act. The words of sec. 162 are wide enough to include a confession made to a police officer in the course of an investigation. A statement or confession made in the course of an investigation may be recorded by a Magistrate u/s. 164 of the Code of Criminal Procedure subject to the safeguards imposed by the section. Thus, except as provided by sec. 27 of the Evidence Act, a confession by an accused to a police officer is absolutely protected u/s. 25 of the Evidence Act, and if it is made in the course of an investigation, it is also protected by sec. 162 of the Code of Criminal Procedure……."

14.4.15. The aforesaid observation in the opinion of the Court saves the voluntary disclosure made by an accused even in presence of the Police Officer and the same can be received as evidence, if the disclosure meets the requiremement of S.27 if the Indian Evidence Act.

14.4.16. The defence has cited Himachal Pradesh Administration v/s. Shri Om Prakash reported in 1972 (1) SCC 249 to emphasise that the reason why Supreme Court has been cautious in Section 27 is the likely abuse by the Police of Section 27. However, the Court may observe from the relevant paras of this judgment firstly an important guideline is laid facing stark reality in the effort of the prosecution to bring home the charge and in Para-7, the Court holds as under:

"7. While it is not the function of this Court to determine who other than the person who has been charged with the murder had committed it, the line which the defence adopted was to establish that the witnesses referred to above had an interest in implicating the accused or at any rate to create uncertainty and doubt sufficient to give the benefit to the accused. It is not beyond the ken of experienced able and astute lawyers to raise doubts and uncertainties in respect of the prosecution evidence either during trial by cross-examination or by the marshalling of that evidence in the manner in which the emphasis is placed there on. But what has to be borne in mind is that penumbra of uncertainty in the evidence before a Court is generally due to the nature and quality of that evidence. It may be the witnesses are lying or where they are honest and truthful, they are not certain. It is therefore difficult to expect a scientific or mathematical exactitude while dealing with such evidence or arriving at a true conclusion. Because of these difficulties corroboration is sought wherever possible and the maxim that the accused should be given the benefit of doubt becomes pivotal in the prosecution of offenders which in other words means that the prosecution must prove its case an accused beyond reasonable doubt by a sufficiency of credible evidence. The benefit of doubt to which the accused in entitled is reasonable doubt - the doubt which rational thinking men will reasonably honestly and conscientiously entertain and not the doubt of a timid mind which fights shy - though unwittingly it may be - or is afraid of the logical consequences, if that benefit was not given or as one great Judge said it is "not the doubt of a vacillating mind that has not the moral courage to decide but shelters itself in a vain and idle scepticism". It does not mean that the evidence must be so strong as to exclude even a remote possibility that the accused could not have committed the offence. If that were so the law would fail to protect society as in no case can such a possibility be excluded. It will give room for fanciful conjectures or untenable doubts and will result in deflecting the course of justice if not thwarting it altogether……."

exercised for Section 27 evidence as the information given by the accused in custody leading to discovery of fact, is liable to be abused when the Investigating Officer will attempt to circumvent, by manipulation or ingenuity, that the protection afforded by Section 25 and Section 26 of the Indian Evidence Act. However, the real purpose of Section 27 is explained by Apex Court in Para-14, which is as under:

> "14. In the Full Bench Judgment of Seven Judges in Sukhan V/s. The Crown, which was approved by the Privy Council in Pulukuri Kotaya's case, Shaid Lal C.J, as he then was speaking for the majority pointed out that the expression 'fact' as defined by Section 3 of the Evidence Act includes not only the physical fact which can be perceived by the senses but also the psychological fact or mental condition of which any person is conscious and that it is in the former sense that the word used by the Legislature refers to a material and not to a mental fact. It is clear therefor that what should be discovered is the material fact and the information that is admissible is that which has caused that discovery so as to connect the information and the fact with each other as the cause and effect. That information which does not distinctly connect with the fact discovered or that portion of the information which merely explains the material thing discovered is not admissible under Section 27 and cannot be proved."

14.4.18. In the facts of the aforesaid case, the Apex Court has in fact accepted such evidence and set aside the judgment of acquittal by the High Court and recorded conviction.

14.4.19. Defense has cited Yedala Subba Rao v/s. Union of India reported in 2023 (6) SCC 65 in support that Pulukuri Kottayya (supra) is still being followed. At the outset, the aforesaid judgment is the judgment at the stage of Bail, the principle followed is already explained in Pulukuri Kottayya (supra). However, perusing the fact of this case, especially in Para-19 to 21 it appears that the panchnama drawn is not in two parts but in one part, as there is no confessional statement made by the accused giving information that he is in position to show the place where the landmines were planted.

14.4.20. Whereas in our case the procedure followed is that of drawing of panchnama where the voluntary disclosure is made before the panch witness in first part and in the second part, the discovery of the relevant fact is made. Therefore, though confessional in nature is saved by Section 27 of the Evidence Act.

14.4.21. For the same principle, another judgment cited is Vijender v/s. State of Delhi reported in 1997 (6) SCC 171. Here referring to the facts, the Court observed there was statutory breach noticed in recording evidence of witness under Section 27, where the evidence was led through three Police witnesses, that in consequence of information received from the accused, they discovered the place where the dead body was thrown. However, the body was discovered prior thereto. Therefore, the voluntary disclosure obviously would not be proved by the Police witnesses alone.

14.4.22. The Court may observe that applicability of Section 27 will have to be appreciated on the basis of the Nature of offence. Especially the application of Section 27 in a case of discovery of a dead body in a murder case would be different than that in case of a hatching of conspiracy where the voluntary disclosure can never lead to discovery of any dead body.

14.4.23. The defence has relied on the decision in case of Madhu v/s.

State of Kerala reported in 2012 (2) SCC 399 to again contend that the pointing out panchnama in this case cannot be treated as panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act. In Para-55 of this judgment, the question to be determined whether the confessional statement by accused; Ext.9 and 10 can be said to led to discovery of unknown fact. As to what are Exh.P9 and P10 is coming out in Para-44 with reference to deposition of PW-21; the Investigating officer and Exh.P9 and P10 are the confessional statements of A1 and A2 recorded by the Investigating Officer; PW-21. Keeping this fact in mind in Para-57, the Court has observed as under:

> "57. The factual position that recovery of stolen ornaments would be made by the police was a matter of common knowledge well before the confessional statements were made. The said statements recorded vide Exhibits P-9 and P-10 are inadmissible inspite of the mandate contained in Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act for the simple reason, that they cannot be stated to have resulted in the discovery of some new fact. In the factual background of the present controversy, the gold ornaments which eventually came to be recovered by the police, allegedly at the instance of accused, may well have been planted by the police."

14.4.24. In the very judgment, in Para-49, the Apex Court has observed what does Section 27 provide for the prosecution, which supports the prosecution and which is as under:

> "49. As an exception, Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act provides that a confessional statement made to a police officer or while an accused is in police custody, can be proved against him, if the same leads to the discovery of an unknown fact. The rationale of Sections 25 and 26 of the Indian Evidence Act is, that police may procure a confession by coercion or threat. The exception postulated under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act is applicable only if the confessional statement leads to the discovery of some new fact. The relevance under the exception postulated by Section 27 aforesaid, is limited "...as it relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered....". The rationale behind Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act is, that the facts in question would have remained unknown but for the disclosure of the same by the accused. Discovery of facts itself, therefore, substantiates the truth of the confessional statement. And since it is truth that a court must endeavour to search, Section 27 aforesaid has been incorporated as an exception to the mandate contained in Sections 25 and 26 of the Indian Evidence Act."

14.4.25. Reliance is placed on Perumal Raja v/s. State Rep. By the Inspector of Police reported in 2024 SCC Online SC 12 to emphasis on the principle in Pulukuri Kottayya (supra) and attention is drawn to Para-19, 20 and 21 and submitted the fact discovered should refer to a material / physical object and not a pure mental fact relating to a physical object disassociated from the recovery of the physical object.

14.4.26. According to this Court, the fact discovered must lead to recovery of a physical object and only that information which distinctly relates to that discovery can be proved. Based on this principle the Apex Court has held in Para-22 to 24 as under:

"22. However, we must clarify that Section 27 of the Evidence Act, as held in these judgments, does not lay down the principle that discovery of a fact is to be equated to the object produced or found. The discovery of the fact resulting in recovery of a physical object exhibits knowledge or mental awareness of the person accused of the offence as to the existence of the physical object at the particular place. Accordingly, discovery of a fact includes the object found, the place from which it was produced and the knowledge of the accused as to its existence. To this extent, therefore, factum of discovery combines both the physical object as well as the mental consciousness of the informant accused in relation thereto. In Mohmed Inayatullah v. State of Maharashtra, (1976) 1 SCC 828., elucidating on Section 27 of the Evidence Act, it has been held that the first condition imposed and necessary for bringing the section into operation is the discovery of a fact which should be a relevant fact in consequence of information received from a person accused of an offence. The second is that the discovery of such a fact must be deposed to. A fact already known to the police will fall foul and not meet this condition. The third is that at the time of receipt of the information, the accused must be in police custody. Lastly, it is only so much of information which relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered resulting in recovery of a physical object which is admissible. Rest of the information is to be excluded. The word distinctly is used to limit and define the scope of the information and means directly, indubitably, strictly or unmistakably. Only that part of the information which is clear, immediate and a proximate cause of discovery is admissible.

23. The facts proved by the prosecution, particularly the admissible portion of the statement of the accused, would give rise to two alternative hypotheses, namely, (i) that the accused had himself deposited the physical items which were recovered; or (ii) only the accused knew that the physical items were lying at that place. The second hypothesis is wholly compatible with the innocence of the accused, whereas the first would be a factor to show involvement of the accused in the offence. The court has to analyse which of the hypotheses should be accepted in a particular case.

24. Section 27 of the Evidence Act is frequently used by the police, and the courts must be vigilant about its application to ensure credibility of evidence, as the provision is vulnerable to abuse. However, this does not mean that in every case invocation of Section 27 of the Evidence Act must be seen with suspicion and is to be discarded as perfunctory and unworthy of credence."

14.4.27. The aforesaid observations by the Apex Court in the opinion of this Court is favoring the prosecution especially when the pointing out panchnama are drawn upon a voluntary disclosure of the concerned accused about his knowledge of the fact of the place where the conspiracy was hatched.

14.4.28. Defense has then relied on the decision of the Apex Court in case of Indra Dalal v/s. State of Haryana reported in 2015 (11) SCC 31.

However, in this judgment on facts, the Apex Court has observed the facts do not attract the situation contemplated under Section 27 as this information provided by the accused to the Police in the form of confessional statement has not led to any discovery.

14.4.29. On the issue of how much of the 'fact discovered' is permissible to be accepted as evidence, the defence has relied upon on the decision of the Apex Court in case of Salim Akhtar v/s. State of U.P. reported in 2003 (5) SCC 499, wherein the offence being under TADA and disclosure statement leading to recovery of pistol, cartridge and RDX. Following the principle, Pulukuri Kottayya (supra) held in Para-10 that the disclosure statement made by appellant were made to the police personnel and only that part of the statement would be admissible which is permissible under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act.

14.4.30. Thereafter, the Court also held that it is fallacious to treat 'fact discovered' within the Section as equivalent to the object produced and has observed in Para-10 as under:

> "10. ……..The fact discovered embraces the place from which the object is produced and the knowledge of the accused as to this, and the information given, must relate distinctly to this fact. Information as to the past user, or the past history, of the object produced is not related to its discovery in the setting in which it is discovered. Therefore, what is admissible is the place from where the polythene bag containing pistol and other articles was allegedly recovered. The fact that some terrorist organisation had given the pistol and other articles to the appellant or its use would not be admissible."

14.4.31. Thereby clearly demarcating the position of voluntary disclosure can be received as an evidence against the accused. Thereby not supporting the contention of the defence that such voluntary disclosure is required to be discarded altogether.

