5. The information furnished by the learned Government Advocate (Crl. Side) indicates that the petitioner has been abusing others with filthy language and threatening with dire consequences by posting video clips. Despite the case has been registered against her, she has not meant her way to continue the offence unabatedly.

6. Considering the nature of nuisance created by the petitioner and threat to the Hon'ble Chief Minister by way of devastation, this Court is not inclined to grant anticipatory bail to the petitioner

Accordingly, this Criminal Original Petition is dismissed and this Court directs the respondent police to arrest the petitioner herein and delete all the offending clippings.
