THIS W.P IS FILED UNDER ARTICLE 226 AND 227 OF THE CONSTITUTION OF INDIA PRAYING TO QUASH THE LEGISLATION CALLED KARNATAKA PRIVATE AIDED EDUCATIONS INSTITUTIONS STAFFS(SALARIES, PENSION AND OTHER BENEFITS CONTROL) ACT, 2014 PRODUCED AT ANNEXURE-F AS NOTIFIED ON 12.02.2014 VIDE NO.SAMVYASHAE60 SHASANA 2013, ISSUED BY THE R-1.DIRECT THE RESPONDENTS AUTHORITIES TO TAKE INTO ACCOUNT THE SERVICE OF THE PETITIONERS FROM THE DATE OF ENTRY IN TO SERVICE FOR THE PURPOSE OF COMPUTING THE PAY SCALE, SENIORITY, INCREMENT, AND OTHER CONSEQUENTIAL SERVICE BENEFITS AS WELL AS PENSIONARY BENEFITS AND OTHER LEGALLY ENTITLED BENEFITS AND ETC.,

THESE APPEALS AND PETITIONS HAVING BEEN HEARD AND RESERVED FOR JUDGMENT ON 12.06.2026 COMING ON THIS DAY, S.G.PANDIT J., PRONOUNCED THE FOLLOWING:

CORAM: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.G.PANDIT AND
HON'BLE DR. JUSTICE PRADEEP SINGH YERUR

CAV JUDGMENT

(PER: HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE S.G.PANDIT)

The above batch of appeals and writ petitions arise out of common facts and as they involve common questions of law, they are heard together and disposed of by this common judgment.

2. W.A.No.2476/2015 and connected appeals arise out of learned Single Judge's order dated 10.07.2015 in W.P.No.21216/2014 and connected writ petitions whereby writ petitions are allowed, striking down the Karnataka Private Aided Educational Institutions Employees (Regulation of Pay, Pension and Other Benefits) Act, 2014 (for short, 'Act No. 7 of 2014'), holding that the Act No.7 of 2014 is violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India and encroaches upon the jurisdictional powers of the Courts, with a further direction to the State to continue to pay salary or pension as the case may be, as was being paid pursuant to its earlier orders or in other words h1as been paid prior to impugned enactment, with other consequential directions.

3. In W.A.No.100003/2021 and other connected appeals, the challenge is to order dated 24.07.2020 in W.P.No.105439/2014 and W.P.No.108382-417/2014, whereby the learned Single Judge allowed the writ petitions, quashed the impugned Act No.4 of 2015 i.e., the Karnataka Education Amendment Act, 2014 (for short, 'Act No. 4 of 2015'), amendment to Section 87 of Karnataka Education Act, 1983 (for short, 'Act, 1983') with a further direction to the State to consider the cases of the petitioners to grant additional increment for passing Kannada Language Examination, in accordance with law.

4. For the sake of convenience, the parties hereinafter are referred to as they stood before the learned Single Judge. The appellants-State Authorities are referred to as Respondents and respondents herein are referred to as petitioners.

5. Brief facts of the case are that, as stated above, W.A.No.2476/2015 arises out of order dated 10.07.2015 in W.P.No.21216/2014 and connected matters. In W.P.No.21216/2014, the challenge was to Act No.7 of 2014, whereunder, Section 3 would state that, notwithstanding anything contained in the Karnataka Education Act, 1983, any order of Government or Rules governing service conditions of employees of any Educational Institution or any other Law Governing grant-in-aid to the above employees or any judgment, decree or order of any Court or Tribunal or Authority, the grant-in-aid admissible to a post held by an employee of private aided educational institution shall be fixed and calculated at the minimum of pay scale admissible to that post from the date of admission to grant. Further, it would also state that the service rendered prior to admission for grant-in-aid shall not be reckoned for the purpose of pay, leave, seniority and pension, and further, finalization of pensionary benefits shall be by non-reckoning the service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years. It was the case of the petitioners that they were initially appointed to teaching or non-teaching posts in private aided institutions by the Management and subsequent to their appointment, the post in which they were working was admitted to grant-in-aid and thereafter they requested to count their services prior to admission to grant i.e., from the date of their initial appointment for the purpose of financial benefits i.e., for the purpose of pay fixation, pension and pensionary benefits. The petitioners pleaded that this Court on several earlier occasions had held that the employees of private aided institutions are entitled to count their past services prior to grant-in-aid for the purpose of pay fixation, pension and pensionary benefits on par with the government teachers. Those orders were taken up to the Hon'ble Apex Court and the State’s Special Leave Petitions came to be dismissed. Learned Single Judge taking note of the earlier orders, struck down the Act No. 7 of 2014, holding that there was no defect or lacuna in the enactment to render the judgments already delivered by the Courts to be ineffective, with further observations that on the ground of financial burden, the State Administration cannot shirk its responsibility of ensuring proper education in schools and colleges.

6. In W.A.No.100003/2021, the order under challenge is dated 24.07.2020 in W.P.No.105439/2014 and connected matters, wherein, the petitioners had challenged the Act No.4 of 2015, by which, the State amended proviso to section 87 of the 1983 Act. Prior to the amendment Section 87 read as follows:

> "87. Qualification, Conditions and Service of employees:- The state government may after previous publication make rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service (including rights as regards disciplinary matters) of the employees in recognized private educational institutions.

Providing that the minimum qualification for recruitment, age of recruitment, and retirement and benefits of retirement for employees in educational institutions receiving maintenance grant from the state government shall be the same as those applicable for the corresponding category of employees, if any, in the state institutions unless otherwise prescribed."

7. By Act No.4 of 2015, in the first proviso "and benefits of retirement" were omitted and second and third proviso were inserted to deny one additional increment on passing of the Kannada Language Examination in terms of the Karnataka Civil Services (Services and Kannada Language Examination) Rules, 1974 (for short, 'Rules, 1974'). Subsequent to amendment, Section 87 reads as follows:

"87. Qualifications, conditions of service of employees. —The State Government may after previous publication make rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service (including rights as regards disciplinary matters) of the employees in recognised private educational institutions:

Provided that the minimum qualifications for recruitment, age of recruitment, and retirement for employees in educational institutions receiving maintenance grant from the State Government shall be the same as those applicable for the corresponding category of employees, if any, in State Institutions unless otherwise prescribed.

Provided further that conditions of service of the employees working in aided educational institutions shall be as such as may be determined by the State Government from time to time.

Provided also that since 1974 no employee of the aided institution is required to appear and pass any Service Examination or the Kannada Language Examination as prescribed in the Karnataka Civil Service (Service and Kannada Language Examination) Rules, 1974 and no such employee shall be eligible for or be granted any additional increment for having passed or deemed to have been passed said examination from the date of commencement of said rules."

8. By virtue of Act No.4 of 2015, the State Government denied the employees of the aided private educational institutions, one additional increment for having passed Kannada Language Examination. The petitioners therein were teaching and non-teaching staff of the private educational institutions contending that several orders of this Court passed prior to the amendment directed and held that the employees of private aided educational institutions would also be entitled to one additional increment for passing Kannada Language Examination. Learned Single Judge on consideration of the entire material on record, held that the Act No.4 of 2015 is an attempt by the State Legislature to escape the financial liability and the same is liable to be struck down on the ground of irrationality and arbitrariness and also violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. Questioning both the orders of the learned Single Judge, the above appeals are preferred under Section 4 of the Karnataka High Court Act, 1961 by the State of Karnataka.

9. Heard learned Additional Advocate Generals Shriyuths S.A.Ahmed, Kiran V. Ron, Y.H.Vijay Kumar along with learned Additional Government Advocates Sri.V.Shivareddy for appellants/State and Sri.Janardhana.G., Sri.M.P.Srikanth, Sri.Sudarshan S, Sri.R.Padmanabha, Sri.Sudarshan, M/s.J.S.Shetty and Associates, Sri.G.G.Chagashetti, Srii.Srinand A Pachchapure & Smt.Pallavi S Pachchpure, Sri.H.N.Gullareddy, Sri.Mahesh R. Uppin, Sri.Thyagaraja S, Sri.Umesh C Ainapur, Sri.G.M.Chandrasekhar along with Manjunath R., Sri.Mallikarjun C Basareddy, Sri.P.G.Kulkarni, Sri.Prakash M.H. along with Sri.D.V.Pattar, Sri.Vinay Keerthi, Sri.Krupesh M.D., Sri.R.G.Hegde along with Narayana V Yaji, Smt.M.L.Suvarna, Sri.Harish H.V. along with Sri.Shekarappa, Sri.J.Giriraj, Sri.M.Subramanya Bhat, and Sri.Maruthi G.B. along with Sri.P.Rudrappa, learned counsels appearing for the respondents/petitioners.

10. Learned Additional Advocate Generals appearing on behalf of the State contended that learned Single Judge in both the orders under appeal committed a grave error in declaring Act No.7 of 2014 as well as Act No.4 of 2015 as unconstitutional without appreciating the fact that it was within the legislative power of the State to enact. It is submitted that though the legislature has no competence or power to directly overrule the judgment or orders of this Court, it possesses the power to remove the basis or to remove the defect or mistake in its previous legislation, so as to render the judgments delivered by this Court to be ineffective.

11. Learned Additional Advocate Generals would submit that prior to coming into force of Act, 1983, the employees of the private aided institutions were governed by the triple benefit scheme insofar as pension and pensionary benefits are concerned and insofar as other service conditions, they were governed by the Karnataka Private Educational Institutions (Discipline) Act, 1975 (for short, 'Act, 1975') along with control of appointment under the grant-in-aid quota. Further, it is submitted that under Rule 52 of Triple benefit scheme, the service, either temporary, officiating or permanent rendered in State aided institution only shall be counted for the purpose of length of qualifying service.

12. Referring to various orders passed by the learned Single Judge as well as Co-ordinate Division Bench of this Court, it is submitted that though there was no provision for counting past service i.e., prior to admission to grant-in-aid for the purpose of pay fixation, pension and pensionary benefits, it was directed to count non-grant period for the purpose of pay, pension and pensionary benefits. Therefore, to remove the legal basis on which earlier judgments were rendered, the present enactments i.e., Act No.7 of 2014 as well as Act No.4 of 2015 were necessitated. Learned Additional Advocate Generals placing reliance on the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of VIRENDER SINGH HOODA V. STATE OF HARYANA[1] and GOA FOUNDATION V. STATE OF GOA[2] contended that it is within the legislative power of the State to remove the legal basis and to render the judgments ineffective.