14.4.32. The Court may on the issue of Section 27 return to initial judgment of the Supreme Court in case of Mohmed Inayatullah v/s. the State of Maharashtra reported in 1976 (1) SCC 828 where perhaps the Apex Court initially had an occasion to deal with the 'Mental fact' being covered in the expression of "fact discovered". The Apex Court in this regards held in Para-12 and 13 as under:

> "12. The expression "Provided that" together with the phrase "whether it amounts to a confession or not" shows that the section is in the nature of an exception to the preceding provisions particularly Sections 25 and 26. It is not necessary in this case to consider if this section qualifies, to any extent, Sec. 24, also. It will be seen that the first condition necessary for bringing this section into operation is the discovery of a fact, albeit a relevant fact, in consequence of the information received from a person accused of an offence. The second is that the discovery of such fact must be deposed to. The third is that at the time of the receipt of the information the accused must be in police custody. The last but the most important condition is that only "so much of the information" as relates distinctly to that fact thereby discovered is admissible. The rest of the information has to be excluded. The word "distinctly" means "directly", "indubitably" "strictly", "unmistakably". The word has been advisedly used to limit and define the scope of the provable information. The phrase "distinctly" relates "to the fact thereby discovered" (sic) (and-) is the linchpin of the provision. This phrase refers to that part of the information supplied by the accused which is the direct and immediate cause of the discovery. The reason behind this partial lifting of the ban against confessions and statements made to the police, is that if a fact is actually discovered in consequence of information given by the accused, it affords some guarantee of truth of that part, and that part only, of the information which was the clear, immediate and proximate cause of the discovery. No such guarantee or assurance attaches to the rest of the statement which may be indirectly or remotely related to the fact discovered.

13. At one time it was held that the expression "fact discovered" in the section is restricted to a physical or material fact which can be perceived by the senses, and that it does not include a mental fact (see Sukhan v/s. Crown; Rex v/s. Ganee). Now it is fairly settled that the expression "fact discovered" includes not only the physical object produced, but also the place from which it is produced and the knowledge of the accused as to this. (see Palukuri Kotayya v/s. Emperor; Udai Bhan v. State of Uttar Pradesh).”

14.4.33. The Court may now refer to two latest judgments of the Apex Court dealing with this issue. The first being Renuka Prasad v/s. State reported in 2025 SCC online SC 1074 and second being Subramanya v/s. State of Karnataka reported in 2023 (11) SCC 255.

14.4.34. The judgment of Renuka Prasad (supra) is relied upon by defence as it held that “the confession under Section 27 cannot be relied upon and there is no question of any aid being drawn from it to implicate the other accused. As far as the sites pointed out by Accused No.1, we have found that it did not lead to any discovery of a fact and it is hit by Section 25 & 26 of the Evidence Act.” It was further held that “Confessions allegedly made by A1 regarding the sites where the conspiracy was hatched and the money transacted does not lead to any discovery of fact. The narration about the conspiracy and the money transactions are not admissible and the mere pointing out of two sites does not lead to any discovery of fact, when the narration is eschewed."

14.4.35. To arrive at aforesaid observation the Supreme Court also referred to very typical facts of the case in Renuka Prasad (supra) in the very 1st Para of the judgment as under:

> "Prevaricating witnesses, turning hostile in Court and overzealous investigations, done in total ignorance of basic tenets of criminal law, often reduces prosecution to a mockery. Witnesses mount the box to disown prior statements, deny recoveries made, feign ignorance of aggravating circumstances spoken of during investigation and eye witnesses turn blind. Here is a classic case of 71 of the total 87 witnesses including eye- witnesses, turning hostile, leaving the prosecution to stand on the testimony of the police and official witnesses. Even a young boy, the crucial eyewitness, who saw his father being hacked to death, failed to identify the assailants."

14.4.36. The evidence purported under Section 27 in the case of Renuka Prasad (supra) are the panch witnesses who attested the various recoveries, like cash seized from A2 to A5, the weapons used, and the clothes worn by the accused, when the crime was committed, also turned hostile. Dealing with Exh.P49, recovery of the machetes, the weapons used in the offence and Exh.P50, recovery of the clothes worn by A5 and A6 at the time of the crime, a little later, which has to be considered along with the FSL report and the result of analysis coming forth. It was noticed that there were two Mahazars produced as Annexure P51 and P54, wherein A1 allegedly confessed and pointed out the place where the conspiracy was carried out and the money transfer occurred. This, however, is not a confession under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act, 1872, since there was no tangible object recovered from the two sites pointed out, leading to the discovery of a fact. The confession statement regarding the conspiracy, of course cannot at all be relied upon, being hit by Sections 25 & 26 of the Evidence Act. The other witnesses examined to prove the aggravating circumstances also turned hostile in which event the Court turned to the evidence of the Investigating Officers, PWs 83, 84 and 87. This factual scenario is quite different then in the present case where the panch witnesses have supported the prosecution they have deposed to the voluntary disclosure made by the accused in custody and that there is nothing on record to malign the voluntary disclosure being made under threat, fear or inducement.

14.4.37. The Court may now refer to decision of the Apex Court in Subramanya (supra) which is laying down the practical aspect of applying of Section 27 and therefore, has held as under:

> "78. If, it is say of the investigating officer that the accused appellant while in custody on his own free will and volition made a statement that he would lead to the place where he had hidden the weapon of offence, the site of burial of the dead body, clothes etc., then the first thing that the investigating officer should have done was to call for two independent witnesses at the police station itself. Once the two independent witnesses would arrive at the police station thereafter in their presence the accused should be asked to make an appropriate statement as he may desire in regard to pointing out the place where he is said to have hidden the weapon of offence etc.

When the accused while in custody makes such statement before the two independent witnesses (panch witnesses) the exact statement or rather the exact words uttered by the accused should be incorporated in the first part of the panchnama that the investigating officer may draw in accordance with law. This first part of the panchnama for the purpose of Section 27 of the Evidence Act is always drawn at the police station in the presence of the independent witnesses so as to lend credence that a particular statement was made by the accused expressing his willingness on his own free will and volition to point out the place where the weapon of offence or any other article used in the commission of the offence had been hidden. Once the first part of the panchnama is completed thereafter the police party along with the accused and the two independent witnesses (panch witnesses) would proceed to the particular place as may be led by the accused. If from that particular place anything like the weapon of offence or blood stained clothes or any other article is discovered then that part of the entire process would form the second part of the panchnama. This is how the law expects the investigating officer to draw the discovery panchnama as contemplated under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. If we read the entire oral evidence of the investigating officer then it is clear that the same is deficient in all the aforesaid relevant aspects of the matter.

79. In the aforesaid context, we may refer to and rely upon the decision of this Court in the case of Murli and Another v. State of Rajasthan reported in (2009) 9 SCC 417 , held as under:

"34. The contents of the panchnama are not the substantive evidence. The law is settled on that issue. What is substantive evidence is what has been stated by the panch as or the person concerned in the witness box."

80. One another serious infirmity which has surfaced is in regard to the authorship of concealment by the person who is said to have discovered the weapon.

81. The conditions necessary for the applicability of Section 27 of the Act are broadly as under:-

(1) Discovery of fact in consequence of an information received from accused;
(2) Discovery of such fact to be deposed to;
(3) The accused must be in police custody when he gave information; and
(4) So much of information as relates distinctly to the fact thereby discovered is admissible - Mohmed Inayatullah v. The State of Maharashtra: Two conditions for application:

82. We may refer to and rely upon a Constitution Bench decision of this Court in the case of State of Uttar Pradesh v. Deoman Upadhyaya reported in AIR (1960) SC 1125 , wherein, Paragraph 71 explains the position of law as regards the Section 27 of the Evidence Act:

"71. The law has thus made a classification of accused persons into two: (1) those who have the danger brought home to them by detention on a charge; and (2) those who are yet free. In the former category are also those persons who surrender to the custody by words or action. The protection given to these two classes is different. In the case of persons belonging to the first category the law has ruled that their statements are not admissible, and in the case of the second category, only that portion, of the statement is admissible as is guaranteed by the discovery of a relevant fact unknown before the statement to the investigating authority. That statement may even be confessional in nature, as when the person in custody says: "I pushed him down such and such mineshaft", and the body of the victim is found as a result, and it can be proved that his death was due to injuries received by a fall down the mineshaft."

83. The scope and ambit of Section 27 of the Evidence Act were illuminatingly stated in Pulukuri Kottaya and Others v. Emperor, AIR 1947 PC 67 , which have become locus classicus, in the following words:

> "10.....It is fallacious to treat the "fact discovered" within the section as equivalent to the object produced; the fact discovered embraces the place from which the object is produced and the knowledge of the accused as to this, and the information given must relate distinctly to this fact. Information as to past user, or the past history, of the object produced is not related to its discovery in the setting in which it is discovered. Information supplied by a person in custody that "I will produce a knife concealed in the roof of my house" does not lead to the discovery of a knife; knives were discovered many years ago. It leads to the discovery of the fact that a knife is concealed in the house of the informant to his knowledge, and if the knife is proved to have been used in the commission of the offence, the fact discovered is very relevant. But if to the statement the words be added "with which I stabbed A" these words are inadmissible since they do not relate to the discovery of the knife in the house of the informant."

14.4.38. With the aforesaid and before referring to the evidence in the form of Panchnama under Section 27 of the Indian Evidence Act as well as appreciation of evidence with the aid of Section 8 of the Indian Evidence Act, the Court may analyse the Section itself vis. a vis. the nature of the panchnama drawn during investigation.

14.4.39. The panchnama drawn in the present case post effecting the arrest where the accused in custody wanted to make voluntary disclosure based on which the Investigating Officer has summoned panch witnesses. From the record it is apparent that the panch witnesses of all the panchnama are different and not the stock panch witnesses and in presence of the panch witnesses what voluntary disclosure of information related to the crime disclosed, is recorded. This being first part of the panchnama based on which the accused has led the team to the place regarding which disclosure is made and the same is recorded in the 2nd part of the panchnama.

14.4.40. For establishing the panchnama as an evidence and giving exhibit to the panchnama, the panch witnesses are examined as a prosecution witness, who on oath deposed to the fact of "voluntary disclosure" and thereafter, narrate as to the manner in which the Team is led by accused to the place where the fact disclose is discovered. 'Fact' includes the mental fact of knowledge of the accused regarding the place disclosed in the first part of panchnama and the fact established by other set of evidence connecting the place disclosed with the crime thereby making the panchnama admissible with the aid of Section 27 and then so much of the information relating to the offence as a 'relevant fact', can be proved.

14.4.41. The Court in the facts of the present case may take an illustration of a typical panchnama executed where the offence is of conspiracy. In the offence of conspiracy, there cannot be recovery of article, but disclosure of a place (hideout) where the offence of conspiracy, meeting of mind takes place. So, when the 'information' disclosed by the accused voluntarily leading to locating of the house where meeting took place then the knowledge of the house being used for meeting comes on the record of investigation by way of panchnama, and when the panch witnesses deposes to such fact discovered as a result of information received from accused, then such information which relates to discovery of the house is to be proved even if such information may or may not be confessional in nature.

14.4.42. The Court may analyze Section 27 itself which it is argued is a sort of proviso to previous Sections 25 and 26 still Section 27 is an independent Section in itself, which carves an exception to Sections 25 and 26, when certain circumstances are in existence. The Section provides that when any fact is deposed meaning, thereby a fact stated on oath by a panchwitness as a fact discovered, and such 'fact' discovered is on account of the information received from accused in custody, then such information deposed, whether it amounts to confession or not and relates distinctly to the 'fact discovered' can be received as evidence. Therefore, where a confessional statement in our context leads to discovery of a house where conspiracy takes place, then Section 27 is applicable.

1. A clever argument has been advanced by the defence to take out all the point out panchnama out of application of Section 27 that it is only if a 'material object' is discovered on basis of information received from accused only then Section 27 is applicable and therefore, when a panchnama is executed by accused in present case, leading only to the place of offense, then Section 27 does not apply.

14.4.43. However, such arguments can be repelled on the basis of the provision of Indian Evidence Act itself where the word used is 'fact' as a 'fact deposed' and 'fact discovered'.

14.4.44. Section 3 of Indian Evidence Act which is interpretation clause, interprets the word 'fact' as under:

"Fact".—"Fact" means and includes—(1) anything, state of things, or relation of things, capable of being perceived by the senses;

(2) any mental condition of which any person is conscious.

Here Sub-clause (2) clearly provides for any mental condition of which a person is conscious of, to also be treated as 'fact'.

