O R D E R

Application for exemption from filing c/c of the impugned judgment is allowed.

We have heard learned the Solicitor General, and the learned Additional Solicitor General appearing for the CBI.

Issue notice.

We have been informed that the respondents have been released. Hence, there is no question of imprisoning them now. However, taking note of the submissions made by learned Solicitor General on the question of law, we are inclined to hold that the impugned judgment shall not be treated as a precedent in any other pending proceedings. Therefore, to that extent, there shall be a stay on the operation of the impugned judgment.
