

Court No. - 80

Case :- WRIT - A No. - 9520 of 2020

Petitioner :- Pawan

Respondent :- Union Of India And 2 Others

Counsel for Petitioner :- Ajay Singh

Counsel for Respondent :- A.S.G.I., Anupam Kumar

Hon'ble Saral Srivastava, J.

Order on Order Sheet.

The counsel for the petitioner Sri Ajay Singh does not know how to behave in the Court. He directed the Bench Secretary of this Court to provide book of the Constitution of India to the Court. He has not brought book of the Constitution of India to assist the Court, though he has referred Article 300 of the Constitution of India, and on asking as to how he would assist the Court without book, he told that due to pandemic of Covid-19, he did not bring the book. The Court pointed out to the counsel to behave properly. The counsel asked the Court to tell him the manner in which he should behave. He continuously insisted upon the Court to pass the order so that he can go to Supreme Court. This conduct of the counsel is reprehensible as instead of arguing the matter on merit he misbehaved in the Court and challenged the authority of the Court.

Let the matter be referred to the U.P. Bar Council and to the Advocate On Roll Committee of this Court to institute appropriate proceeding against the misconduct of the counsel.

Registrar General is directed to communicate this order within 15 days to the Advocate On Roll Committee of this Court and to the Chairman, Bar Council alongwith details of Sri Ajay Singh, Advocate for the purpose of instituting appropriate proceeding against the counsel. The Chairman, U.P. Bar Council is requested to apprise the Court about the outcome of proceedings initiated against Sri Ajay Singh, Advocate.