14.4.45. Clarifying this aspect as it appears in Pulukuri Kottayya (supra), Hon'ble Apex Court in Mohmed Inayatullah (supra) wherein Para-13, the Court has held as under:

> "13. At one time it was held that the expression "fact discovered" in the section is restricted to a physical or material fact which can be perceived by the senses, and that it does not include a mental fact . Now it is fairly settled that the expression "fact discovered" includes not only the physical object produced, but also the place from which it is produced and the knowledge of the accused as to this."

14.4.46. The attempt of the defence is that the court should read the word 'but' appearing in the aforesaid phrase as 'and' but in the opinion of this court that does not appear to be the correct requirement as prescribed by the Apex Court.

14.4.47. In this regard, the Court may also quote an important para from the judgment in case of State of NCT of Delhi Versus Navjot Sandhu @ Afsan Guru reported in 2005 (11) SCC 600, wherein in Para-125, it was held as under:

> "125. We are of the view that Kotayya's case is an authority for the proposition that 'discovery of fact' cannot be equated to the object produced or found. It is more than that. The discovery of fact arises by reason of the fact that the information given by the accused exhibited the knowledge or the mental awareness of the informant as to its existence at a particular place."

14.4.48. In the very judgment of Navjot Sandhu (supra), the Apex Court has also pronounced on the admissibility of joint disclosure and has gone on to hold the same to be admissible.

> "145. Before parting with the discussion on the subject of confessions u/s. 27, we may briefly refer to the legal position as regards joint disclosures. This point assumes relevance in the context of such disclosures made by the first two accused viz. Afzal and Shaukat. The admissibility of information said to have been furnished by both of them leading to the discovery of the hideouts of the deceased terrorists and the recovery of a laptop computer, a mobile phone and cash of Rs. 10 lacs from the truck in which they were found at Srinagar is in issue. Learned senior counsel Mr. Shanti Bhushan and Mr. Sushil Kumar appearing for the accused contend, as was contended before the High Court, that the disclosure and pointing out attributed to both cannot fall within the Ken of Sec. 27, whereas it is the contention of Mr. Gopal Subramanium that there is no taboo against the admission of such information as incriminating evidence against both the informants/accused. Some of the High Courts have taken the view that the wording "a person" excludes the applicability of the Section to more than one person. But, that is too narrow a view to be taken. Joint disclosures-to be more accurate, simultaneous disclosures, perse, are not inadmissible u/s. 27. 'A person accused' need not necessarily be a single person, but it could be plurality of accused. It seems to us that the real reason for not acting upon the joint disclosures by taking resort to Sec. 27

is the inherent difficulty in placing reliance on such information supposed to have emerged from the mouths of two or more accused at a time. In fact, joint or simultaneous disclosure is a myth, because two or more accused persons would not have uttered informatory words in a chorus. At best, one person would have made the statement orally and the other person would have stated so substantially in similar terms a few seconds or minutes later, or the second person would have given unequivocal nod to what has been said by the first person. Or, two persons in custody may be interrogated separately and simultaneously and both of them may furnish similar information leading to the discovery of fact. Or, in rare cases, both the accused may reduce the information into writing and hand over the written notes to the police officer at the same time. We do not think that such disclosures by two or more persons in police custody go out of the purview of Sec. 27 altogether. If information is given one after the other without any break-almost simultaneously, and if such information is followed up by pointing out the material thing by both of them, we find no good reason to eschew such evidence from the regime of Sec. 27. However, there may be practical difficulties in placing reliance on such evidence. It may be difficult for the witness (generally the police officer), to depose which accused spoke what words and in what sequence. In other words, the deposition in regard to the information given by the two accused may be exposed to criticism from the stand point of credibility and its nexus with discovery. Admissibility and credibility are two distinct aspects, as pointed out by Mr. Gopal

Subramanium. Whether and to what extent such a simultaneous disclosure could be relied upon by the Court is really a matter of evaluation of evidence. With these prefatory remarks, we have to refer to two decisions of this Court which are relied upon by the learned defence counsel."

14.4.49. One argument consistently advanced is that when accused is arrested later in point of time and he makes voluntary disclosure regarding a place or house where meetings took place, there is no discovery of a new fact and such fact of the house where meeting took place was already in the knowledge of the Investigating Officer. Similar arguments are also advanced where accused arrested made voluntary disclosure of the sites where the cycle with bomb was planted. This site was also within the knowledge of the Investigating Officer and in fact, was in public domain.

14.4.50. To appreciate this argument, the Court may consider the procedure adopted in drawing the panchnama like the point out panchnama when the accused prefers to make voluntary disclosure, the panch witnesses summoned and the accused in front of him makes a voluntary disclosure that he would like to show a 'place of meeting'. At that stage, the Investigating Officer is not aware as to where the accused would lead to as a 'place of meeting'. It is only upon reaching that place it would appear that it is the very 'place of meeting' which has already been pointed out by another accused previously arrested and through his voluntary disclosure a point of out panchnama is already executed.

14.4.51. However, the knowledge of the fact of 'place of meeting' is the discovery of a 'fact' as physically the 'place of meeting' is pointed out as disclosed, and the same 'place of meeting' coincidentally pointed out at different times under different panchnamas by different accused. In fact, this strengthens the case of the prosecution in establishing the place where the meeting had taken place and conspiracy was hatched. Therefore, the point out panchnama of the 'place of meeting', etc. though may be disclosed successively by different accused and different point of time upon their respective arrest will have to be accepted as panchnama under Section 27 and the information disclosed leading to discovery of fact will have to be admitted as evidence even if it is confessional in nature.

14.4.52. One more aspect which the Court notices and is typical to the facts of the case is the arrest of the accused at a later stage. When the first set of accused were arrested through the voluntary disclosure, the Houses where the accused met or resided and assembled the bomb, the panchnama under Section 27 was drawn and various articles connected with the offense were discovered and made part of investigation and were also sent for FSL.

14.4.53. However, later in point of time, after almost two to three months of the first arrest, another accused is arrested and he too makes a voluntary disclosure of place of meeting, residing or assembling the bomb, which is again the same place which has already been discovered through the co-accused who have been previously arrested. However, the accused leading the Investigating Officer to the very same place of meeting will not lead to finding of any material from the same place as in the previous panchnama all the articles have already been seized under a panchnama. Therefore, the question is non recovery of any material object during the subsequent point out panchnama at the same place will render the point out panchnama inadmissible? The answer in the opinion of the Court has to be 'no' as, when there is a commonality of the place of meeting pointed out by the accused previously arrested and the accused subsequently arrested, the point out panchnama drawn later in point of time will have to be directly associated with the recovery of object under the previous point out panchnama.

14.4.54. This Court once again may refer to the judgment in Navjot Sandhu (supra) and extensively quote relevant paras where the Apex Court has undertaken exercise of appreciation of evidence of point out panchnama as it will serve as guideline for this case. This will also help in decoding Section 8 of Indian Evidence Act.

makes the conduct of an accused person relevant, if such conduct influences or is influenced by any fact in issue or relevant fact. It could be either previous or subsequent conduct. There are two Explanations to the Section, which explains the ambit of the word 'conduct'. They are:

Explanation 1 : The word 'conduct' in this Section does not include statements, unless those statements accompany and explain acts other than statements, but this explanation is not to affect the relevancy of statements under any other Section of this Act.

Explanation 2 : When the conduct of any person is relevant, any statement made to him or in his presence and hearing, which affects such conduct, is relevant.

The conduct, in order to be admissible, must be such that it has close nexus with a fact in issue or relevant fact. The Explanation 1 makes it clear that the mere statements as distinguished from acts do not constitute 'conduct' unless those statements "accompany and explain acts other than statements". Such statements accompanying the acts are considered to be evidence of res gestae. Two illustrations appended to Sec. 8 deserve special mention.

This statement has been signed by Mohd. Afzal. In fact it is not required to be signed by virtue of the embargo in Sec. 162(1). The fact that the signature of the accused Afzal was obtained on the statement does not, however, detract from its admissibility to the extent it is relevant u/s. 27.

209. Now, we shall refer to the specific details of evidence in this regard. PW76- I.O. deposed to the fact that Afzal and Shaukat pointed out the 2nd floor of A-97, Gandhi Vihar as the place where the deceased terrorists stayed. This is recorded by PW76 in the memo marked as exhibit PW34/1. PW76 deposed that on his request, the landlord of the house-PW34 accompanied him to the 2nd floor and the lock of the house was broken and the premises searched in the presence of PW34. The various articles recovered and seized consequent upon the search of the premises are recorded in exhibit PW34/1. They are: (a) 3 electronic detonators (exhibits P60/1, 60/2 and 60/3). (b) two packets of silver powder bearing the address Tolaram & Sons, 141, Tilak Bazar, Delhi' (exhibit P61). (c) A bucket (exhibit P62) of prepared explosive material. Sample of explosive material is exhibit P63. (d) two boxes containing Sulphur (exhibits P64 and P65). (e) two cardboard cartons (exhibits P66 and P67) containing 20 jars each of Ammonium Nitrate of 500 grams each (exhibit P68/1 to exhibit P68/38) (one jar was taken out from each carton as a sample). (f) Yamaha motorcycle bearing No.DL-1 S- K-3122 (exhibit P76) found at the gate of the house and seized as per exhibit PW34/2. (g) Maps of Delhi city and Chanakyapuri area found in the room vide exhibit P34/3. (h) Police uniforms and police beret caps (P73 series). (i) Sujata Mixer Grinder with three jars (exhibit P72) seized as per exhibit PW34/4.

210. PW34 confirmed this fact in his deposition. In addition, PW34 identified Afzal and Shaukat in the Court and stated the following facts:

That Afzal had introduced himself under an assumed name of Maqsood and took the 2nd floor on rent in the first week of November, 2001. That Shaukat and three or four boys used to visit Afzal at that premises quite often and on the crucial day i.e. 13.12.2001, at 10 am, Afzal, Shaukat and four more persons left in an Ambassador car and Afzal had returned a short while later and then left the premises subsequently. That the deceased terrorist Mohammed, whose photograph he identified, was also residing with Afzal sometime after the premises was taken on rent.

211. The High Court accepted the testimony of PW34 including the identification of the deceased Mohammed by photograph (exhibit PW1/20). He could not identify the remaining four terrorists.

212. Next, we come to the evidence in regard to the premises at Indira Vihar and the recoveries therefrom. Mohd. Afzal, while being examined u/s. 313 of the Code of Criminal Procedure admitted that the house at 281, Indira Vihar was taken on rent by him after his return to Delhi after Eed. PW76 deposed to the fact that Afzal and Shaukat led him and the police party to the premises at 281, Indira Vihar as the place where Afzal and the five slain terrorists stayed. The memo of pointing out is exhibit PW32/1. PW32, who is the landlord, stated that on 16.12.2001, the accused Afzal and Shaukat whom he identified correctly, were brought to his house by the police and Afzal told the police that he was the landlord. Thereafter, the police took him and the two accused to the 2nd floor which was found locked and as there was no key, the police broke the lock. PW32 then stated that on a search of the premises, a number of articles as recorded in the memo of seizure-exhibit PW32/1 were found. The articles recovered as a result of search were, (i) three electric detonators attached with a wire kept in a box, (ii) six pressure detonators fitted in a plastic box, (iii) two silver powder packets of thousand grams each with the slips containing the name of 'Tolaram and Sons, Tilak Bazar', (iv) two boxes of sulphur, (v) a motorcycle of Yamaha make parked near the gate of the house, (vi) household articles etc. PW32 attested the seizure memo."

"216. Amongst the hideouts furnishing the links of association between the accused Afzal and the deceased terrorist Mohammed is the one in the Boys' hostel, Christian Colony. It is in the evidence of PW38 who was running an STD booth at Christian Colony that Afzal and Shaukat met him and made enquiries about the availability of rented accommodation. Then on 6.11.2001 he took him to PW37 who was running a hostel at B-41, Christian Colony. PW38 identified Afzal and Shaukat. PW37 deposed that he let out a room on the Ground Floor and when he went to the hostel on 26th November, he found one Kashmiri boy in the room who disclosed his name as Ruhail Ali Shah. It may be noted that the witness identified the said Ruhail Ali Shah as the deceased terrorist Mohammed by reference to his photograph (exhibit PW29/5) in the presence of police and in the Court. The identity card of Ruhail Ali Shah (exhibit PW4/4) shown to him was also identified and it is the card that was found at the spot of offence. PW37 also stated that he had seen Afzal and Shaukat visiting the so called Ruhail Ali Shah. It may be noted that the said room in Christian Colony was taken on rent at about the same time when the premises at Gandhi Vihar was hired. The testimony of this witness was found to be reliable by the High Court. We see no good reason to discard his evidence on the ground that he did not produce the record of their stay."

