

IN THE HIGH COURT OF MADHYA PRADESH
AT INDORE

WP No. 41573 of 2024

(AYUSH AGRAWAL Vs CONSORTIUM OF NATIONAL LAW UNIVERSITIES (THROUGH ITS SECRETARY-TREASURER))

Dated : 23-12-2024

Shri Shravan Kumar Lahoti - Advocate for petitioner.

Heard on the question of admission.

Let notice be issued to respondent on payment of process fee within three days' time, returnable within three weeks.

Notice may also be issued through Email of the respondent - Consortium of National Law Universities, as provided in the petition.

Also heard on the question of interim relief.

Taking into account the fact that the petitioner is challenging the answers to the certain questions, although he has not raised any objection before the respondent on account of the higher fee of Rs.1,000/- per objection, also challenging the imposition of such higher fee, it is directed that any selection made by the respondent pursuant to the final answer key, shall be subject to the final disposal of this petition.

Respondent are excepted to file their reply expeditiously, so as to avoid any uncertainty in the final select list.

Let the matter be listed on 08.01.2025.

C.c. as per rules.
