1	05/02/2026	S.SUNIL DUTT YADAV	ADJOURNED
	The petitioner seeks for a short accommodation. It is noticed that the interim order was passed on 30.01.2025 and was ordered to be in operation till the next date i.e. on 07.03.2025. It is submitted that matter was not posted on the said date and interim order was not extended on the said date. The matter was posted on 29.01.2026. It is further to be noticed that on the said date of 29.01.2026, petitioner was not ready to go on with the matter on merits. The Senior Counsel appearing for the respondent had objected for an adjournment. However, in exercise of judicial discretion, as a final opportunity, the interim order was extended till the next date by way of a direction to the trial Court not to proceed further regarding framing of charges till the next date of hearing. This Court, though extended the interim order, had made certain observations. The order of 29.01.2026 reads as follows: "The statement of objections filed on behalf of respondent State to the Amended Petition is taken on record. The trial Court not to proceed further regarding framing of charges till the next date of hearing. It is made clear that the petitioner to be ready to proceed with the matter by the next date of hearing. Both sides to file their synopsis, list of dates, summary of contentions and list of authorities relied upon after advancing copy of the same on the other side. Re-list the matter on 05.02.2026." It is clear that this Court, while adjourning the matter to 05.02.2026 has made a specific observation that petitioner is to be ready to proceed with the matter by the next date of hearing. Learned counsel for the petitioner has once again sought for an adjournment. The memo of adjournment has been filed. The memo for adjournment reads as follows: "Petitioner is represented by Learned Senior Counsel C.V. Nagesh. On 05.02.2026, Learned Senior is going out of station (Dharmasthala) for a trial case, due to the criticalness in the matter. In view of the same, Learned Senior is unable to be present on 05.02.2026. Hence, it is humbly prayed that this Hon'ble Court may kindly fix any date on the next week on which date the Petitioner would proceed with the matter. Due to the urgent commitment that arose, this request for adjournment is being made. Therefore, this Hon'ble Court may be pleased to consider the present request for adjournment and kindly post the matter to any date next week, subject to convenience of this Hon'ble Court, in the interest of justice and equity." At the outset, it is noticed that a memo for adjournment before the High Court which is a Court of record cannot be moved on the ground that counsel has been engaged in a matter to appear before a trial Court. Such a request ought not to be made before the High Court. In light of the petitioner not being ready, the Court is of the impression that the petitioner does not intend to go on with the matter with due diligence. There is no other inference that can be drawn, taking note of the lack of readiness to go on with the matter on the previous date, that is 29.01.2026 as well as on this day. It is not as if the petitioner was not made aware of the date of hearing on 29.01.2026. When a date of hearing is fixed with a specific direction for the petitioner to be ready to proceed with the matter and the petitioner's counsel not being ready and seeks for adjournment once again, Court is not inclined to accede to the request. Accordingly, in light of the unreasonable request for adjournment sought for, the interim order in operation stands vacated. Re-list this matter on 26.02.2026. Last Updated On: 2026-02-05 16:48:09