13. On behalf of the State, it is contended that no Rule or provision is pointed out by the petitioners enabling them to claim or to count past service rendered prior to admission to grant for the purpose of pay, pension and pensionary benefits. When there is no provision or Rule to count the non-grant period, it is submitted that the Courts could not have directed counting of non-grant period for the purpose of pay, pension and pensionary benefits. Further, learned Additional Advocate Generals would contend that the State has no role in the appointment of staff of the private aided educational institutions and it is the sole prerogative of the management of the private aided educational institution to appoint their staff. It is submitted that the State would get control over the staff only after they are admitted to grant. Therefore, it is contended that the service rendered prior to grant cannot be counted for any other purpose and only service rendered subsequent to grant shall be counted for all financial benefits. Learned Additional Advocate Generals referring to section 87 of 1983 Act would submit that the service conditions of the employees of private aided institutions and government servants shall be the same, unless otherwise prescribed. As there is no Rule permitting to count the non-grant period for the purpose of pay, pension and pensionary benefits, it is contended that the petitioners would not be entitled for counting the non-grant period for any financial benefits.

14. Further, learned Additional Advocate Generals would contend that the power to enact a law also includes with it the power to give retrospective effect to the law. For the said contention, reliance is placed on the decisions of the Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of B.K. PAVITHRA V. UNION OF INDIA[3] and STATE BANK'S STAFF UNION (MADRAS CIRCLE) V. NATIONAL TEXTILE CORPN. (SOUTH MAHARASHTRA) LTD.,[4]. It is contended that, once an employee, teaching or non-teaching is admitted to grant-in-aid, irrespective of his past service, his pay would be fixed at the minimum of pay scale as a fresh appointee to the post which is admitted to grant. It is also contended that a person would be entitled to be admitted to grant depending on the financial capability of the State and grant-in-aid to the post would depend on whether such employee fulfils the qualification roster and whether while appointing him, prescribed procedure is followed.

15. It is also contended that the grant-in-aid cannot be claimed as a matter of right and it would depend on the criteria prescribed under grant-in-aid code. Further, it is contended that the employees of Private Aided Institutions cannot be granted benefit or benefits more than what the Government Teachers would be entitled to. It is contended that, from the date of admitting a particular post to grant-in-aid, all benefits available to a government teacher is extended to a teacher who is admitted to grant. Moreover it is contended that petitioners have failed to point out any particular instance of discrimination. As such, it is submitted that the learned Single Judge could not have interfered with both Act No.7 of 2014 as well as Act No.4 of 2015.

16. Learned Additional Advocate Generals would contend that the Hon'ble Apex Court has made it clear that the Courts while dealing with the matter involving financial implications shall be slow in interfering or the Courts shall consider such cases, keeping in mind the financial capability and constraints of the State. Thus, they would seek to allow the writ appeals by setting aside the orders of both the learned Single Judges.

17. Per contra, learned counsels appearing for the petitioners would contend that Act No.7 of 2014 denying reckoning of service rendered prior to grant-in-aid for all financial benefits and Act No.4 of 2015 denying one additional increment for having passed Kannada language examination, was introduced only to over-rule the earlier judgments or orders of learned Single Judge as well as the Co-ordinate bench of this Court. Further, it is contended that by virtue of subsequent legislation, the State could not nullify the earlier judgments or orders of the Court, that too, after giving an undertaking before the Court to comply with judgments or orders in Contempt proceedings. Further, learned counsels would submit that the Legislature has power to legislate to remove any defect or mistake in its earlier legislation or the legal basis in a judgment or order. However, they submit that such legislation cannot be enacted for the sole purpose of nullifying a judgment or order. In the instant case, it is contended that the Acts under challenge nullified earlier judgments or orders of this Court which had become final on dismissal of SLPs filed by the State before the Hon'ble Apex Court.

18. Learned counsels for the petitioners i.e., respondents herein referring to Rule 52 of Triple Benefits Scheme would submit that it permits counting of service rendered even as temporary, officiating or permanent employee in State Aided Institutions for all purposes. Further, they submit that the Institutions in which, the respondents were appointed were admitted to grant prior to their appointment and some of the posts were admitted to grant subsequent to the institution being admitted to grant. Therefore, it cannot be contended by the State that their services rendered prior to admitting their post to grant cannot be counted.

19. Learned counsels for the petitioners further referring to grant-in-aid Code of Primary and Secondary School Department would submit that every educational institution shall apply for permission and recognition to grant-in-aid Code and only the Educational Institution which is permitted and recognized by the State Government shall be entitled to seek grant-in-aid. Further, referring to Rule 16 of grant-in-aid Code, it is submitted that every recognized institution shall subject itself to the departmental inspection at any time and shall abide by instructions issued by the Inspecting officer from time to time. It is submitted referring to Rule 17 of grant-in-aid Code that qualifications of all teachers shall be the same as those prescribed for similar category of Staff in Government Schools. It would also prescribe that the Management shall follow conditions of service prescribed from time to time by Department in that behalf. Learned counsels specifically referring to Rule 17(iii) of grant-in-aid Code would submit that the Management shall obtain approval of the concerned i.e., Inspecting Officer for all appointments and changes in the Staff of the Institution. Further, referring to Rule 22 (General Conditions of Aid), it is submitted that no School will be eligible for grant-in-aid during the start of first 3 years. Therefore, it is their submission that it is not open for the State to contend that they have no control over the appointment and other service conditions of the Staff of the Private Aided Educational Institutions.

20. Learned counsels for the petitioners referring to the Karnataka Educational Institutions (Recruitment and terms and conditions of service of Employees in Private Aided Primary and Secondary Educational Institutions) Rules, 1999 (for short "1999 Rules") would submit that the prescribed Rule applies to the Primary and Secondary Educational Institutions receiving grant-in-aid. It is submitted that Rule 3 of 1999 Rules prescribes qualification and conditions of service of Employees. It is submitted that the procedure for selection of candidates to the post identified for recruitment shall be as specified in Annexure-I, which prescribes method of recruitment, that too, by a Committee constituted by the Management including a Member representing the Competent Authority. It is further contended that unless the Competent Authority approves such appointment, the Management cannot appoint such selected candidate. The petitioners would also point out from the said Rule the conditions put forth by the State Government that the Management shall be liable for payment of salary and other benefits till the date such posts are admitted to grant-in-aid. Therefore, it is submitted that it does not lie in the mouth of the State to contend that they have no control over the appointment and service conditions of the employees of Private Aided Institutions prior to the posts being admitted to grant. Thus, it is prayed to dismiss the writ appeals.

21. Having heard the learned counsel for the parties and on perusal of the entire appeal papers, including number of papers placed on record during the course of hearing and also on going through large number of decisions of the Hon'ble Apex Court relied upon by the learned counsel for the parties, the only point which falls for our consideration is:

> Whether the learned Single Judges in both the orders under appeal are justified in quashing Act No.7 of 2014 and Act No.4 of 2015 as unconstitutional?

22. Answer to the above point would be in the affirmative for the following reasons:

With an object to provide for the planned development of educational institutions, inculcation of healthy educational practice, maintenance and improvement in the standards of educational and better organization, discipline and control over educational institutions in the State and with a view to fostering the harmonious development of the mental, physical faculties of the students and cultivating a scientific and secular outlook through education, the State brought into force the Act, 1983 (Karnataka Act No.1 of 1995) which came into force on its publication in the official gazette on 20th January 1995. Section 87 which stood originally and Section 87 after its amendment by Act No.4 of 2015 is extracted above. Prior to amendment, Section 87 permitted the State Government after prior publication to make rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service (including rights as regards disciplinary matters) of the Employees in recognized private educational institutions. Proviso to Section 87 stated that the minimum qualification for recruitment, age of recruitment and retirement and benefits of retirement for employees in educational institutions receiving maintenance grant from the State Government shall be the same as those applicable for the corresponding category of employees, if any, in State Institutions unless otherwise prescribed. However, under Act No.4 of 2015, the 1st proviso was amended by removing the words "and benefits of retirement". The 2nd proviso was introduced which provided that the conditions of service of employees working in aided educational institutions shall be as such as may be determined by the State Government from time to time. Moreover, a 3rd proviso was introduced which provided also that since 1974 no employee of an aided institution is required to appear and pass any service examination or Kannada language examination as prescribed under Rules 1974 and no such employee shall be eligible for or be granted any additional increment for having passed or deemed to have been passed the said examination from the date of commencement of the said Rules.

23. A Co-ordinate bench of this Court by judgment dated 28.08.2013 in W.A.No.2779/2013 and W.A.Nos.4868 – 5434/2013 (STATE OF KARNATAKA AND OTHERS v/s ALOYSOUS D'SOUZA AND OTHERS) rejected State's appeals wherein it had challenged learned Single Judge's order, directing the State to grant benefit of one increment to those teaching and non-teaching staff of the aided institutions particularly, the respondents herein on passing of Kannada language examination, on par with the Government Schools. Relevant paragraph 9 of judgment of the Division Bench reads as follows:

> "9. On a conjoint reading of the Section and the Rules along with Annexure-II, it becomes clear that the intention of the State Government is to grant parity to the teachers working in all Government schools as well as those working in private schools. However, this is subject to the financial capacity of the State Government. It is in that regard that the proviso has been inserted to Sub-Rule(b) of Rule 3(1), so as to deny certain benefits to employees of aided instructions. In the instant case, if the State had intended to deny the benefit of one incentive to the teachers and non-teaching staff of private institutions on passing of the Kannada language examination, the same could have been inserted in Annexure-II of the Rules. The absence of such an insertion in Annexure-II coupled with Section 87 read with Clause(b) of Sub-Rule (1) of Rule 3 makes clear that there is no intention on the part of the State Government to deny such a benefit to the teachers of the aided institutions. Moreover, conditions of service of staff of private aided institutions could be varied by the State Government under Sub-Rule (2) of Rule 3. Such a variation has not been pointed out insofar as the respondents are concerned. In that view of the matter, the learned Single Judge was right in quashing Annexure-A impugned in the Writ Petition and directing the State to grant the benefit of one increment to those teaching and non-teaching staff of the aided institutions, particularly the respondents herein, on passing of the Kannada language examination, on par with the Government schools. In that view of the matter, the impugned order does not call for any interference in these appeals. The appeals being devoid of merit are dismissed. In view of the dismissal of the appeals, the applications for condonation of delay and for stay would not survive for consideration and they are accordingly dismissed."