14.4.55. The court has purposely quoted at length as above as according to the court the nature of evidence in the aforesaid case of terrorism is quite identical to the nature of the evidence in the present case as well.

14.4.56. The defence has relied upon judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Anand Jakkappa Pujari @ Gaddadar v/s. State of Karnataka reported in 2026 (0) INSC 417 wherein the case of the prosecution was based on joint and simultaneous discovery made by four accused persons. The discovery panchnamas were referred to as Ex.P.50 to Ex.P.53 and were treated as voluntary statements of accused nos. 1 to 4. The Apex Court also considered the evidence of discovery panchnama through PW-4. PW-4 had clearly deposed accused Kalappa, who was not before the Hon'ble Supreme Court, having led the police party through a kachha road and pointed out the place where the dead body of the deceased was burnt. However, PW-4 had not deposed anything about any particular statement made by the appellants in his presence. Therefore, except accused Kalappa, no other accused made any statement of discovery in presence of PW-4. The Apex Court also considered evidence of discovery given by the Investigating officer; PW-24.

14.4.57. After considering the aforesaid evidence, the Apex Court observed that it did not propose to outrightly discard the evidence in the form of discovery solely on the ground that a joint disclosure statement was recorded by the Investigating Officer without indicating the precise statement made by each of the accused persons. The contention raised on behalf of the appellants was that it could not be said with certainty whether all the four accused persons had simultaneously made the statement or whether each stated separately one after another and with what interval. It was further contended that a joint disclosure statement, being a statement by more than one person, would be of no use so far as Section 27 of the Evidence Act was concerned.

14.4.58. The Apex Court thereafter referred to paragraph 145 of the judgment in the case of Navjot Sandhu (supra), wherein the expression employed under Section 27, namely "a person accused", was interpreted to mean that it need not necessarily refer only to a single person, but may also include plurality of accused persons. It was further observed that disclosures made by two or more persons while in police custody would not altogether go out of the purview of Section 27 of the Evidence Act. It was also observed that admissibility and credibility are two distinct aspects and whether and to what extent such simultaneous disclosure could be relied upon by the Court would be a matter of appreciation and evaluation of evidence.

14.4.59. The Apex Court further noted that PW-4 had not stated a word regarding the exact statement made by the appellants in his presence. Thus, in view of the evidence of PW-4, the Apex Court did not place reliance upon the purported disclosure statements attributed to the appellants. However, the Apex Court did not dispute the proposition regarding joint or simultaneous discovery. The Apex Court also took note of the mental fact aspect even in the context of joint or simultaneous discovery.

14.4.60. Thus, considering the principles laid down in Navjot Sandhu (supra) and referred to in Anand Jakkappa Pujari (supra), simultaneous and joint disclosures are not rendered inadmissible merely because more than one accused person is involved. The question with respect to the credibility of such disclosure, which is required to be assessed by the Court on the basis of evidence on record.

14.4.61. When such disclosures are found to be admissible and credible, the expression "a person accused" occurring under Section 27 of the Evidence Act cannot be confined only to singular but plural. In such circumstances, what assumes importance is not prior knowledge of the Investigating Officer regarding the relevant place, but the knowledge of the accused persons regarding such place. Therefore, even in a case of simultaneous discovery, once the first accused points out a relevant place, the knowledge of the Investigating Officer regarding the said place would not dilute the mental fact or knowledge attributable to the subsequent accused who also points out the very same place.

14.4.62. The defence has relied upon the judgment in Prakash Chand v. State (Delhi Administration), reported in (1979) 3 SCC 90. The facts of the said judgment relate to conviction of the accused under the Prevention of Corruption Act, 1947. On bare reading of the judgment, it appears that PW-6 was the trap witness, i.e. the first informant, and PW-1 and PW-2 were the panch witnesses who were supposed to oversee the incident of actual demand, acceptance and recovery. However, PW-1 and PW-2 were not found truthful and were treated as hostile by the prosecution. They were confronted with their earlier statements given to the police and their evidence was rejected as the same stood contradicted by their earlier statements. The Court noted that such use of statements is permissible under Section 155 of the Evidence Act and proviso to Section 162(1) of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 145 of the Evidence Act.

14.4.63. With regard to conduct of the accused, the Court observed that there is a clear distinction between the conduct of a person against whom an offence is alleged, which is admissible under Section 8 of the Evidence Act if such conduct is influenced by any fact in issue or relevant fact, and the statement made to a police officer during the course of investigation, which is hit by Section 162 Cr.P.C.

14.4.64. The Court further observed that what is excluded by Section 162 Cr.P.C. is the statement made to a police officer during investigation and not the evidence relating to conduct of an accused person, not amounting to a statement, when confronted or questioned by a police officer during the course of investigation. The Court further gave an illustration that evidence of the circumstance, simpliciter, that an accused person led a police officer and pointed out the place where stolen articles or weapons which might have been used in commission of the offence were found hidden, would be admissible as conduct under Section 8 of the Evidence Act, irrespective of whether any statement by the accused contemporaneously with or antecedent to such conduct falls within the purview of Section 27 of the Evidence Act. While observing so, reference was made to Himachal Pradesh Administration v. Om Prakash (supra).

14.4.65. So far as Prakash Chand (supra) is concerned, it relates to examining the conduct of the accused of telling trap witness PW-6 to put the bribe money in a file. Though the same was not supported by the panch witnesses, and though in presence of PW-9, the Trapping Officer, i.e. the police officer, the accused stated that he had not accepted nor demanded bribe money, the said aspect was appreciated as conduct of the accused relevant under Section 8 of the Evidence Act. Moreover, so far as PW-1 and PW-2 of the cited case are concerned, who were treated hostile, the judgment considered the statements of these two witnesses to be seen and examined under Section 155 of the Evidence Act and the proviso to Section 162(1) of the Cr.P.C. read with Section 145 of the Evidence Act.

14.4.66. As there is an amendment in Section 154 of the Evidence Act, introduced with effect from 16.04.2006 by inserting sub-section (2), the same reads as under: "Nothing in this section shall disentitle the person so permitted under sub-section (1), to rely on any part of the evidence of such witness."

14.4.67. In view of the above, the total prohibition of examining and looking into the statement of police when a hostile witness is confronted with it is lifted if there is other convincing material submitted by prosecution in support of the version denied by the hostile witness.

14.4.68. Thus, the ratio of the aforesaid judgment relates not only to Section 8 of the Evidence Act but also to the manner in which evidence of hostile witnesses is required to be examined. In view of insertion of sub-section (2) to Section 154 of the Evidence Act with effect from 16.04.2006, evidence of a hostile witness is not required to be discarded in toto and reliance can still be placed upon such part of evidence which is otherwise found reliable and corroborated by other material on record. Therefore, the aforesaid principles would also be relevant while appreciating the evidence of hostile witnesses Riyaz (PW-1151/Exh.8265) and Dr. Sadab (PW-1121/ Exh.8059).

14.4.69. The Court has also considered the judgment relied upon by the defence in the case of Himachal Pradesh Administration v. Shri Om Prakash, reported in (1972) 1 SCC 249. The judgment considers the applicability of Section 27 and Section 8 of the Evidence Act. The Apex Court considered the information furnished by the accused that he had purchased the weapon from Ganga Singh, PW-11 and that he would take the police party to him. Pursuant thereto, the accused led the police party to the thari of PW-11 and pointed him out. It was contended that the information given by the accused that he had purchased the dagger from PW-11, followed by his leading the police to the thari of PW-11 and pointing him out, was inadmissible under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. The Court observed that there was force in the said contention.

14.4.70. However, the Court further observed that even apart from the admissibility of the information under Section 27 of the Evidence Act, the evidence of the Investigating Officer and the panchas that the accused had taken them to PW-11 and pointed him out, duly corroborated by PW-11 himself, would be admissible under Section 8 of the Evidence Act as conduct of the accused.

14.4.71. Thus, pointing out of PW-11 by the accused as the person from whom the dagger had been purchased was not treated as admissible under Section 27 of the Evidence Act, but was nevertheless found admissible under Section 8 of the Evidence Act as conduct of the accused.

14.4.72. Considering the aforesaid principles, the prosecution in the present case has examined several witnesses who have deposed regarding sale of different objects/articles to different accused persons, which were allegedly used for preparation of bombs, accessories connected thereto or for stay at different places (hideouts) of relevance. Such witnesses have identified the concerned accused persons in the Test Identification Parade and have also identified the concerned articles/objects collected during investigation. Therefore, such evidence relating to conduct of accused persons in pointing out relevant persons, places or circumstances connected with the offence would be admissible within the ambit of Section 8 of the Evidence Act.

14.4.73. As against these judgments, the prosecution has relied upon the judgment in K. Chinnaswamy Reddy v/s. State of Andhra Pradesh, reported in 1962 SCC OnLine SC 32. The Court observed that under Section 27 of the Evidence Act, only that portion of the information supplied by the accused which distinctly relates to the discovery becomes admissible. The Court further observed that if any part of the statement distinctly relates to the discovery, the same would be admissible wholly and the Court cannot excise one part of the statement merely because it is confessional in nature. It was further observed that Section 27 makes that part of the statement, which distinctly relates to the discovery, admissible as a whole, irrespective of whether it is in the nature of confession or not.

14.4.74. In the facts of the said case, the statement attributed to the accused was that he would show the place where he had hidden the ornaments. The Sessions Judge had held that the portion of the statement, namely "where he had hidden them", was inadmissible. However, the Court observed that if the said portion was excised, the remaining statement, namely that he would show the place, would become completely meaningless. The Court therefore held that the whole of the statement distinctly related to the discovery of the ornaments and was admissible under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. The Court further observed that the words "where he had hidden" were not on the same footing as the words "with which I stabbed the deceased" occurring in the illustration referred to in the judgment of the Judicial Committee.

14.4.75. Thus, the aforesaid judgment makes it clear that a disclosure statement cannot be mechanically excised (discarded) merely because some part thereof appears to be confessional in nature. What is required to be examined is whether the part sought to be relied upon distinctly relates to the discovery and such aspect is required to be appreciated in the context of the facts and circumstances of each disclosure statement.

14.4.76. The prosecution has relied upon the judgment in State of Himachal Pradesh v. Jeet Singh, reported in (1999) 4 SCC 370 and has referred to the observations made therein in relation to recovery from a place which is open or accessible to others. The Apex Court observed that it is a fallacious notion that when recovery of any incriminating article is made from a place which is open or accessible to others, the same would vitiate the evidence under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. The Court further observed that the crucial question is not whether the place was accessible to others or not, but whether it was ordinarily visible to others. If it was not ordinarily visible to others, then it would be immaterial that the concealed place was otherwise accessible to others. The Court further observed that it is immaterial that such statement of the accused is inculpatory because Section 27 of the Evidence Act renders even such inculpatory statement given to a police officer admissible in evidence by employing the words "whether it amounts to confession or not".

14.4.77. Thus, relying upon the aforesaid principles, the prosecution seeks to justify the recoveries of different incriminating articles from the site of Halol terror training camp on the ground that though the place may have been open or accessible to others, the incriminating articles were not ordinarily visible to others.

14.4.78. The prosecution has further relied upon the observations made in K. Chinnaswamy Reddy as well as Jeet Singh to contend that every inculpatory statement is not required to be kept out of consideration merely because it contains a confessional element. Since Section 27 of the Evidence Act operates as an exception to Sections 25 and 26 of the Evidence Act, the expression employed therein, namely "whether it amounts to confession or not", is required to be examined in the facts and circumstances of each case. The prosecution has therefore submitted that while deciding such an issue, no straight jacket formula can be applied and each disclosure statement would require independent consideration depending upon the nature of the disclosure and the facts and circumstances of the case.

