Both the parties have exchanged extensive pleadings. Matter requires consideration. This Court needs to go through the submissions and the statement of objections filed by the respondent. Since this Court needs to further examine the issue, more particularly bearing in mind that the core issue as to whether the Enforcement Directorate can exercise its power vested under Section 50 of the Prevention of Money Laundering Act, 2002 to a professional which is already seized before the Hon'ble Apex Court, this Court directs the respondent not to take any coercive steps or precipitative action till this Court passes orders on the interim prayer.