24. Prior to amendment to Section 87 of 1983 Act, the State had introduced Act No.7 of 2014 introducing/promulgating Karnataka Private Aided Educations Institutions Employees (Regulation of Pay, Pension and other Benefits) Act, 2014. Section 3 reads as follows:

"3. Sanction of Grant-in-Aid at the minimum in the time scale, Time bond Advancement, career Advancement and finalization of the pensionary benefits by non-reckoning service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years and extinguishment of claims if any,- (1) Notwithstanding anything contained in the Karnataka Education Act, 1983, any order of the Government or rules governing service conditions of employees of any Educational Institution or any other Law Governing Grant in aid to the above employees or any judgment, decree or order of any Court or Tribunal or Authority, Grant-in-aid that may be sanctioned to a post held by an employee of a Private Aided Educational Institution shall be fixed and calculated at the minimum of pay in the time scale allowed to the post from the date of admission to grant-in-aid and the service rendered prior to admission for grant-in-aid shall not be reckoned for purpose of pay, leave, seniority and pension and finalization of the pensionary benefits shall be by non-reckoning service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years and the financial liability of the Government in respect of Automatic Advancement Scheme and Career Advancement Scheme extended, if any, to such employee shall be limited to the quantum of Grant-in-aid sanctioned to the post.

(2) Notwithstanding anything contained in any order of the Government or any judgment of any Court or Tribunal, the claims of employees of Private Aided Educational Institution for release of Grant-in-Aid by counting the increments drawn prior to the date of admission of post to grant-in-aid and finalization of the pensionary benefits by reckoning service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years shall stand extinguished and accordingly,-

> (i) The orders issued by the Government directing to take into account the increments earned by an employee or for payment of additional amount on extension of Time bound Advancement Scheme or Automatic Promotion or Career Advancement Scheme of a Private aided Educational Institution, prior to the date of admission of post to Grant-in-aid, while releasing grant-in-aid and for finalization of the pensionary benefits by reckoning service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years shall stand cancelled:

Provided that any amount paid as per the order now cancelled and towards Time Bound Advancement, or Automatic promotion or Automatic Advancement, Career Advancement Schemes and Pensionary benefits shall not be recovered.

(ii) No suit or other proceedings shall be maintained or continued in any court against the Government by any employee of Private Aided Educational Institutions claiming for release of Grant-in-aid taking into account the increments earned in the post prior to the date of admission of Grant-in-aid or for payment of additional amount on the extension of the Time bound Advancement Scheme or Automatic Promotion Scheme or the Automatic Advancement Scheme and Career Advancement Scheme and for finalization of the pensionary benefits by reckoning service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years to such employee except the quantum of Grant-in-aid sanctioned to the post

(iii) No Court shall enforce any decree or order directing release of Grant-in-aid taking in to account the increments earned in the post, prior to the date of admission of grant-in-aid in favour of any employee of a Private Aided Educational Institutions and for payment of additional amount of the extension of the Time Bound Advancement or Automatic promotion or Automatic Advancement Scheme or Career Advancement Scheme to such employee and finalization of the pensionary benefits by reckoning service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years except the quantum of grant-in-aid sanctioned to the post.

The above translation of ಕರ್ನಾಟಕ ಖಾಸಗಿ ಅನುದಾನಿತ ಶೈಕ್ಷಣಿಕ ಸಂಸ್ಥೆಗಳ ಸಿಬ್ಬಂದಿಗಳ (ವೇತನ, ನಿವೃತ್ತಿ ವೇತನ ಮತ್ತು ಇತರೆ ಸೌಲಭ್ಯಗಳ ನಿಯಂತ್ರಣ) ಅಧಿನಿಯಮ, 2014 (2014ರ ಕರ್ನಾಟಕ ಅಧಿನಿಯಮ ಸಂಖ್ಯೆ 07) be published in the official Gazette under clause (3) of Article 348 of the Constitution of India.

Through Act No. 7 of 2014, the State, by nullifying the judgment, decree or order of any Court or Tribunal or Authority, vide Section 3 of the Act No.7 of 2014 provided that the grant-in-aid that may be sanctioned to a post held by an employee of a Private Aided Educational Institution shall be fixed and calculated at the minimum of the pay in the time scale allowed to the post from the date of admission to grant-in-aid and the service rendered prior to admission for grant-in-aid, for the purposes of pay, leave, seniority and pension was sought to be excluded and further, finalization of pensionary benefits were sought to be made by non-reckoning the service rendered in non-grant period as qualifying years.

25. Upon reading of the Act No.7 of 2014, it reveals that the said Act was necessitated in view of the order/judgment of this Court in W.P.No.10399/2004 (Sri.H.Peter V/S State); W.A.No.291/2007 (State V/S H.Peter); W.P.no.126/2008 and W.P.No.15025/2006 dated 03.11.2009; W.P.No.25447/2010 and W.A.No.4788/2010 dated 16.08.2010; SLP (CC) No.765/2012 dated 02.07.2012, wherein this Court had directed the State authorities to count non-grant period of service for financial benefits on the finding that the Triple Benefit Scheme Rules and Government Orders are in consonance with Section 87 of Act, 1983.

26. In W.P.No.10399/2004 filed by one Peter against the State of Karnataka, the petitioner had sought for a direction to the State to count the non-grant period from 1959 to 1984 for the purpose of computing pensionary benefits and this Court by order dated 01.09.2006 directed the State authorities to reckon non-grant period for financial benefits and to settle the benefits including arrears. The writ appeal filed against the said order was dismissed rejecting the State's plea that Rule 52 of the Karnataka State Aided School Employees Contributory Provident Fund; Insurance Pension Rules 1953 would not permit reckoning non-grant period for computation of pensionary benefits. Thereafter, W.P.No.19431/2005 was filed by one V.T.S. Jeyabal against the State wherein the learned Single Judge of this Court reiterated that the petitioners would be entitled to reckon non-grant period for the purpose of pension by observing that employees of Private Aided Institutions cannot be arbitrarily differentiated with the government employees. The said order was taken up in appeal in W.A.No.848/2008 and the said appeal was rejected by judgment dated 03.11.2009 with an observation that employees of the Aided Institutions shall be on par with the employees of government institutions. The order of the Division Bench was taken up to the Hon'ble Apex Court in SLP (Civil) No.22176-22186/2010 which was dismissed by the Hon'ble Apex Court by order dated 21.08.2013. Similar writ petitions filed by the teachers of the Aided Institutions were allowed interpreting Section 87 of Act, 1983 as well as Rules 1999 with further observations pointing out the intention of the State to grant parity to the employees of the Private Aided Institutions with the government servants or government teachers.

27. W.P.No.13715/2006 was filed with a prayer to grant additional increment for teaching and non-teaching staff of Private Aided Educational Institutions on par with the employees of Government Institutions or teachers for having passed Kannada language examination. In terms of the Karnataka Civil Services (Kannada Language Examination) Rules, 1974, learned Single Judge of this Court held that the employees of Aided Institutions discharge identical duties and perform the same functions as employees of Government schools/institutions and that denial of parity in benefits would amount to irrational discrimination and violation of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India.

28. Act No.4 of 2015 to amend Section 87 of Act, 1983 was enacted to remove the words "and benefits of retirement" and to add proviso to say that no employee of aided institution shall be eligible for or be granted any additional increment for having passed or deemed to have passed Kannada Language Examination from the date of commencement of Rule 1974.

29. On perusal of the statement of objects and reasons of the Act, it is clear that the said amended Act was also enacted in view of the order passed by this Court in W.P.No.13715/2006 C/W W.P.No.17236/2008 and W.P.No.10111/2008 and W.P.No.10681/2008 dated 30.06.2009 and W.A.No.4255/2009 and W.A.No.4556 – 5155/2009 dated 25.03.2011.

30. Learned Additional Advocate Generals appearing on behalf of the State vehemently contended that Act No.7 of 2014 as well as Act No.4 of 2015 were enacted to remove the legal basis of the earlier decisions which are referred to in the statement of objects of the above two enactments. However, the learned Additional Advocate Generals were not in a position to demonstrate how the legal basis of the orders/judgments have been removed by enacting the above two enactments. On reading of both the above enactments, on the face of it, would appear that only to overcome the orders or judgments of this Court confirmed by the Hon'ble Apex Court, Act No.7 of 2014 and Act No.4 of 2015 are enacted. It is not pointed out as to what was the defect in the earlier legislation and what is the defect removed by enacting the above two enactments. In fact, Act No.7 of 2014 is based on a mandamus issued by this Court in several writ petitions to count the past service i.e. service rendered prior to grant-in-aid on the basis of parity and Article 14 of the Constitution of India. Learned Additional Advocate Generals on behalf of the Government placing reliance on the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in VIRENDER SINGH HOODA and GOA

FOUNDATION (supra) have contended that the Legislature can change the basis on which the earlier decisions are given by the Court. However, the principles laid down in the above decisions would have no application to the facts of the present case and in view of the fact that Act No.7 of 2014 is enacted to nullify the orders/judgments passed by this Court in several writ petitions/writ appeals which are noted in the enactment itself.

31. The Hon'ble Apex Court has made it clear in a recent decision in ANURAG KRISHNA SINHA vs. STATE OF BIHAR AND ANOTHER (2026 SCC Online SC 343), wherein, the constitutional validity of SMT.RADHIKA SINHA INSTITUTE AND SACHIDANANDA LIBRARY (Requisition and Management) Act, 2016 was challenged, that manifest arbitrariness is a ground available to the Court to strike down legislation under judicial review of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. Relevant paragraphs 32, 33, 34, 35 and 44 reads as follows:

"32. The doctrine of arbitrariness as a facet of Article 14, capable of being used to test and strike down legislation, received its most authoritative affirmation in Shayara Bano v. Union of India[19]. A Constitution Bench of this Court held that Triple Talaq was manifestly arbitrary, and in doing so, brought to rest any remaining divergence or controversy about whether manifest arbitrariness is a valid ground to invalidate legislation. In paragraph 84, the Court observed:

> "84…Arbitrariness in legislation is very much a facet of unreasonableness in Articles 19(2) to (6), as has been laid down in several judgments of this Court…therefore, there is no reason why arbitrariness cannot be used in aforesaid sense to strike down legislation under Article 14 as well"

In paragraph 101, the Court further held:

> "101…Manifest arbitrariness, therefore, must be something done by the legislature capriciously, irrationally and/or without adequate determining principle. Also, when something is done which is excessive and disproportionate, such legislation would be manifestly arbitrary. We are, therefore, of the view that arbitrariness in the sense of manifest arbitrariness as pointed out by us above would apply to negate legislation as well under Article 14."