14.4.79. Further, alongwith the issue of Section 27 of Indian Evidence Act, reference to Section 8 of Indian Evidence Act is also necessary to understand the interplay between Sections 27 and 8 of Indian Evidence Act. At the cost of repetation to maintain the relevancy the Court may refer to the definition of the word 'fact' under Section 3 of the Indian Evidence Act for quick reference, which is as under:

"Fact".—"Fact" means and includes—(1) anything, state of things, or relation of things, capable of being perceived by the senses;

(2) any mental condition of which any person is conscious.

14.4.80. Therefore, when the term 'fact' has been used under Section 27 and Section 8 of the Indian Evidence Act, the same has to be meant and understood in terms of the definition provided under Section 3 of the Indian Evidence Act.

14.4.81. The Court has referred to the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Mohmed Inayatullah (supra) wherein it was observed that though at one point of time, the expression "fact discovered" had been restricted to a physical or material fact which is capable of being perceived by the senses and did not include a mental fact, it is now fairly settled that the expression "fact discovered" includes not only the physical object which has been produced, but also the place from which it is produced and the knowledge of the accused with respect to the same. Further, it was also observed that the first step in the process was to pinpoint the "fact discovered" in consequence of the statement made by the accused. In the said judgment, the "threefold fact discovered" was:

i) the chemical drums (physical object) in question

ii) the place where the said object was lying deposited

iii) the knowledge of the accused person regarding such deposit.

14.4.82. Thus, out of the threefold facts discovered, one relates to the place and the other relates to the knowledge of the accused.

14.4.83. The Court may thereafter referred to the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Charandas Swami v/s. State of Gujarat reported in 2017 (7) SCC 177 wherein the facts of the case were that Gadadharanandji went missing on 03.05.1998 and subsequently, a burnt body was found in a ditch at Barothi village in the neighboring state of Rajasthan. A missing person complaint was filed by PW-3 regarding the sudden disappearance of Gadadharanandji on 05.05.1998 with the local police. The case of the prosecution was that Gadadharanandji was kidnapped from Vadtal temple complex, taken to Navli temple complex and strangled there. The confession of accused No.3 stated that he had kidnapped Gadadharanandji from the temple, drove him to his house at Vadtal and thereafter strangled him. It was further stated by accused No.3 that he had returned with the dead body of Gadadharanandji in his car to Vadtal, informed accused No.1 about the incident and then took accused No.5 alongwith him to Rajasthan where the dead body of the deceased was disposed of by throwing it in a ditch and setting it on fire. Also, PW-50 had deposed that he had found a burnt body in a ditch behind his house in Barothi village and informed the police about the same and a video of the body was also taken by the police. PW-57 conducted the autopsy of the dead body found at Barothi.

14.4.84. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has treated the disclosure statement of accused no.3 wherein it was stated that the body of the deceased had been dumped at a spot in Barothi village (Exh.188), as an admissible piece of evidence under Section 27 of the Evidence Act.

Further, accused no.5 led the investigating officials to the alleged room at Navli wherein the crime was executed and the Court found no reason to disbelieve that evidence. Even the High Court had held that the disclosure made by accused No.5 was crucial in discovering the place of murder.

14.4.85. Further, the Hon'ble Supreme Court also considered the submission of accused No.3 wherein it was contended that the panchnama drawn at the instance of accused No.3, wherein he disclosed the place where the body of the deceased was burnt and dumped, was inadmissible under Section 27 of the Evidence Act since the body had been already discovered at the same place and the same was a matter of public record. It was further contended that accused No.3 did not reveal any exclusive information and therefore the information in the panchnama was inconsequential. The Hon'ble Supreme Court has affirmed the admissibility of disclosure made by accused No.3 relating to the spot where the dead body of the deceased was disposed off and also the disclosure made by accused No.5 relating to the room in Navli temple complex where Gadadharanandji (deceased) had been brought and murdered.

14.4.86. Thus, according to this judgment pointing out of two different spots, one where the dead body was dumped and second where Gadadharanandji was murdered were both found admissible under Section 27 of the Evidence Act. There was no recovery or discovery of any physical object and the disclosure information related only to two different spots/places and the knowledge of accused no. 3 and 5 regarding the same. Therefore, discovery under Section 27 of the Evidence Act is not confined only to the recovery of a physical object but also includes discovery of a place connected with the offence and the mental knowledge of the accused regarding the same.

14.4.87. The Court thereafter refers to the judgment of the Apex Court in the case of Sambubhai Rasangbhai Padhiyar v/s. State of Gujarat reported in 2025 (2) SCC 399 wherein the facts of the case are that the incident occurred on 13.04.2016 wherein a 4-year-old child was found murdered in the outskirts of the village. PW-11(witness) called PW-9 (father of deceased) and informed him that to reach the lake behind Pir dargah and upon reaching there, PW-9 found his son lying naked near the bushes. The place of occurrence was discovered at the instance of the accused through panchnama drawn (Exh.18) on 15.04.2016 between 7:30 a.m. to 9:00 a.m. Further, within few minutes of panchnama (Exh.18) being drawn, the accused voluntarily expressed willingness to show the place where he had thrown the clothes of the victim and in pursuance thereof the recovery panchnama (Exh.21) was drawn between 9:15 hours and 9:45 hours on 15.04.2016. The Court also considered an objection which had strongly been raised by the defence about admissibility of Exh.21 panchnama on the ground that no statement of the accused was recorded on the said aspect and that what was available was merely a purported recovery carried out.

14.4.88. For understanding of the aforesaid objection, the Court has considered the evidence of panch witness of Exh.21 panchnama namely; Maheshbhai Gohil, examined at PW-6 at Exh.20 who has clearly stated in his examination-in-chief as well as cross-examination that the clothes allegedly discovered at the instance of the accused, as stated in the panchnama at Exh.21 were already with the police.

14.4.89. The Hon'ble Supreme Court while considering the aforesaid objection has observed that the conduct of the accused in leading to the place where the clothes of the deceased were found was to be considered in light of Section 8 of the Evidence Act to ascertain whether such conduct of the accused would be admissible in evidence. Ultimately, it was observed that irrespective of the admissibility of the discovery panchnama(Exh. 18) and the recovery panchnama (Exh.21) and irrespective of the admissibility of the recovery of the clothes of the deceased on the statement of accused, the conduct of the accused in leading the investigation team and the panchas and pointing out where the apparel of the deceased was hidden would be admissible. It was further observed that PW-17; the Investigating Officer had clearly deposed that the accused had shown willingness to show the place where he had thrown the clothes and thereafter, he and his team and the panchas reached by walking to the place as indicated by the accused.

14.4.90. Thus, considering the objection raised by the defence regarding absence of any disclosure statement with respect to the recovery of clothes and the finding of the Apex Court, it emerges that, what remained was only showing and pointing out of the place by the accused from where the clothes were found and nothing more. The Apex Court held that such conduct would be relevant under Section 8 of the Evidence Act. Therefore, even in a case based on facts and circumstances where no object or article is discovered, the conduct of the accused in showing and pointing out a place connected with the offence was found to be relevant under Section 8 of the Evidence Act and can be considered as an additional link in the chain of circumstances.

14.4.91. The Court has also considered the judgment in Mohd. Naushad, reported in (2024) 12 SCC 494. Though the said judgment has neither been relied upon by the defence nor by the prosecution, the same covers several relevant circumstances and features comparable with the prosecution case on the aspect of pointing out of different places, namely the place where the car loaded with bomb was parked and places from where different articles/objects were purchased. Such circumstances of pointing out was found and weighed against the concerned accused persons who pointed out the aforesaid places as an additional chain of circumstances against them. The judgment further reflects that one particular place of relevance was pointed out by more than one accused.

14.4.92. The aforesaid judgment pertains to the bomb blast which occurred on 21.05.1996 at crowded Central Market, Lajpat Nagar, New Delhi. It further appears that accused nos.11 to 17 were declared proclaimed offenders and never faced trial and accused no.13 expired. Considering the nature of charges reflected therein, the charges framed against the accused persons were under the Indian Penal Code, Explosive Substances Act and Arms Act. There was no charge under UAPA. The Court examined various charges against Mohd. Naushad A-3, Mirza Nisar Ahmed @ Naza A-5, Mohd. Ali Bhatt @ Killy A-6 and Javed Ahmed Khan A-9.

14.4.93. While discussing the arrest, recovery and circumstances against A-3, the Court elaborately considered various features of the prosecution case and ultimately held several circumstances to be proved against A-3. So far as pointing out of different places is concerned, the same included pointing out of shop from where duplicate key was prepared, pointing out of shop where fake number plates were prepared, pointing out of place where Maruti car was parked for days before the blast, pointing out of Dulhan Dupatta shop where the car was parked on 19.05.1996, pointing out of residence of A-8 from where stepney of stolen Maruti car was recovered, pointing out of shop from where shouldering iron and shoulder was purchased, pointing out of shop from where gas cylinder was purchased, pointing out of shop from where wire was purchased and pointing out of shop from where drill machine was procured.

14.4.94. Immediately thereafter, the Court observed that the argument and case laws advanced on behalf of A-3 that the disclosure statement of A-3 was in the nature of Section 164 Cr.P.C. statement and therefore inadmissible was not of relevance. The circumstances under consideration were in the nature of pointing out proceedings and recoveries effected by the accused. The Court further observed that failure of the prosecution to examine PW-13 and Mangalchand as accused, though a glaring omission, would not render any impact upon the case against the concerned accused persons.

14.4.95. The Court thereafter examined whether acquittal of A-5 and A-6 was correct in the facts and circumstances of the case. While discussing the common circumstances attributable to A-5 with A-3, the Court again considered circumstances relating to pointing out of shop from where duplicate key was prepared, pointing out of shop where fake number plates were prepared, pointing out of place where Maruti car was parked for days before the blast, pointing out of Dulhan Dupatta shop where the car was parked on 19.05.1996, pointing out of shop where shouldering iron and shoulder was purchased, pointing out of shop from where gas cylinder was purchased and pointing out of shop from where wire was purchased.

14.4.96. After considering the aforesaid circumstances, the Court answered the question framed by it in the negative and set aside the acquittal of A-5. The Court thereafter proceeded to examine whether acquittal of A-6 was correct in the facts and circumstances of the case. The Court observed that the circumstances proved against A-3 and A-5 stood on equal footing qua A-6 and therefore the same reasoning would apply against A-6 also.

14.4.97. The Court thereafter again considered the circumstances relating to pointing out of shop from where duplicate key was prepared, pointing out of shop where fake number plates were prepared, pointing out of place where Maruti car was parked for days before the blast and pointing out of Dulhan Dupatta shop where the stolen car was parked on 19.05.1996.

14.4.98. The Court further considered additional circumstances proved against A-5 and A-6, namely pointing out of shop where 9V battery used in the blast was purchased, pointing out of shop where shouldering of battery terminals was done and pointing out of shop where Jaiko wall clock was purchased. Ultimately, the Court answered the question framed by it in the negative and set aside the acquittal of A-6.

14.4.99. Thus, the aforesaid judgment reflects that several places of relevance, though common, had been pointed out by accused nos.3, 5 and 6 and such pointing out circumstances were treated as proved against them. Similarly, in the present prosecution case also, there are several places which have been pointed out by different accused persons though the places remain the same. Hence, on the issue of pointing out proceedings, the aforesaid judgment would be squarely applicable to the facts and circumstances of the prosecution case. So far as accused no.9 in the cited case is concerned, the conviction appears to have been recorded purely on the basis of confessional statement recorded under Section 164 Cr.P.C. in different proceedings.

14.4.100. Further, considering that the aforesaid judgment pertains to a bomb blast case, there are several other similarities and comparable features with the present prosecution case including conspiracy, application of Section 10 of the Evidence Act in context of confessional statement of accused no.9 and also application of Section 30 of the Evidence Act besides others.

14.4.101. With the aforesaid analysis of S. 27 as well as S.8 of the Indian Evidence Act the court may hereby deal with the Panchnamas which have been exhibited on the strength of the deposition of the panch witnesses and supported by the Investigation officer's evidence. The court has been careful in not dealing with the panchnama at all which is not exhibited with the deposition of the panch witness or where the witnesses have been declared hostile.

