UPON hearing the counsel the Court made the following
O R D E R

Today, this Special Leave Petition is listed for consideration of the report submitted by the Registry. We have perused the said report.

On 22nd January, 2025, this Special Leave Petition was listed on the cause list at Serial No.11. After the case file was circulated and after we had read the case file, the Registry had deleted the case from the cause list on a specious ground that notice of making alternative arrangement issued to the sole respondent was not received back. The Registry is listing a large number of cases where the notices are either not returned or not served. Therefore, the fact that the notice of making alternative arrangement was not served was no ground to delete a case which is notified on the cause list. Once a case is notified on the cause list, unless there is a specific order to that effect either of the Bench concerned or the Hon'ble Chief Justice of India, the Registry has no authority to delete a case which is already listed. It must be noted here that the cause list is of the Court and not of the Registry. There is a sanctity to the cause list. Even if a case is listed by mistake, the Registry must seek permission of the concerned Hon'ble Judges for deletion of a case. Copies of this order be provided to the Secretaries of the Bar Associations.

With the above directions, we dispose of the report submitted by the Registry by accepting the apology of the staff members. No action is warranted against any staff member.

To enable the learned counsel appearing for the petitioner/State to address the Court, list the Petition on 24th February, 2025.