Shayara Bano relied on the Constitution Bench judgments in Mithu v. State of Punjab[20] and Sunil Batra v. Delhi Administration[21], which were both cases where statutes were struck down on grounds of arbitrariness and unreasonableness and which drew upon the sustained line of authority traced above. Significantly, Shayara Bano (supra) held that State of Andhra Pradesh v. McDowell & Co.[22], which had taken the position that arbitrariness is not a ground on which plenary legislation may be struck down, to be per incuriam and bad in law, on the ground that it had failed to consider at least two binding precedents; a Constitution Bench decision in Ajay Hasia (supra), a three-Judge decision in K.R. Lakshmanan (supra). Further, it did not acknowledge another Constitution Bench decision in Maneka Gandhi (supra).

Hence, it was affirmed that the principle that arbitrariness is antithetical to equality now operates as a firm substantive constitutional limitation on legislative power.

33. Post Shayara Bano (supra), the doctrine was applied in Joseph Shine v. Union of India[23], by a Constitution Bench of this Court where Section 497 of the Penal Code, 1860 was challenged and struck down as being manifestly arbitrary. The relevant observation reads thus:

> *"103…What is clear, therefore, is that this archaic law has long outlived its purpose and does not square with today's constitutional morality, in that the very object with which it was made has since become manifestly arbitrary, having lost its rationale long ago and having become in today's day and age, utterly irrational. On this basis alone, the law deserves to be struck down, for with the passage of time, Article 14 springs into > action and interdicts such law as being manifestly arbitrary. That legislation can be struck down on the ground of manifest arbitrariness is no longer open to any doubt, as had been held by this Court in Shayara Bano v. Union of India [Shayara Bano v. Union of India, (2017) 9 SCC 1 : (2017) 4 SCC (Civ) 277].”

> (emphasis supplied)

34. Most recently, in Association for Democratic Reforms v. Union of India[24], the validity of the Electoral Bond Scheme and provisions of the Finance Act, 2017 were challenged. A Constitution Bench of this Court held them to be unconstitutional and struck them down, reaffirming that manifest arbitrariness remains a ground available to Courts to invalidate legislation under Article 14.

35. It is therefore well settled that manifest arbitrariness is a ground available to this Court to strike down legislation under the judicial review of Article 14. It is acknowledged that this power must be exercised with care and restraint, so as to maintain the constitutional balance between the legislature and the judiciary. However, where clear and substantive unreasonableness is embedded in a legislative enactment, the Court is not only empowered but obliged to intervene.

Xxxxxxx

> 44*. The arbitrariness of the statutory scheme is further aggravated by the compensation provision contained in Section 7. The provision authorises the State Government to pay compensation, if any, up to a maximum of one rupee, after examining claims, without prescribing any principles, criteria, or procedural safeguards. Such a scheme vests unguided discretion in the legislature and reduces compensation to a nominal and illusory figure."*

32. The Hon'ble Apex Court in MADRAS BAR ASSN. V. UNION OF INDIA, (2022) 12 SCC 455, has summarized the long line of precedents with regard to removal of legal basis of decisions of the Court in order to render them ineffective. The relevant extracts of the decision in MADRAS BAR ASSN. (supra) reads as under:

> "44. The controversy that arises for the consideration of this Court relates to the legislative response to the judgment of this Court in MBA (3) [Madras Bar Assn. v. Union of India, (2021) 7 SCC 369] . The power to strike down primary legislation enacted by the Union of India or the State Legislatures is on limited grounds. The Courts can strike down legislation either on the basis that it falls foul of federal distribution of powers or that it contravenes fundamental rights or other constitutional rights/provisions of the Constitution of India. [Binoy Viswam v. Union of India, (2017) 7 SCC 59] Where there is challenge to the constitutional validity of a law enacted by the legislature, the Court must keep in view that there is always a presumption of constitutionality of an enactment and a clear transgression of constitutional principles must be shown. In State of M.P. v. Rakesh Kohli [State of M.P. v. Rakesh Kohli, (2012) 6 SCC 312 : (2012) 3 SCC (Civ) 481] , this Court held that sans flagrant violation of the constitutional provisions, the law made by Parliament or a State Legislature is not declared bad and legislative enactment can be struck down only on two grounds:

(i) that the appropriate legislature does not have the competence to make the law, and

(ii) that it takes away or abridges any of the fundamental rights enumerated in Part III of the Constitution or any other constitutional provisions.

Subsequently, the Court has also recognised "manifest arbitrariness" as a ground under Article 14 on the basis of which a legislative enactment can be judicially reviewed. [K.S. Puttaswamy (Aadhaar-5 J.) v. Union of India, (2019) 1 SCC 1]

(B) Permissible legislative overruling

45. The judgment in Shri Prithvi Cotton Mills Ltd. v. Broach Borough Municipality [Shri Prithvi Cotton Mills Ltd. v. Broach Borough Municipality, (1969) 2 SCC 283] was relied upon by both sides. The validity of the rules framed by Municipal Corporation under Section 73 of the Bombay Municipal Boroughs Act, 1925 for levying a rate on open lands was the subject-matter of challenge in Patel Gordhandas Hargovindas v. Municipal Commr. [Patel Gordhandas Hargovindas v. Municipal Commr., (1964) 2 SCR 608 : AIR 1963 SC 1742] The relevant rule was declared ultra vires of the Act itself. Later, the State Legislature passed a validation Act seeking to validate the imposition of tax, the validity of which was considered in Shri Prithvi Cotton Mills Ltd. [Shri Prithvi Cotton Mills Ltd. v. Broach Borough Municipality, (1969) 2 SCC 283] This Court held that it is not sufficient to merely declare that the decision of the Court shall not bind as such declaration would amount to the reversal of a decision of the Court which the legislature cannot do. It was further observed that a Court's decision must always bind unless the conditions on which it is based are so fundamentally altered that the decision could not have been given in the altered circumstances.

46. It is open to the legislature within certain limits to amend the provisions of an Act retrospectively and to declare what the law shall be deemed to have been, but it is not open to the legislature to say that a judgment of a court properly constituted and rendered in exercise of its powers in a matter brought before it shall be deemed to be ineffective and the interpretation of the law shall be otherwise than as declared by the Court. [Janapada Sabha Chhindwara v. Central Provinces Syndicate Ltd., (1970) 1 SCC 509] The test of judging the validity of the amending and validating enactment is, whether the legislature enacting the validating statute has competence over the subject-matter; whether by validation, the said legislature has removed the defect which the Court had found in the previous laws; and whether the validating law is consistent with the provisions of Part III of the Constitution. [I.N. Saksena v. State of M.P., (1976) 4 SCC 750 : 1977 SCC (L&S) 36; Indian Aluminium Co. v. State of Kerala, (1996) 7 SCC 637; Bakhtawar Trust v. M.D. Narayan, (2003) 5 SCC 298] In State of T.N. v. State of Kerala [State of T.N. v. State of Kerala, (2014) 12 SCC 696] , this Court held that any law enacted by the legislature may be invalidated if it is an attempt to interfere with judicial process by being in breach of the doctrine of separation of powers.

47. The judgment of this Court in Madan Mohan Pathak v. Union of India [Madan Mohan Pathak v. Union of India, (1978) 2 SCC 50 : 1978 SCC (L&S) 103] requires a close scrutiny as it was adverted to and relied upon by both sides. A writ petition was filed in the High Court of Calcutta for a mandamus directing the Life Insurance Corporation ("LIC") to act in accordance with the terms of settlement dated 24-1-1974 read with administrative instructions dated 29-3-1974. The writ petition was allowed [All India Insurance Employees' Assn. v. Union of India, 1976 SCC OnLine Cal 108] by the learned Single Judge against which a letters patent appeal ("LPA") was preferred by LIC. During the pendency of the LPA, LIC (Modification of Settlement) Act, 1976 came into force. The LPA was withdrawn in view of the subsequent legislation and the decision [All India Insurance Employees' Assn. v. Union of India, 1976 SCC OnLine Cal 108] of the learned Single Judge became final. Validity of the said statute was assailed in a writ petition filed under Article 32 by the employees of LIC. Bhagwati, J., speaking for the majority, was of the opinion that the judgment [All India Insurance Employees' Assn. v. Union of India, 1976 SCC OnLine Cal 108] of the Calcutta High Court was not a mere declaratory judgment holding an impost or tax as invalid so that a validating statute can remove the defect pointed out in the judgment. He observed that the judgment [All India Insurance Employees' Assn. v. Union of India, 1976 SCC OnLine Cal 108] of the Calcutta High Court gave effect to the rights of the petitioners by mandamus, directing LIC to pay annual cash bonus. As long as the judgment [All India Insurance Employees' Assn. v. Union of India, 1976 SCC OnLine Cal 108] of the learned Single Judge is not reversed in appeal, it cannot be disregarded or ignored. LIC was held to be bound by the writ of mandamus issued by the Calcutta High Court. Beg, J., in his concurrent opinion, held that the rights which accrued to the employees on the basis of the mandamus issued by the High Court cannot be taken away either directly or indirectly by subsequent legislation.

50. The permissibility of legislative override in this country should be in accordance with the principles laid down by this Court in the aforementioned as well as other judgments, which have been culled out as under:

50.1. The effect of the judgments of the Court can be nullified by a legislative act removing the basis of the judgment. Such law can be retrospective. Retrospective amendment should be reasonable and not arbitrary and must not be violative of the fundamental rights guaranteed under the Constitution. [Lohia Machines Ltd. v. Union of India, (1985) 2 SCC 197 : 1985 SCC (Tax) 245]

50.2. The test for determining the validity of a validating legislation is that the judgment pointing out the defect would not have been passed, if the altered position as sought to be brought in by the validating statute existed before the Court at the time of rendering its judgment. In other words, the defect pointed out should have been cured such that the basis of the judgment pointing out the defect is removed.

