ABOUT MNLU MUMBAI

Maharashtra National Law University Mumbai (MNLU Mumbai) is one of the premier National Law Universities established in the State of Maharashtra to promote world-class legal education and research. Hon'ble Dr. Justice Dhananjaya Y. Chandrachud, The Chief Justice of India, is the Chancellor of the University, and Hon'ble the Chief Justice of Bombay High Court serves as the Pro-Chancellor. The University aims to advance and disseminate knowledge of law and legal processes, develop a sense of responsibility in students to serve society, and impart skills in advocacy, justice, legal services, legislation, and law reforms.

Among its various programs, MNLU Mumbai offers a Five-year integrated B.A., LL.B. (Hons.), multiple LL.M. specializations, M.A. (Executive) in Mediation and Conflict Resolution, Ph.D. programs, and various certificate courses.

A key research centre at MNLU Mumbai is the Centre for Research in Criminal Justice (CRCJ). CRCJ is dedicated to advancing the study and practice of criminal justice. It focuses on issues such as criminal law, criminology, penology, and the rights of the accused and victims. The centre conducts extensive research, organizes seminars and workshops, and collaborates with national and international institutions to address contemporary challenges in criminal justice. Through its activities, the CRCJ aims to contribute significantly to the development of fair and effective criminal justice policies and practices.

ABOUT THE CENTRE

The Centre for Research in Criminal Justice ("CRCJ"), MNLU Mumbai, serves as a premier Centre advancing research and scholarship in criminal law, criminology, and human rights in India. Its key objectives include enhancing the effectiveness of the criminal justice system, conducting in-depth legal research, and disseminating findings to influence policy and practice. CRCJ actively organizes educational programs, seminars, and outreach initiatives to foster engagement and discussion within the legal community. Additionally, it offers specialised postgraduate diplomas (in Crime Investigation, Medical Jurisprudence & Forensic Science) and hosts events to encourage ongoing dialogue and critical examination of pressing legal issues. Through its comprehensive activities, CRCJ significantly contributes to the evolution and improvement of criminal justice policies and practices.

ABOUT THE WORKSHOP

The Centre for Research in Criminal Justice at Maharashtra National Law University is hosting a five-day workshop from June 18 to June 22, 2024, to provide a comprehensive understanding of the three new criminal laws. These laws—Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, Bharatiya Nagarik Suraksha Sanhita, and Bharatiya Sakshya Adhiniyam—will replace the Indian Penal Code, Code of Criminal Procedure, and Indian Evidence Act, respectively. The workshop is designed for law students, professionals, and academicians, focusing on the historical context, rationale, and impact of these reforms. Participants will engage in interactive sessions and expert-led discussions, gaining practical insights into the implementation and enforcement of the new statutes. This workshop is a vital opportunity to prepare for and contribute to the modernization of India's criminal justice system.
