RECORD OF PROCEEDINGS

Petitioner(s)

Respondent (s)

The issues canvased by the learned counsel for the petitioners, we are neither impressed nor willing to show any indulgence to the petitioners or to allow them to invoke remedy under Article 32 of the Constitution of India.

If the petitioners so desire, are free to make representation(s) to the competent authority who may consider the representation(s) on its own merits and in accordance with law at the earliest.

Beyond this, we do not wish to mention contention of the petitioners, while making it clear that we have not expressed any opinion either way on the several points which were canvassed across the Bar or articulated in the memo of writ petition, but the competent authority may take appropriate decision in accordance with law.

The writ petition is disposed of accordingly.

Pending applications, if any, stand disposed of.