50.3. Nullification of mandamus by an enactment would be impermissible legislative exercise (see : S.R. Bhagwat [S.R. Bhagwat v. State of Mysore, (1995) 6 SCC 16 : 1995 SCC (L&S) 1334]). Even interim directions cannot be reversed by a legislative veto (see : Cauvery Water Disputes Tribunal [Cauvery Water Disputes Tribunal, In re, 1993 Supp (1) SCC 96 (2)] and Medical Council of India v. State of Kerala [Medical Council of India v. State of Kerala, (2019) 13 SCC 185]).

50.4. Transgression of constitutional limitations and intrusion into the judicial power by the legislature is violative of the principle of separation of powers, the rule of law and of Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

60. The learned Attorney General asserted that this Court cannot direct the legislature to make law. He relied upon the judgment in Ashwani Kumar v. Union of India [Ashwani Kumar v. Union of India, (2020) 13 SCC 585] wherein it was held that it is beyond the competence of this Court to direct legislature to make law. There is no quarrel with the said proposition. The learned Attorney General further asserted that the direction given by this Court in MBA (3) [Madras Bar Assn. v. Union of India, (2021) 7 SCC 369] relating to the number of candidates to be recommended for appointment to each post can only be taken to be a suggestion. The Court, as a wing of the State, by itself is a source of law. The law is what the Court says it is. To clarify the position relating to Article 141 vis-à-vis Article 142, it has been held by this Court in Ram Pravesh Singh v. State of Bihar [Ram Pravesh Singh v. State of Bihar, (2006) 8 SCC 381 : 2006 SCC (L&S) 1986] that directions given under Article 142 are not law laid down by the Supreme Court under Article 141. Any order not preceded by any reason or consideration of any principle is an order under Article 142. Article 136 of the Constitution is a corrective jurisdiction that vests a discretion in the Supreme Court to settle the law clear and as forthrightly forwarded in Union of India v. Karnail Singh [Union of India v. Karnail Singh, (1995) 2 SCC 728] , it makes the law operational to make it a binding precedent for the future instead of keeping it vague. In short, it declares the law, as under Article 141 of the Constitution. "Declaration of law" as contemplated in Article 141 of the Constitution is the speech express or necessarily implied by the highest Court of the land. The law declared by the Supreme Court is binding on all courts within the territory of India under Article 141, whereas, Article 142 empowers the Supreme Court to issue directions to do complete justice. Under Article 142, the Court can go to the extent of relaxing the application of law to the parties or exempting altogether the parties from the rigours of the law in view of the peculiar facts and circumstances of the case. [State of Punjab v. Rafiq Masih, (2014) 8 SCC 883 : (2014) 4 SCC (Civ) 657 : (2014) 6 SCC (Cri) 154 : (2014) 3 SCC (L&S) 134; State v. Kalyan Singh, (2017) 7 SCC 444 : (2017) 3 SCC (Cri) 408] Sufficient reasons were given in MBA (3) [Madras Bar Assn. v. Union of India, (2021) 7 SCC 369] to hold that executive influence should be avoided in matters of appointments to tribunals — therefore, the direction that only one person shall be > recommended to each post. The decision of this Court in that regard is law laid down under Article 141 of the Constitution. The only way the legislature could nullify the said decision of this Court is by curing the defect in Rule 4(2). There is no such attempt made except to repeat the provision of Rule 4(2) of the 2020 Rules in the Ordinance amending the Finance Act, 2017. Ergo, Section 184(7) is unsustainable in law as it is an attempt to override the law laid down by this Court. Repeating the contents of Rule 4(2) of the 2020 Rules by placing them in Section 184(7) is an indirect method of intruding into judicial sphere which is proscribed."

33. From a reading of the above, it is clear that an Act or Provision of law could be set at naught on the grounds of incompetence of the legislature to make the law; that it takes away or abridges any of the fundamental rights guaranteed under Constitution or that it suffers from manifest arbitrariness. It is also clear from a reading of the above judgments that, no doubt, the Legislature possesses power to enact laws retrospectively and also to remove the legal basis of a judicial decision, however, it cannot directly overrule, nullify or declare a judgment of a Court to be ineffective by mere Legislative declaration. The Hon'ble Apex Court has also held that retrospective legislation, though permissible, would be still amenable to judicial review under Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India.

34. A careful examination of the earlier judgments passed by this Court would clearly establish that the conclusions reached therein were not founded merely upon the wording of Section 87 of the Act, 1983 alone. The earlier judgments were rendered after an elaborate consideration of the entire statutory framework governing aided educational institutions, the nature of service rendered by employees of aided institutions, the parity to be maintained between employees of aided institutions and government institutions and the constitutional mandate of equality flowing under Article 14 of the Constitution of India.

35. Furthermore, the orders/judgments of this Court were not only based on Section 87 of Act, 1983, but on examination of the relevant rules applicable to the employees of Aided Educational Institutions on the touchstone of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. It is relevant to note here itself that the duties and responsibilities of employees of Aided Institutions as well as Government School Teachers are identical, continuous and uninterrupted. When teaching and non-teaching staff of Aided Education Institutions perform identical duties, both during the non-grant period as well as during grant-in-aid period, the service rendered by them prior to grant cannot be ignored.

36. The judgments were also rendered after interpreting the Karnataka State Aided School Employees Contributory Provident Fund, Insurance and Pension Rules, 1963, the Karnataka Educational (Recruitment and Terms and Conditions of Service of Employees in Private Aided Primary and Secondary Educational Institutions) Rules, 1999 and the Karnataka Educational (Recruitment and Terms and Conditions of Service of Employees in Aided Colleges of Education and Teachers Training Institutions) Rules, 2001. Upon interpretation of the aforesaid Rules, this Court repeatedly held that no distinction was maintained between employees of aided institutions and employees of government institutions insofar as service conditions and consequential benefits are concerned. The earlier judgments therefore proceeded on the settled constitutional principle that once employees of aided institutions perform the same work, discharge the same responsibilities and possess the same qualifications as employees of government institutions, denial of parity in pensionary and service benefits would amount to arbitrariness and discrimination, violative of Articles 14 and 16 of the Constitution of India. The principle of 'equal pay for equal work' and parity in service conditions formed the very foundation of the earlier judgments rendered by this Court.

37. The employees continue to discharge the same teaching and non-teaching functions both during the non-grant period and after admission to grant. The institutions continue to remain recognised institutions governed by the statutory educational framework. The service rendered prior to grant continues to remain actual and uninterrupted service. Thus, the fundamental factual and legal basis upon which the earlier judgments were rendered continues to remain unchanged even after the amendment to Section 87. We may usefully refer to the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in State of H.P. v. H.P. State Recognised & Aided Schools reported in (1995) 4 SCC 507, the relevant extracts of which are produced hereunder:

> "8. The aided schools teach the same syllabus and curriculum, prescribe the books and courses as per Government directions and prepare the students for same examinations for which the students studying in government schools are prepared. The qualifications of the teachers are prescribed by the State Government and the appointments are made with the approval of the State Government. The fees levied and concessions allowed are strictly in accordance with the instructions issued by the Education Department of the State Government from time to time. The Managing Committees of aided schools are approved by the State Government and two members of the Committee are appointed by the Education Department. The service conditions of the teachers including disciplinary proceedings and award of punishment etc. are governed by the Rules framed by the State Government.

9. It is, thus, obvious that the State Government has a deep and pervasive control on the aided schools. The government schools and the aided schools — specially after the Kothari Commission Report — have always been treated on a par. It has been authoritatively laid down by this Court that the teachers working in the aided schools are entitled to the same salaries and allowances as are being paid to the teachers in the government schools*. In Haryana State Adhyapak Sangh v. State of Haryana [(1988) 4 SCC 571 : 1989 SCC (L&S) 21 : 1988 Supp 1 SCR 682] Pathak, C.J. speaking for this Court held (SCC p. 573, para 3) "In our opinion, the teachers of aided schools must be paid the same pay scale and dearness allowance as teachers in the* government schools for the entire period claimed by the petitioners …". This judgment was subsequently interpreted by this Court in Haryana State Adhyapak Sangh v. State of Haryana [1990 Supp SCC 306 : 1991 SCC (L&S) 307 : (1991) 15 ATC 873 : AIR 1990 SC 968] where Agrawal, J. speaking for the Court observed as under: (SCC p. 314, para 10)

> "The judgment of this Court dated 28-7-1988 also accepts the principle of parity in the matter of salaries and dearness allowance of teachers employed in aided schools and those employed in government schools and there is nothing in the judgment which indicates that the said principle of parity is to be applied up to 31-12-1985 only, and not thereafter. In the circumstances we are of the view that the direction of this Court in the judgment dated 28-7-1988 must be construed to mean that the respondents are required to maintain such parity and to revise, from time to time, the pay scales and dearness allowance of the teachers employed in aided schools as and when the pay scales and dearness allowance of teachers employed in government schools are revised. It is, therefore, incumbent upon respondents to revise the pay scales of teachers employed in the aided schools so as to bring the same at par with the pay scales of the teachers employed in government schools with effect from 1-1-1986 and fix the salaries of the teachers employed in aided schools in the revised pay scales with effect from 1-1-1986 and pay the salaries and dearness allowance to these teachers on that basis."