14.4.102. Exh.2757 is the panchnama is regarding the discovery of a fact by accused No.63-Tanvir, who was in the custody of police and wanted to show a house which he obtained on rent for other accused. Upon searching the house, police found some materials which is used in preparing bomb. On perusal of contents of the said panchnama, it is revealed that it was carried out on 28.8.2008 at 12.15 PM. Accused No.63 Tanvir has made voluntary disclosure before panch witness that he wanted to show a house which he obtained to other accused on rent. The house was situated near Paliya Ground. Exh.2757 further says the house was locked, therefore using the tommy (iron rod) it was broken open. Some articles like pellets, bolt, scissors, plastic containers having the smell of petrol, some particles having the smell of Ammonia (on experiment by a scientific officer on the spot) were found from the house. Articles and dust on the floor were collected as per the instruction of a forensic science expert.

14.4.103. In the examination in chief, Sanjay Patel (PW No.235, Exh.1225) has deposed that he was called by PSI Mr.N.S. Chaudhary near Chok Bazar and brought him to PI Parmar. He consented to be a Panch witness. Accused Tanvir was present before the police. The accused Tanvir was identified by Sanjay Patel during his deposition. Sanjay further stated that Tanvir wanted to make voluntary disclosure about a house which he obtained on rent for other accused. Another witness Ajay Patel was also present before the police. As per the instructions of Tanvir all proceeded at the house situated near Paliya Ground in a Tata 407 police vehicle. The house was shown by Tanvir. It was locked, therefore broken open, wherein some articles like pellets, bolt, scissors, and plastic containers having the petrol smell were found. The description of the house was also deposed. Forensic experts were called, as per their instruction the dust on the floor was also collected. An electric switch board was seized with the help of an electrician Mr. Rameshbhai. It is deposed that plastic carpets, plastic bags, plastic boxes, gas stove, beg sheets, pillow etc. were seized from that place.

14.4.104. It is pertinent to note here that Sanjay Patel (PW No.235, Exh.1225) has mostly supported the contents of panchnama, but few facts he could not depose on his own, regarding one brass scissor and white plastic sheet found at the house. Ld. Sp.P.P. has put some facts of panchnama in the form of leading questions which were answered in affirmative.

14.4.105. All the muddamal articles seized were identified by Sanjay Patel. He also identified his own signature and signature of Ajay Patel on Exh.2757 to 2761 on Panchnama and signature slips.

14.4.106. Looking at the cross examination, he admitted that his house is situated 5 to 6 kms. away from the crime branch police station. He explained that on that day he had to go to the municipal corporation to pay the tax and thereafter went toward the petrol pump where the police had called him. Therefore, his presence near the Police station is satisfactorily explained. Further, he said that the alleged house was 2 to

3 kms away from the police station. It is admitted that he does not know sections of offence and he did not dictate panchnama to police. Police have written it in his presence.

14.4.107. In view of the aforesaid facts coming in the deposition and cross-examination of the panch witnesses and on perusal of the panchnama, it appears to the Court that a particular house situated in River View society was obtained on rent by Tanvir is proved. It is also proved that materials mentioned in panchnama were seized from that house. Only two leading questions were asked by Ld.Sp.P.P. which is answered in affirmative. It is on record that panchnama was made on 28.8.2008 and deposition of Sanjay Patel was recorded on 15.4.2015 i.e. after more than 6 years. Therefore, there happens to be some minor discrepancy which does not create any doubt. No quesions asked in cross examination suggests that the statement made by Tanvir was not voluntary. Panchnama is not supposed to be written as per the dictation given by panch witnesses. It is sufficient that the procedure is conducted in presence of the panch witnesses.

14.4.108. The facts of obtaining the house on rent was known to the police but police did not know where it was situated, which was discovered at the instance of accused Tanvir. The proceeding was not done in isolation, but officials of F.S.L. were present at the spot, electrician Mr. Rameshbhai was also called at the spot. The proceeding of panchnama is also supported by F.S.L. officials. The contents of panchnama is validly proved as per the provisions of Sec.27 of I.E.Act. Thereby establishing the connection of accused Tanvir with the house mentioned above.

On perusal of said panchnama Exh.2794, it appears that the same was carried out on 27.08.2008 at 1.15 AM and ended at 7.00 AM, wherein accused Tanvir had voluntary disclosed before panch witness that he wanted to show the places where bombs were planted. 14.4.110. Panch witness Kalpesh Patel (PW No.451, Exh.2793) was examined by the prosecution. He has supported the contents of panchnama.

14.4.111. In his cross examination, he has deposed that he and Nilesh Laljibhai Patel, another Panch (PW No.605, Exh.3241) were called by Mr.Chirag (his friend). Thereafter they went to the police station. The procedure of panchnama continued till morning. There are poles on the road side. Nothing more significant things revealed in cross examination.

14.4.112. In view of the aforesaid facts coming in the deposition and cross-examination of the panch witnesses and on perusal of the panchnama, it has come on record that before proceeding to the place with accused Tanvir, though police knew all the places, because unexploded bombs were already recovered prior to the panchnama. The fact that bombs were planted at various places mentioned in panchnama is a a mental fact of knowledge of such places, the evidence of panch Kalpesh proved that Tanvir knew where bombs were planted. To that extent the evidence of a panch witness is admissible. There is nothing proved in cross examination which could shake the testimony of Kalpesh and prove any circumstances which induce Kapesh to falsely implicate accused Tanvir in the offence. Though I.O. was aware of the sites due to previous panchnamayet as discussed here in above the disclosure being voluntary and leading to the discovery of the mental fact of the knowledge of the accused about the very place of planting of bomb much later post his arrest, would make the disclosure admissible as evidence.

14.4.113. Exh.2796 is discovery panchnama regarding discovery of a place from where accused Tanvir (accused No.63) has thrown a pipe bomb in river Tapi. From the contents of this panchnama, Exh.2796, it appears that the same was carried out in the presence of Mr.N.S.Malik, Police Inspector, Traffic Branch, Surat on 01.09.2008 between 9.00 am to 12.05 am, wherein it is mentioned that accused Tanvir Pathan has voluntary disclosed before panch witnesses that he wanted to show a place where he has thrown one pipe bomb in river Tapi standing at Causeway Bridge. It is also stated in the panchnama that Tanvir had made pipe bomb with the help of Qayumuddin @ Asfaq, Rafiq Patel, Jahir Patel, Arif Patel, Ismail Sheikh, Karim Batterywala, and the pipe bomb was kept in the house of Tanvir Pathan situated at River View society F1, Vibhag- 1 and thereafter he has thrown the pipe bomb in the river Tapi from causeway due to fear. As per the disclosure statement given by Tanvir Pathan, they moved towards the causeway, where Tanvir has shown the place standing from where he threw the pipe bomb in the river. Police have called the fire brigade for the purpose of searching for a pipe bomb in the water. Approximately 10 people from the fire brigade came to the spot and they searched for a pipe bomb in the river but could not find it. The panchnama ended at 12:05 hours.

14.4.114. One Mr.Sunil Gupta (PW No.452, Exh.2795) was examined by the prosecution. He has deposed that on 01.09.2008 he was called as panch with another panch Mukesh Patil. They have been called at Kurja police station Surat. Malik Saheb was also present there. The accused named Tanvir Pathan was present before police. He wanted to show the place where he threw the pipe bomb. Thereafter, they along with police officers and the accused went towards the place which was shown by the accused. The accused led the police to the causeway from where Tanvir had thrown the pipe bomb. Personnel from the fire brigade were called to the spot and searched for pipe bombs beneath the water but could not find anything.

14.4.115. In his cross-examination, he has deposed that he is a Rickshaw driver. He has also deposed that the place of Causeway pool is 4 to 5 kilometers away from the police station. They reached the Causeway about 10 o'clock. Fire personnel from the fire brigade were called after reaching Causeway. Panchnama was not dictated by him. He could not dictate to the police the sections of offenses leveled against the accused.

14.4.116. In view of the aforesaid facts coming in the deposition and cross-examination of the panch witnesses and on perusal of the panchnama, it appears to the Court that the contents of the panchnama though proved in by the deposition of a panch witness, but nothing was recovered from the place shown by the accused Tanvir. It is quite obvious that pipe bombs may not be found in the flowing water in the Tapi river. Still however, the disclosure by the accused has knowledge of a pipe bomb and it was kept in his house, may have to be established by any other independent evidence.

14.4.117. Exh.2806 is again a discovery panchnama, which is regarding Discovery of the place which was used by accused Rafiq (accused No.75) as his residence. The place is shown by accused Tanvir (accused No.63). From the contents of said panchnama, it appears that the same was carried out on 04.09.2008 between 18.05 and 20.15 hours. Accused Tanvir during his police custody has voluntarily disclosed before panch witness that he wanted to show the house which was taken on rent by co-accused Rafik. Police, punch witness and accused moved as per directions of accused Tanvir at the place. Tanvir showed room number 20 of the Master House building, near Saiyad Pumping Station, as the rented house of Rafik. Police broke open the lock and entered the room but nothing suspicious was found there in the room. Forensic science experts were also called at the place, but as per their opinion nothing suspicious was found and nothing has been recovered from the place.

14.4.118. One Mr.Mehulkumar Arunbhai Jadiya (PW No.456, Exh.2805) has deposed that he was called by police constable Dinesh bhai. There was an accused in the custody of police whose name is Tanvir. He wanted to show a house. Therefore, Mehul along with his friend Vipul, Police personnel and accused Tanvir moved towards the place shown by Tanvir. They reached the place as per the directions given by Tanvir. The place was situated in the Master Building. Room number 20. The room was locked. The lock was broken open by police. In the room nothing suspicious was found to the police. Forensic science experts were also called there. Mehul could not identify Tanvir during his examination in chief.

14.4.119. In his cross examination, he has admitted that during the whole panchnama, he was with Tanvir, he repeatedly saw Tanvir during the panchnama proceeding. The mentions of various sections of the act was not dictated by him. The language in which the panchnama is written, is language generally used by police.

places, at the instance of Muhmmad Sajid, from where phone calls were made by Accused Muhmmad Sajid to Tanvir, using coin boxes. From the contents of the said panchnama, it appears that the same was carried out on 10.11.2008 between 13.15 to 15.30 hours. It is contained in this panchnama that accused Muhammad Sajid @ Salim @ Sajjad @ Saad wanted to show a telephone coin box from where he called Tanvir Pathan on mobile number 9374553669. There are five various places where coin boxes were installed which were used by the accused to call Tanvir Pathan. As per the panchnama he led the police first at the coin box near hotel Savera on station road Surat, then to the coin box installed near hotel Yuvraj, then at the coin box near the railway station gate, then near hotel Jai Vijay and lastly at near Holi Bangla Kataragam Darwaja Road.

14.4.122. One Mr.Ankit Bhatt (PW No.461, Exh.2821) was examined in support of the prosecution. He has given deposition in examination in chief that he and Mr. Dhaval were called by police at Kurja police station. One police officer, Mr. Parmar, was present. Accused Sajid Mansuri was also present before police. The accused wanted to show some places from where he had called co-accused Tanvir. Thereafter, as per the directions given by Sajid Mansuri, the vehicle was driven towards various places, where coin boxes were used to call accused Tanvir. Ankit Bhat had also deposed the descriptions of the places where he accompanied the accused with police personnel. But he could not identify the accused during the examination in chief.

14.4.123. In his cross-exmaination, he has admitted in his cross examination that out of the places he went with police, at some place, there were no coin box found. He has also admitted that the shop holders Jitendra Soni and Yusuf Patel had not produced any documents regarding the installation of the coin box at their shop. He further admitted that the description of the accused was not mentioned in the panchnama. There was nothing mentioned in the panchnama regarding the look of the accused. He admitted that he had never been to be a witness in any panchnama proceedings before. He doesn't know the law and the penal sections mentioned in the panchnama. He did not keep any diary regarding day to day affairs. He had never met accused Sajid before the panchnama proceeding. Police had inquired from Yusuf Patel and Jitendra Soni but he did not know if any statement was reduced into writing or not.

