

GNLU Centre for Alternative Dispute Resolution

SCHOLARSHIP FOR ARBITRATION WEEK 2025

SCHOLARSHIP FOR THE EVENT

The team at GCADR Arbitration Week 2025 is elated to announce that we will be offering 2 scholarships to meritorious students who wish to be part of the Course cum Conference. This is a brilliant opportunity for people with a genuine passion for disputes to learn and network on the practical aspects of dispute resolution from leading arbitration practitioners.

About the Scholarship

The scholarship will cover the full registration amount which includes accommodation and meals.

The word limit for the Statement of Purpose (SoP) is a maximum of 700 words.

The SoP should clearly highlight how the scholarship will help to further an applicant's passion for dispute resolution and the overall significance of the scholarship for the applicant.

The candidature for the scholarship will be judged on the following criteria: -

- a) Demonstrated interest in dispute resolution.
- b) Demonstrated achievement in the field of dispute resolution.
- c) Significance of the scholarship for the particular candidate.

Please Note

The usage of AI tools is strictly prohibited and any AI usage will lead to rejection of the application.

The application should not have a plagiarism report returned by Turnitin Plagiarism Check of not more than 5%.

How to apply

Applicants should first register to the course by paying the full registration amount. Thereafter applicants can apply for the scholarship.