15. The State of Himachal Pradesh is, therefore, under a constitutional obligation to provide free education to children till they complete the age of 14 years. The obligation does not end thereafter, but it is subject to the limits of its economic capacity and development. Before the High Court and also before this Court, the primary contention raised by the learned counsel for the State of Himachal Pradesh is that the economic capacity specially the financial condition of the Government does not permit the disbursement of full grant to the aided schools as envisaged under the scheme of the Rules. We may examine this contention in the facts of the present case. The writ petition was filed by the respondents before the High Court in the year 1992. A Directory of Educational Institutions in Himachal Pradesh was published by the Government of Himachal Pradesh, Department of Education. The districtwise list of schools — Government and others — has been given in the said directory. The list indicates that there were total of 2163 schools in the State of Himachal Pradesh as on 31-3-1992. Out of these 2019 were government schools and 144 were non-government schools. The details regarding Middle, High and Senior Secondary schools as given in the said directory are as under:

We proceed on the assumption that all the 144 non-government schools are the aided schools. This Court has authoritatively held that the State is under an obligation to provide free education to the children up to the age of fourteen. We take judicial notice of the fact that, ordinarily, a child in this country joins school at the age of five years. All the children studying in the Middle Schools would be less than fourteen. Therefore, the State Government is under an obligation to provide free education to the children studying in the 54 non-government Middle Schools. In other words, the 54 Middle Schools are entitled to full grants-in-aid from the State Government. So far as the High and Senior Secondary Schools numbering 90 (82+8) are concerned, the State Government is again under an obligation to provide free education to the children studying in these schools who are fourteen years of age or less. The net result is that even in High and Senior Secondary Schools up to 8th/9th class —

the students being 14 or below — the State Government is bound to provide free education and as such bound to meet the total expenditure of the schools to that extent. The large majority of students, in the 144 non-government schools, being fourteen years of age or below the contention of the learned counsel for the State based on financial constraints, is wholly untenable.

16. The constitutional mandate to the State, as upheld by this Court in Unni Krishnan case [(1993) 1 SCC 645] — to provide free education to the children up to the age of fourteen — cannot be permitted to be circumvented on the ground of lack of economic capacity or financial incapacity.

17. It is high time that the State must accept its responsibility to extend free education to the children up to the age of fourteen. Right to education is equally guaranteed to the children who are above the age of fourteen, but they cannot enforce the same unless the economic capacity and development of the State permits the enforcement of the same. The State must endeavour to review and increase the budget allocation under the head 'Education'. The Union of India must also consider to increase the percentage of allocation of funds for "Education" out of the Gross National Product."

38. What the impugned enactments, i.e., Act No.7 of 2014 and Act No.4 of 2015 seek to do is merely to declare that notwithstanding the earlier judgments, the service rendered during the non-grant period shall not be reckoned and the claims arising therefrom shall stand extinguished as well as non-grant of one increment for having passed the Kannada Language Examination. Such an exercise, in our opinion, does not amount to removal of the legal basis of the earlier judgments.

39. In the present case, no defect as such was ever pointed out in the earlier judgments requiring legislative curing. The earlier judgments did not strike down any statutory provision nor did they identify any lacunae in the legislation which required curing. On the contrary, the earlier judgments interpreted the existing statutory framework and consistently held that employees of private aided institutions are entitled to parity in pensionary and service benefits.

40. The impugned enactments therefore do not cure any defect pointed out by the Court. Nor do they fundamentally alter the legal framework upon which the earlier judgments were rendered. The enactments merely seek to negate the effect of the earlier judgments and deprive the employees of the benefits recognised thereunder. Such an exercise amounts to legislative overruling simpliciter and not a valid exercise of removal of legal basis. Thus, having held that neither the legal basis is removed nor any defect is cured, the decision laid down in NHPC LTD. V. STATE OF H.P. reported in (2023) 17 SCC 1 becomes aptly applicable to the facts of the present case. The relevant portion is extracted hereunder:

> "35. What follows from the aforesaid judicial precedent is, a legislature cannot directly set aside a judicial decision. However, when a competent legislature retrospectively removes the substratum or foundation of a judgment to make the decision ineffective, the same is a valid legislative exercise provided it does not transgress on any other constitutional limitation. Such a legislative device which removes the vice in the previous legislation which has been declared unconstitutional is not considered to be an encroachment on judicial power but an instance of abrogation recognised under the Constitution of India. The decisions referred to above, manifestly show that it is open to the legislature to alter the law retrospectively, provided the alteration is made in such a manner that it would no more be possible for the court to arrive at the same verdict. In other words, the very premise of the earlier judgment should be removed, thereby resulting in a fundamental change of the circumstances upon which it was founded.

36. The power of a legislature to legislate within its field, both prospectively and to a permissible extent, retrospectively, cannot be interfered with by courts provided it is in accordance with the Constitution. It would be permissible for the legislature to remove a defect in an earlier legislation, as pointed out by a constitutional court in exercise of its powers by way of judicial review. This defect can be removed both prospectively and retrospectively by a legislative process and previous actions can also be validated. However, where a legislature merely seeks to validate the acts carried out under a previous legislation which has been struck down or rendered inoperative by a court, by a subsequent legislation without curing the defects in such legislation, the subsequent legislation would also be ultra vires. Such instances would amount to an attempt to "legislatively overrule" a court's judgment by a legislative fiat, and would therefore be illegal and a colourable legislation."

(emphasis supplied)

41. Moreover, the decision of the Hon'ble Apex Court in S.R. BHAGWAT AND ORS. V. STATE OF MYSORE reported in (1995) 6 SCC 16 would also be applicable. The relevant paragraphs of S.R.BHAGWAT (supra) are extracted hereunder:

"12. It is now well settled by a catena of decisions of this Court that a binding judicial pronouncement between the parties cannot be made ineffective with the aid of any legislative power by enacting a provision which in substance overrules such judgment and is not in the realm of a legislative enactment which displaces the basis or foundation of the judgment and uniformly applies to a class of persons concerned with the entire subject sought to be covered by such an enactment having retrospective effect. We may only refer to two of these judgments.

13. A Constitution Bench of this Court in the case of Cauvery Water Disputes Tribunal, Re [1993 Supp (1) SCC 96 (2) : 1991 Supp (2) SCR 497] had to pronounce on the validity of Karnataka Cauvery Basin Irrigation Protection Ordinance, 1991 by which an interim order passed by a statutory tribunal supported by the decision of this Court dated 26-4-1991 which had ruled that the Tribunal had power to consider the question of granting interim relief since it was specifically referred to it, was sought to be displaced. Sawant, J., speaking for the Constitution Bench held that the said provisions were unconstitutional and ultra vires. In paragraph 76 of the Report the following observations were made: (SCC p. 142)

> "The principle which emerges from these authorities is that the legislature can change the basis on which a decision is given by the Court and thus change the law in general, which will affect a class of persons and events at large. It cannot, however, set aside an individual decision inter partes and affect their rights and liabilities alone. Such an act on the part of the legislature amounts to exercising the judicial power of the State and to functioning as an appellate court or tribunal."

In the case of G.C. Kanungo v. State of Orissa [(1995) 5 SCC 96 : JT (1995) 4 SC 589] a Division Bench of this Court speaking through Venkatachala, J., had to consider the validity of Arbitration (Orissa Second Amendment) Act, 1991 which sought to nullify the awards made by the Special Arbitration Tribunals constituted under the 1984 Amendment

Act, in exercise of the power conferred upon them by the Act itself. Striking down the provisions as ultra vires and illegal Venkatachala, J., made the following observations in paragraph 28 of the Report: (SCC p. 114)

> "Thus, the impugned 1991 Amendment Act seeks to nullify the awards made by the Special Arbitration Tribunals constituted under the 1984 Amendment Act, in exercise of the power conferred upon them by that Act itself. When the awards made under the 1984 Amendment Act by the Special Arbitration Tribunals in exercise of the State's judicial power conferred upon them which cannot be regarded as those merged in Rules of Court or judgments and decrees of courts, are sought to be nullified by the 1991 Amendment Act, it admits of no doubt that legislative power of the State Legislature is used by enacting impugned 1991 Amendment Act to nullify or abrogate the awards of the Special Arbitration Tribunals by arrogating to itself, a judicial power. (See Cauvery Water Disputes Tribunal, Re [1993 Supp (1) SCC 96 (2) : 1991 Supp (2) SCR 497] .) From this, it follows that the State Legislature by enacting the 1991 Amendment Act has encroached upon the judicial power entrusted to judicial authority resulting in infringement of a basic feature of the Constitution — the Rule of Law. Thus, when the 1991 Amendment Act nullifies the awards of the Special Arbitration Tribunals, made in exercise of the judicial power conferred upon them under the 1984 Amendment Act, by encroaching upon the judicial power of the State, we have no option but to declare it as unconstitutional having regard to the well-settled and undisputed legal position that a legislature has no legislative power to render ineffective the earlier judicial decisions by making a law which > simply declares the earlier judicial decisions as invalid and not binding, for such powers, if exercised, would not be legislative power exercised by it, but judicial power exercised by it encroaching upon the judicial power of the State vested in a judicial tribunal as the Special Arbitration Tribunal under the 1984 Amendment Act. Moreover, where the arbitral awards sought to be nullified under the 1991 Amendment Act are those made by Special Arbitration Tribunals constituted by the State itself under the 1984 Amendment Act to decide arbitral disputes to which State was a party, it cannot be permitted to undo such arbitral awards which have gone against it, by having recourse to its legislative power for grant of such permission as could result in allowing the State, if nothing else, abuse of its power of legislation."

15. We may note at the very outset that in the present case the High Court had not struck down any legislation which was sought to be re-enacted after removing any defect retrospectively by the impugned provisions. This is a case where on interpretation of existing law, the High Court had given certain benefits to the petitioners. That order of mandamus was sought to be nullified by the enactment of the impugned provisions in a new statute. This in our view would be clearly impermissible legislative exercise.

18. A mere look at sub-section (2) of Section 11 shows that the respondent State of Karnataka, which was a party to the decision of the Division Bench of the High Court against it had tried to get out of the binding effect of the decision by resorting to its legislative power. The judgments, decrees and orders of any court or the competent authority which had become final against the State were sought to be done away with by enacting the impugned provisions of sub-section (2) of Section 11. Such an attempt cannot be said to be a permissible legislative exercise. Section 11(2), therefore, must be held to be an attempt on the part of the State Legislature to legislatively overrule binding decisions of competent courts against the State. It is no doubt true that if any decision was rendered against the State of Karnataka which was pending in appeal and had not become final it could rely upon the relevant provisions of the Act which were given retrospective effect by sub-section (2) of Section 1 of the Act for whatever such reliance was worth. But when such a decision had become final as in the present case when the High Court clearly directed respondent-State to give to the petitioners concerned deemed dates of promotions if they were otherwise found fit and in that eventuality to give all benefits consequential thereon including financial benefits, the State could not invoke its legislative power to displace such a judgment. Once this decision had become final and the State of Karnataka had not thought it fit to challenge it before this Court presumably because in other identical matters this Court had upheld other decisions of the Karnataka High Court taking the same view, it passes one's comprehension how the legislative power can be pressed in service to undo the binding effects of such mandamus. It is also pertinent to note that not only sub-section (2) of Section 11 seeks to bypass and override the binding effect of the judgments but also seeks to empower the State to review such judgments and orders and pass fresh orders in accordance with provisions of the impugned Act. The respondent-State in the present case by enacting sub-section (2) of Section 11 of the impugned Act has clearly sought to nullify or abrogate the binding decision of the High Court and has encroached upon the judicial power entrusted to the various authorities functioning under the relevant statutes and the Constitution. Such an exercise of legislative power cannot be countenanced."