14.4.124. In view of the aforesaid facts coming in the deposition and cross-examination of the panch witnesses and on perusal of the panchnama, it appears to the Court that accused Muhammad Sajid used a coin box to call accused Tanvir. The places from which the accused Muhammad Sajid had called Tanvir were not known to the police before the Muhammad Sajid had given a voluntary statement before police, showing his willingness to show the places. Therefore, the places where coin boxes were installed and they were used by Muhammad Sajid to call Tanvir, was a new fact which the police did not know before the Accused had given a voluntary statement. Accused led police and panch witnesses to the places is a discovery of a fact according to Section 27 of Indian Evidence Act. Witness Ankit Bhatt has categorically given deposition regarding the places where he accompanied the police with the other panch witness and accused. Therefore the contents of the panchnama is proved by the prosecution. The circumstances put to the witness in the cross examination is not creating any doubt regarding the proceedings of panchnama. Therefore though there is no recovery of material object as this evidence is for the purpose of establising the contact betwween two accused and that too without being traced through mobile contact the public phone booth appeared to have been used and the places led to by the accused the public phone booth were found in existance. Therefore this is a voluntary disclosure by the accused about the mental fact of knowledge as to how as a part of conspiracy the accused use to be contact with each other. This panchnama being voluntary in nature leading to discovery of a place connected with the offence of conspiracy such confessional part will not be hit by Sections 25 and 26 of the Evidence Act.

14.4.125. Though P.W. Ankit Bhatt could not identify the accused during his examination in chief. But as stated earlier also, we are of the view that many years have passed between proceedings of panchnama and the recording of deposition. Therefore, it is quite obvious that the witness could not remember the face of the accused. So, the only circumstances of not identifying the accused would not create any doubt on the testimony of the witness.

14.4.126. Exh.2849 is Search & Seizure panchnama conducted at House of Accused Jahir Patel & Tanvir Pathan on 27.08.2008 between 21.35 to 23.30 by A.C.P. Mr. N.B.Parmar. From the contents of the panchnama, it appears that ACP had conducted a search of the house of accused Mohammad Zahir Patel and Mohammad Tanvir Pathan. According to the panchnama, police visited the house of Mohammad Zahir Patel first. The house was situated in Natraj compound, behind Rubi complex, where they found one newspaper cutting in which the article was published by the author, Dexter Flicks. With the heading, “Laden got ill before fight” Police also found one gas connection book of Reliance Gas Company, wherein phone number mentioned is 2570842 and the customer's name was Amin Banu Zafar bhai Sayed, of Molvi Falia, opp.

Asha hardware Nr. Varachha masjid. The office of Reliance gas mentioned in the book was Lakshmi Gas Centre. Police has seized the newspaper article, gas connection book and the cylinder in presence of the punch witnesses.

14.4.127. Thereafter the police visited the house of accused Tanvir Pathan. The house was situated at House number F/1, first floor Riverview Society. Police found one notebook in the house wherein on the cover page it is written. "Life" "commando" "friendship". The notebook contains the pages having square blocks. On page number 18 it is written that "Vanjara ne jo kiya agar dusri kom ke upar hota to pura Gujarat hila dete. Magar hum chup kyon hai. 92 mein jo musalmano par zulm hue izzate luti uska koi case nahi hai. Ek musalman agar apne mazhab mein zara paband nazar aata hai. To use sidrat pasand kah kar tha chitharth kar use aatankwadi kah kar us par watch rakhi jati hai." Police have also found one Red gas cylinder of Reliance gas company. The notebook and gas cylinder were seized. Nothing else was found questionable.

14.4.128. The prosecution has examined Panch witness Laxmanbhai Manjibhai Gamit (PW No.463, Exh.2848). In his deposition, he has stated that he was called at Chauk bazaar police station by police officer Mr. Rathod. He went there, when police officer Mr. Parmar was present there. Thereafter they visited the house of Tanvir. The house was situated at F/1. They found one notebook under the bed sheet wherein some writing was there which was seized by police. One gas cylinder was also seized by police and thereafter they returned to the Chauk bazaar police station. He identified his signature on the panchnama, but he could not identify the accused. He tried to identify the accused and he identified two persons but which was wrong identification. He has been shown muddamal article number 29 to 33. The newspaper article, the gas cylinder connection book, the notebook found from Tanvir's house, and the gas cylinders seized by the police from Zahir Patel's house and Tanveer Pathan's house, which was identified.

14.4.129. In his cross examination, he admitted that he doesn't know how to write and read the English language. Even he doesn't know the police officer Mr. Rathod who called him at Chauk Bazar police station for the panchnama proceeding. When he was called, it was 7:30 to 8:00 O'clock in the night. He did not know police officer Mr. Parmar. He could not identify Mr. Parmar today. He had never seen the accused before the panchnama proceeding. He did not know who the family members of both the accused were and what their occupation was. He did not even talk with the accused at the time of the panchnama proceeding. No primary panchnama was prepared before proceeding to search the house of both accused persons. No sign board was there on the house regarding the owner's name. No document was found containing the names of Zahir Patel and Tanvir Pathan. He has not tried to talk to any person who may have gathered at the place when panchnama proceedings were going on.

14.4.130. Perusing the panchnama and the date on which it was made, it is clear that police knew before the panchnama proceedings that Zahir

Patel and Tanvir Pathan were residing. Therefore, there is no discovery regarding the residence of Zahir Patel and Tanvir Pathan. The panchnama cannot be said to be a discovery panchnama under section 27 of the Indian evidence act, because police were very well knowing where both the accused were residing. It is not the case that only on the information given by Zahir Patel and Tanvir Pathan, police got to know the residence of Zahir and Tanvir. Therefore, the panchnama cannot be said to be a discovery panchnama. Still however as per the contents of the panchnama and deposition of punch witness Lakshmanbhai, it is proved that police has searched the house of Zahir Patel and then Tanvir Pathan and police has found some articles like newspaper cutting, gas connection book, gas cylinders from the house of both accused and one notebook containing some provocative writings. What is stated by Lakshman bhai in his examination in chief remains intact even during cross examination. Therefore when there are sufficient evidence to involve the accused in the offence the present panchnama can be used as a corroborative material.

14.4.131. The only circumstances that came in during the examination is that the witness could not identify the accused persons. But the witness has specifically said before the identification procedure during examination in chief that he could not identify the accused person because so many years have been passed between the date of panchnama and on the day of deposition. But still the court insisted that he may try to identify accused persons, he tried to identify the accused. And indicated two persons as Zahir Patel and Tanvir Pathan but it was a false identification.

14.4.132. At the cost of repetition we again say that it is quite possible that the person to whom the witness did not know before the panchnama proceeding. He could only see the accused person for a couple of minutes. It is hardly possible for a person of an average intellect that he could identify the person after seven or eight years. Therefore, only because he could not identify the accused the deposition cannot become questionable or doubtful. Therefore the seizure and search proceeding is proved by the deposition.

14.4.133. Exh.2851 is a discovery panchnama showiing 8 different places where coin boxes were installed which were used by Tanvir to talk with co accused Rafiq Patel. This panchanama was carried out on 05.10.2008 between 17.00 to 20.00 before ACP Mr.N.B.Parmar. The contents of panchnama show that on 5.10.2008 accused Tanvir Pathan was in the custody of police at Chauk Bazaar police station DCB crime branch. He has voluntarily disclosed before a panch witness that he will show the places of coin boxes which were used by him to talk with co-accuse Rafiq Patel. At the instance of the voluntary disclosure of Tanvir Pathan, police officers, panch witnesses and accused Tanvir Pathan went to different eight places shown by Tanvir Pathan.

14.4.134. The prosecution has examined Panch witness Robin Prakashchandra (PW No.464, Exh.2850). He has deposed that on 05.10.2008, he was passing through Chawk Bazar at around 5 o'clock in the evening, where police called him at DCB police station. One police officer, Mr. Parmar, was present. One accused named Tanvir Pathan was also present. Tanveer Pathan has voluntarily disclosed before the panch witness that he wanted to show the places from where he had called. Another panch witness Kushal Chandarana was present with him. They went with the police officers and the accused Tanveer Pathan to eight different places in Surat City. He has described all the eight places in his examination in chief. The first place was Wadiya sons, opposite Syedpura police station; Second was Bhola Pan Centre Rampura road; Third was Naz Pan Centre near Syedpura pumping station; Fourth was Ahmad Pan Centre, Fatakdawadi, Ved Road; Fifth was Dinesh Jains shop, situated near Lal Darwaja; Sixth was Satish Chappal Mart the shop situated near Lal Darwaja; Seventh was a Pan Centre outside Hotel Anand, station road, near Ayurvedic college; and the last was Kanaiya Dairy, situated at Ashwini Kumar Road near Pramukh Darshan apartment. He has identified his signature in the panchnama, produced Vide Exhibit 2851. He tried to identify accused Tanvir Pathan on the video screen. But he could not identify the accused Tanvir Pathan and the person he showed as accused Tanvir Pathan was the wrong person.

14.4.135. In his cross-exmaination, he has deposed that he was doing the business of sanitary-ware. On the day of panchnama, he did not go about his business, but he was free. Only one policeman came to him to call him to be a panch witness. He did not know police officer Mr. Parmar before the panchnama proceeding. He did not know the accused before the panchnama proceedings. He did not know who the family members of the accused were and what their business was. He was not keeping any personal diary. He did not meet with any third person during panchnama proceedings.

14.4.136. The Court also finds that the deposition of panch witness Robin appears to be trustworthy regarding the fact that Tanvir Pathan, has voluntarily disclosed eight places before police, where coin boxes were used by Tanvir Pathan to call. This circumstance of use of public phone by coaccused appears to be the modus to prevent the police from tracing the connection between the accused persons to prevent detection. Therefore when a voluntary disclosure of accused is recorded about purpose of usage of phone booth the prosecution has been able to establish that the accused persons have remain in touch with each other by using public phones to act in furtherance of their conspiracy. No doubt, the witness could not identify accused Tanvir Pathan, but he has in his examination in chief stated that it is difficult for him to identify the accused Tanvir Pathan because years have passed between the day of panchnama and the day on which he was giving deposition. Therefore, merely by not identifying a person after seven to eight years of time, it would not create any doubt on his evidence. Further, in cross examination it was revealed that he did not meet any third person. This question, perhaps may be asked because at the places where coin boxes were installed, the shopkeepers may be inquired by police officers. But it is not relevant regarding the deposition given by Robin. Robin has also stated in his cross examination that he didn't know the accused before the panchnama proceeding. Even he did not know the family members of accused Tanvir Pathan and their business. To us, this question is not relevant at all and would not be helpful to the accused in any way, because there is nothing in the panchnama vide exhibit 2851 that the witness had met with the accused before the panchnama proceedings and he was known to the family members of the accused. Therefore, the deposition given by Robin is trustworthy to the extent he narrated 8 places where coin boxes were there which were used by accused Tanvir.

the very next day after the bomb blast in Ahmedabad city. After this disclosure, as per the directions of accused police and panch witnesses went to the place near Bhari Mata road drainage Khadi, where accused Tanvir Pathan had shown a place where he threw mobile phone. Police arranged persons from Surat Municipal Corporation for searching mobile phones from the Khadi but could not find Mobile phones.

14.4.138. In this regard, prosecution examined Panch witness Sanjay Bhandari (PW No.467, Exh.2859). In his examination in chief, has stated that on 30.8.2008 at around 10 o'clock in the morning, he was going towards Sayedpura. Police had called him at DCB police station and made him understand the facts of the offense. Sanjay Bhandari has further deposed that one accused was present in the police custody whose name was Tanvir Pathan. Tanvir Pathan has voluntarily disclosed before him that he wished to show a place from where he threw his mobile phone in the Khadi. The khadi is situated near Bhari Mata road. According to the directions given by accused Tanvir Pathan, police, panch witnesses, and the accused went to Bhari Mata road, drainage Khadi where the accused has shown a place from where he threw the mobile phone. To find the mobile phone from Khadi, police had called personnel of SMC. Mr. Parekh from SMC arrived at the place and searched for the mobile phone but could not find the mobile phone. He had tried to identify the accused but he could not identify accused Tanvir Pathan.

14.4.139. In cross examination, witness has accepted that when he reached the police station, another panch witness Ravi was present in the police station. When they reached drainage Khadi, persons from Surat municipal corporation were present. . He has further admitted that he did not maintain a personal diary wherein day to day affairs are being noted.

In the cross examination conducted by advocate Mr. Pathan, he has said that when he reached the police station the photographer was not present. He did not know that videography was done at the police station or not. He did not even know that videography was done during the journey from the police station to the drainage Kadi or not. He had not noticed whether the videographer had given a cassette of videography to the police or not. He has signed at two places; First signature was made in the police station and second signature was made at the place i.e. Khadi.

