ABOUT RAJIV GANDHI NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF LAW

The Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law (RGNUL), Punjab, was established by the State Legislature of Punjab by passing the Rajiv Gandhi National University of Law, Punjab Act, 2006 (Punjab Act No. 12 of 2006). The Act incorporated a University of Law of national stature in Punjab, to fulfil the need for a Centre of Excellence in legal education in the modern era of globalization and liberalization. Recently, the University has earned the coveted status of being one of the top-ranking law teaching institutions in the Country. Over 1000 students acquire state of art legal education in a well furnished and fully developed residential campus which boasts of all necessary infrastructural and manpower facilities for the all-around growth of the students. RGNUL is currently emphasizing research, training, and consultancy in various areas of contemporary interest. It is envisaged to be a research intensive university in the times to come. It has as many as 20+ centre's focusing on various areas of social-legal inquiries which includes the Centre for Innovation and Intellectual Property Rights. RGNUL publishes 05 journals covering a vast range of subjects of topical interest.

ABOUT CIIPR

The Centre for Innovation and Intellectual Property Rights (CIIPR) serves as a hub for advanced research, awareness, and capacity-building in the dynamic field of Intellectual Property Law. It is committed to bridging the gap between academia and practice by organizing national and international seminars, conferences, workshops, and moot court competitions focused on emerging trends and challenges in IP law. The Centre collaborates with legal professionals, industry leaders, and academic institutions to promote innovation and address contemporary issues in intellectual property. Through its initiatives, CIIPR equips students with critical analytical skills and practical knowledge, empowering them to navigate and contribute effectively to the evolving landscape of IP law. By integrating academic rigor with professional engagement, RGNUL and CIIPR strives to inspire a generation of legal minds to lead the discourse in Intellectual Property and Innovation.

2ND EDITION

The 2nd RGNUL National Intellectual Property Law Moot Court Competition, set to take place in 2026, is building upon the remarkable success of its inaugural edition. This highly anticipated event is dedicated to providing an enriching experience by simulating contemporary intellectual property litigation.

This moot court competition is meticulously designed with a dual purpose: to bridge the often-noted gap between academic learning and the practicalities of courtroom practice. It aims to test participants not only on their grasp of substantive law but also on their strategic acumen with respect to procedural intricacies. By doing so, the competition ensures that participants are well-prepared for the nuanced and dynamic nature of real-world legal battles in the field of intellectual property. Through this comprehensive approach, the moot seeks to cultivate a generation of legal professionals who are adept at navigating both the theoretical and practical aspects of intellectual property law.