42. In the instant case, by the decisions referred to in the statement of objections of Act No.4 of 2015 as well as Act No.7 of 2014, this Court had directed the State to count the pre-grant period for the purpose of pension and pensionary benefits taking into account the control of the State Government from the stage of recognition including at the stage of appointment and also on the touchstone of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. However, by enacting Act No.7 of 2014 as well as Act No.4 of 2015, in the guise of removing the legal basis, the State has resorted to nullify or abrogate the decisions of this Court. Thus, we are of the considered opinion that Act No.7 of 2014 and Act No.4 of 2015 were rightly struck down by the learned Single Judges on the ground of violation of Article 14 of the Constitution of India as it suffers from manifest arbitrariness and as it has been passed solely to overcome the judgments rendered by this Court which have attained finality.

43. Learned Additional Advocate Generals also contended that the State Government has no control over the employees of private aided educational institutions prior to the post in which such employee would be working is admitted to grant. The said contention is unsustainable and would not stand to reasons. To appreciate the above contention, it would be useful to refer to the grant-in-aid code of aided primary and secondary schools. The main purpose and object of grant-in-aid was to extend and improve secular instructions in the State, a sum of money annually allotted by Government for providing grant-in-aid to primary schools and secondary schools under private managements and local bodies subject to the conditions specified in the code. The grant initially was for:

(a) maintenance of educational institutions;

(b) purchasing, erecting, enlarging and improving school buildings;

(c) improvement of play grounds and permanent features; and

(d) equipment for the school.

44. Chapter 3 of the grant-in-aid code provides for general conditions for starting and recognition of primary schools/secondary schools. It would state that, no institution shall be started without the previous permission of the department. It would also state that recognition shall not be granted to an institution which has been started without previous permission. Clause 13 of grant-in-aid code lays down general conditions of recognition. Clause 16 requires every recognized institution to subject itself to departmental inspection at any time and shall abide by the instructions issued by the inspecting officer from time to time. Clause 17 relates to appointment of staff. It would require appointment of qualified staff by the management. Further, it would also state that the qualifications of all the teachers shall be the same as those prescribed for similar category of staff in Government schools. It would also require the management to follow the conditions of service prescribed from time to time by the department in that behalf. It also requires the scales of pay and allowances adopted by the department to be adopted for the staff of the institution. Further, it also lays down that the management shall obtain approval of the concerned Inspecting Officer for all appointments and changes in the staff of the institutions. The Inspecting Officer may prohibit the employment of any person who is not duly qualified.

45. Chapter 4 deals with general conditions of aid. Clause 22 would state that grant-in-aid is permissible only to those institutions that have been recognized by the department. Further, it would state that no school would be eligible for grant-in-aid during the start of first three years and only on completion of three years an educational institution could apply for grant-in-aid. Clause 26 would further provide that a recognized educational institution ought to adopt the scales of pay and allowances prescribed by the department for the staff of the school and qualification of members of the staff shall be the same as those prescribed for similar category of staffs in Government schools, in order to become eligible for grant-in-aid.

46. As pointed out in the beginning of this judgment, Act, 1983 was brought into force by publication in the official gazette on 20th January, 1995 and as stated earlier, Chapter 14 deals with terms and conditions of service of employees in private educational institutions and particularly, prior to the amendment, Section 87 would permit State Government after previous publication to make rules regulating the recruitment and conditions of service (including rights as regards disciplinary matters) of the employees in recognized private educational institutions.

47. A reading of Section 87 would make it abundantly clear that by way of rules, the State Government could regulate the recruitment and conditions of service of the employees in recognized private educational institutions. It would also makes it clear that minimum qualifications for recruitment, age of recruitment and retirement and benefits of retirement for employees in educational institutions receiving maintenance grant from the State Government shall be the same as those applicable for the corresponding category of employees, if any, in State institutions unless otherwise prescribed.

48. Chapter 15 of Act, 1983 provides for control of private educational institutions. Section 102 provides that governing council of private educational institutions shall be governed by such code of conduct as the State Government may after previous publication prescribe. Section 107 would also state that, notwithstanding anything in any law for the time being in force, no sale, mortgage, lease, pledge, charge or transfer of possession in respect of any property of a private educational institution shall be made or created except with the previous permission in writing of the competent authority on an application made in that behalf. Section 145 empowers the State Government by notification and after previous publication, to make rules to carryout the purposes of the Act. Section 146 provides for repeal and savings, and the same reads as follows:

> "146. Repeal and Savings.- (1) The Karnataka Compulsory Primary Education Act, 1961 (Karnataka Act 9 of 1961) and the Karnataka Private Educational Institutions (Discipline and Control) Act, 1975 (Karnataka Act 10 of 1975) are hereby repealed.

(2) Notwithstanding such repeal, any act or thing done under the said Act shall be deemed to have been done under this Act and may be continued and completed under the corresponding provisions of this Act.

(3) Notwithstanding anything contained in this Act, all rules, orders, notifications, Grant-in-aid Codes, appointments, schemes, bye-laws, regulations, official memoranda-circulars or any other orders made or issued before the commencement of this Act and in force on the date of such commencement providing for or relating to any of the matters for the furtherance of which this Act is enacted shall continue to be in force and effective as if they are made under the corresponding provisions of this Act unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken or any notification, Grant-in-aid code, rule, order, appointment scheme, bye-law, regulation, official memorandum, circular or any other order made or issued under this Act."

A reading of the above would make it clear that, notwithstanding anything contained in Act, 1983 orders, notifications, grant-in-aid codes, appointments made or issued before the commencement of the Act and in force shall continue to be in force and effective as if they are made under the corresponding provisions of the Act, unless and until superseded by anything done or any action taken under this Act.

49. The State Government in exercise of power under Section 145(1) of Act, 1983 published rules called 'The Karnataka Educational Institutions (Recruitment and Terms and Conditions of Service of Employees in Private Aided Primary and Secondary Educational Institutions) Rules, 1999' (for short, Rules, 1999) applicable to employees of primary and secondary educational institutions receiving grant-in-aid. Likewise, Karnataka Educational Institutions (Recruitment and Terms and Conditions of Service of Employees in Aided Colleges of Education and Teachers Training Institutes), Rules, 2001 (for short, 'Rules, 2001') were published in respect of employees of colleges of education and teachers training institutes receiving grant-in-aid; and Karnataka Educational Institutions (Collegiate Education), Rules, 2003 (for short, 'Rules, 2003') for employees of Government, local authority, private aided affiliated colleges under the control of the department of collegiate education in Karnataka was brought into force. For illustrative purposes, Rules, 1999 is discussed hereinafter.

50. Annexure-I of Rules, 1999 prescribes method, eligibility and manner of recruitment of teaching and non-teaching staff of the private aided institutions. Clause 7 of Annexure-I reads as follows:

> "7. Appointments of candidates:- In Annexure – 1 to the Karnataka Educational Institutions (Recruitment and terms and conditions of service of employees in Private Aided Primary and Secondary Educational Institutions) Rules 1999 for sub-clause (1) of clause 7, the following shall be substituted, namely:-
> "a) in respect of candidates whose names are included in the list published under sub-clause (1) of clause 6. proposal shall be sent to the Competent Authority through Block Education Officer in case of Primary School and Deputy Director or Public Instruction in the case of High School. The procedure as specified under the rules has been complied with, shall cause to place the proposal immediately before the Screening Committee through the concerned Chief Executive Officer. The Screening Committee shall consists of the following, namely:-

In respect of High School

1. Chief Executive Officer of the concerned Zilla Panchayat Chairman

2. Deputy Director of Public Instruction of the concerned Dist. Member

3. Senior Education Officer of the office of the Deputy Director of Public Instruction Member-Secretary

In respect of Primary School

1. Chief Executive Officer of the concerned Zilla Panchayat Chairman

2. Senior Education Officer of the office of the Deputy Director of Public Instruction of the concerned Dist. Member

3. Block Education Officer of the concerned Block Member-Secretary

(b) The Chief Executive Officer of the concerned Zilla Panchayat on receipt of the proposal from the Competent Authority shall send it to the Member Secretary of the Screening Committee for preparation of Background Notes and other materials connected with the selection of candidates. Further, the Member Secretary shall prepare the relevant background notes and place the same before the Screening Committee and also on conclusion of deliberations of the Screening Committee shall prepare Proceedings of the Committee and obtain signatures of the Chairman and Member of the Screening Committee and forward the same to the Competent Authority along with all the relevant documents for issue of necessary orders.

(c) The Screening Committee shall verify with reference to the records submitted by the Member Secretary as to whether the selection is in accordance with the roster and the qualifications and other eligibility criteria specified under the rules and whether the other conditions of recruitment are complied with and shall make recommendations in relation thereto. Based on the recommendation of the Screening Committee, the Competent Authority shall convey the approval or rejections as the case may be. In case of rejection, the reasons for such rejections shall also be given in writing. The entire procedure including the placing of the proposal before Screening Committee and conveying approval or rejections and issue of orders thereon by the Competent Authority shall be copies within a period of ninety days from the date of receipt of proposal in the Office of the Competent Authority the salary of such candidates shall be payable from the actual date of joining duty. The management shall be liable for payment of salary and other benefits till the date such posts are admitted into grant-in-aid.

(d) The Screening Committee shall meet as many times as necessary, but not less than once in a month.

(2) The inclusion of the name of a candidate in any list published under clause 6 shall not confirm any right of appoint.

(3) The list of candidates published by the selecting authority under clause 6 shall cease to be operative as from the date of publication of a list prepared in respect of such cadre of post on the next selection.

