About XIM University

History was made in October 1987 with the establishment of XIMB (Xavier Institute of Management Bhubaneswar), XIM University's flagship management institute which, over the past 36 years has been recognized as a premier Business School in the country. Xavier University was established on July 6, 2013 as per the provisions of the Xavier University, Odisha Act, 2013. On 11th May 2021, the Xavier University, Odisha (Amendment) Act 2021 was passed in the Odisha Legislative Assembly, renaming Xavier University as XIM University. XIM University's vision is "To be a leading global Jesuit university, innovative in academia, grooming compassionate and resilient leaders to lead organizations for a just, equitable and sustainable society." With its focus on academic excellence, industry relevance, and holistic development, it is one of the top choices for students looking to pursue higher education in business management, law, and other fields. Its Jesuit heritage emphasizes ethical leadership, social responsibility, and academic rigor. The university offers a challenging curriculum designed to push students to their limits and develop critical thinking skills. Students are encouraged to engage in research projects, fostering innovation and original thought. A wide range of co-curricular activities, including sports, cultural events, and social initiatives, promote holistic development. The university promotes social responsibility through various community engagement initiatives. By combining academic rigor, holistic development, global perspective, and social responsibility, XIM University strives to create well-rounded individuals who are capable of making a positive impact on society.

Literary and Cultural Committee Xavier Law School, Bhubaneswar

About Literary & Cultural Committee

The Literary and Cultural Committee of Xavier Law School is vital in enriching the student experience by celebrating creativity and culture alongside academic rigor. Our committee fosters an environment where law students can engage with the arts, express themselves creatively, and explore the intersection of law, literature, and culture.

As part of this mission, the committee indulges itself in organizing a range of events, like XAVION FIESTA embracing the diverse tapestry of cultures, World Café in Collaboration with “Youth for Seva” fostering global conversations for change, Workshops and Seminars like the Annual Law Conference on Human Rights and Emerging Issues exploring Human Rights in the Modern World, and much more collaborative initiatives offering opportunities to develop skills in creative writing, public speaking, and legal storytelling and engaging with other faculties and cultural organizations to promote cross-disciplinary learning and intellectual exchange.

LCC believes in the power of creativity to enrich legal education and aims to provide a platform where students can express themselves, connect with peers, and grow as well-rounded individuals. Join us as we explore the dynamic relationship between law, literature, and culture.

75 Years of the Indian Constitution: Reflection, Resilience and Road Ahead

About the Conference

“The Constitution is not a mere lawyers' document, it is a vehicle of life, and its spirit is always the spirit of the age.” – Dr. B.R. Ambedkar

Over 75 years, the Indian Constitution has proven to be a resilient, dynamic document that has guided India through challenges and changes. The Indian Constitution's resilience lies not just in its legal robustness but in its dynamic capacity to safeguard democratic principles, protect rights, and adapt to the changing needs of society. As India looks ahead to its next 75 years, the Constitution remains a beacon of hope, embodying the nation's commitment to unity in diversity, democracy, and justice for all its citizens.

The title of the Conference acknowledges the importance and timelines of the conference, and emphasizes a forward-looking approach to the several prospective towards the future of our Indian constitution. It recognizes the need to anticipate and address future challenges the Indian constitution might face.

Objectives of the Conference

When we look forward for a conference which indulges young minds we often end up with a broad and varied prospectives. The Indian Constitution, as related to a Law conference, is to foster discussions on its core values of democracy, justice, and equality. The conference aims to explore how the Constitution has shaped India's legal and political landscape, addressing contemporary challenges in governance, rights, and social justice, and promote a deeper understanding of its provisions. By engaging diverse outlooks, the conference seeks to enhance awareness of the Constitution's role in strengthening unity, secularism, and inclusive growth. The ultimate purpose is to bring together the Researchers/Academicians/ Policy makers/Research Scholars/Foreign Delegates/Indian & Foreign Students, undertaking research within the broad theme of the “INDIAN CONSTITUTION” to provide a supportive and collaborative environment for the exchange of ideas and opinions. The conference is intended to provide chances and a forum for academicians to discourse and improve their research ideas, as well as to foster research partnerships and professional networks. The conference provides a unique platform for exchange of knowledge, innovative thinking, and collaborative endeavors. We invite you to be part of this transformative event, contributing to the advancement of ethical business practices and responsible leadership in our globalized world. Join us in envisioning a future where ethics, integrity, and excellence drive sustainable and responsible business practices.

Highlights from the Past

The Literary and Cultural Committee has hosted a variety of impactful events to celebrate diversity, foster intellectual dialogue, and create memorable experiences. The 1st National Law Conference on Human Rights and Emerging Issues served as a significant forum for exploring contemporary human rights challenges. Featuring keynote speeches, panel discussions, and interactive sessions, it brought together renowned legal scholars, policymakers, and students to engage in critical dialogue on pressing social and legal concerns. The conference encouraged collaborative discussions on policy innovation and reform, promoting a deeper understanding of human rights advocacy in today's evolving landscape.

Another engaging event was the World Café in collaboration with "Youth for Seva", which focused on anti-terrorism and world peace. This unique gathering facilitated thought-provoking conversations through round-table discussions, with participants proposing innovative solutions to global challenges. The event highlighted the power of collective thinking and inspired practical action toward creating a more peaceful world. Xavion Fiesta – Ethnic Day highlighted India's rich cultural heritage, with students and staff donning traditional attire from across the country. This vibrant event featured music, dance performances, and traditional cuisines, promoting unity in diversity and offering a platform to appreciate India's diverse customs and traditions.

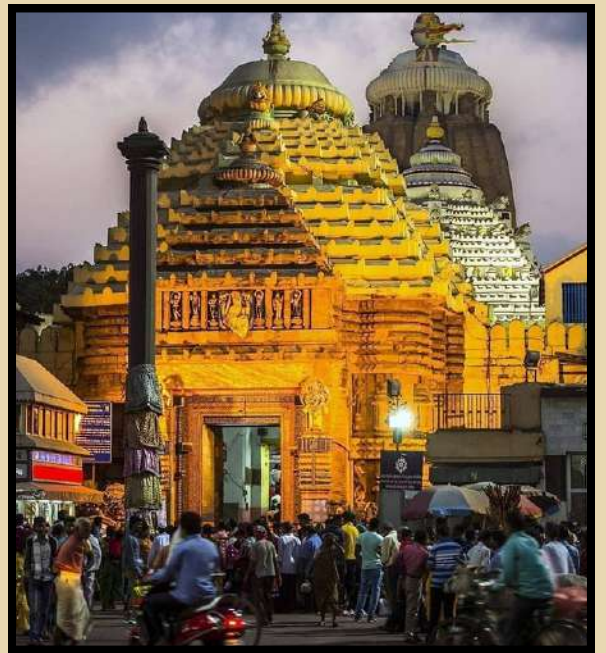

Adding a playful touch, the Harry Potter and IPL Quiz in collaboration with X-Wrangle brought together fans of magical spells and cricket thrills. Participants showcased their knowledge in an exciting quiz, blending wizarding trivia with IPL cricket facts. The event sparked friendly competition, laughter, and camaraderie, creating a delightful experience for everyone involved.

Together, these events reflect the Committee's dedication to fostering cultural enrichment, intellectual dialogue, and engaging experiences, celebrating diversity and unity within our community.