14.4.140. The Court finds that this panchnama is regarding the discovery of a fact that accused Tanvir Pathan was using Nokia mobile phone model number 1108, which he had thrown in the drainage khadi near Bhari Mata road. It is proved in the evidence of Sanjay Bhandari that accused Tanvir Pathan has voluntarily stated before the punch witness that he was using Nokia mobile phone and had thrown it in the khadi. Though the mobile phone could not be recovered from the Khadi because as per the statements made in the panchnama, accused Tanvir Pathan had thrown the mobile phone in khadi on 27.7.2008 and the panchnama proceedings were conducted on 30.8.2008 i.e. almost more than a month is passed from the day when mobile was thrown in the Khadi. As the mobile is not discovered, but still the fact that the accused was using the mobile phone at the time when the alleged offense took place is proved by the panchnama. Whether the mobile phone was used in the offense or not is depending upon the other facts and depending upon the proof of those facts. By evidence of Sanjay Bhandari it is proved that the accused has given voluntary disclosure before police and in the presence of a punch witness that he was using Nokia mobile phone model number 1108 at the time of the alleged offense. There being no reason for the accused to destroy the phone unless he wanted to hide or prevent the police from discovering any link with other accused . Therefore up to that extent the discovery of fact is proved.

14.4.141. Exh.5452 is the disocovery panchanama of Discovery of fact that there was a meeting on 20.7.2008 in the house of Yakub Memon situated at House no.B/9, Sharifabad Co. op. Housing Society near Jivraj Park Police Choki. It was carried out on 30.08.2008 between 15.15 to 16.15 before P.I.. Mr. Vinay Shukl. Accused Shamsuddin was in the police custody, in the offense registered at Shahibag police station, Crime registered number 236/2008. He voluntarily disclosed before punch witness that he will show a house owned by Yaqub Memon, where a meeting was held before the bomb blast on 20.7.2008, a week before the bomb blast in Ahmedabad. According to his voluntary disclosure , punch witness and accused went to the Shariffabad cooperative housing society, house number B/9 situated near Jivraj Park police Choki, where Mrs. Nurjahan, wife of Yaqub Memon was present in the house. Police have inquired into the house. Police found one mobile phone of Sony Ericsson company in which the sim card was inserted of Hutch company. The mobile number was 9913770605 which was seized by the police. Police also found one electricity bill issued in the name of Yaqub Memon. Nothing found objectionable in the house. Panchnama ends there. Police started Panchnama at 15.15 hours and ended at 16 15 hours.

14.4.142. In this regard, prosecution examined Panch witness Nasruddin Ismil Shaikh (PW No.809, Exh.5451) in support of panchnama. blast case and asked him whether he would choose to be a punch witness. He consented and thereafter the accused has told before the punch witness that he will show a place where accused and other co-accused had conducted a meeting. Objection was raised by learned advocates for the accused that incriminating statements could not be recorded in evidence. Learned trial court has put a note that it will be decided at the final decision of the case.

14.4.143. Thereafter, Nasruddin has deposed that they departed from the police station with police officers and the accused in a private vehicle. They went to the Sharifabad Cooperative Society house number B/9. One lady was present whose name was Nurjahan Memon. He saw the house to the police. Police found one mobile phone of Sony Ericsson company having a sim card of Hutch company from one cupboard which was seized by the police. Accused Shamsuddin has stated that they were doing meetings in the house, in this house.

14.4.144. Police also found one electricity bill at the place which was also seized by the police. It was issued in the name of Yaqub Memon.

14.4.145. Witness Naruddin was confronted with the Panchnama wherein he identified his signature which was exhibited. Nasruddin has also identified his signature on the torrent power electricity bill which was seized in his presence. He also identified the Sony Ericsson mobile phone which was seized from the place.

14.4.146. In the cross examination, Nasruddin has admitted that he is residing in Jamalpur area and doing the work of driving. He studied up to 9th standard in Urdu medium. panchnama proceedings. Not even knowing what Abdul Rehman was doing.

14.4.147. He also did not know who Shamsuddin was and what he was doing for his survival. After completion of the panchnama at Sharifabad Cooperative Society, they return to the Gayakwad Haveli police station at 4:15 hours. 25 to 30 minutes time required to reach Sharifabad society.

14.4.148. The Court finds that some circumstances shown in the cross examination that the witness did not know the name of the police officer and the writer of the police officer, did not know vehicle number, did not record the statement of Nurjahan, do not create any doubt regarding the discovery made by the accused before police. Nothing proved in cross examination which could suggest any false statement on part of witness or suggest that actually no panchnama proceedings were made in the presence of the punch witness and accused Shamsuddin had not voluntarily made a disclosure before the punch witness.

14.4.149. Though Nasruddin Sheikh could not identify Shamsuddin in the examination in chief, he has given a plausible explanation why he could not identify the accused.

14.4.150. Exh.5458 is discovery panchanama Discovery of fact accused Aiyaz Syed (now approver) who has shown one key of the cycle lock used for planting bomb, the key was thrown near Memco Bus Station. It was carried out on 09.09.2008 between 14.05 to 15.45 before ACP Mr. Dave. municipal bus station. Ayaz Sayed removed one Key which was concealed beneath the earth and dust material behind one shop. Aiyaz disclosed before punch witnesses that this is the key of a bicycle lock, which was put by Aiyaz Sayed at Param Shakti tea-stall near Naroda Gam Bhagol cross road. Police officials have seized the key and put a seal in the presence of punch witnesses.

14.4.151. In this regard, prosecution examined Panch witness; Ashish Patel (PW No.810, Exh.5457) has supported the facts narrated in the panchnama. He deposed that on 9.9.2008 he was called by police near Gayakwad Haveli. He went to the police station where one accused was present. His name was Ayaz Rajakmiya Syed. Accused Ayaz Syed has voluntarily disclosed before this witness that he would show something regarding the bomb blast. Thereafter he went with police officials, accused and another punch Mr. Kamal to the place which was near Memco bus station where Aiyaz Syed has shown one silver color Key which was the key of a bicycle lock, which he has put near Param Shakti Tea Stall Naroda Cross Road.

14.4.152. Further, Aashish Patel has identified the Key and his signature on the panchnama as well as on the chit put inside the container in which the key was sealed.

14.4.153. Regarding the identification of an accused, he deposed before the court that as so many years had passed, he could hardly identify the accused. But he disclosed the description of an accused that he was of a single body, having curly hair, wheat like complexion. He could not identify him in courtroom

14.4.154. In his cross examination, he has admitted that the Memco bus station is a traffic junction where there is traffic of people and vehicles. The shop was made of tin which was installed on a lorry cart. A key was found from the footpath.

14.4.155. The Court finds that though witness has supported the contents of panchnama but in cross examination he has admitted that the key was found from the foot path behind the temporary shop which was installed on a lorry. And the place from which the key was alleged to have been found, is a place where there is a big traffic junction and so many people and vehicles are passing through the place. Though it is argued about the improbability of the key being found in the manner described in the panchnama yet there is nothing in the cross examination of the witness or in the execution of the panchnama which would lead the court to believe that the panchnama is fabricated or that the key has been planted. Therefore in absence of any of the above the court is inclined to treat the puchnama as under S. 27 and therefore the fact of association of the accuse with the bomb laden cycle will have to be believed especially when it is found that the key did open the lock of the cycle which was seized from the site.

14.4.156. Exh.2860 is the Discovery Panchama of Discovery of place from where accused Aiyaz Syed (Approver) had talked with Co accused Qayamuddin using PCO on 25.7.2008. It was carried out on 08.09.2008 between 16.30 to 17.15 before ACP Crime Branch. This is a panchnama in the offense registered at Naroda police station CR number 401/2008 offense registered under section 307 120 B of Indian penal code. The panchnama is regarding the discovery of a place i.e. PCO using it, accused Aiyaz Sayed had talked with Qayamuddin the co-accused. As per the disclosure by accused Ayaz Sheikh, police and punch witnesses went to the place where PCO Centre was named Ajay telecom, which was used by the accused to call Qayumuddin on his mobile phone.

Chandrakant Shah (PW No.811, Exh.5462) has deposed before trial court that, he was called by crime branch police officials near Ajay Telecom where one another punch witness Dhiren Patel was already present. Accused Ayaz Sayed was present with police at Ajay Telecom. As per the deposition, witness has deposed that accused Ayaz Sayed has said before him that he used this PCO on 25/7/2008 to call Qayamuddin Kapadia. He also identified his signature on the panchnama, but he could not identify the accused due to the lapse of time.

14.4.158. In cross examination, he has said that it is not true that he was called by police on 8/9/2008 at 4:30 p.m. But he has given an explanation that he was called between 4.00 to 4.15. He admitted that he had never been to the crime branch police station. He has also said that police officials were not in that uniform. He did not know that Dhirenbhai, the other punch witness and police officials.

14.4.159. He admitted that he did not know the accused. He said that the police have not verified the telephone instrument using it by inserting a coin. Police had not collected any evidence from the shopkeeper. he has given the explanation for not identifying the accused before court.

14.4.160. The Court finds that the witness was called at Ajay Telecom by police and accused Aiyaz Sayed was present there and accused Ayaz Sayed has disclosed before him that he used this PCO to call Qayammuddin. This being a narration of a fact of use of PCO to be in contact with each other especialy with co accused Kayamuddin. In fact, the court may not dwell much on this as Aiyaz has already deposed as a witness to all these facts after granting of pardon to him therefore this evidence can be used for corroboration of the version of approver Aiyaz which accused Aiyaz Accused No.23 (approver) boarded bus no.66/3 and put a bomb under the last two seats of the Bus. It was carried out on 08.09.2008 between 08.30 to 12.00 before ACP Crime Branch. According to the contents of Panchnama, accused Aiyyaz Sayed was in the police custody in connection with the crime registered at Naroda police station, CR number 401/2008. It is mentioned in the Panchnama that punch witnesses were called by the police at the police station where accused Ayaz Sayed has voluntarily disclosed before punch witnesses that he will show the place where co-accused Rajik has given a bicycle and two bombs. The place was Ajit Mill Cross road. Thereafter, accused Ayyaz Sayed had put the bicycle at a tea stall and another bomb was put in bus number 66/3. According to the voluntary disclosure of accused Ayaz, the punch, police officers and police staff along with the accused went to the places which was shown by accused Ayyaz Sayed. Accused Aiyaz Sayed has shown the place, that is, Ajit Mill Cross Road where the bicycle and bomb were given to him by Rajik. Aiyaz has also shown a place where he put a bicycle with one bomb and parked the bicycle there. He also showed the place from which he boarded the bus and the place where he got off the bus.

14.4.162. In examination in chief, Panch witness; Dakshish Bhanuprasad Raval (PW No.812, Exh.5469) has categorically deposed the contents of panchnama in his deposition. He supported all the contents of the panchnama as well as the presence of another punch witness, Kishorbhai. He also identified his signatures on the panchnama. But he could not identify the accused, he has given some descriptions of the accused and said that he was of a single body having curly hairs at the time having light beard on the face.

14.4.163. In his cross examination, he has admitted that he knew the places where the bomb blast happened in the Naroda area and he knew the places before the panchnama proceeding. He himself and Kishorbhai, the other panch witness, had inquired from the accused. Whatever they have asked the accused, were written in the panchnama. He had never been a punch witness before at the request of police. He did not know whose handwriting was in the panchnama.

14.4.164. The Court finds that it is proved in the cross examination that the places where the bomb blast happened was known to the punch witnesses before the panchnama proceeding. The location of the bomb blast was not covered fact. Therefore there cannot be any discovery regarding the place of blast. But, the panchnama is not only regarding the place of blast but also regarding the place where co-accused Rajik delivered a bicycle and two bombs putting it in a bag which was also shown by the accused voluntarily, which is proved by a panch witness in his deposition. Further the place from where the accused Ayaz Sayed boarded the bus is also not known to anyone. Therefore the evidence regarding the place of boarding is also a discovery and is sufficiently proved in the evidence of Daxeshbhai. The defence side failed to create any suspicion or doubt regarding the facts stated by the witness. Moreover the court may take in to consideration that the very accused no.23 Aiyaz has become an approver hence his evidenc with regards the very circumstance that the puchnama seeks to prove has been deposed to by Aiyaz as a witness and he was also subjected to thorough cross examination.