(4) Candidates whose names are included in the main lists prepared in the manner indicated above may be appointed in the vacancies in order in which names appear in the list.

(2) The inclusion of the name of a candidate in any list published under clause 6 shall not confirm any right of appointment.

(3) The list of candidates published by the selecting authority under clause 6 shall cease to be operative as from the date of publication of a list prepared in respect of such cadre or post on the basis of next selection.

(4) Candidates whose names are included in the main lists prepared in the manner indicated above may be appointed in the vacancies in the order in which names appear in the list."

51. The above Rule mandatorily requires a private aided educational institution to form a committee for recruitment and appointment. The committee shall consist of one member from competent authority and the competent authority shall convey the approval or rejection as the case may be in respect of appointment. In case of rejection, the reasons for such rejection shall also be given in writing. It also makes it explicitly clear that the management shall be liable for payment of salary and other benefits till the date such posts are admitted into grant-in-aid. The above Annexure-I to 1999 Rules requires the private aided management to follow certain procedure including having a Government nominee in the screening committee for appointment and that approval of such appointment is necessary from the competent authority.

52. Moreover, during the course of hearing, the State has neither brought to the notice of the Court nor placed on record any rules or any grant-in-aid Code framed or published subsequently by the State in exercise of powers under Section 145 of the Act, 1983, that would effectuate the intention of the State to create a differentia between the employees of private aided institutions and government employees. In fact, no such Rules have been framed by the State prior to the enactment of Act No. 7 of 2014 and Act No. 4 of 2015. Thus, as per Section 146(3) of the Act, the rules discussed in this judgment hereinabove and the grant-in-aid code would continue to operate and not superseded.

53. Section 30 of Act, 1983 requires every education institutions to be registered. Chapter 6 of Act, 1983 provides for recognition of educational institutions and Section 36 of Act, 1983 particularly provides for recognition and Section 38 of Act, 1983 provides for recognition of existing institutions. Chapter 9 provides for grant-in-aid.

54. A cumulative reading of all the above provisions i.e., provisions of earlier grant-in-aid code, provisions of the Act, 1983, provisions of Rules, 1999, provisions of Rules, 2001 and provisions of Rules, 2003 would indicate the control of the State Government from the stage of registration, recognition, appointment of teaching and non-teaching staff, condition to pay salary of appointed employees till such posts are admitted to grant and Rules relating to discipline and control, which clearly establishes the control of the State Government over the management and staff of the private educational institutions. Therefore, the contention of the learned Additional Advocate Generals that the State has no control in the matter of appointment of teaching and non-teaching staff prior to such posts being admitted to grant is untenable and accordingly stands rejected.

55. Lastly, learned Additional Advocate Generals appearing on behalf of the State contended that the State would be put to great financial difficulties if the impugned Acts are struck down and any benefit that could be extended to employees of private aided educational institutions would depend on the financial capabilities of the State. When the teachers and other employees of private educational institutions discharge the same duties and responsibilities as that of similarly situated Government teachers and employees of Government education department, they would be entitled to the same benefit which are extended to the teachers of Government educational institutions. On the ground of financial constraints or difficulty, persons discharging identical and similar duties cannot be treated unequally. Article 14 of the Constitution of India endeavors that the State shall not deny any person equality before law or equal protection of laws. A legislation which treats similarly situated persons unequally is liable to be struck down as violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India. A law being challenged as violative of Article 14 of the Constitution of India has to pass the test of intelligible differentia as laid down by the Hon'ble Apex Court in various decisions and one of them being STATE OF PUNJAB VS. DAVINDER SINGH (2025) 1 SCC 1. The relevant extract of DAVINDER SINGH (supra) reads as follows:

> "85. The Constitution permits valid classification if two conditions are fulfilled. First, there must be an intelligible differentia which distinguishes persons grouped together from others left out of the group. The phrase "intelligible differentia" means difference capable of being understood. [See, State of W.B. v. Anwar Ali Sarkar, (1952) 1 SCC 1 : AIR 1952 SC 75] The difference is capable of being understood when there is a yardstick to differentiate the class included and others excluded from the group. [Anwar Ali Sarkar case, (1952) 1 SCC 1 : AIR 1952 SC 75 (Das, J., SCC para 66)] In the absence of the yardstick, the differentiation would be without a basis and hence, unreasonable. The basis of classification must be deducible from the provisions of the statute; surrounding circumstances or matters of common knowledge. [Ram Krishna Dalmia v. S.R. Tendolkar, 1958 SCC OnLine SC 6, para 12 : AIR 1958 SC 538 : 1959 SCR 279] In making the classification, the State is free to recognise degrees of harm. [Ram Krishna Dalmia case, 1958 SCC OnLine SC 6; Special Courts Bill, 1978, In re, (1979) 1 SCC 380] Though the classification need not be mathematical in precision, there must be some difference between the persons grouped and the persons left out, and the difference must be real and pertinent. [Moorthy Match Works v. CCE, (1974) 4 SCC 428] The classification is unreasonable if there is "little or no* difference". [Deepak Sibal v. Punjab University, (1989) 2 SCC 145 : 1989 SCC (L&S) 284] Second, the differentia must have a rational relation to the object sought to be achieved by the law, that is, the basis of classification must have a nexus with the object of the classification. [Indra Sawhney v. Union of India, 1992 Supp (3) SCC 217 (Reddy, J., SCC para 643); State of Kerala v. N.M. Thomas, (1976) 2 SCC 310 : 1976 SCC (L&S) 227; Ram Krishna Dalmia v. S.R. Tendolkar, 1958 SCC OnLine SC 6 : AIR 1958 SC 538 : 1959 SCR 279; Budhan Choudhry v. State of Bihar, (1954) 2 SCC 791 : (1955) 1 SCR 1045]"

(emphasis supplied)"

56. Applying the aforesaid test to the facts of the present case, as discussed above, the State has control over the employees of aided institutions even before the post is admitted to grant. Further, the qualifications required and the duties and responsibilities of both employees of aided institutions and Government servants are the same. Thus, the impugned Acts fail the first test i.e., existence of an intelligible differentia which distinguishes persons grouped together from others left out of the group.

57. The Hon'ble Apex Court in the case of CHANDIGARH ADMINISTRATION VS. RAJNI VALI AND OTHERS (2000) 2 SCC 42 has held that, financial constraints or financial burden is not a reason for the State to shirk away from its responsibilities. Relevant extract of RAJNI VALI (supra) reads as under:

> "10. Coming to the contention of the appellants that the Chandigarh Administration will find it difficult to bear the additional financial burden if the claim of Respondents 1 to 12 is accepted, we need only say that such a contention raised in different cases of similar nature has been rejected by this Court. The State Administration cannot shirk its responsibility of ensuring proper education in schools and colleges on the plea of lack of resources. It is for the authorities running the Administration to find out the ways and means of securing funds for the purpose. We do not deem it necessary to consider this question in further detail. The contention raised by the appellants in this regard is rejected. It is, however, clarified that the proportion in which the additional burden will be shared by the Chandigarh Administration and the Management of the School will be in accordance with the grant-in-aid scheme applicable to the School from time to time. The judgment of the High Court that the sharing of the financial burden will be in the ratio of 95% to 5% is modified accordingly."

58. The aforesaid decision lays down that mere financial constraints or burden on the State exchequer cannot be a reason to deny a benefit to a similarly situated employee. A perusal of the Statement of Objects and Reasons appended to Act No. 7 of 2014 and Act No. 5 of 2015 would indicate that the predominant object behind the enactment of the impugned Acts was to avoid the substantial financial liability that would arise upon implementation of the orders/judgments rendered by this Court. However, once it has been held that the employees of private aided educational institutions are similarly situated to government employees, possessing the same qualifications and discharging identical duties, mere financial difficulties cannot amount to a constitutionally permissible basis for denying them parity in service benefits. Consequently, even assuming that the impugned enactments disclose an intelligible differentia, the object sought to be achieved, namely, reduction of financial burden on the State, bears no rational nexus to the discriminatory classification introduced by the impugned enactments. The impugned Acts, therefore, fail to satisfy the second limb of the test i.e., the differentia having rational nexus with the objects sought to be achieved by the law and hence, are liable to be struck down on this ground as well.

59. Moreover, Section 49 of Act, 1983 requires State Government to set apart a sum of money annually for being given as grant-in-aid to local authority institutions and private institutions in the State within the economic capacity of the State. Section 49 (1) of Act, 1983 reads as follows:

> "49. Government to set apart sum for giving grant -in-aid to certain recognised institution.- (1) The State Government shall within the limits of its economic capacity, set apart a sum of money annually for being given as grant-in-aid (hereinafter in this Act referred to as grant) to local authority institutions and private institutions in the State recognised for this purpose in accordance with rules made in this behalf."

60. Prior to amendment, Section 87 of Act, 1983 prescribed the minimum qualifications for recruitment, age of recruitment and retirement and benefits of retirement of employees in private educational institutions similar to that of corresponding employees of State institutions. Section 49 of Act, 1983 requires State Government within its economic capacity to set apart grant-in-aid. Both the above Sections read harmoniously require the State to maintain the same standard of education in private educational institutions that of Government institutions. It is the bounden responsibility of the State to provide similar benefit in all respects that are available to State Government teachers to that of teachers of private educational institutions, that too, when the private educational institutions are discharging the duties and responsibilities of State in the matter of imparting education.

61. It is also necessary to clarify the extent of the relief that would flow from the present judgment. The issue involved in the present batch of matters is confined to whether the service rendered by employees during the non-grant period is liable to be reckoned for the purpose of fixation of pay and other consequential service benefits. Neither the provisions governing grant-in-aid nor the statutory framework casts any liability upon the State to pay salary for the period prior to admission of the post to grant-in-aid. As produced supra, Annexure-I of Rules, 1999 would make it abundantly clear that the management shall be liable for payment of salary and other benefits till the date such posts are admitted into grant-in-aid. The liability to pay salary during the non-grant period continues to rest upon the management of the concerned institution. Consequently, the service rendered during the said period shall be taken into account only for the purpose of notional fixation of pay as on the date of admission of the post to grant-in-aid and for extending consequential benefits such as pension and other service benefits. The employees shall not be entitled to claim arrears of salary or any other monetary benefits from the State for the period preceding the admission of the post to grant-in-aid.
