ORDER

Per. Justice Atul Sreedharan

After having argued in these cases, learned counsel for the petitioners has submitted that the petitioners will be satisfied with these petitions, the same are disposed of allowing the petitioners to seek re-admission in the Semesters. They were originally debarred due to shortage of attendance. In this regard, the petitioner Anumpa Alice Minj in W.P. No.970 of 2025 was allowed to attend the class in 4th Semester of B.A. LLB Course vide order dated 17.01.2025 and likewise, the petitioner Zoya Khan in W.P. No.2230/2025 was permitted to attend the class for 2nd Semester in B.A. LLB Course vide order dated 23.01.2025. Undisputedly, both the petitioners have completed their respective Semesters.

2. Under the circumstances, the petitioner Anupama Alice Minj in W.P. No.970/2025 is given the liberty to take re-admission in the 3rd Semester and petitioner Joya Khan in W.P. No.2230/2025 is given the liberty to take re-admission in the 1st Semester.

3. The petitioner Joya Khan in W.P. No.2230/2025 has given her 2nd Semester examination kept in a sealed cover may now be declared and likewise, the petitioner Anumpa Alice Minj in W.P. No.970 of 2025, her result of 4th Semester, which is also kept in sealed cover may also be declared.

4. Accordingly, both the petitions are disposed of in terms of order hereinabove.
